JAN 24 1933

The Washington Post will give two free guest tickets to Loew's Palace Theater with each paid-in-advance want ad for seven or more times . . . This week Edmund Lowe and Victor McLaglen in "Hot Pepper."

The Washington Post.

Today — Fair, colder tonight.
Tomorrow—Fair. Moderate to fresh west and northwest winds, diminishing by night.
Yesterday—High, 63; low, 43; 1932, high, 61; low, 41.
Details on back page.

NO. 20,675. ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER, POSTOFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C. WASHINGTON: MONDAY, JANUARY 23, 1933. COPYRIGHT, 1933, BY THE WASHINGTON POST CO. THREE CENTS.

MAN CONFESSES AS WATCHMAN IS KILLED IN FIGHT

Suspect Arrested Before Body of Victim Is Discovered.

DAY POLICE ORDERED TO GO ON NIGHT DUTY

Pay Roll Evidence Is Due to Go to Grand Jury Today; Robberies Persist.

A surge of crime, running the gamut of lawlessness from the brutal murder of a feeble, elderly watchman for a $40 safe loot to the filching of church poor box collections yesterday and last night evoked a feverish war by police and prosecuting authorities with quick results.

The cold-blooded hatcheting and shooting of William Simms, 65, colored, faithful employe of the Dickey & Sons feed and coal establishment in Benning, D. C., on Kenilworth avenue, was discovered at 10 a. m. yesterday. Emil Yobst, a blacksmith, discovered blood running from beneath the door of the firm's office.

Early last night homicide squad detectives obtained from George McKinley Pittman, 33, colored, of Baltimore, a confession of having engaged in the murder of the man and in the rifling of the feed company's safe.

Asked for Shelter.

Pittman declared he had asked a night's shelter from Simms and was informed that it could not be furnished because of instructions from Simms' employers.

The elderly watchman was then struck over the head with a hatchet. As he was assailed Simms, the confession said, attempted to get to a .38 caliber gun. He was then shot in the groin with his own pistol and his head battered almost beyond recognition.

An alert railroad detective perceived Pittman and another man walking along the Baltimore & Ohio tracks near the Dickey establishment, eight hours before the crime was discovered.

As he approached them, Pittman's companion fled. Pittman attempted to pull Simms' gun, but the railroad sleuth, Emery E. Nicolson, felled him with a quick blow of the fist. Pittman was booked for investigation at the Eleventh Precinct, Nicolson being unaware of the murder of Simms.

Blood Beneath Nails.

Discovery of the crime yesterday morning soon brought Pittman into the picture. He would not reveal whether he was accompanied in the attack on the elderly watchman. Blood was discovered beneath his fingernails.

The watchman was probably in bed when he heard the man breaking in, police believe. He was clad only in his under clothing and his legs were burned, indicating he had been thrown against the red hot stove in the room during the conflict.

The bullet from his own gun was discovered by Deputy Coroner Christopher J. Murphy, who performed an autopsy on the body at the District Morgue. The missle had lodged in the groin.

Gun Is Identified.

Simms gun, found on Pittman, was identified by the slain man's daughter. Eighteen dollars was found on him also and one of the bills was declared by a member of the Dickey firm to have been taken from his safe.

The safe had been opened by some one evidently familiar with safes, and, although Pittman had a

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

POST Ads Pull

PUPPIES—Cocker spaniel; 7 weeks old; black, beauties; $15 and $20. Masters Kennels, 1212 Eye st. nw.; Met. 3287.

. . . and brought new homes for 11 Spaniels . . .

"I had wonderful results from my Post advertisement," said Mr. S. K. Masters. "It sold my eleven Cocker Spaniel puppies."

For Results Use
Washington Post
WANT ADS
Phone National 4205

'I Am Shot'

Cries Chicago Opera Star, Hurt by Wadding in Blank Cartridge.

Chicago, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—"I am shot!" cried William Dalton, and rehearsal of the operetta, "The Song of Flame," came to a sudden stop today.

For Dalton, playing the role of a guard in the production to be presented this week at the Civic Opera Auditorium, wasn't following his lines when Greek Evans dropped him with a well-aimed pistol shot, as the script demanded.

He was ad libbing in earnest. Taken to a hospital, it was found the wadding of the blank cartridge had pierced his costume and inflicted a slight wound in the thigh.

The injury bandaged, Dalton returned to the theater and the show went on.

CHINA MASSES MEN FOR JEHOL DEFENSE

Northern Legions Reported Moving Eastward Into Province.

Shanghai, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Reports from far-flung areas of China indicate that the nation is assembling a vast but loosely-knit war machine in Jehol and north Chihli Provinces, where the Chinese and Japanese are rubbing elbows following the occupation early in the month by the Japanese of Shanhaikwan.

From as far away as Kalgan (Chanchiakow) on the Mongolian frontier, China's northern legions were reported moving eastward into Jehol Province, while additional thousands were taking up positions south of Great Wall along the Tientsin-Shanhaikwan Railway.

All of these forces presumably were moving preparatory to the anticipated Japanese thrust toward Jehol and also possibly into Tientsin and Peiping.

The number of soldiers included in this concentration was unknown, but supposedly reliable estimates varied from 150,000 to more than a quarter of a million.

In addition, Central China forces allegedly were pouring northward into the "war area." Reports were that the Nationalist government was sending forces from Honan, south Chihli and Shantung Provinces, believed to number a quarter of a million, in the sector.

Although utterly lacking verification, it was stated in reputedly informed quarters that the disposition of the Chinese forces in Jehol and North Chihli is: In Eastren Jehol, 36,000 troops of Chang Yu-lin, Jehol governor, and in central and western Jehol, 50,000 from Kalgan.

South of the Great Wall, 10,000 troops face Shanhaikwan from the

Continued on Page 2, Column 1.

Merchant Policeman And Holdup Man Killed

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Frank Bliss, operator of the Phoenix merchants' police patrol, and an unidentified gunman were shot to death here last night in a fight which developed when police were called during an attempted holdup of a grocery.

Henry Maddux, also of the merchants' patrol, was shot in one hand and a second bandit, who escaped, was believed to have been wounded

Hines Announces 3,700 Retirements

Chief of Veterans' Bureau Reports Increase in Annuity Rolls.

(Associated Press.)

Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, administrator of veterans affairs, announced yesterday approximately 3,700 civilian employes had been retired up to December 31, 1932, under economy act provisions requiring retirement for age.

From July 1, 1932, to December 31, the announcement said, 6,364 original applications for annuity were filed under the Civil Service retirement act and 6,415 annuities were added to the retirement rolls, exceeding the number added to the rolls during any similar period since the retirement system was established thirteen years ago.

The monthly payment on account of annuities for the month of June, 1932, Gen. Hines said, was $2,060,839, and for December $2,537,072. A congressional appropriation brought the Civil Service retirement fund balance from $223,588,126 to $243,402,050.

Bomb Believed Meant For Politician Explodes

Chicago, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—A dynamite bomb, police said they believed intended for Joseph Porcaro, Republican ward committeeman, exploded today at a house where he formerly lived. Members of two families were shaken, but not injured.

BORAH ATTACKS HOOVER'S PLAN FOR SALES TAX

Says Currency Question Is Key to Balancing of Budget.

BRANDS PRESIDENT'S PROPOSAL AS CRUEL

Declares Income of People Should Advance Before Levies Are Added.

(Associated Press.)

Once more slashing into the policies of the man he helped put in the White House, Senator Borah yesterday assailed President Hoover's advocacy of the sales tax as "a cruel proposal" and said the budget never could be balanced except on paper "until we settle the currency question."

"It is going to be difficult—and I believe impossible—to balance the budget, certainly to keep it balanced," the Idahoan asserted, "until you balance the budget of the taxpayers.

"Is there any way to bring about the latter until you devise a plan for increasing the price of commodities? Is there any way to do that except through reflation through adjustment of the money problem?"

Holds Money Issue Vital.

"The question of balancing the budget is again being urged," Borah said. "I venture the opinion that the budget will not, and can not, be balanced except on paper, and that briefly, either now or under the incoming administration, until we settle the currency question. It can not be done any more than you can build a house upon a receding sandbar.

"With commodity prices near the bottom and still slowly falling, with the purchasing power of the masses near the minimum and still diminishing, with taxes increasing in amount, but diminishing in returns, with the value of the dollar depreciating and mortgages and taxes responding accordingly, there is no such thing as balancing the budget except on paper and temporarily.

"The proposal has been made to cut Government expenses $500,000,000. That is a wise proposal. It is then proposed to raise $500,000,000 by increase of taxes, the sales tax. That is a cruel proposal in the light of diminishing profits, falling prices and decrease of purchasing power. At a time when underconsumption is a malady which menaces our whole social structure, there can be no justification for aggravating the malady.

Purchasing Power Fall.

"If we can not stabilize prices, to lay on a sales tax which strikes at those least able to pay is to accentuate the fall in prices and discourage and decrease purchasing power. We are traveling in a vicious circle toward economic collapse.

"In 1929 the national income was about $85,200,000,000; in 1932, about

Continued on Page 4, Column 5.

German Vessel Calls For Help Off Algeria

Bone, Algeria, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Wireless calls for help were received here today from the German steamer Lippe, which was in distress 15 miles off Cape Carbon, Algeria.

A steamship of that name, a 7,800-ton vessel, is listed as property of the North German Lloyd Line. Cape Carbon is 22 miles northwest of Oran.

Cabinet Conferences Opened by Roosevelt

Associated Press Photos.

Senator Robert M. La Follette, of Wisconsin (left), and Senator Bronson Cutting, of New Mexico, were the first callers at Warm Springs, Ga., where President-elect Roosevelt is mapping his Cabinet.

LaFollette and Cutting Are First Callers at Warm Springs.

Warm Springs, Ga., Jan. 22 (A.P.). President-elect Roosevelt today began the private conferences in which he expects to select his Cabinet and frame national policies, with two Republican independent senators—Cutting, of New Mexico, and La Follette, of Wisconsin, as his first callers.

The meeting in the almost inaccessible "little White House" atop Pine Mountain was believed to focus on a Cabinet post for one of the two senators and on the unemployment relief, in which each is interested.

Roosevelt heard the report of La Follette and Cutting for a Federal $500,000,000 unemployment relief appropriation tonight and he was de-

Continued on Page 3, Column 7.

MOTHER CONFESSES SLAYING OWN CHILD

Recaptured Woman Linked Also to Death of Her Son in Well.

Kiowa, Colo., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—J. Nelson Truitt, deputy district attorney, said tonight Mrs. Hazel Howe Spicer, 48-year-old farm wife, had confessed that she killed her 18-month-old daughter, Doris, by smothering.

Truitt said that, at the end of a long grilling in the Elbert County Jail here, Mrs. Spicer admitted she smothered the babe and told her husband, Frank Spicer, that the child was strangled by a piece of apple.

Truitt said she also confessed she slashed the throat of another child, 4-year-old George Spicer, with a piece of glass. The boy was not injured seriously.

Truitt said he and G. R. Brown, sheriff of Elbert County, questioned the woman.

Mrs. Spicer was quoted by Truitt as saying she smothered the baby for fear her husband would drive her away from home and she would never be able to see the child again. Truitt said she sobbed hysterically as she declared she had been driven to the act because she could "never be able to go on living with her children taken from her," as she asserted two

Continued on Page 3, Column 8.

Fascists Lose at Brno With One Dead, 8 Hurt

Brno, Czechoslovakia, Jan 22 (A.P.). One man was killed and eight were injured last night in an attack led by Lieut. Wladislav Kobzinek on the military barracks here with the intention of obtaining arms and ammunition.

Kobzinek, who is a Fascist, and 50 of his followers succeeded in entering the military grounds after overpowering and disarming all the guards except one, who sounded an alarm. After a fight lasting 45 minutes which aroused the whole town the Fascists surrendered.

EDWIN GRUHL DIES; UTILITY PRESIDENT

Succumbs in New York at 46; Was Widely Known in Washington.

New York, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Edwin Gruhl, president of the North American Co. and a director in many corporations, died at his home, 975 Park avenue, today.

Death occurred at 9:30 p. m., and was due to heart disease, an announcement said. He was 46 years old.

Mr. Gruhl, besides his position in North American, was a director or officer in more than 30 other companies.

His wife, Mrs. Helen E. Gruhl, and his mother, Mrs. Frederick Gruhl, of Milwaukee, survive him.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. tomorrow in the Campbell funeral home, after which the body will be sent to Milwaukee for burial.

Besides his position with the North American Co., Mr. Gruhl's widespread business connections included:

Director of the American & Continental Corporation; a member of the executive committee and director, American Cities Power & Light

Continued on Page 2, Column 3.

Greed of Robbers Leads to Capture

One Shot by Police Who Arrive While Bandits Research Victims.

New York, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Not satisfied with jewelry valued at $2,000 and $250 in cash, four robbers began a second search of their victims at a Bronx card party early today and before they had finished the police arrived.

One of them was shot in the chest and right arm in the ensuing battle and another was seriously injured when he leaped from the second-floor window. The other two were captured. Arraigned later on robbery charges they described themselves as Daniel Orzack, 32, and Irving Fink, 31, and were held without bail.

In a hospital, police said, were David Moltz, 28, suffering from gunshot wounds, and Herman Rosen, 26, with a fracture of the skull, internal injuries and fractures of both legs.

Porter Gives His Life To Save That of Dog

Watervliet, N. Y., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—David Sandberg, 57, a porter in a restaurant, lost his life beneath the wheels of an automobile today in an attempt to save his dog from the same fate.

Sandberg dashed into the street to save the dog when he saw an automobile approaching. The driver turned his machine, missed the dog but ran over Sandberg. The driver was not held.

Alive After 9-Story Fall, Jumper Is Ready to Quit

Seattle, Jan. 22 (A. P.).—John Bowe, 27-year-old former Chicago law clerk, fell nine stories from an apartment building here today—and now says he'll never jump again.

In his fall, he tore through a heavy plank walk like a projectile from a heavy gun.

1,200 Bolivian Casualties Counted in Fierce Battle

Paraguayan Defenders Behind Well-Constructed Barriers Pour Deadly Fire Against 4,000 of Enemy at Fort in Southern Chaco.

Asuncion, Paraguay, Jan. 22 (U.P.). A battle regarded by military men as the greatest engagement in recent South American history was under way today between attacking Bolivian troops and Paraguayan defenders of Fort Nanawa, in the southern Chaco area, dispatches from the front reaching here said.

Paraguayan military headquarters issued a communique declaring the Bolivian attackers had lost 1,200 killed and wounded during three days of intense fighting.

Fighting behind well-constructed trenches and in machine-gun nests, 10,000 Paraguayan troops played a deadly fire against some 4,000 Bolivians seeking to advance over the swampy area about the Nanawa fortress, Paraguayan dispatches said.

The Bolivian infantry was supported by airplanes squadrons. The Paraguayans sent up airplanes and aerial fights over the lines occurred.

Repeated charges by Bolivians were declared in Paraguayan military dispatches to have been repulsed. Paraguayan headquarters insisted the attackers had made no progress since the attack began two days ago.

Reports indicated fighting on a scale unparalleled since the start of the "unofficial war" last July was in progress along the entire Chaco front, but the main attack seemed concentrated against Fort Nanawa.

The fort is a railhead for the narrow-gauge railroad to Concepcion, 100 miles distant, the second largest city in Paraguay, and general field headquarters for their army.

BRITONS SURE OF HEAVY CUT IN WAR DEBTS

Regard Parley Plans as Indication America Is Ready for Slash.

FOREIGN DIPLOMATS HERE MARKING TIME

England Expected to Send Experts at Once to Begin Studies.

London, Jan. 22 (U.P.).—A decision to send Treasury experts to Washington immediately to start preliminary consideration of the war debts conference between Great Britain and the United States was expected at tomorrow's session of the Cabinet.

This was intimated following the return late tonight of Premier J. Ramsay MacDonald from a week-end in the country. The premier went at once to his offices in No. 10 Downing street, to examine the latest developments in the critical debts situation.

The official invitation from Washington to reopen the war debts negotiations was expected to be made public here tomorrow. The members of the mission to go to Washington probably will be selected at the cabinet meeting.

Desire for Speed.

MacDonald and others high in the government desire to have no more delay than essential.

The British, meanwhile, speculated on America's terms for drastic scaling down of the war debt, which was regarded as certain.

Officials fully expect the new Roosevelt regime to impose certain conditions on the expected revision, such as a demand that Britain stabilize the pound soon and return to the gold standard in a "reasonable period."

Sees U. S. Willing.

British regard the Roosevelt-Hoover accord on reopening the entire war debts problem as definite indication the United States is willing to reduce the present debt far below present payments. Some, more optimistic—from the British point of view—than others think cancellation may result, but few in responsible positions were willing to go so far.

The government awaited early receipt of the formal invitation from the United States, reported already dispatched through the customary diplomatic channels. It was believed due over the week-end, probably for publication here at the foreign office in the morning.

Highly Optimistic Rumors.

Newspapers today were filled with wild and highly optimistic rumors. The Sunday Dispatch printed a report that the government may ask the United States to convert the war debt into a "token payment" of £50,-

Continued on Page 2, Column 7.

Mourners Cast Stones At Bishop's Residence

Belgrade, Jugoslavia, Jan. 22 (U.P.). Demonstrators today stoned the house of the Bishop of Belgrade, whom they held responsible for the suicide of a young Slovene, Vilko Perdan. The youth committed suicide in protest at the bishop's order preventing Catholics from membership in the Jugoslav "Sokol," a patriotic gymnastic society.

Police were called to quell the rioters, who smashed windows in the bishop's residence in a demonstration on the way from young Perdan's funeral.

Presenting---

Cap Stubbs and Tippie, inseparable companions in joys and pains.

They'll appear daily in the comic strip entitled CAP STUBBS, starting in The Washington Post next Monday, January 30.

Follow their adventures.

No Uniforms

Embellish Wedding Rites of Prince Heinrich and Young Commoner.

Stolberg, Germany, Jan. 22 (A.P.). Aristocracy was absent from the wedding of Prince Heinrich of Stolberg and Emma Erfert, the 20-year-old daughter of a commoner, in the ancient chapel of the 700-year-old castle here at noon today.

The wedding was simple and of bourgeois character. Among the 200 guests there was none of the usual military uniforms.

The church bells of the little town pealed as the bride, in a long-veiled wedding dress without frills, and wearing a crown of fresh myrtle, and the bridegroom, in an evening suit, marched to the chapel through the courtyard lined with

Continued on Page 4, Column 6.

DRYS LIST 11 POINTS TO FIGHT BEER BILL

Vehement Objections Voiced at Auditorium Meeting on District Plan.

More than 1,500 persons crowded the auditorium of Masonic Temple yesterday and vehemently voiced objection to enactment of the Black-Tydings bill, designed to legalize the sale of 3.2 per cent beer in the District.

Following a three-hour program of speeches by distinguished devotees to the eighteenth amendment, eleven resolutions protesting against the bill were adopted without opposition. They are:

That sale of beer by the glass in hotels and bonafide eating places as specified in the bill will restore the saloon and make every drug store in the city, every delicatessen and soft drink parlor a potential saloon under terms of the bill.

That the alcoholic content of the proposed beer will make the beverage intoxicating.

That with legalization of places for the sale of liquor, such places will be breeding ground for crime and prostitution and a hang-out of criminals.

That instead of doing away with speakeasies now operating in the District, the number will be greatly increased in addition to the return of the saloon.

That the bill offers no protection to churches, schools and residential sections against the sale of intoxicants in their vicinity.

That with the legalization of the sale of beer, every effort will be made by brewers to advertise their product over the radio and in the newspapers and magazines, thereby urging children to cultivate a taste for beer.

That the wets will not be satisfied with 3 2 beer and that the attempt to introduce beer will be followed later by attempts to bring back the sale of hard liquor.

That if the bill is designed, as certain of its sponsors have said, to be a model bill to guide State Legislatures in their regulation of the liquor traffic, the Capital City should not take the lead in indorsing a movement that will debauch and degrade the social and moral life of the country.

That those who are calling for legalized sale of liquor are doing it either for private gain or do not

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

60 Rioters Hurt; Cosgrave Escapes

Former President Uninjured When De Valera Men Attack Party.

Tralee, Irish Free State, Jan. 22 (U. P.).—Sixty persons were injured and former President William T. Cosgrave had a narrow escape in three hours of rioting which followed a Cosgrave election campaign meeting today.

Civic guards were met with a storm of brickbats as they charged repeatedly with their batons to break up the mob of members of the Fianna Fail party which attacked the Cosgrave party.

Followers of President Eamon de Valera wrecked automobiles of the Cosgrave party, including a motor lorry equipped with loud speakers. Windows in stores were broken. Cosgrave today made a final campaign swing through County Kerry, of which Tralee is the capital. The election is Tuesday.

Plane Pilot Says Shot Was Fired at His Ship

Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Frank Ker, pilot, reported when the southbound Eastern Air Transport passenger plane arrived here today that some one fired a shot at the plane as it was flying on its regular course about 30 miles south of South Boston, Va.

The shot missed the plane. The ship was carrying two passengers.

D. C. BANKER'S WIFE THWARTS EXTORTION TRY

Mrs. O. H. Perry Johnson Target of Scheme to "Expose" Kin.

$200 WAS SOUGHT; 2 BROTHERS SEIZED

Would-Be Victim's Husband Is National Metropolitan Vice President.

The arrest in New York yesterday of two youths climaxed an attempt to extort $200 from Mrs. O. H. Perry Johnson, Capital social registerite and wife of the vice president of the National Metropolitan Bank, under threat of exposing the fact that her brother was forced to seek employment through the Emergency Unemployment Relief Committee.

Her brother, Lucien A. Hemmick, who was reduced to desperate circumstance after he had spent a fortune of $200,000, which he had inherited, had befriended the two youths who allegedly sent the extortive letter to Mrs. Johnson.

The prisoners under arrest are William Mitrovich, 19 years old, and Michael Mitrovich, 17 years old, brothers.

Sent Decoy Letter.

The youths were captured when postoffice inspectors, to whom Mrs. Johnson had delivered the threatening letter, sent a decoy letter through the mails which resulted in the arrests.

Hemmick, who works four days a week for Prof. Leo Waldman, economist of Columbia University—the job having been found for him by the relief committee—was at a loss to explain how the two youths had obtained the address of Mrs. Johnson.

He said they approached him on the street six months ago.

Saw Them Infrequently.

He took them to his room and fed them, and had seen them infrequently since then. He advanced the thought they might have obtained Mrs. Johnson's address on a letter in which she sent him $10 as a Christmas gift.

The letter was received by Mrs. Johnson at her home, 2205 Massachusetts avenue northwest, last Tuesday, and she turned it over to Chief Postal Inspector Thomas M. Milligan. He directed the investigation and sent a letter, as Mrs. Johnson was instructed, in care of "William Dimitry," in care of general delivery at the Park Row Postoffice. They were arrested when one called for the letter.

Served in World War.

Mr. Hemmick, who served as a second lieutenant in the cavalry during the World War, was quoted yesterday as saying: "I have done a lot of drifting around, but I have not done anything to disgrace my family and I can't immagine what the boys thought they were going to 'expose.'"

Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Hemmick are the children of the late Ronald Hemmick, who was formerly United States consul general at Geneva.

William and Michael went to New York from Akron, Ohio, and were quoted in New York last night according to the Associated Press dispatches as saying they have nine brothers and came here when times began to press hard on the Mitrovich family. They said that they encountered Hemmick in Times Square and that he was one of the first persons they asked for a dime to buy coffee.

They will be charged, police in New York said, with violating a new section of the postal law dealing with use of the mails for blackmailing. The minimum penalty under this section is 20 years.

Summary of Inside Pages

Pages.
2—Filibuster Burden on Thomas.
McDuffie Close to Garner.
Volstead Law Made Target.
Bond Action Awaits Roosevelt.
Defense Campaign Planned.
3—Arms Session Opens Today.
Horace P. De Hart Rites.
Elisabeth Marbury Dead.
Dr. H. W. Moffit Expires.
Mermoz Completes Ocean Flight.
4—Swarmi Fedd to Give Dance.
The Federal Diary.
Japan May Quit League Today.
Inaugural Contest Interest High.
5—News of Surrounding States.
Many Hurt in Berlin Riot.
6—Editorials.
7—The Jungle King.
Society.
8—Duchesse Offers Aid Recital.
About the Showshops.
9-10—Sports.
11—The Post Comics.
Radio Programs.
12—Women's Features.
13—Classified Advertisements.
14—Ancient Missions Idea Scored.
Woman War Clerk Found Shot.
Many Hurt in Week-end Crashes.
The Once Over.
Vital Statistics.

FILIBUSTER BURDEN ON THOMAS ALONE

Oklahoman Left by Himself as Long Accepts Glass Bill Compromise.

(United Press.)

The full burden of the Senate filibuster against the Glass bank bill rests today on the shoulders of Senator Thomas (Democrat), Oklahoma.

His most loyal and energetic comrade, Senator Huey Long (Democrat), Louisiana, has accepted a compromise, and, when the Senate convenes today, it is apparent that if the fighting is to continue, Thomas will have to plow his way alone.

Long, who did more than his share of the talking in the filibuster that has been proceeding sporadically for two weeks, professed to be satisfied with the Bratton amendment, adopted by the Senate Saturday. That amendment would permit branch banking by national banks only in States which extend the same privilege to State banks.

The Kingfish believes that change will make more remote the possibility of large metropolitan banks "gobbling" the "little" institutions. That issue, he said, was the reason for his extended fight against the Glass bill.

Despite the fact he apparently is mollified, the King Fish said he still had some amendments to offer to the bank bill and senators were not overly confident that the next three days would not see Long back in the arena fighting against some other provision of the measure.

Thomas intends to use the Glass bill, he said, as a means of calling the country's attention to the necessity for currency inflation, to lift the burden of debts from the poorer classes, particularly farmers.

The Senate is operating under a temporary rule which restricts each senator to one hour's debate on the Glass bill and a half hour on each amendment thereto. Thomas already has used his hour on the bill proper and has talked a half hour on one amendment. There is nothing to prevent him, however, from talking a half hour on every other amendment. There are more than 60 of them to date.

New Andes Rail Line To Mean Many Jobs

Antofagasta, Chile, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Provincial authorities expect that work on the new Antofagasta-Salta (Argentina) railroad will be under way by February 1 and that more than 5,000 unemployed will be given work.

The railroad, long planned, will be a short cut to and from the northwest part of Argentina. It is hoped it will restore Antofagasta's importance in west coast shipping.

Work on the Chilean side of the line was authorized many months ago, but was contingent on a similar concession to the contractors being granted by the Argentine government. The firm has now notified the provincial authorities it expects to have all necessary documents from Buenos Aires in January.

Metal Replaces Hair In New Violin Bow

London, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Bronislaw Huberman, Polish violinist, had a new invention to show Great Britain when he arrived here for concerts.

It is a bow with strands of aluminum instead of horse hair.

"Since the revolution in Russia," he explained, "we have had no hair from horse tails, so I invented this."

He added that the aluminum strands, in some respects, give a better tone.

CHINA MASSES MEN FOR JEHOL DEFENSE

Continued from Page 1.

southeast, while further toward Tientsin along the railway, 25,000 are stationed between Chinwangtao and Changli, 50,000 are on duty between Changli and Lwanchow, while 30,000 are encamped between Tientsin and the Lawn River.

An additional 30,000 are reported to be in the vicinity of Pieping, all supposedly under the orders of Chiang Hsiao-Liang, war lord whom the Japanese admittedly seek to eliminate from north China affairs.

Caustic Comment Used on Diet Talk

Japan's Warning to China Not to Invade Jehol Brings Remarks.

Nanking, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Caustic comment characterized the reaction of the Nationalist government today to the speech before the Japanese Diet Saturday of Foreign Minister Uchida in which he warned China against invading the province of Jehol and declared that Japan seeks peace in this part of the world. Official circles termed the address "a ridiculous barking of a mad dog."

Lo-Wen-Kan, foreign minister of the Nationalist government, commenting on Uchida's speech, said:

"It is further proof that Japan has not yet awakened from her dream of military conquest. There is no need to waste further word on Japan's preposterous arguments, which China and the Lytton commission have conclusively answered. As far as China is concerned, Manchukuo, created and maintained by Japan, must go and Chinese sovereignty must be restored. Until then there can be no conciliation, reconciliation or prospect whatever of a settlement."

Japanese Army Boost Denounced by Nanking

Nanking, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Tokyo advices telling of the annual contingent of Japanese military conscripts now being called up have brought bitter condemnation from the Nationalist government. These advices say that those conscripts allocated to Manchuria would be sent there immediately, instead of receiving recruit training in Japan, and that Japanese soldiers in Manchuria whose time has expired would be retained under the colors temporarily.

Alleging that the action is tantamount to increasing Japanese forces in Manchuria 50 per cent, a foreign office spokesman accused Japan of not wanting a peaceful settlement of the Manchurian problem, but "possibly an increased invasion of China."

McDuffie, of Alabama, Close To Garner and Plain Spoken

Speaker Candidate One of First to Denounce Ku Klux Klan.

(Editor's note: This is the first of a series of sketches of men who are candidates for Speaker of the House in the next Congress. The Speakership of the House is the second most powerful office in the Nation. No effort has been made in this series to assay the chances of election of any of the different, vivid personalities who are the leading candidates. Each sketch simply will attempt, in a kindly fashion, to give the reader some idea of the individual discussed.)

By J. BERNARD McDONNELL.

Representative John McDuffie (Democrat), of Alabama, pleasant, energetic and capable, is one of the three most important candidates for the job of Speaker of the House of Representatives in the next Congress, which is expected to convene in extra session early in the spring.

Born in Monroe County, near River Ridge, Ala., on September 25, 1883, Mr. McDuffie came to the Sixty-sixth Congress in 1918, after a successful apprenticeship in State politics, and has served in the House continuously since.

He is party whip in the House, an often laborious job, which was conferred on him by Speaker John N. Garner, of Texas, when Mr. Garner was floor leader of the Democrats and the Republicans still had control of the House. He has been successful as whip and his work in that job has, of necessity, brought him into contact with all of the Democrats in the House.

If Mr. McDuffie had been a moving picture actor a few years ago he wouldn't have been a leading man during the era when the movie magnates decreed that pretty men should be starred as the heroes of celluloid romances; rather he belongs to the Wallace Beery era, the era of he-looking men who look and act as if they might quite capably do the things in real life they are supposed to do in reel life.

Has Pugnacious Air.

Of medium stature, muscular but not heavy, quick moving and springy, thinning brown hair, blue eyes, large nose and plenty of chin, with an air of pugnacity and a make-up which decries hypocrisy—that is the appearance of Mr. McDuffie.

Classed as a conservative in a not radical House, Mr. McDuffie has been opposed by some who have suggested that his views on such things as water power development, for instance, do not coincide with the declarations of President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt on the subject.

That criticism has been answered in a typical McDuffie manner.

"I supported and intend to support the declarations of the Democratic platform on which Mr. Roosevelt and other members of the party were elected to power," he replied. "Mr. Roosevelt has been elected President and I intend to support his program whether I am elected Speaker or not."

To those who know Mr. McDuffie, such a statement means just what it seems to mean. He has a reputation for straightforwardness and keeping his word—a reputation which has given him a soubriquet of "Honest John" among many. But if his word, once given is accepted as good as the deed, he is chary about giving it. Although one of the closest friends of Speaker Garner, it is not at all unusual for the two to battle in blunt language behind closed conference doors and for Mr. McDuffie to tell his friend he doesn't agree with him.

Close Friend of Garner.

Both Mr. McDuffie's admirers and opponents are using the Garner-McDuffie friendship in their arguments for and against his election as Speaker. His opponents say that Mr. Garner would like to see him elected Speaker, so he could control the House from the other end of the Capitol, when the Speaker becomes Vice President. That is a lot of bosh, the McDuffyites say. Mr. Garner has gone out of his way, at times, to try to convince members of the House that he is not taking a hand in the fight. Mr. McDuffie intimates that if he is elected Speaker, Mr. Garner is counting without his host, if he expects to tell him how he shall run his job as chief of the House. Too, Mr. McDuffie is one of the three leading candidates for Speaker who has declared himself in favor of a Democratic steering committee in the next House. The job of that committee would be to formulate legislative policies and program.

After he had attended Southern University, at Greensboro, Ala., and was graduated from Auburn, Ala., in 1904, Mr. McDuffie engaged in the management of his family's plantation. The job fell on his shoulders because he was the oldest of the boys and some one had to take over the job after death of his father. The plantation comprises some 2,600 acres, planted in corn and cotton, and young McDuffie didn't do a bad job. He didn't make a fortune, but he did make some money on 7-cent cotton.

Graduate of Alabama.

In the meanwhile he was active in local affairs and in 1907 was elected to the State Legislature. A year after that he was graduated from the University of Alabama Law School. He stayed in the Legislature until 1911.

While a member of the Legislature he fought through a bill which permitted women to practice law in Alabama. From 1911 to 1919 he was solicitor for the First Judicial District of the State and then he came to Congress.

Indicative of the man is the fact that he was the first to go into former Senator Tom Heflin's home town and make a public speech ridiculing him and denouncing the tactics and teachings of the Ku Klux Klan. He went down the line for Al Smith, Democratic presidential candidate in 1928, stumping the State denouncing intolerance as having no place in American politics.

Alabama was just about the last place the Ku Klux Klan took hold in the South, but when it did take hold there it took a deep hold and its members took criticism of their organization as an insult to be answered with rough action, if not with pistols. Admittedly it took nerve to invade the home town of Tom Heflin, the high saint of ku kluxism, and beard the saint and his followers to their faces.

Inland Waterways Backer.

Keenly interested in taxation and other questions within the ways and means committee, Mr. McDuffie probably would have been named to that committee had it not been for tradition which demands that the Alabaman representing the Mobile district should take and keep a place on the Rivers and Harbors Committee.

JOHN McDUFFIE.

on which he now ranks next to the chairman.

It was as member of that committee that he sponsored legislation providing for a Nation-wide survey of the inland waters of the country, looking to a study of flood control, actual and prospective power control and the development of the navigability of streams. This study, authorized in 1927 and approved by President Coolidge, has just about been completed. The survey will provide the first complete picture of the subject on a national scale.

Before he came to Congress the Alabaman opposed enactment of the eighteenth amendment, but after he got here he voted to enact enforcement legislation. Although he was one of the 192 members of the House who was caught by surprise by the sudden move to override President Wilson's veto of the prohibition law, in October 1919, he had thrown an anchor to the windward and was paired to override the veto.

He Speaks His Mind.

In these days of the rising wet tide it would seem politic for a member of Congress to speak a little softly about his support of dry legislation in the past. But not Mr. McDuffie. He thinks that the fact that he was paired to override the Wilson veto makes perfectly plain his attitude on the subject.

But he was one of those who voted for the Garner straight out repeal resolution on the first day of the present session. Which wasn't inconsistent, in view of the party's platform on which it appealed for election to control the Government, and his own earlier opposition to putting prohibition into the Constitution in the first place. Once it was in, however, he supported enforcement legislation, which, he believes was a reasonable course.

Not every job Mr. McDuffie has had to do has been pleasant or especially helpful to him politically, and one of these has been his work as chairman of the House Economy Committee last session and his job as chairman of the joint House and Senate committee charged with examining into benefits paid war veterans to see what reductions can be made. Incidentally, the fact that he is chairman of the joint committee is something of an honor. The Senate is jealous of its place and almost always a senator is named chairman of a joint committee. What the committee will report remains to be seen. It hasn't finished its job.

Genial, gracious and friendly, Mr. McDuffie has many friends and a considerable number who might be described as intense friends. Underneath his rather bluff exterior he is sensitive to a degree. His friends are urging his advancement to Speaker on the grounds of his long experience, his admitted ability and the forcefulness with which he would conduct the office. If he is elected Speaker, the House will know it has a Speaker, whether the House likes what the Speaker does at all times or not.

$2,000,000,000 Loans Given R. F. C. Approval

(Associated Press.)

Two billion dollars of loans were authorized by the Reconstruction Corporation during the first 11 months of its existence. The December report issued yesterday showed that actual loans totaled $1,648,622,293 and authorizations $2,095,823,593.

EDWIN GRUHL DIES; UTILITY PRESIDENT

Continued from Page 1.

Corporation; vice president and director, Associated Music Publishers, Inc.; vice president and director, Breitkopf Publications, Inc.; executive committee and director, Central States Electric Corporation; executive committee and director, Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co.

Also director, Detroit Edison Co.; vice president and director, Edison Securities Corporation; executive committee and director, Electric Investment Corperation; executive committee and director, Electric Shareholdings Corporation; executive committee and director, Federal Utilities, Inc.; vice president, executive committee and director, Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Co.; vice president and director, Mississipi River Power Co.; executive committee and director, the Newport Co.; president, executive committee and director, North American Edison Co.; director, North American Light & Power Co.; vice president and director, North American Utilities Securities Corporation.

Also director, Pacific Gas & Electric Co.; director, Potomac Electric Power Co.; director, St. Bernard Coal Co.; director, St. Louis Gas Co.; director Union Electric Light & Power Co.; vice president and director, Union Electric Light & Power Co. of Illinois; director, Washington Railway & Electric Co.; director, West Kentucky Coal Co. (Delaware); vice president and director, West Kentucky Coal Co. (New Jersey); director, West Kentucky Property Co.; vice president and director, Western Power Corporation; vice president, administrative committee and director, Wired Radio, Inc.; vice president and director, Wisconsin Electric Power Co.; director, Wisconsin General Railway, and director 60 Broadway Corporation.

The North American Co. owns and operates the Washington Railway & Electric Co. and the Potomac Electric Power Co. Mr. Gruhl was widely known here for his activities as an executive of the local concerns.

William P. Ham, president of the Potomac Electric Power Co., upon receiving news of the death, declared last night:

"I am inexpressibly shocked at Mr. Gruhl's death. It is a terrible thing."

DEFENSE CAMPAIGN OPENS HERE JAN. 30

Women's Patriotic Conference, Including 39 Societies, to Arouse Opinion.

(Associated Press.)

A drive to arouse public opinion to national defense needs will be started here next Monday when Representatives of 39 societies open the women's patriotic conference on national defense.

The three-day sessions are to be addressed by War and Navy Department officials, house members and spokesmen for civilian components of the Army and Navy. Among the speakers on the program are Secretary of War Hurley, Louis A. Johnson, national commander of the American Legion; Senator Walsh, of Massachusetts, member of the Senate Naval Affairs Committee; Brig. Gen. Oscar Westover, assistant chief of the Army Air Corps; Brig. Gen. Milton A. Reckord, Maryland National Guard commander; Maj. Gen. George E. Leach, chief of the War Department Militia Bureau; Maj. Gen. Ben H. Fuller, Marine Corps commandant; Maj. Gen. Henry J. Reilly, and Commander John F. Shafroth, jr., of the Navy, and Princess Cantacuzene, grand-daughter of Gen. Grant.

Owsley to Speak.

Alvin M. Owsley, of Dallas, Tex., past commander of the American Legion, will speak at a banquet on January 31.

Mrs. S. Alford Blackburn, national president of the American Legion Auxiliary, will preside over the conference.

Officials said the conference would submit its findings to Congress "and the proper Government authorities."

A year of disarmament effort at Geneva was said by the Foreign Policy Association yesterday to have resulted in points of conflict between the great world powers outweighing those of agreement.

Stone Files Report.

A report prepared by William T. Stone, Washington representative of the association, summarized the points of agreement and disagreement as follows:

Agreement—Qualitative disarmament, prohibition of air attacks against civilian populations, prohibition of chemical warfare, provisional agreement on control of arms manufacture, budgetary limitation and supervision and the principle of equality of rights approved in the five-power declaration, as part of "a system which would provide security for all States."

Disagreements—Germany opposing and the United States and Great Britain ignoring French system of security, France and her dependents opposing the Hoover plan for direct military reductions independent of security, France opposing British proposals for direct reductions, failure to apply as a definite agreement German demands for full equality of rights.

Wales' Airship Fleet Grows to Four Planes

London, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—A twin-seat cabin airplane, with an open cockpit for the pilot, has been delivered to the Prince of Wales.

It replaces a faster, but less commodious plane, which he sold after having used it for two years.

The new ship, together with an airliner which has been ordered, will give the prince four planes and make his one of the biggest private aircraft in the country.

British Tax Burden Is $77.08 Per Capita

London, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Great Britain's national taxation, imposed before the debt payment, was estimated by Neville Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, at £16 8d per head, equivalent to $77.08 at par.

The chancellor added that Federal taxation in the United States might be put at $24.82 per head, but pointed out that this did not include State and municipal levies.

DRYS LIST 11 POINTS TO FIGHT BEER BILL

Continued from Page 1.

realize the ills that it will bring the general public.

That it would not be right to subject children to the spectacle of drunken persons so common before the passage of the eighteenth amendment.

That an attempt to put through such a bill is wholly premature when the eighteenth amendment is still a part of the Constitution.

Representatives to Protest.

At the close of the meeting it was announced that representatives of various religious and social welfare organizations of the District will protest against the Black beer bill at a scheduled hearing of the bill before the judiciary subcommittee of the District of Columbia Committee tomorrow at 10 a. m.

Highly pleased by the large turnout and the enthusiasm of the speakers, Everett M. Ellison, M. D., chairman of the executive committee, announced that members of the executive committee will meet Wednesday at the Calvary Baptist Church to form a permanent organization, to be known as the Committee of One Hundred Protesting Against Possible Return of the Saloon to Washington.

Speeches were given by Robert H. McNeill, attorney; Maurice Otterback, president of Anacostia Bank; Dr. George Otis Smith, chairman of the Federal Power Commission; Representative Arthur H. Greenwood, of Indiana; Dr. Carl C. Rasmussen, pastor of Luther Place Memorial Church; Mrs. Jesse W. Nicholson, president of the National Women's Democratic Law Enforcement League, and Representative C. Ellis Moore, of Ohio.

Walter Johnson Absent.

Walter Johnson, former manager of the Washington Baseball Club, listed as one of the speakers, notified the chairman that he was unable to attend because of a business engagement.

Other persons who were kept from appearing on the program because of business were Dr. Darrell Crain, Mrs. H. Wellen Fisher, of the Washington Federation of Churches.

F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Antisaloon League, and Bishop James Cannon, jr., occupied seats in the audience.

The large number of persons attending the meeting necessitated an "overflow" meeting, held at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Beans a la Marine On Anniversary Menu

When good fellows get together, as they will tonight, they'll eat beans.

Three years ago the first raw recruit of the Sixth Marine Reserve Brigade swore that he would eat beans until he could qualify for a "leather neck" of the first water, and tonight the 1,500 men who are now members of the brigade will gather to celebrate their third anniversary. The biggest and best course will be beans.

Led by their commander, Maj. Gen. Ben H. Fuller, the brigade will toward the end of the evening, hear the bands, led by Lieut. Leon Brusiloff, in a concert.

WETS TURN ATTACK ON VOLSTEAD LAW

Antiprohibitionists Change Tactics as Hopes for Repeal Fade.

(Associated Press.)

Their hopes fading of placing a repeal proposal before the States while enough Legislatures are in session to ratify, antiprohibitionists in the Senate will renew their push today for modification of the Volstead act.

More than 40 State Assemblies convened early this year—many for biennial sessions—and repealists sought to put the question up to them early, with the idea that the 36 necessary ratifications might be forthcoming in short order. However, with most of the sessions limited to 40, 60 and 75 days, advocates of eliminating the eighteenth amendment are doubtful that action can be obtained in Congress in time for votes this year by enough States, in many of which prolonged fights would be precipitated.

Despite this situation, though, sponsors of antiprohibition measures are hopeful of votes in Congress at this session on both repeal and legalization of beer and wines. The crumbling of the legislative jam in the Senate during the last few days has rejuvenated their efforts.

Today the Collier-Blaine bill to legalize 3.05 per cent beer and wine will be taken up again by the Judiciary Committee and probably approved.

The committee began its consideration of the bill last week, but postponed final action to await printing of a report by an official British commission, holding 3.05 per cent beer nonintoxicating.

Chairman Norris and other committee members predict that the bill will be sent to the Senate today. Only 4 members out of 17 are known to be opposed to it.

Senator Blaine (Republican), Wisconsin, chairman of the subcommittee which framed the prohibition repeal resolution now pending before the Senate, also may make a move today to bring it up for debate.

Twice last week Senator Blaine was blocked in similar attempts, but he said yesterday he intends to keep hammering away until he gets the bill up.

MAN CONFESSES AS WATCHMAN MEETS DEATH DURING FIGHT

Continued from Page 1.

number of burglary tools in his possession, he was believed by police to have had aid.

Day Shift on Duty.

Quick solution of the Benning brutality did not abate police offensives against the surge of robbery and other crime sweeping the city.

Maj. Ernest W. Brown, superintendent of police, ordered the entire day police shift on duty last night, and it was estimated that 500 uniformed men were on the streets throughout the dark hours.

The police head and practically all of his inspectors spent most of the day at police headquarters directing the drive against crime which was intensified by the pay roll murder and robbery near the House Office building Friday.

Inspector Frank S. W. Burke and Capt. Bernard W. Thompson of the Detective Bureau worked throughout the day and until late last night directing the efforts of their unit.

Investigation of the pay roll murder was believed concluded yesterday by Captain Thompson. All of the four white men and two negroes held in this case still were being detained at precinct stations.

Palais Royal Inquiry.

Police were still conducting a probe into the robbery at the Palais Royal warehouse Friday night, when Joseph F. Ashford, 67-year-old watchman, was bound and gagged. The bandits, whom the watchman did not see before or after they made him captive, got $360.

Detectives announced progress in looking for the men who shot Arthur A. Berman, Georgia avenue delicatessen man, when he defied their attempt to hold him up early Thursday, no arrests had been made late last night.

Berman was reported to be improving at Garfield Hospital, where he is lying with a bullet wound through his right lung.

To Witness Brothers.

If attending physicians' permission can be obtained, detectives today will take Oscar and Albert Cash, the two brothers credited with planning the pay roll murder of Walter Ecklund, to his bedside today. While investigation and questioning has not connected the youths with the assult on Berman, detectives said their general description answers that given by Berman of the men who tried to hold him up.

Harry Stumm, Ecklund's assistant, who was wounded seriously during the attempted pay roll robbery, was recovering at Providence Hospital last night.

Evidence to be Given.

District Attorney Leo A. Rover announced yesterday that evidence in the pay roll murder would probably be presented to the grand jury today. He said if this body returned an indictment for the men by Wednesday, the group would be arraigned in District Supreme Court Friday. This would indicate a trial by Tuesday or Wednesday of next week, the District attorney said.

Sneak and jimmy thieves reaped a sizeable harvest over the week-end despite the intense police vigilance.

The People Drug Store branch at 806 H street northeast was broken into by jimmy thieves and narcotics and whisky, cigarettes and other merchandise stolen to the amount of $800.

Poor boxes at St. Patrick's Church were rifled of $6.40. Police later arrested John G. Lewis, 22, of Berwyn, Md., who was charged with the theft of the poor box money, which was recovered.

Robbed by Two Men.

Mason Guilbault, 47, hacker, said that at Eighteenth street and Oregon avenue northwest he was robbed of $1.25 by two Negro men whom he had picked up at Sixteenth and U streets northwest.

Twenty-five dollars' worth of cigarettes were stolen by thieves who jimmied the store of Joseph Rodana, at 831 Kennedy street northwest, while $15 in cash and several cartons of cigarettes were obtained in the same manner at the store of William H. Goldman, 827 Kennedy street northwest.

Attempts to Rob Driver.

Wilbur F. Holder, a taxi driver, of 1919 Thirty-fifth place northwest, reported to police that a white man driving another car attempted to hold him up at Nineteenth and E streets northwest yesterday morning. The man fled when pedestrians approached.

A quantity of cigarettes valued at $30 was reported stolen from a poolroom at 617 Seventh street southwest yesterday. Entry was gained though a rear window.

Jewelry valued at about $20 was stolen from the home of Mrs. Ernestina Coggins at 2602 Mozart place northwest last night. Entry had been gained through a rear window on the first floor.

Two fox furs, valued at $135, were stolen from the apartment of Marie Thomas, at 226 Fifth street southwest, it was reported to police yesterday.

Visitor's Car Stolen.

George Kazan, of McKeesport, Pa., a guest at the Commodore Hotel, reported to police yesterday his car had been stolen from the vicinity of North Capitol and F streets. The car was recovered later in the Georgetown section. Two banjos, valued at $112, and a typewriter, valued at $35, were stolen from the car.

Jewelry and clothing valued at $460 were stolen from the apartment of Aleck Cokins, 1005 Ninth street northwest, while he and his wife were visiting on an upper floor, police were told last night. The intruders entered through a rear door.

Elmea Moulton, of 1351 Girard street northwest, yesterday reported the loss of a fur coat valued at $200. The coat was taken from a cloak room of the Foundry Methodist Church, the report stated.

Two young men entered a Gulf refining station at North Capitol street and New York avenue shortly before midnight, and, at the point of guns, robbed the manager, Howard S. Cunningham, of $19. Cunningham told police the men forced him into a rear room and told him not to move. He said they fled on foot.

BONDS' CONVERSION AWAITS ROOSEVELT

Mills Asks for Only Enough Money to Take Care of Present.

(Associated Press.)

Conversion of the outstanding $8,201,000,000 of Liberty bonds and the $5,350,000,000 of short-term public debt into long-term bonds at a saving in interest apparently is to be left entirely up to the incoming Democratic administration.

Secretary Mills, in announcing yesterday the February financing, asked for just enough money to pay maturing Treasury certificates and interest on the public debt and to furnish funds for the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

He announced the Treasury would sell on February 1 about $250,000,000 in five-year Treasury notes bearing 2½ per cent interest. The notes will be exempt from all taxation except inheritance and estate taxes, will be dated February 1, mature February 1, 1938, and will not be callable before that time.

The rate of interest is not as small as that on some bonds sold in recent years, but less than some sold recently.

The money derived from the sale of the bonds will be used to pay approximately $145,000,000 due on Treasury certificates bearing 3¾ per cent interest payable February 1, to pay about $13,000,000 in interest on the public debt and furnish funds for the corporation.

Large Issue Report.

Banking and market circles in New York for weeks have heard reports that the Treasury would float a larger issue of long term bonds in February as a "test" of the market to determine if it was an opportune time to announce conversion of some of the outstanding $6,268,000,000 of Fourth Liberty 4¼ per cent bonds and fund some of the short term debt.

The rumors had it that while the amount was not to be large, such action would be taken as a feeler to find out the investor's attitude.

The present administration, however, could not have done more than float a test issue, for before any of the First or Fourth Liberties could be called the Treasury would have to issue notice on an interest date, at least three months before the call date.

Next Date Is March 15.

The next interest date is March 15, and the Democratic administration will be in office. The First Liberties are callable now, while the Fourth are callable on and after October 15.

The outgoing administration could, however, convert some of the short-term debt now at a maximum figure into long-term securities, but Treasury officials have declined to indicate whether they are considering such a plan.

The public debt is the money owed by the Federal Government, now totaling more than $20,000,000,000. The $5,350,000,000 short-term debt is that obtained on securities which mature in from 90 days to five years.

Romney to Speak Wednesday.

Kenneth Romney, sergeant at arms of the House of Representatives, will address the meeting of the Young Democrats Club, of Washington, Wednesday night at the headquarters of the Women's National Democratic Club.

Hickey-Freeman CUSTOMIZED CLOTHES

58 HICKEY-FREEMAN SUITS

½ PRICE

Were	35	36	37	38	39	NOW
$45	1 Rev.		1 Rev.			$22.50
$50	2 Rev. 2 Sht.	2 Rev. 1 Lg.	4 Rev. 1 Lg.	1 Rev. 1 Y. S. 1 Sht. Y. S.		$25.00
$55	2 Rev. 1 Sht.		3 Rev. 1 Y. S.	1 Sht. Y. S.	1 Sht. Y. S.	$27.50
$60	3 Rev.	4 Rev.	3 Rev.	1 Y. S.		$30.00
$65	2 Rev.	1 Rev.	2 Rev. 1 Y. S.		1 Y. S.	$32.50
$70	1 Rev.	1 Rev.	1 Lg.	1 Lg.	1 Y. S.	$35.00
$75	1 Rev.	2 Rev.	1 Y. S.			$37.50

Goldheim's

Apparel for Gentlemen...Established 1875

1409 H STREET, N.W. NATIONAL 1409

Mapes Despairs of Reaching U. S.-District Fiscal Pact

Author of $4,000,000 Local Tax Program Sees Measure Definitely Placed in Discard; "Problem Unsettled Another 100 Years."

Disappointed with the Senate District committee's failure to report out all four of his District tax bills, Representative Carl E. Mapes (Republican), Michigan, author of the $4,000,000 local tax program now definitely placed in the discard for this session, yesterday said he despairs of ever reaching a solution of the fiscal relations issue between Federal and District governments.

"That problem will be unsettled for another hundred years," said Representative Mapes. "So long as members of the Senate refuse to stand up and be counted on a question that concerns not only the people of the District, but all taxpayers contributing to the Federal 'lump sum' there never will be a solution."

If the local tax question is revived in the House at the next session of Congress, Mr. Mapes indicated it would be handled by the House District committee, and not by another special committee such as that presided over last session by the Michigan representative.

Representative Mapes does not think the Federal Government should contribute a cent to local expenses. He thinks even the closely cropped "lump sum" of $7,775,000, appropriated in the last District bill, is "inequitable to overburdened taxpayers outside the District." The $6,000,000 "lump sum" recommended in his committee's report, and the $4,000,000 in proposed additional local taxes, he contends "was more than fair to the District."

All arguments of local civic groups opposed to the Mapes taxation program have failed to convince Mr. Mapes that Washington residents, senators and the local press are not "biased."

The only Mapes bill that survives Senate District committee action provides an additional tax of 1 cent a gallon on gas sold in the District. As approved in the House, the additional tax was 2 cents. Placed on the Senate consent calendar, a single dissenting vote will kill it, and several senators already have indicated their opposition.

BRITONS FEEL SURE AMERICA WILL CUT DEBT DRASTICALLY

Continued from Page 1.

000,000 sterling, payable in one year. This would amount almost to cancellation.

The same newspaper asserted the British debt mission, probably headed by Premier J. Ramsay MacDonald, will ask for suspension of payments until a final arrangement is reached.

On America's side, the Dispatch article speculated that the Washington Government demand immediate stabilization of the British pound and return to the gold standard within a stated period, as conditions for debt concessions. Modification of the empire preferential tariffs adopted at Ottawa last year also was mentioned as a probable American demand.

Felt Almost Certain.

The Sunday Express said: "It is almost certain that there will be a scaling down of Britain's debt. The chancellor of the exchequer will know by the time he presents the budget, probably on April 25, what amount must be provided for future payments."

A special cabinet meeting to consider the American invitation if it comes tomorrow was anticipated.

(Associated Press.)

Foreign diplomats in Washington are keenly alive for any indication that the Roosevelt administration plans to grant a hearing to debtor nations other than Great Britain, which is soon to send a delegation here to prepare for discussions soon after March 4.

In spite of the Senate debate in which Senator Robinson (Republican), Indiana, charged that the invitation to Great Britain opens the door to all, the opinion seems general among the representatives of debtor powers that the time has not come for others to press for a similar invitation.

Most of the important nations owing the United States war debts asked for a reconsideration of debt agreements in notes relating to their payments due on December 15. Italy alone of the major powers did not make a written request of this sort, but Mussolini and other Italian officials repeatedly have made speeches in which they urged a general wiping out of intergovernmental debts.

Mark Time Hopefully.

With requests for reconsideration in the hands of the State Department and in the face of declarations of Secretary Stimson that only officials of the incoming administration can make decisions concerning debt negotiations, representatives in Washington of debtor powers are marking time hopefully.

There is undisguised joy among them at the invitation to Great Britain, which was extended after a conference Friday between President Hoover and President-elect Roosevelt.

Unanimously the diplomats hail it as a break in the war debts impasse. Unofficially and informally they are seeking some indication as to whether the incoming administration will discriminate between nations which are in default and those which have made all payments.

Asks Interpretation.

The Minister of Czechoslovakia, whose government made its payment on December 15, and consequently stands in the class with Great Britain, is the envoy who has asked the State Department for an interpretation of the Hoover-Roosevelt White House statement that Great Britain had been invited to debt discussions.

He was told, as have been all newspapermen who inquired, that only President-elect Roosevelt can interpret the statement.

Mindful of warnings of President Hoover that the United States will deal individually with debtor nations and will not be moved by any mass action—statements which have been affirmed by the President-elect—diplomats hesitate to take any steps which will indicate a concerted movement.

Brookhart Favors McAdoo Farm Aid

Iowa Man Comes Out for Price-Fixing Relief of Californian.

(Associated Press.)

A possibly far-reaching new element was introduced into the Congressional farm relief drama yesterday as Senator Brookhart, of Iowa, declared in favor of a "war emergency" plan, which he said William G. McAdoo, California's senator-elect, was considering.

The independent Iowa Republican, who recently returned to his duties after a serious illness, said he had given up hope of adequate farm-relief legislation during the Hoover administration. He described the McAdoo plan as calling for agricultural price-fixing by Federal law and for Government control of the surplus.

Because of a belief the scheme would be vetoed by President Hoover, Brookhart said it is not planned to bring it forward for action until the next Congress meets in the spring.

New Radio Devices For African Planes

London, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—To combat the effect of Africa's electrical storms on radio communication, equipment of new design will be fitted on four aircraft to be flown on the Cairo-Cape Town route.

It includes provision for telephone and telegraph communication on both medium and short wave lengths and for direction finding.

Storms over Africa were found to render communication impossible on medium wave lengths for considerable periods, and the new equipment is the result of tests carried on for six months.

Poland Using Barter To Help Steel Trade

Warsaw, Poland, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Compensating trade policies almost like barter have been inaugurated by the Polish government in an effort to obtain more South American business for Polish steel mills.

The first result of the new arrangement was an order for 60,000 tons of rails for export to Brazil.

In return for this order Poland will center the import of coffee in one organization, so that the coffee business may be directed to countries which in turn buy Polish goods.

SPECIAL NOTICES

SPECIAL MEETING, COLUMBIA LODGE, Loyal Order of Moose, Tuesday evening, January 24, 1933, Moose Hall, 1414 I street. Short meeting, luncheon, smoker. All Moose please attend.

INFORMATION IS DESIRED AS TO WAGE COSTS In Building Industry in Washington, D. C. Journeymen: CARPENTERS BRICKLAYERS PLASTERERS LATHERS, etc. Are asked to reply, stating age, experience and wages, and give address. Reply to Box 134, Washington Post.

WANT A STEADY POSITION?

Boyd training does pay big dividends today and every day. Millions are working. We are placing people every day. Review and Short courses, 3-9 mos. New classes start this week. Inquire now. Boyd School, 1333 F St. Nat. 2340

GENEVA HOST TODAY TO ARMS SESSION

German Demand for Parity Among Major Problems Facing Committee.

Geneva, Jan. 22 (U.P.).—Germany's demand for arms equality will be among major considerations facing the steering committee of the world disarmament conference when its sessions begin here tomorrow.

Germany bolted the conference last summer, and has persistently insisted on being allowed arms equality before going ahead with a discussion of arms reduction, in fact or in principle. The Germans declared other nations promised at Versailles to disarm, but that they had failed to live up to their agreement and Germany therefore has no further moral duty to remain unarmed.

The French refused to agree, and led the opposition. The Germans quit the conference, but their delegation agreed to return to the steering committee's deliberations which reopen in the morning.

Delegates said tonight that as a result the committee's feeling generally was one of "higher optimism" than when it broke up some months ago. They agreed that Germany's return, finally arranged in mid-December, should give impetus to the laborious efforts of completing a world disarmament accord.

Premier J. Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain engineered the return of the Germans when France agreed to a formula promising Berlin equality of armaments and the French security.

W. B. Timberlake's Will Is Filed at Winchester

Special to The Washington Post.

Winchester, Va., Jan. 22.—The will of the late William B. Timberlake, well known Frederick County farmer, has been admitted to probate in the clerk's office here. It disposes of an estate valued in excess of $10,000 between his brothers, Thomas S. Robert Lee and James A. Timberlake, and his wife, Mrs. Ella R. Timberlake, who also is named executrix.

Appraisers named for the estate include Coleman Dun, Joseph Jelliffe, Robert S. Smith, Lewis Pidgeon and C. R. McCann.

Virginia Reports Coal Output Gain

Increase of 9,000 Tons Is Noted for Week Ended January 7.

(Associated Press.)

Climbing upward after the holiday slump, Virginia coal production increased 9,000 tons during the week ended January 7, to reach a total of 176,000 tons.

Hampton Roads loadings were 392,863 tons during the week ended January 14, compared with 415,713 tons the previous week.

National bituminous production was on the increase. The output for the week ended January 14 was 6,700,000 tons against 6,126,000 the week before.

DIED

ANDREWS—On Saturday, January 21, 1933, at Children's Hospital, MARGARET F., infant daughter of Ray W. and Clara Andrews, aged three months. Residence, Forest Glenn, Md. Funeral from W. W. Chambers funeral home, 1400 Chapin street northwest, on Monday, January 23, at 3 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

BAILEY—On Friday, January 20, 1933, FREDDIE E., wife of the late William H. Bailey. Services at the S. H. Hines Co. funeral home, 2901 Fourteenth street northwest, Monday, January 23, at 10 a. m. Interment Arlington National Cemetery.

BERMAN—At her residence, 1388 Seventh street northwest, CELIA, beloved wife of S. H. Berman and devoted mother of N. H. Berman, Mrs. Esther Kressin Meyer, Samuel B. and Abraham Berman, aged sixty-one years. Funeral from her late residence on Tuesday, January 24, at 11 a. m. Interment Ohev Sholom Cemetery.

CARROLL—On Sunday, January 22, 1933, at her residence, 701 Monroe street northeast, CATHARINE MARY (nee Murphy), beloved wife of the late Michael J. Carroll. Notice of funeral hereafter. Please omit flowers. (Pittsburgh papers, please copy).

CHICK—On Saturday, January 21, 1933, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Cora A. Darcey, 3020 Q street northwest, MARY G. CHICK, in her eighty-first year. Funeral from the above residence on Monday, January 23, at 10:15 a. m. Funeral services in Mount Zion Baptist Church, Bethesda, Md., at 11 a. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment church cemetery, Bethesda, Md. Services by W. W. Chambers Co.

COCKRELL—On Friday, January 20, 1933, at her residence, 1625 Sixteenth street northwest, MARY ELIZABETH, wife of the late Jesse Cockrell. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Asaph Hall, and by two granddaughters, Mary Hall Kilpatrick and Katharine Hall. Body resting at the chapel of Joseph Gawler Sons, 1754 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. Services at Friends Meeting of Washingtno, D. C., 2111 Florida avenue northwest, on Tuesday, January 24, at 10:30 a. m. Interment Fort Lincoln Cemetery.

DALZELL—On Sunday, January 22, 1933, HARRY J., beloved husband of Alice M. Dalzell, and father of Charles J., Harry P., and Walter A. Dalzell, Mrs. Carrie M. Jardin and Laura K. Krusen. Funeral from his late residence, 724 Ninth street northeast, on Tuesday, January 24, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

DE HART—Suddenly, on January 21, 1933, HORACE P., beloved husband of Anna L. Thomas De Hart. Services at the chapel of Joseph Gawler's Sons, 1754 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, on Tuesday, January 24, at 2 p. m. Interment private.

HUNTER—On Saturday, January 21, 1933, at her residence, 317 Kentucky avenue southeast, BESSIE LEE, beloved wife of William A. Hunter and mother of Thomas W. Crawford, Mrs. Virginia Payne, Mrs. Annie Tarmon and sister of Mrs. Leonard Bryant. She is survived by nine brothers, of Richmond, Va. Funeral from the W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin street northwest on Monday, January 23, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

DE HART—Suddenly, on January 21, 1933, HORACE P., beloved husband of Anna L. Thomas De Hart. Services at the chapel of Joseph Gawler's Sons, 1754 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, on Tuesday, January 24, at 2 p. m. Interment private.

HUNTER—On Saturday, January 21, 1933, at her residence, 317 Kentucky avenue southeast, BESSIE LEE, beloved wife of William A. Hunter and mother of Thomas W. Crawford, Mrs. Virginia Payne, Mrs. Annie Tarmon and sister of Mrs. Leonard Bryant. She is survived by nine brothers, of Richmond, Va. Funeral from the W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin street northwest on Monday, January 23, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

BAILEY—On Friday, January 20, 1933, FREDDIE E., wife of the late William H. Bailey. Services at the S. H. Hines Co. funeral home, 2901 Fourteenth street northwest, Monday, January 23, at 10 a. m. Interment Arlington National Cemetery.

BERMAN—At her residence, 1388 Seventh street northwest, CELIA, beloved wife of S. H. Berman and devoted mother of N. H. Berman, Mrs. Esther Kressin Meyer, Samuel B. and Abraham Berman, aged sixty-one years. Funeral from her late residence on Tuesday, January 24, at 11 a. m. Interment Ohev Sholom Cemetery.

CARROLL—On Sunday, January 22, 1933, at her residence, 701 Monroe street northeast, CATHARINE MARY (nee Murphy), beloved wife of the late Michael J. Carroll. Notice of funeral hereafter. Please omit flowers. (Pittsburgh papers, please copy).

CHICK—On Saturday, January 21, 1933, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Cora A. Darcey, 3020 Q street northwest, MARY G. CHICK, in her eighty-first year. Funeral from the above residence on Monday, January 23, at 10:15 a. m. Funeral services in Mount Zion Baptist Church, Bethesda, Md., at 11 a. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment church cemetery, Bethesda, Md. Services by W. W. Chambers Co.

COCKRELL—On Friday, January 20, 1933, at her residence, 1625 Sixteenth street northwest, MARY ELIZABETH, wife of the late Jesse Cockrell. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Asaph Hall, and by two granddaughters, Mary Hall Kilpatrick and Katharine Hall. Body resting at the chapel of Joseph Gawler Sons, 1754 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. Services at Friends Meeting of Washingtno, D. C., 2111 Florida avenue northwest, on Tuesday, January 24, at 10:30 a. m. Interment Fort Lincoln Cemetery.

DALZELL—On Sunday, January 22, 1933, HARRY J., beloved husband of Alice M. Dalzell, and father of Charles J., Harry P., and Walter A. Dalzell, Mrs. Carrie M. Jardin and Laura K. Krusen. Funeral from his late residence, 724 Ninth street northeast, on Tuesday, January 24, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

DE HART—Suddenly, on January 21, 1933, HORACE P., beloved husband of Anna L. Thomas De Hart. Services at the chapel of Joseph Gawler's Sons, 1754 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, on Tuesday, January 24, at 2 p. m. Interment private.

HUNTER—On Saturday, January 21, 1933, at her residence, 317 Kentucky avenue southeast, BESSIE LEE, beloved wife of William A. Hunter and mother of Thomas W. Crawford, Mrs. Virginia Payne, Mrs. Annie Tarmon and sister of Mrs. Leonard Bryant. She is survived by nine brothers, of Richmond, Va. Funeral from the W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin street northwest on Monday, January 23, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Frank Geier's Sons Co.
1113 SEVENTH ST. N.W. Telephone Modern Chapel. NATIONAL 2473.

THOS. S. SERGEON
1011 7TH ST. NW. Telephone Natl. 1090.

JAMES T. RYAN
317 PA. AVE. S.E Atlantic 1700

ESTABLISHED 1876.
JOHN R. WRIGHT CO.
1337 10th st. nw. Phone North 0047.

J. WILLIAM LEE'S SONS CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS.
CREMATORIUM
4th st. and Mass. ave. ne. Lincoln 5200.

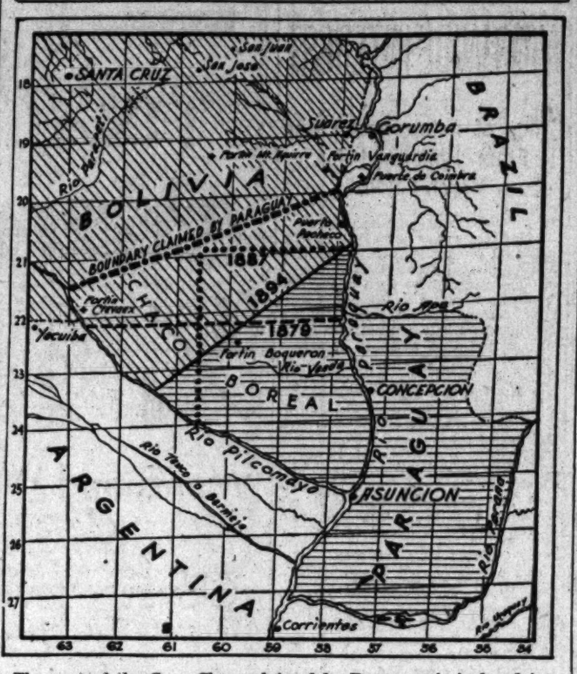
CHAS. S. ZURHORST
301 EAST CAPITOL ST. LINCOLN 0372.

FUNERAL DESIGNS

GUDE BROS. CO., Florists
1212 F STREET. National 4276.
APPROPRIATE FUNERAL DESIGNS.

GEO. C. SHAFFER 900 14TH ST. NW.
Expressive Floral Emblems. Phone
Moderate prices. Open eve & Sun. Nat. 0106

SCENE OF BITTER FIGHTING



The part of the Gran Chaco claimed by Paraguay is inclosed in the triangle formed by the line designated "Boundary, &c., &c.," with the Paraguay and Pilcomayo Rivers. Puerto Pacheco is a Bolivian port seized by Paraguay in 1888 and still held by her. Fort Vanguardia, seized by Paraguay in December, 1928, and Fort Boqueron, taken in retaliation by Bolivia, are shown. The three lines fixed by the treaties of 1879, 1887 and 1894 are indicated.

TWO SHOT TO DEATH IN SPEAKEASY RAID

Coproprietors Are Detained After One Robber and Patron Are Slain.

Cleveland, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Two men were shot to death today when four masked robbers attempted to hold up a place police said was a speakeasy, occupied at the time by more than 70 men and women.

The dead are John Vecchio, 22, one of the robbers, and Michael M. Bobey, 23, said by police to have been a patron of the place.

Vecchio, witnesses said, was left alone to guard patrons on the lower floor of the building while the other three went upstairs. Bobey, Detective Lieut. Alfred Jones was told, thought the holdup was a joke and started a scuffle with Vecchio which ended when Bobey was shot.

George Jacobs, described by police as one of the proprietors of the place, then drew a revolver and shot the robber. Patrons and the three remaining robbers fled.

The resort was a merry scene of dining and dancing when the robbers entered armed with shiny revolvers and a shotgun. Their faces were masked by ordinary handkerchiefs.

"This is a stickup, stay still," one of them shouted. Then the guests on the lower floor were rounded up, and three of the robbers went upstairs, apparently to look for more guests.

As Bobey and Vecchio scuffled, the latter fired once, police were told, and the wounded man staggered across the dance floor to fall in a doorway leading to a back porch. Jacobs then opened fire, shooting three times, and the robber dropped.

With the first shots the crowd poured out of the house, those on the second floor escaping by way of a window and a porch roof. The three robbers were not seen to return to the ground floor and were believed by police to have fled through an upstairs window.

Jacobs and Fred Thomas, his brother-in-law, said by detectives to have been coproprietors of the place, were held for investigation.

DIED

LIMERICK—On Thursday, January 19, 1933, at Pittsburgh, Pa., FRANCES BACON, beloved wife of James M. Limerick. Funeral from the W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin street northwest, on Monday, January 23, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment Arlington National Cemetery.

MABLE—On Saturday, January 21, 1933, at her residence, 834 Delafield place northwest, HATTIE E., beloved wife of Frank H. Mable and mother of Mrs. John S. Mathers. Funeral from the W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin street northwest, on Tuesday, January 24, at 10:30 a. m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. Interment at Cedar Hill Cemetery.

MANSUY—On Saturday, January 21, 1933, LEO J., beloved son of Mary K. and the late Frank E. Mansuy. Funeral from his late residence, 3424 Twenty-second street northeast on Tuesday, January 24, at 8:30 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Francis de Sales Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Interment St. Mary's Cemetery.

MOFFITT—Suddenly, on Sunday January 22, 1933, Doctor H. WATSON, beloved husband of Bessie R. Moffitt and son of Florence H. Moffitt. Services will be held at his late residence, 1635 Harvard street northwest, on Tuesday, January 24, at 2 p. m. Interment Glenwood Cemetery.

OTT—On Sunday, January 22, 1933, JOSEPHINE ELIZABETH, beloved wife of the late Joseph William Ott and beloved mother of the Rev. George E. S. S., Raymond G. and Ernest S. Ott. Funeral from her late residence, 2033 First street northwest, on Wednesday, January 25, at 8:30 a. m. Solemn requiem mass at St. Martin's Church at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Rock Creek Cemetery.

PYNE—The members of Washington Council, No. 224, Knights of Columbus, are advised of the death on Saturday, January 21, 1933, at his residence, 1126 Shepherd street northeast, of Brother MICHAEL W. PYNE, and are requested to attend his funeral services at St. Anthony's Church, Twelfth and Monroe streets northeast, on Tuesday, January 24, at 9 a. m. The members are asked to meet at the late residence of Brother PYNE, Monday at 8 p. m., for recitation of prayers for the deceased. L. HAROLD SOTHORON, G. K. DR. A. B. WILKINSON, F. S.

SCHMITT—On Friday, January 20, 1933, at her residence, 68 S street northwest, VIRGINIA M., loving wife of the late Magnus H. Schmitt, and mother of Mrs. Nellie A. Rose, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Georgia F. Furbershaw, of Evanston, Ill., in her seventy-eighth year. Funeral from above address on Monday, January 23, at 2 p. m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

WEEKS—Suddenly, on Sunday, January 22, 1933, at her late residence, 1812 K street northwest, BEULAH B., beloved wife of the late Edgar M. Weeks. Remains resting at W. W. Chambers funeral home, 1400 Chapin street northwest. Notice of funeral later.

WILSON—On Saturday, January 21, 1933, at Washington Sanitarium, Takoma Park, Md., BENJAMIN W., beloved husband of Dora Frances Wilson. Services at Warner Pumphrey's funeral home, 8424 Georgia avenue, Silver Spring, Md., on Tuesday, January 24, at 11 a. m. Interment at Grace Church Cemetery, Woodside, Md.

FRANCE-ARGENTINA AIR FLIGHT SUCCESS

Mermoz Arrives at Beunos Aires on Pathfinding Air Mail Survey.

Buenos Aires, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Jean Mermoz, veteran French airmail pilot, landed his plane Arc-en-Ciel (Rainbow) here at 11:44 a. m. today, terminating a 7,500-mile flight from Istres, France, in 54 hours and 33 minutes flying time, which established a record between France and Argentina.

Mermoz said the flight, which was made with six companions, although the twenty-fourth heavier-than-air South Atlantic crossing, demonstarted for the first time the feasibility of the all-air mail route which the French Aero Postale Co. intends to inaugurate shortly.

Mermoz, who left Istres January 12, was hindered on the African coast and at Rio de Janiero by muddy landing fields and along the Brazilian coast by rains and headwinds. He averaged almost 140 miles per hour in the air with a heavy plane.

It was the second South Atlantic crossing for Mermoz, whose varied adventures in South American mail flying include arrest as a Bolivian spy when he fell into a Paraguayan palm grove in the course of a Rio de Janeiro-Ascension flight, and a narrow escape from death in 1930, when he fell into the sea while trying to fly the South Atlantic eastward.

As soon as they landed Mermoz and his companions were toasted at the hangar in recognition of the success of the trip. They then hastened from airport to the city to prepare for a welcoming.

The outstanding achievement of the flight, Mermoz said, was the hop from St. Louis, Senegal, to Natal, Brazil, of 14 hours and 2 minutes, which proved that Africa is within an easy daylight air trip from South America.

Indian Burial

Service for Medicine Man Is Marked by Weird Tom-Toms' Beat.

Ashland, Wis., Jan. 22 (U.P.).—The monotonous beat of tom-toms echoed through the Bad River Reservation tonight as Chippewa Indian braves buried their medicine man, Waboz, "The Little Rabbit."

Waboz, 71 years old when he died, was buried with his head to the West so that when the resurrection comes he will awake facing the East.

His body was clad in his finest buckskins. Above his grave was placed a post with seven notches in it, each representing a decade of his life.

Weird ceremonies unchanged for centuries preceded the burial. Braves donned their war paint and danced about the body in time to the tom-toms. Squaws joined in the final dance.

Waboz, known outside the reservation as Joseph Parker, was the Chippewa Tribe's medicine man and spokesman for many years.

Walter Freed After Kidnaping.

Aiken, S. C., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Three men held up a cafe here early today, robbed it of $39 and kidnaped a waiter, but released him after driving about 2 miles from Aiken.

A Complete Funeral for $75.00 or even LESS. The $75 funeral includes: Casket, any color; plate engraved with name, No. 1 outside pine case, embalming by competent men, washing, dressing and shaving, if necessary; advertising of notices, hearse, 2 Cadillac limousines, rugs, chairs, scarf for the door, removing from hospitals or home and all necessary services that are so well known at the DEAL FUNERAL HOME. NO EXTRAS.
Deal Funeral Home
LINCOLN 8200

Bigger and Better Funerals
At Half the Usual Cost Are Done by CHAMBERS
Largest in the City
A Whole Funeral for as low as..... $65
Phone or write your Address. We will send you a beautiful catalogue of How We Do It.

ELISABETH MARBURY DEAD; WAR PATRIOT

First Democratic National Committee Woman From New York Expires at 76.

New York, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Elisabeth Marbury, 76, theatrical producer and first Democratic national committee woman from New York, died suddenly today in her Sutton place home. Death was ascribed to acute dilation of the heart. Miss Marbury underwent a minor operation at her home Thursday for the removal of a leg ulcer.

She died in the presence of her physician and household servants. Marbury MacDuffie, a nephew, is the only immediate survivor.

Active until the end, Miss Marbury, who forsook a social career early in life to establish an agency for playwrights, had visited her office almost daily. Last June she went to Chicago to attend her third successive Democratic national convention as a delegate.

Men Amused Her.

Her first active work in politics was in 1918, when she joined the governorship campaign of Alfred E. Smith.

Although an advocate of temperance, Miss Marbury had attacked the Volstead act as early as 1922, when she invited Lady Astor and others to debate the law's merits with her. Lady Astor declined.

In commenting on experiments conducted in Berlin a few years ago, which were intended to show that the use of alcohol fostered the birth of males, Miss Marbury denied that feminists were seeking that means of eliminating males, saying:

"If it were not for the male population, what would we women have to laugh at?"

Active War Worker.

A veteran transatlantic voyager, Miss Marbury, was in France when the World War began and she immediately volunteered for relief duty. With the entry of the United States into the war she returned to New York and became a member of the mayor's committee of national defense.

For her services in the war she was decorated by the United States, Belgium and Italy.

As a producer she was associated with "Little Lord Fauntleroy," "Nobody Home," "Love of Mike," "Very Good, Eddie," and "Say When."

At one time she acted as manager for Vernon and Irene Castle, Cissie Loftus and other stars.

French Excursion Offered Viennese

Paris-Versailles Tour Now Within Reach of Labor Class.

Vienna, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—A working class winter excursion to Paris and the French Riviera, promoted by the Left-Socialist newspapers Abend and Telegraf, will take some of the gloom out of a hard winter for Austrians who are able to go.

The price of the tour will be 390 schillings (about $55), so that with a little restraint on incidental expenditures the individual excursionist should be able to keep his total outlay under $100 for the 11 days of the trip.

If he finds it too hard to get away from his job for that long, he can omit the Riviera part of the excursion and join the Paris junket for a basic rate of 235 schillings. In either case the railroad transportation is third-class express.

West Virginia Coal Production Grows

Bituminous Output Gains for Week Ended January 7.

(Associated Press.)

Bituminous coal production in West Virginia for the week ended January 7 totaled 1,571,000 net tons, a considerable increase over the 1,352,000-ton total of the previous week, when production was held down by the New Year holiday.

The production for the week ended January 7 came within 69,000 tons of equaling the production of the corresponding week last year, the United States Bureau of Mines reports.

Of the State's total production for the week, the southern coal fields turned out 1,276,000 tons and the northern section 295,000 tons.

DIES SUDDENLY

Associated Press Photo.
MISS ELISABETH MARBURY.

DR. H. W. MOFFITT DEAD AT HIS HOME

Services for Well-Known Physician to Be Held Tomorrow.

Dr. H. Watson Moffitt, well-known Washington physician, died suddenly yesterday at his home, 1635 Harvard street northwest, following a heart attack.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow at his home. Burial will be made in Greenwood Cemetery.

Dr. Moffitt was the son of Dr. Melville M. Moffitt. Following his father's death, he took over his practice in the Southeast section of the city. He maintained his office at 127 B street southeast.

During the World War Dr. Moffitt served in the Medical Corps as a lieutenant. He resumed his practice when he returned to the city in 1918.

Dr. Moffitt was born at London, Ohio, in 1885. He was graduated from Baltimore Medical College in Baltimore, and had practiced in Washington since 1906.

He was a Mason and a Shriner, and a prominent member of the Washington Medical Society.

Dr. Moffitt is survived by his mother, Mrs. Florence H. Moffitt; his wife, Mrs. Bessie Robinson Moffitt, and a son and daughter, Melville and Marjorie, all of 1635 Harvard street.

Funeral Service Held For Albemarle Farmer

Special to The Washington Post.

Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 22.—William M. Ferneyhough, leading Albemarle resident and farmer, died yesterday of pneumonia at the Martha Jefferson Hospital, this city. The funeral was held today from the Free Union Baptist Church, and burial was in the church cemetery.

Surviving are four children—G. W. and B. W. Ferneyhough and Mrs. A. M. Dunn, of Earlysville, and Mrs. H. H. Mays, of this city. He also leaves three brothers and three sisters—Clinton, of Earlysville; Charles, of this city; H. H., of Free Union; Mrs. S. H. Hildebrand, of Mechums River; Mrs. Charles Bing and Miss Betty Ferneyhough, of Free Union.

West Virginia Test On Dry Act Near

Beacom's Proposal Seen as Certain to Point Way Wind Blows.

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—A count of noses on prohibition is expected in the House of Delegates tomorrow. Set up as a weathercock to point toward the probable fate of other antiprohibition projects, a resolution to memorialize Congress to submit repeal of the eighteenth amendment will come up for adoption or rejection.

The resolution was submitted last week by Delegate Beacom (Democrat), Cabell County, but he kept it on the House calendar until after a delegation of women had presented an appeal for support of present prohibition laws.

A proposal by Delegate Butcher (Democrat), Wood County, to submit repeal of West Virginia's prohibition amendment probably will be returned to the floor tomorrow, but the main battle was expected on Beacom's trial balloon.

Photograph Worth $5,000 To Girl Entering Contest

First of Series of Pictures to Be Printed Next Sunday in Rotogravure Section of Post, for Which $500 Will Be Distributed.

A photograph is a possession of constantly increasing value, for at no future time will the subject look exactly as he or she may look today, but in addition to its intrinsic and sentimental value, a picture taken within the last twelve months is worth exactly $5,000 to some charming girl subject.

That is the first cash award that will be paid by The Washington Post and the Chicago Tribune in their search for 51 charming girls to participate in the opening ceremonies of the Century of Progress International Exposition at Chicago, Ill., next June. Others will share in the distribution of $10,500 in total cash prizes, a glorious two weeks of entertainment at the exposition and in international recognition of their feminine charm.

The submission of a photograph to the "Queen Contest Editor, The Washington Post," is all that is necessary to qualify as a contestant for these great rewards. Photographs must be at least 6 by 8 inches in size and must have been made within the last twelve months. They must also be accompanied by the "transmittal coupon" printed elsewhere in this issue or by the same information written upon another sheet of paper.

Employes of The Washington Post and members of their families, together with professionals, such as stage girls and artists' models, are not eligible to enter the contest.

There are no limitations as to place of residence—the entire world is the field from which these charming girls may come and their transportation will be paid for entirely by these newspapers, even though some might come from overseas. The fact that friends or relatives may submit photographs, as well as the subject herself, makes it necessary to emphasize this point. Nor should any girl feel that lack of a suitable wardrobe would make it inadvisable for her to accept such honors, because nationally famous modistes will design complete apparel for each girl selected. This expense also will be borne by The Washington Post and the Chicago Tribune.

First pictures entered in this great search began to arrive at the offices of The Washington Post one week ago today. Perhaps the photograph of the "Queen" is among those that the contest staff is at present admiring, or perhaps it has yet to be taken or is in the possession of some admiring friend. In either case, the contest will remain open until April 15, but prompt action increases the possibility of sharing in the $500 that will be distributed in payment for photographs that will appear in the Rotogravure Section of The Sunday Post each week beginning next Sunday.

Stature May Affect Auto Drivers' Signs

After all, it may be a matter of physical stature that makes the woman driver's signals what they are—less precise than some critics think they should be.

A gallant gentleman who knows automobiles has rushed to the defense of women in this respect. All small persons, men as well as women, have difficulty in giving correct, precise signals in certain kinds of cars for the simple reason that seats are low and body panels are deep. This makes it no easy task, he says, for anyone of average height to extend an arm over the side of a car when one has to reach upward to find the window opening.

Women drivers, therefore, can be comforted by the knowledge that the expert "understands" even if the agerage male driver does not.

HORACE P. DE HART'S FUNERAL TOMORROW

Interior Department Secretary Fatally Injured by Auto; Inquest Today.

Funeral services for Horace P. De Hart, 69 years old, former Indiana newspaperman and for the last 30 years a confidential private secretary in the Interior Department, who was fatally injured when struck by an automobile Saturday night, will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow at the funeral parlors of Joseph Gawler Sons, 1754 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. The body will be cremated.

For the last eight years Mr. De Hart had been confidential private secretary to Assistant Secretary of the Interior John H. Edwards. He had acted in a similar capacity to assistant secretaries preceding Mr. Edwards. During his 30 years of service with the Interior Department he had never taken a vacation. He was the author of a series of books for boys.

Indiana City Editor.

Before coming to Washington, Mr. De Hart was city editor of the Lafayette Evening Call at Lafayette, Ind., which merged with the Evening Courier in 1905. Booth Tarkington, George Barr McCutcheon and John Tinney McCutcheon worked on the Call during their college days at Purdue University.

Mr. De Hart left the Call prior to the merger and came to Washington. Born at Logansport, Ind., he was the son of Gen. Richard De Hart, Civil War officer and later judge of the Tippecanoe Circuit Court.

Widow and Sister Survive.

Mr. De Hart is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna De Hart, of 2551 Seventeenth street northwest; an adopted daughter, Mrs. Mildred Murphy, of this city, and a sister, Mrs. Jessica Cheek, of Los Angeles, Calif.

The accident which resulted in Mr. De Hart's death occurred at Sixteenth street and Columbia road. He was struck by an automobile driven by G. H. Arnold, house officer at a downtown hotel. Mr. Arnold took the injured man to George Washington Hospital, where he died from a fractured skull and other injuries.

Mr. Arnold was released pending the inquest at 11:30 a. m. today.

Leo Mansuy Rites Will Be Tomorrow

Native of Ohio, Mechanical Engineer in Treasury Department.

Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. tomorrow for Leo J. Mansuy, 42, a mechanical engineer in the office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department, who died Saturday at the home of his sister, Mrs. William J. Hyde, of 3424 Twenty-second street northeast, after an extended illness. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mr. Mansuy, a native of Toledo, Ohio, attended local primary schools and was graduated from the McKinley High School. He attended Catholic University, where he played football.

He was appointed a topographical draftsman in the Alaskan Railroad Commission in 1912 and was stationed in Alaska. He returned to this city in 1916 and entered the Navy yard as a draftsman. He was later transferred to the Treasury Department. Surviving him are his sister, his mother, Mrs. Mary K. Mansuy, and a brother, John S. Mansuy, sr.

FERGUSON RITES TODAY.

Willard Hotel Employe to Be Buried in Rock Creek Cemetery.

Funeral services for Allyn F. Ferguson, 60, who died Friday at George Washington University Hospital, will be held at 11 a. m. today at the Tabler undertaking establishment, 928 M street northwest. Mr. Ferguson, who lived at 811 Fifth street northwest, will be buried in Rock Creek Cemetery.

A lifelong resident of this city, Mr. Ferguson for the last ten years had been connected with the steward's department at the Willard Hotel. He was an active member of Mount Vernon M. E. Church. Surviving are a son, William F., of Long Island, N. Y.; a sister, Mrs. Eva Germany, and two brothers, Charles and Guy.

SCHMITT RITES TODAY.

Pioneer Resident of Capital Died Friday at S Street Home.

Funeral services will be held 2 p. m. today for Mrs. Virginia Schmitt, 77, a lifelong resident of this city, who died Friday at her home, 68 S street northwest, after an extended illness. Burial will be in the Congressional Cemetery.

The widow of Magnus H. Schmitt, she was born in the Washington Navy Yard while her father, the late William Waters, an acting boatswain on the United States Navy ship Warren, was stationed there.

Surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. Nellie A. Rose, of Washington, and Mrs. Georgia F. Furbershaw, of Evanston, Ill.

JULIUS GARFINCKEL & Co.
F STREET AT FOURTEENTH

A REALLY EXTRAORDINARY SALE of SHOES
NOW GOING ON HERE FOR WOMEN AND MISSES . . .

If you are keen about the best shoes made, and if you want them at great savings, then you will not let this opportunity slip by unnoticed . . . Come in Today . . . We will show you wonderful selections for dress, street, sports and evening wear, at greatly reduced prices. The values are truly very remarkable.

$5.95 $7.95 $9.95 $11.95

Second Floor

DIAMONDS

—the safe investment with a steady value enhancement

Diamonds are the most stabilized commodity. They are concentrated wealth. In the nearly three-score years of our daily experience with diamonds, they have increased about 600% in value—according to our own records. Before the current advance in diamond prices abroad affects our stock—invest in diamonds!

B. Harris & Co.
F Street at 11th
Jewelers and Diamond Merchants for Over Half a Century

Lace Crab May Be Far Kin Of Species of Present Day

Intensive Study Brings Evidence That Delicate Creature Dominated Living Things 5,000,000 Centuries Ago, Smithsonian Publication Reveals.

A new interpretation of the strange and lovely "lace crab" of half a billion years ago, an enigma to students of fossils since its discovery, is advanced in a publication just issued by the Smithsonian Institution.

Intensive study has brought out evidence that this delicate creature, instead of being a unique form of animal in the primeval seas back toward the beginning of life on earth, may have been only a newly moulted trilobite, a far distant relative of the present day crabs and at that time the dominant living thing.

Fossils of this mysterious "lace crab" were discovered by the late Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, about 20 years ago. They were by far the most striking and bizarre specimens which were recovered by Dr. Walcott in the so-called Burgess shale formation of the Canadian Rockies, which remains perhaps the richest depository of very ancient life forms found on earth. This geological formation dates from the early Cambrian period, approximately five hundred million years ago, when the earliest animals so constituted that they could leave fossils began to appear.

In the Burgess shale Dr. Walcott found a great number and variety of fossils of trilobites and other ancient crustaceans. They could be fitted into an evolutionary order of families from the simplest to the most complex. But this weirdest of them all did not fit into the picture. In some respects it showed affinities to the more primitivs forms and in others to the more highly developed trilobites.

The fossils showed that the creature had possessed a small, very delicate shell in contrast to the heavy shells of most of the early fossils. It possessed two pair of massive, curved "horns." It had a flat, free head with widely separated eyes. Most remarkable of all was the extremely delicate, lacelike texture of its limbs, to which it owed its name.

The interpretation has been made by Dr. Rudolf Ruedemann, of the New York State Museum, at Albany. Studying the creatures under a microscope specially constructed to study filmy fossils, he brought out further details of the amazing delicacy of the body and found indications of a connecting membrane being torn when the shell was discarded. Had the shell been in place the fossil would have been indistinguishable from a trilobite.

As Ruedemann reconstructs the picture, the young, freshly moulted creature was helpless without its shell in those ancient seas. So it tried to hide away in some deep, dark place among the rocks until a new shell grew, just as crustaceans have the habit of doing today. It had the misfortune of sinking into a "trap" formed by water charged with carbonic acid that filled the particular depression in which the Burgess shale with its amazing number of fossil species was deposited.

ROOSEVELT CONFERS WITH 2 SENATORS

Continued from Page 1.

scribed by them as "attentive and sympathetic."

After a three-hour conference with Mr. Roosevelt the legislators announced they intended to push the bill at this session, with some modifications, and, if unsuccessful, certainly at an extra meeting of the new Congress.

There seems no doubt that Mr. Roosevelt wants a member of the Republican independent group which supported him in the campaign to be a member of his official family, and the signs are pointing to Cutting as a Secretary of the Interior.

While keeping the closest contact with the Republican Liberals and this same group in his own party, the President-elect is also studying choices from other factions for high places in his forthcoming administration.

Because of his intention to deal personally through his Secretary of State with the complicated war debts issue to be revived early in March, there are indications that Mr. Roosevelt is looking intently at Owen D. Young for Secretary of State. Young is thoroughly acquainted with the European debts and related economic issues. He is chairman of the commission that once settled the German reparations problem.

This prospective appointment is known to have aroused the Democratic and Republican Liberals, some of whom have countered with the suggestion of Senator Walsh, of Montana, for the State Department leadership. Significance is attached to the callers who arrive at this 10-day stopping point of Roosevelt—at the resort where he fought down an attack of infantile paralysis. Before coming here he announced only those guests "especially invited" would be received.

Automobile horns and cheers sounded a welcome for the President-elect from his old neighbors and friends as he left his special train here early today.

Mrs. Anna Dall, daughter of the President-elect, accompanied him here.

MOTHER CONFESSES SLAYING OWN CHILD

Continued from Page 1.

children by a former marriage had been.

"I felt so badly about this before little Doris was even cold that I wished I hadn't started to do it," Truitt said she told him. "I hoped her father could bring her back to life. I knew that he would beat me up, or try to kill me if he thought I was to blame."

A moment later, Truitt said, she cried, "but now I'm glad she is dead, because nobody else will ever get her."

Truitt said she signed a formal confession of the slaying, which, Truitt said, also related that she knew more of the death of her 21-month-old son, Theodore, who was drowned in a well near Boulder, Colo., than she had told. She told him, Truitt declared, that the boy fell into the well and she was unable to rescue him. Fearing her husband's wrath, she said, she placed a heavy metal covering over the well. The body was found by the husband, Frank Spicer, several hours later.

Mrs. Spicer, who Truitt said he believed was unbalanced, pleaded to be sent to a hospital instead of to jail.

"Please, mister," he said she cried, "tell them not to send me to jail. Send me to one of them psychopathic hospitals. I know I ain't been right for a long time."

Truitt said he would attempt to find means of placing her in an insane asylum instead of trying her for murder.

Mrs. Spicer, arrested last night, escaped soon afterward from a woman deputy sheriff. She was found wandering on a prairie near here today.

Skate Tracks Traced; Bodies of Two Found

St.

FEDERAL DIARY FETE PLANNED ON FEB. 2

Tickets to Shoreham Dance Are Free to U. S. Workers for Asking.

Federal Diary Dance
Shoreham Hotel—Thursday, February 2.

Swarmi Fedd,
The Washington Post
Washington, D. C.

Dear Swarmi: I would enjoy being your guest to dance at the Shoreham Hotel the night of Thursday, February 2. If I am among the first 250 to accept your invitation please send tickets in the enclosed stamped envelope.

P. S. I am an employe of .....
.....
.....
.....
(Name Government dept., bureau or commission.)

Swarmi Fedd, the mysterious character who enlivens the "Federal Diary" column, edited by George D. Riley and which appears daily and Sunday in The Washington Post, today announces that a dance for Federal employes will be conducted under his auspices at the Shoreham Hotel on Thursday night, February 2. Two free tickets to the gala affair will be mailed to each of the first 250 feminine employes of Government departments who send in their request to "Swarmi Fedd, The Washington Post," accompanied by a self-addressed and stamped envelope.

The event will take place in the west ballroom of the Shoreham Hotel and will be semiformal in character. Evening gowns will be in orer for the ladies and tuxedos for their escorts. Although this splended dance floor will easily accommodate 700, it has been decided to limit attendance to 500 in order that dancing may be enjoyed with maximum comfort and freedom of movement.

Entertainment Program.

A program of entertainment also will be provided and the dance music will be broadcast during a period of the evening by Station WRC of the National Broadcasting Co. In addition, Carter Barron, local manager of Loew's theater interests, has expressed his hopes of bringing Georgie Price, Asnatole Friedland and other units of the stage show which will then be appearing at the Fox Theater, to the Shoreham Hotel for the entertainment of The Washington Post's guests. These plans, however, await the approval of the artistes who will arrive in Washington next Friday.

Interviewed in regard to his reasons for arranging this "Federal Diary Party," the Swarmi replied, "George Riley and I have desired to express our appreciation of the cooperation that we have received from Federal employes in conducting the Federal Diary and this seems a very practical manner of doing so."

May Reveal Himself.

Many inquiries are constantly received by The Washington Post as to whether "Swarmi Fedd" is a real character or a second personality of George Riley, conductor of the column in which his experiences are so frequently recorded. The fact that he may reveal himself on the night of February 2, adds further interest to the "Federal Diary Dance."

Mr. Riley has made no secret of his own personal hopes that feminine employes of Uncle Sam would share a large proportion of the $10,500 that will be awarded in The Washington Post's search for 51 charming girls to officiate at the opening of the Century of Progress International Exposition at Chicago next June, and it has been rumored that Swarmi Fedd may select his own candidate for entrance in the contest at this time.

Silent on Rumor.

In his usual mysterious manner, Swarmi Fedd refused to admit or deny the truth of this rumor, but counseled reading of the Federal Diary for all revelations upon the subject. He did promise, however, that he would provide an evening of entertainment and pleasure at the Shoreham Hotel on February 2 that will be long remembered by all who attend the dance as guests of The Washington Post.

As a matter of convenience, The Washington Post publishes a coupon today which may be used in sending for tickets to the party.

Tickets will be issued only by mail and to feminine employes of Government departments. They are strictly limited to 250 couples and will be mailed out in the order of requests until their number is exhausted. There is no charge or obligation of any kind except that the request for tickets must be accompanied by a self-addressed and stamped envelope.

Sleuth Leads New Search for Slayer

Parker, Detective, Now Says Bradway Brown Suicide Remote.

Palmyra, N. J., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Completely reversing his previous statement concerning the case with an announcement he was "virtually convinced" that Bradway Brown, social registerite found dead last Monday, had been slain, Ellis Parker, Burlington County detective, today led authorities in a renewed effort to solve the killing.

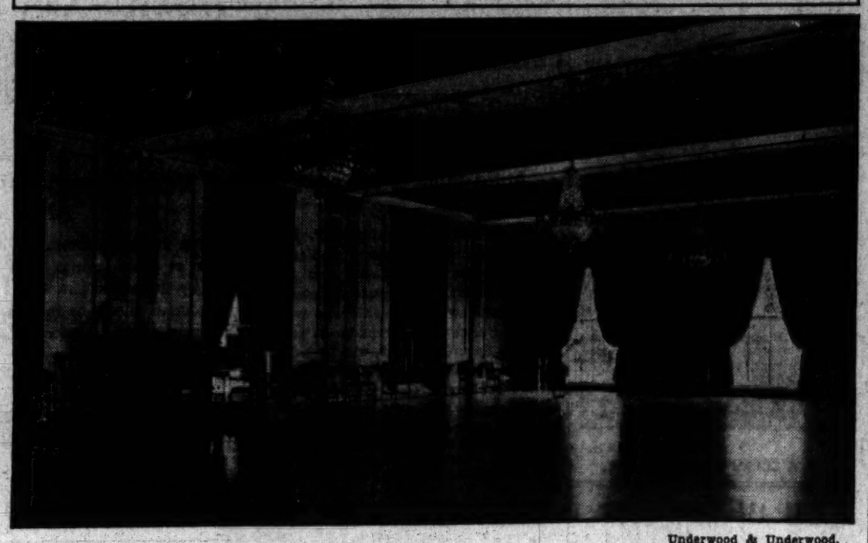
Parker, widely known for his investigations of noted murder cases, surprised investigators early today with the repudiation of his earlier statements that he believed the case one of suicide. While several other investigators and the family of Brown maintained the young executive of a Philadelphia printing company had been slain, Parker, in earlier statements concerning his work, clung steadfastly to the suicide theory.

"I did this solely to lull the murderers into belief that I was convinced it was suicide," he said, "and was done investigating."

London Bus Operatives Warned.

London, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Lord Ashfield, chairman of the company operating London buses, warned the striking operatives today that "unless trade union agreements were honored and observed there would be an end to collective bargaining. Out of 20,000 operatives in London, 13,000 were on strike today.

GUESTS OF POST TO DANCE AT SHOREHAM



Underwood & Underwood.

The magnificent west ballroom of the Shoreham Hotel where Federal employes will dance on Thursday night, February 2, as the guests of the "Federal Diary" column of The Washington Post. George Riley, editor of this column, has arranged the coming affair in tribute to readers of his column who will participate in The Post's contest to select a Queen and Court of Honor for the Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago next June.

The Federal Diary

By GEORGE D. RILEY

YOUR correspondent has been told he writes in "an extremely light vein." We must plead guilty to the charge, at least to the extent that we try to write in such vein.

RILEY.

The hard, cold facts of everyday life need a bit of brightening, and we're doing our bit to try to drive dull care away.

If we succeed in bringing a smile to each face at breakfast or on the way to the department, then we feel we have accomplished something worth while for the day. Isn't it much better to appear for work with a smile than a left-over taste from the afternoon before?

Remember a goodly portion of the "extremely light vein" is supplied us by workers in the various departments themselves.

So if we appear to write in "an extremely light vein," pardon us. Pardon us if we try to brighten the morning, the day. We'll stake the result as between smiles versus frowns on 70,000 faces behind 70,000 desks, typewriters or other implements of Uncle Sam's routine.

With "70,000 smiles a day" our slogan, we plead "Guilty."

* * * * *

ANYWAY, we shall see.

The good ship Maritime's whistle blasted "All ashore who're going ashore." Five minutes later French tassel-capped sailors drew in the gangplank. The Maritime slipped her moorings. Tugs took her in tow and nosed her out toward sea.

Bum voyage, Swarmi Fedd.

It was early summer. Quite delightful aboard ship. Would they sight icebergs—for there were icebergs drifting their lazy way southward across liners' lanes? Swarmi would never know, for to his surprise——

(Continued.)

ALASKAN DOG EN ROUTE TO ATTEND DANCE HERE

WASHKA, the Alaskan bloodhound with the Peruvian bark, gift of a friend to Swarmi Fedd, already en route to Washington from Sitka to attend the Shoreham dance for Federal employes February 2, is well on his way. Reports at 1:30 Eastern standard time this morning showed Washka was on the outskirts of Duluth, Minn., with favorable weather ahead.

Jogging along in a dogtrot, his floppy ears cutting his speed, Washka was averaging 14.4 miles an hour.

Will he get here in time for the dance?

There have been several members of the Foreign and Domestic Commerce who either were transferred from one of the older bureaus or joined at the time of its birth twenty years ago. They are Oliver P. Hopkins, Louis Domeratzky, Griffith Evans, Mrs. Mina de Rickey Cain, James H. Lillie, Royal H. Brasel, Harvey W. Haun, Arthur S. Chadwick, Nicholas Eckhardt, John Hohn, Walter Asmuth, Clarence C. Wheeler, Maurice H. Cohen, Frank W. Litchfield and Miss Berly Ingram.

* * * *

There is the case of Investigator J. B. Bell and his fellow workers in the Prohibition Bureau at Baltimore, who worked eighteen and a half hours on a single case, we learn from Walton Hood Grant, Prohibition. Bell's diary recited that he went on duty at 6 a. m., doing undercover work, lodged a man and woman in jail, seized an auto and 45 gallons of liquor and went off duty at 11:30 p. m.

* * * *

"To your list of Washington's circles in your Saturday's column might be appended Commodore Barney Circle," says Wilbur W. Seay, I. C. C. "The commodore made one of the few courageous stands against the British in their invasion of Washington in the War of 1812.

"The circle is located at Seventeenth and Pennsylvania avenue southeast, and while not as noticeable as some other circles, it is shown on the city map."

There also are Logan (formerly Iowa) and Washington Circles, Mr. Seay, which were omitted in our list supplied by the directory compilers.

* * * *

Imagine his embarrassment early Saturday when the Detective Bureau desk clerk, Police Headquarters, gave Maj. Brown the ripe red razzberries when the latter called by phone to learn the progress made in investigation of the hold-up-killing at the House Office Building.

The clerk later explained he thought it was one of the reporters in the press room impersonating the major in order to get information detectives had been withholding during the night. Was his face Red?

* * * *

Among those who have joined General Accounting Office Lodge, No. 8, A. F. G. E., since January 1 are, F. B. Kitterman, law board; Fred A. Seaman, chief audit review section; W. W. Richardson, chief records section; Charles L. Butterfield, chief supply division, reports C. G. Retner, secretary-treasurer. Twenty-five applications for membership have been received.

* * * *

Washington by night, with its bright blue-white lights, is one of the most attractive sights viewed from one of Mr. Ludington's planes. We know of only one other medium-sized city to compare with it, Dallas, Tex., with Washington still having the edge.

* * * *

SOME men are honored by statues, some by having towns, counties, or even States named after them. Lately, P. H. Dorsett, retired veteran plant explorer of Agriculture, has earned a distinctive honor—his name has been identified with a new variety of strawberry. Dorsett has introduced during his active service thousands of new plants into the United States, including some Oriental strawberries.

His official career is an epic of adventure, thrills and discoveries. He lines up, according to historic data, with that group of other intrepid explorers—William Saunders, Frank Meyer and David Fairchild—who have faced the wilds of China, Manchuria, Russia, Brazil and other foreign countries, in order that American agriculture may be enriched by their findings. An introduction of Saunders in 1870, from Bahia, Brazil, became the basis of the navel orange industry in California. The ancestor, one of the two introductions at that time, is now carefully preserved in the Agriculture greenhouses.

* * * *

There will be no Coolidge memorial stamp issued by the Postoffice Department. If, and when, a stamp bearing the likeness of the late President is sold it will be of the 3-cent denomination and included in the regular issue.

There has been but one memorial, or mourning, stamp put out by the department, the Harding memorial 2-cent stamp, printed in black and first sold at Marion, Ohio, and the philatelic agency here September 1, 1923. President Harding died in office in August. This stamp was discontinued on February 27, 1924.

Although the Abraham Lincoln stamp was regarded as a memorial stamp, it was not issued until 1909, many years after the assassination of President Lincoln. Under a joint resolution of Congress it served to commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of the Great Emancipator.

The 5-cent stamp of 1926 was called a memorial stamp. It was issued in honor of John Ericsson, builder of the Monitor, and in connection with the unveiling of his statue here by the Crown Prince of Sweden, which ceremonies took place May 29, 1926.

* * * *

The Police Post, official publication of Police Post, No. 29, American Legion, District of Columbia Department, is one of the most readable we've seen in a long time. Following are the names of the magazine's advisory board:

Lieut. Horace W. Lineburg, chairman; Allan B. Baker, vice chairman.

First Precinct—H. C. Blackman, W. F. Dineen, C. W. Massenheimer, A. C. Poulsen.

Second Precinct—E. B. Baker, T. B. T. Horrow, O. S. Hunt.

Third Precinct—H. S. Montgomery, J. J. Ramsey, L. Starkweather.

Fourth Precinct—R. A. Burton, C. R. Burr, J. F. Ehlman.

Fifth Precinct—J. Dawn, C. A. Berry.

Sixth Precinct—J. I. Schotzberger.

Seventh Precinct—J. R. Jefferies.

Eighth Precinct—E. H. Noden.

Ninth Precinct—R. E. Wetherall, O. R. Van Orman, P. E. Wheeler.

Tenth Precinct—E. C. Rhue.

Eleventh Precinct—A. Moore.

Headquarters—P. Sullivan, J. E. Lowry, E. W. Reed, M. J. Dowd.

Traffic Bureau—R. V. Sinclair, R. A. Walker.

Park Police—W. E. Riley.

White House Police—R. A. Chambliss.

Police Court—W. H. McGrath.

* * * *

HAVE you ever heard of Bunny Rabbit? Well, we have, in the person of Miss Ella G. D. (Bunny) Rabbitt, auditor in the return section, Narcotics Bureau, Treasury, that very capable young woman, who, like all rabbits, hops about doing good and bringing cheer wherever it is needed.

Her special hobby has been the veterans of Shelter Home, Twenty-sixth street and Pennsylvania avenue. It was through her efforts that her section helped to provide the boys with food, clothing, equipment and entertainment. She is a great little lady.

There is an old veteran who sits on a bench in Lafayette Park each morning and waits for her cheery "Good morning." (And, parenthetically, if she does not have any change, Miss Rabbitt often has been seen to divide her lunch.)

Without warning, the Federal Diary was made a seven-day feature Sunday. And if others do say it for us, it was the best installment we've had.

Though you wished to remain incognito,
Most worshipful Swarmi Fedd,
We are glad that you took the notion
To join with a party we led.

Very truly yours, THE GUIDES of the Government Printing Office.

"* * * As you know, it makes some difference to one who understands what we are doing and to others who say, 'It is perfectly wonderful but it is all Greek to me,'" the Guides tell us.

"We have a plant which we are justly proud to be connected with and which has so improved within the past five years under the able management of our Public Printer, George H. Carter and his staff of efficient assistants that it has become the greatest printing office in the world."

Diary Hobby List

What's Your Hobby?

Illustrated booklets, "You Can Make It," "You Can Make It for Profit" and "You Can Make It for Camp and Cottage," can be obtained postpaid at 5 cents a copy from the Hobby Editor.

Make an Aquaplane.

THINK of the fun you can have riding on this aquaplane towed by a fast motorboat. It will most likely be necessary to purchase from a nearby lumber yard the lumber listed below needed to construct the aquaplane:

One piece 1⅝ by 20½ by 52 inches for (A). Three pieces 23-32 by 1¾ by 20½ inches for cleats (B). Brass flathead wood screws.

It may be necessary to use two or three planks to build the aquaplane (A), if so, foot cleats (B) will hold them together securely. Fasten cleats (B) to planks (A) as shown with brass wood screws. Round front end of aquaplane and bevel the under edge. Two holes are bored through the front cleat and the planks, for the towline, the ends of which are inserted through the bottom; knots in the ends will hold the line in place. Two other holes are bored through the planks about 3 inches in front of the front cleat, for the other rope, which the rider of the aquaplane holds. The towline is secured to a speedboat.

Dimensions and proper locations of homes for 27 different species of birds will be found in the booklet "You Can Make It for Camp and Cottage," published by the National Committee on Wood Utilization.

Tomorrow: How to Make a Garden Stick.

(This is one of a series of articles prepared by the National Committee on Wood Utilization in its effort to bring about the utilization of second-hand wooden containers, such as boxes, crates and barrels, now thrown away or burned.

JAPAN MAY GIVE UP LEAGUE SEAT TODAY

Failure to Settle Manchukuo Dispute Is Expected to Bring Withdrawal.

Geneva, Jan. 22 (U.P.).—A decision by Japan on whether to quit the League of Nations, conciliation moves in the Manchurian controversy apparently having failed, is expected at the meeting of the committee of nineteen tomorrow.

Japan's decision depends on whether the committee's report, now under preparation, condemns the Japanese for their actions in Manchuria last year and reaffirms the policy of nonrecognition of the new state of Manchukuo, which Japan set up.

This significant report is to be drafted at tomorrow's session of the committee of nineteen.

Possibility of Japanese withdrawal became increasingly likely over the week-end, when the committee decides that the latest reply from Tokyo on its efforts at conciliation was definitely unacceptable.

The Tokyo reply suggested further modification of the December 9 original resolution of the committee, which upheld the report of the Lytton commission on Manchuria, and committed the league to the principle of nonrecognition of Manchukuo, declaring it was formed through aggression.

The committee offered to omit the United States and Soviet Russia in formation of a new "negotiations committee" for subsequent conciliation discussions, as asked by Japan, but rejected further suggestions by the Japanese that the principle of nonrecognition of Manchukuo also be dropped from the resolution.

The committee issued a communique asserting "its attempts to propose a procedure for the assembly to settle the dispute, insofar as it is concerned, have failed for the time being." It left a loophole, however, with the stipulation that it might be willing to continue the efforts if either China or Japan wished "to communicate further suggestions."

200 to Get Jobs At Glass Factory

West Virginia Plant to Resume Work After Several Months.

Special to The Washington Post.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Jan. 22.—After being shut down for several months, the plant of the West Virginia Glass Specialty Co. at Weston will resume operations Wednesday, the management announced, with 16 shops in operation. Employment will be given to upward of 200 men and women workers.

Day and night shifts will be employed and manufacture will be concentrated on crystal tableware. A 60-ton tank recently overhauled has been in process of heating for some time and will be ready Wednesday morning.

Opening of this plant will give work to practically all the glass workers of the western district as the other Weston plants are operating at almost full capacity.

Democrat Asks Review Of Contested Election

Special to The Washington Post.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Jan. 22.—Papers to support a plea for supreme court review of a circuit court decision here, which gave W. M. Johnson, Republican, a seat on county court by two votes over J. C. McKown, Democrat, were forwarded yesterday. A motion for review will be made Tuesday in supreme court in Charleston by counsel for McKown.

A certificate of election has been withheld by county court here, pending decision of the contest. McKown appeared the winner on the original canvass by approximately 70 votes, but subsequent recounts put him two votes behind. Interpretation of 35 disputed ballots is involved in the plea for a review.

BORAH RAPS HOOVER ON SALES TAX PLAN

Continued from Page 1.

$37,500,000,000. Our national income now is about equal to the taxes of the people, city, State and national, together with the interest falling due on private indebtedness. We have already reached the point when, measured against interest and taxes, the income of the Nation is about zero.

Declared Not Wise.

"To put a tax on the poorer people until we have done something to raise and stabilize the prices of commodities is not wise from an economic standpoint, and socially it is an iniquity.

"At the present time we are on the gold standard in this country. The rest of the world, except France, which, owing to certain reasons not necessary to discuss here, does not affect greatly our situation, is on a managed currency basis. While our dollar climbs in value, their currency is accommodated to their economic situation. The result is that we are not only losing our foreign market, but we are losing our domestic markets.

"Important lines of business are actually being closed because they can not compete in the markets with the products coming in and deluging our home markets from countries on a cheaper currency basis.

Fish Business Hurt.

"The fish business on the Pacific Coast is being literally ruined. The countries off the gold standard are literally taking over the fish industry.

"The farmer also is feeling the effect of the competition in the same way. Other important lines of industry feel the effect of it.

"To talk about balancing the budget and laying on heavier taxes without any accompaning program to meet this situation is to invite further depression, further distress, if not something worse."

President Hoover, in a special message to Congress last Tuesday, recommended a general sales tax blanketing all commodities except food and cheap clothing. He said this was the best available means of balancing the budget.

Keeler to Become Engineer.

Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 22 (Special).—T. C. Melton, State resident engineer of Albemarle County for the past six months, will be succeeded here by Highway Engineer J. D. Keeler, of Montgomery County.

Shepard Protests Move to End Pay

LaGuardia Bill Hits Army Major Convicted of Killing Wife.

Denver, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Maj. Charles Shepard, Army tuberculosis expert, convicted of the murder of his wife, Zenana, by poison, protested today against a measure introduced in Congress by Representative LaGuardia (Republican), New York, to drop from the Army pay rolls any officer convicted of a felony.

"To deprive me of my pay," Maj. Shepard said, "would be to take away my only means of defense and my right to ask the Supreme Court to review my case."

LaGuardia's proposal, introduced as an amendment to the Army supply bill, was approved by the House yesterday. Maj. Shepard has been free under bond and on hospital duty here since he was convicted by a Federal District Court jury in Kansas City, Kans., in December, 1930.

Funeral Service Held For Lost "Musketeer"

Dayton, Ohio, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Funeral services were conducted today at Wright Field Auditorium for Lieut. Irvin A. Woodring, 32, the last of the Army's "Three Musketeers" of the air. The body was sent to Washington for burial in Arlington Cemetery.

Woodring was killed Friday when his experimental plane exploded at an altitude of several thousand feet near Wright Field. Only a day before he had returned from Washington, where he accompanied the body of Capt. Hugh Elmendorf, who was killed a week before when a plane Elmendorf was testing also crashed.

INAUGURAL CONTEST WINS WIDE INTEREST

Group of Actors Will Come From Hollywood for March 4 Ball.

Added color was promised to the inaugural ceremonies with announcements yesterday that artists throughout the country have been giving enthusiastic response to the poster and cover designs contest conducted by the inaugural ball and program committees and that a group of actors from Hollywood whom Franklin D. Roosevelt visited on his campaign trip last fall will pay a return visit.

Mrs. John Allan Dougherty and J. Fred Essary, chairmen of the ball and poster committees, reported yesterday that a number of inquiries have been received from artists and illustrators in New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore relative to the contest. A prize of $100 has been offered for the winning design.

Closing Date Saturday.

The poster for the Inaugural Ball competition should be delivered to the headquarters of the Inaugural Ball committee, Hill Building, Seventeenth and I streets northwest, not later than February 18. It may be done in any color and must be 20 by 28 inches. The closing date of the cover competition for the official inaugural program is next Saturday. All entries in this competition should be delivered to Room 1214, National Press Building, not later than Saturday night. For this contest the designs must be in two colors, with a three-color effect and be not less than 8½ by 11 inches.

The Hollywood delegation will be headed by J. L. Warner and will arrive on a chartered train, the Forty-second Street Special, named for New York's famous theatrical street.

Car to Be Fitted Up.

One car will be fitted up as a miniature studio, and another will be equipped to resemble a California beach with palm trees, sun lamps, beach furniture and other equipment.

Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman of the inaugural committee, received word from the actors that they would make stops at all large cities along their route.

Celebrities expected to be aboard the train are Joe E. Brown, James Cagney, Bebe Daniels, William Powell, George Brent, Ruby Keeler, Warner Baxter, Bette Davis, Joan Blondell, Warren William, Douglas Fairbanks, jr., Una Merkel, Guy Kibbe and Ginger Rogers.

Horse Show Association Elects at Charles Town

Charles Town, W. Va., Jan. 22.—The Charles Town Horse Show Association at its annual meeting here yesterday elected the following officers:

Dr. Harry Langdon, president; L. D. Getzendanner, vice president; Frank J. Brooke, manager. The following were elected directors: T. T. Perry, W. B. Packett, M. O. Rouss, A. S. Allan, G. K. Wysong, Frank Brooke, F. L. Jordan, C. M. B. Brown, H. B. Langdon, W. A. Riley, W. H. Rissler, B. L. Byers, L. D. Getzendanner, Mrs. M. W. Walker, B. D. Gibson, J. William Walker, S. W. Wysong, C. F. Wall, J. J. Pittman, A. L. Withers.

Employment Up In Virginia Area

Fertilizer Plants Report Increased Activity as Do Others.

(Associated Press.)

An improvement in the employment situation in the Norfolk-Portsmouth-Newport News industrial area was noted yesterday in the Labor Department's January report.

A rayon and silk-cloth weaving plant was reported operating with a maximum force and material increase in employment at fertilizer plants also was seen. Other industries in the region were said to be maintaining satisfactory schedules resumed before the first of the year.

Elsewhere in the State, the department found little change from the month before. Approximately 20,000 men were employed on highways on January 1, the report said, and building construction was stimulated.

R.F.C. Loans Given 104 Virginia Banks

$2,464,860 Advanced State Itself Up to January 21, Report States.

(Associated Press.)

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation reported yesterday that loans had been made to 104 banks and other financial institutions in Virginia up to December 31.

The Virginia borrowers included 94 savings banks, 9 building and loan associations and 1 mortgage loan company. The total of the loans was not announced.

At the close of business, Saturday, January 21, the corporation had loaned the Commonwealth of Virginia $2,464,860 for the relief of its counties and cities.

PRINCE HEINRICH WEDS COMMONER

Continued from Page 1.

cheering local war veterans and rifle club members. The procession was headed by the court marshal, the bride's parents and sisters following the bridal couple.

The prince's only sister, Imongenia, who it was said tried to effect a marriage with Juliana, Princess of the Netherlands, was present.

Heinrich and Imongenia are the last descendants of the Stolberg-Stolberg line.

The prince and his bride left during the afternoon for a honeymoon.

The prince, who is an ardent sportsman and hunter, intends to dissolve his court and to live in seclusion, devoting his time to managing his forest lands.

Dr. Lewis to Give Lecture.

Dr. Nolan D. C. Lewis, psychiatrist at St. Elizabeths Hospital, will lecture at the town and country school to be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Frost, 2601 Thirtieth street northwest. His subject will be, "Emotional Insanity and Its Relation to Mental Health." This is the second of a series of five lectures.

SALE BECKERS SALE

FINAL WEEK

Clearance

1/4 to 1/2 OFF

Men's and Women's Luggage
Wardrobe Trunks
Gloves • Jewelry • Handbags
Giftware
Umbrellas and Leather Goods

1314 F STREET N. W.

ALL NERVES ?

■ Are you just a bundle of tense, taut nerves? Do you feel like screaming when things go wrong?

A nice quiet vacation in the country would do you good. But you don't have to wait until you can get away. You can take definite steps right now to ease your nerves.

Take a permanent vacation from caffeine, the drug in ordinary coffee. Caffeine works on the heart, tightens nerves, keeps you awake.

There is one way to give up caffeine without giving up coffee. Switch to Kellogg's Kaffee-Hag Coffee (97% caffeine-free).

Get real coffee enjoyment from this blend of finest Brazilian and Colombian coffees . . . better than ever because of a new Kaffee-Hag process. Nothing removed but the caffeine. Try it for two weeks. Your nerves will be the steadier for it.

Ground or in the Bean . . . Roasted by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Vacuum packed. Buy it from your grocer. Satisfaction guaranteed, or money back.

Sign, Tear Off and Mail This Coupon Now!

Send 15 cents in stamps for a can of Kellogg's Kaffee-Hag Coffee and a booklet on coffee and health. Use this coupon.

KELLOGG CO., Battle Creek, Mich.
Please send me a can of Kellogg's Kaffee-Hag Coffee (97% caffeine-free) and booklet. I enclose 15c in stamps.
Mr. Mrs. Miss 58N1.23
Street.....
City.....
State.....

BUSTLES and TRAILING SKIRTS WERE NUISANCES

THE nineteenth century habit of trudging to the stores daily to do the family shopping is just as much out of date as nineteenth century fashions.

The modern merchant invites you to shop by telephone. Accept his invitation. You'll enjoy the leisure allowed by telephone shopping even more than you enjoy the comfort of modern fashions.

A HOUSEHOLD HINT

You don't walk downstairs to turn on the lights! Why do it to answer the telephone? Install an Extension Telephone. It costs only a few cents a day.

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company
723 13th St. N.W. (Bell System) MEtropolitan 9900

PHONE NATIONAL 4205
FOR POST CLASSIFIED ADS

4-H CLUBS TO SEE CLOTHING EXHIBIT

Miss Sarah Thomas to Have Charge of Work in Fairfax County.

Demonstrations on clothing for the 4-H Clubs and Health breakfasts for the House Demonstration Clubs, will be the schedule of Miss Sarah E. Thomas, home demonstration agent of Fairfax County, Va.

Tomorrow afternoon Miss Thomas will meet with the Home demonstration club of Andrew Chapel. Wednesday morning at Oakton Mrs. C. C. Carr will meet with the 4-H Club, at Forestville; Mrs. Mark Turner and Mrs. O. K. Miller will be in charge. That afternoon the McLean 4-H Club will be under the direction of Mrs. F. S. Strawser and at the Franconia Home Demonstration Club meeting Mrs. C. K. Bryant and Mrs. J. Alley will give the demonstrations.

Thursday afternoon Miss Thomas will give the demonstrations at the meeting of the Clifton Home Demonstration Club. Friday morning the 4-H Club will witness clothing demonstrations at Potters Hill by Miss Sarah Cox; at Lorton by Mrs. L. I. Dolph; that afternoon at Franconia by Mrs. Kathie Baker and at Annandale by Mrs. Mason Hirst and Mrs. Charles Bladen. Saturday morning the Clifton 4-H Club will meet with Miss Rebecca Myers and Miss Dorothy Fullerton in charge.

A call for unemployed residents of Fairfax County has been issued by the employment bureaus at Gum Springs, D. J. Garber in charge and at Accotink at Lynns store. Additional men are being employed daily by engineers engaged in widening the Washington-Richmond highway south of Alexandria.

It is stated that the season for road construction is now opening, when a larger force of workmen can be used, and that, according to the contracts of the construction companies and the State highway department, a minimum wage of 20 cents an hour for an eight-hour day, with an average of 30 hours a week, will be paid for persons employed on the road work.

The Laurel Rebekah Lodge at Falls Church, Va., has installed the following officers: Mrs. Lillian Groves, noble grand; Mrs. Mary Vandermark, vice grand; Mrs. Marie Groves, recording secretary; Mrs. J. R. Royston, financial secretary; Mrs. John Cousens, treasurer; Miss Margaret Kimball, warden; Mrs. Cora Abbott, conductor; Mrs. Sybil Abbott, right supporter to the noble grand; Mrs. John Kerns, lift supporter to the noble grand; Edgar Vandermark, right supporter to the vice grand; Fitzhugh Slade, left supporter to the vice grand; Mrs. Carrie Harmon, chaplain; J. R. Royston, inner guard, and Robert Harmon, outer guard.

The new noble grand announced the appointment of the following committees: Finance, Edgar Vandermark, Mrs. Jessie Kerns and Mrs. Mary Vandermark; entertainment, Miss Margaret Kimball, Mrs. John Kerns, Mrs. J. R. Royston, Mrs. Marie Groves and Mrs. Vandermark; ways and means, Mrs. Kerns, Mrs. Vandermark, Mrs. J. R. Royston, Miss Pauline Royston, Miss Marie Groves, Mrs. Lillian Groves, Mrs. Sybil Abbott and Mrs. John Cousens; visiting committee, Mrs. Lillian Groves, Mrs. John Karns, Mrs. Edgar Vandermark and Mrs. J. R. Royston.

The Mount Vernon Grange meeting in the Sherwood Hall, near Fort Humphreys, Va., passed a resolution indorsing the work of the Fairfax County Health Unit and instructed its secretary to write the County Board of Supervisors urging that the unit be retained for at least another year. There has been rumors that a portion of this unit would be abolished as part of the economy program to reduce taxes this fall. The master appointed a committee composed of F. H. Wilkinson, chairman; Herbert Blunt and A. Harmon Roberts to study the proposed county budget for next year and report at the next meeting of the grange.

Pioneer Grange at Masonville, Va., on the Falls Church-Annandale road, has elected H. H. Ankers master for the third consecutive term. Other officers elected at the annual meeting were Julian Slade, overseer; Mrs. Milton Hartley, lecturer; Fitzhugh Slade, steward; A. H. Holland, assistant steward; H. B. Derr, chaplain; Paul Johnson, secretary; W. W. Thomas, treasurer; John Murphy, gatekeeper; Emma Besley, Ceres; Carol Johnson, Pomona; Antoinette Cornelius, Flora; Mrs. H. H. Ankers, lady assistant steward, and Will Cleveland, trustee.

Arrests made by Fairfax County authorities during the week-end include James Hunt, 32, and Shelton Jennell, 26, of Merrifield, possession of a still and manufacture of ardent spirits, near Baileys Cross Roads; Lawrence White, 30, of Herndon, for driving while under the influence of ardent spirits; Robert Wells, 21, of Vienna, drunk and disorderly and destroying evidence, and Owen Masfield, 28, of Hoadley, Va., driving while under the influence of ardent spirits.

Lame Duck Knell To Be Rung Today

Three States Are Ready for Ratification of Amendment.

(Associated Press.)

The death knell probably will sound today for "lame duck" sessions of Congress, with Massachusetts versus Missouri versus Nevada the line-up for the final toll.

Thirty-five Legislatures already have ratified the twentieth amendment to the Constitution in less than a year, and any one of the three States may complete the ratification before Monday is many hours old.

In the background loom Utah, Wisconsin and Georgia as the possible final actors on the amendment which Virginia started on its way to approval last year two days after Congress had submitted it to the States.

The Missouri Senate already had approved the amendment and the House is slated to vote by noon today. The same status pertains in Massachusetts, with the Bay State holding an hour's edge in time. The Nevada Legislature is to take up the amendment the first thing today, with immediate action indicated, but it is three hours behind Eastern standard time.

Eben Putnam Dies at Home.

Wellesley, Mass., Jan 22 (A.P.).—Eben Putnam, 65, national historian of the American Legion, died at his home today in Wellesley Hills.

Berry E. Clark Will Face Trial at Rockville Today

Defense Lawyers Confident New Evidence of Auditors Will Help Cause; Previous Jury Deadlocked; State Lost Venue Change Plea.

Montgomery County Bureau of The Post, 9103 Conn. Ave., North Chevy Chase, Md. Telephone Wisconsin 4205.

Second trial of Berry E. Clark, former clerk of Montgomery County's commissioners, on charges of embezzling county funds, will begin this morning in Montgomery County Circuit Court at Rockville, Md. The first trial resulted in a hung jury.

The indictment on which Clark will be tried today is one of 97 returned by the county grand jury after auditors reported Clark about $50,000 short in his accounts. He was deposed as clerk last March, following the discovery.

The indictment on which he will be tried today is the same one in which the jury last June deadlocked. Eleven favored acquittal and one was for conviction after 15 hours' deliberation. It cites alleged embezzlement of $246 from county funds.

Venue Change Denied.

Approximately 100 witnesses are scheduled to be called by State's Attorney Stedman Prescott, while the defense expects to present between 30 and 40. Defense attorneys are Albert Boulc, F. Barnard Welsh, Thomas Dawson and E. Barrett Prettyman.

State's Attorney Prescott asked that the case be removed to another circuit following the first trial on the grounds that the State could not receive a fair and impartial trial in Montgomery County. This motion was denied by the court in September.

Defense Confident.

The defense appears confident of acquittal. New evidence has been uncovered by auditors which will be of great value, defense attorneys say.

Chief Justice Hammond Urner and Associate Justice Arthur D. Willard will preside. Judge Charles W. Woodward, Montgomery County member of the circuit, has announced that he will not sit in this trial since he accepted Clark's plea of not guilty and waiver of preliminary hearing while police court judge.

A special meeting of the public utilities committee of the Montgomery County Civic Federation will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at Bethesda County Building, J. Harry Welch, chairman, announced yesterday.

The committee will plan for appearance before the joint hearing of the Public Utilities Commission and the Maryland Public Service Commission February 27, at which the question of valuation of properties of the various subsidiaries of the Washington Gas Light Co. will be heard.

The committee hopes to present the case of Montgomery County gas users in such a way that uniform gas rates can be provided for Washington and county users.

The Kensington Volunteer Fire Department will hold its annual dinner tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Villa Roma. The firemen will have an elaborate program of entertainment and addresses.

2 Accidents Happen In New York Fog

Navigation Made Difficult; Liner and Ferryboat Have Troubles.

New York, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—A heavy fog settled over the New York Harbor late today, making all navigation difficult and resulting in two accidents.

The Ward liner Orizaba, groping for its Manhattan pier on its return from Vera Cruz, Mexico and Havana, struck pier 11 in Brooklyn, tearing half the roof off the pier and damaged much of the cargo piled up there.

The Staten Island ferryboat Tompkinsville missed the slip at the Battery and crashed into the seawall. The ferry backed into the bay, however, and got into the slip under its own power. Of the 1,100 passengers aboard, only one was slightly injured.

MACCABEES TO HOLD BANQUET FEBRUARY 6

Clarendon Pastor Will Act as Toastmaster; Several to Make Talks.

THE WASHINGTON POST BUREAU, 907 Prince St., Alexandria, Va. Phone Alexandria 523.

Alexandria Tent No. 2 and Alexandria Hive No. 48, Maccabees, are making arrangements for their annual banquet, which will be given in Odd Fellows Hall, 218 North Columbus street, on February 6. The Rev. O. P. Lloyd, of Clarendon, former pastor of the Temple Baptist Church of Alexandria, will act as toastmaster. Several prominent Maccabees will be among the speakers.

The committee on arrangements for Tent No. 2 includes George K. Bender, chairman; Ashby Bladen, E. L. Cornell and Kenneth Baggett. For Hive No. 48, the committee consists of Mrs. Kenneth Baggett, Mrs. Margaret Wells, Mrs. Alice Long and Mrs. George K. Bender.

A meeting of the committee of the Woman's Organization for National Prohibition Reform in charge of plans for a public meeting on Monday, January 30, in the George Mason Hotel, will be held at 3:30 p. m. today at the home of Mrs. A. Herbert Oliver, 321 South Washington street. This same committee also will arrange for a silver tea the afternoon of February 7 at the home of the chairman of the Alexandria branch, Mrs. Ben B. Cain, 619 South Lee street, and for headquarters to be established the week of February 1, during the State membership campaign.

An important meeting of the Alexandria War Mothers Chapter, Mrs. Norman L. Williamson, president, will be held at George Mason Hotel today. A special program has been arranged.

Martha Washington Chapter, No. 42, Eastern Star, will sponsor a card party tonight in the Virginia Public Service Auditorium, with reservations in charge of Mrs. Karl Chesser and Mrs. Harry Kennedy.

Mrs. Margaret F. Bailey, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, is in charge of arrangements for a luncheon next Monday at 12:30 o'clock in George Mason Hotel, when the executive board of the Department of Virginia will entertain the national president and the national vice president of the Southern Division of the American Legion Auxiliary. All members of auxiliaries in this section are invited to subscribe.

NEW APPEAL MADE FOR RELIEF FUNDS

Arlington Drive for $12,000 Far Behind Schedule, Hall Points Out.

ARLINGTON COUNTY BUREAU OF THE POST. Tel. Clar. 508. Clarendon, Va.

Having failed thus far to reach the Citizens Relief Committee's goal of $12,000 to meet the demands of the Welfare Board in relief work, Gilbert L. Hall, chairman of the committee, last night issued a new appeal for funds.

Despite the efforts of the corps of workers who have worked daily since the drive started last Monday, less than $2,000 has been reported in cash and pledges.

The workers will hold a special meeting tonight at the courthouse in an effort to increase interest in the drive. Less than ten days remain before the campaign is scheduled to close.

Mr. Hall points out that last year a large sum was received by the welfare board from the Community Chest in Washington. Provisions had been made whereby Federal employes residing in Arlington County were allowed to designate where their contribution should go, but this year this is not being done.

Charles W. Smith, president of the Alexandria-Arlington and Fairfax Real Estate Board, has been elected delegate to the midwinter conference of the National Association of Real Estate Boards in Washington Thursday, Friday and Saturday. John F. Webster is alternate.

Plans are being completed for the midwinter review to be held jointly by the Clarendon Fire Department and Woman's Auxiliary on February 2 in Odd Fellows Hall, Clarendon.

Manchukuo-U. S. Trade Is Reported on Increase

New York, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—First foreign trade figures for the new Manchurian State of Manchukuo, made public tonight by Kensuke Horinouchi, Japanese consul general, showed what the consul general termed "a remarkable increase" in the importation of American staple products.

The figures were for the port of Dairen, which Horinouchi said handles more than half of Manchukuo's trade, and covers the eight months from March, 1932, when the new regime was established.

Coast Guard Saves 2 Marooned Youths

Pair Aboard Disabled Dory Are Picked Up Off Marblehead.

Boston, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Two boys who put out from Marblehead in a motorboat yesterday were rescued today by the Coast Guard and their disabled craft towed back to port.

The boys, Alfred Letourneau, 19, and his brother, William, 17, left Marblehead yesterday morning in a 23-foot power dory. After an all-night search, the patrol boat CG 994, of base 7, Gloucester, in command of Chief Boatswain Fitzgerald, found them at 7 a. m. 10 miles southeast of Marblehead Light.

The Coast Guard today continued its search for two men missing in a dory since Thursday from the fishing boat Virginia, and for the abandoned hulk of the tern schooner Dawn Wilkie, whose crew was taken off yesterday by the Boston beam trawler Gertrude N. Fauci.

State of Siege Extends To Curb Nicaragua Data

An Juan Del Sur, Nicaragua, Jan. 22 (A. P.).—The state of siege which has existed in northern Nicaragua today was being extended to the cities of Leon, Chinandega and Managua in a move to curb pro-Sandino and Communist propaganda, which, authorities indicated, was being openly disseminated.

Every telephone in Washington is a branch agency for Post Classified Ads. Just call National 4205 and pay later.

35 RIOTERS INJURED IN NAZI - RED CLASH

Berlin Outbreak Accompanies Effort to End Tribute to Fascist Hero.

Berlin, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Thirty-five Nazis and Communists were injured and 80 persons were arrested today when infuriated crowds tried to interfere with a demonstration National Socialists conducted in honor of a fallen comrade.

Thousands of Adolf Hitler's brown-shirted Nazis participated in the parade to Bueiow Platz, Berlin's proletarian square, where Communists headquarters are situated, and the march to a nearby cemetery, where the Nazi chieftain dedicated the tombstone of the Fascist hero, Horst Wessel.

The demonstration aroused the ire of the Communists, who previously had protested vigorously against it. Although armored cars filled with police and lookouts on housetops to preserve order, the crowds and the Communists engaged in fist fights, wielded clubs, and improvised gangs in an effort to break up the Nazi meeting.

Order was finally restored. Police, saying that this was one of the mildest political meetings in years, declared that their careful precautions had averted what they apprehensively predicted might be a bloody affair.

Disorders also occurred in Leipzig and Cologne, where police were obliged to fire into a crowd. Two Communists were severely injured in Cologne.

Communists here reported that one of their number had been killed, but verification of the statement was lacking.

$600 Watch Is Lost At Emergency Hospital

A wrist watch, valued at $600, was lost yesterday in Emergency Hospital, according to a report made to police by Mrs. Ethelyne Grove, of 1348 Euclid street northwest.

Mrs. Grove said she was visiting a friend in the hospital and lost the watch on an upper floor. It was set with 48 diamonds.

Camalier & Buckley

The Electric Dry Shaver

The only improvement ever made in Razors. Think of being able to shave when fully dressed or at any period of the day without any preparation whatever.

The only razor that can not cut the skin.

Camalier & Buckley
Fine Leathergoods

1141 Connecticut Ave.
2 doors above The Mayflower

PETRO NOKOL
OIL BURNERS SAVE MONEY
Automatic Heating Corp.
1719 Conn. Ave. North 0627

POST WANT ADS PAY.

There are other good cigarettes, of course—

TO TELL you that Chesterfield is the only good cigarette... that the makers of Chesterfield Cigarettes are the only ones who can buy good tobaccos and manufacture cigarettes scientifically... would be nothing short of foolish.

For all tobacco is sold in open auctions—where anyone can buy if he will pay the price. Even the machines on which different cigarettes are made are alike.

This much, however, is true: By using the right kinds of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos in just the right proportions... by blending and cross-blending them together in the most careful way... we make Chesterfield what smokers say it is... a cigarette that's milder, that tastes better. Just try them.

Chesterfield Radio Program—Every night except Sunday, Columbia coast-to-coast Network.

© 1933, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

Chesterfield

THEY'RE MILDER—
THEY TASTE BETTER

The Washington Post.

THE WASHINGTON POST CO.
Washington, D. C.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

The Washington Post is a member of the Associated Press, receiving the complete service of the world's greatest news-gathering organization.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published herein.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Delivered by Carrier in Washington.

Daily, Sunday included, one year	$8.40
Daily, Sunday excepted, one year	6.00
Sunday only, one year	2.60
Daily, Sunday included, one month	.70
Daily, Sunday excepted, one month	.50
Sunday only, one month (with four Sundays)	.20
Sunday only, one month (with five Sundays)	.25

BY MAIL, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.
(Maryland and Virginia.)

Daily and Sunday.	Sunday Only.	Daily Only.
One year..$10.00	One year....$4.00	One year..$7.00
Six months. 5.00	Six months.. 2.00	Six months.. 3.50
One month. .85	One month.. .40	One month. .60

ALL OTHER STATES.
(Mexico and Canada, Incl.)

Daily and Sunday.	Sunday Only.	Daily Only.
One year..$12.00	One year...$5.00	One year...$8.00
Six months. 6.00	Six months. 2.50	Six months. 4.00
One month. 1.00	One month.. 50	One month.. .75

All Subscriptions by Mail Payable in Advance.

New subscriptions for The Post or renewals will not be accepted unless payment accompanies the order. Remittance should be made by draft, checks, post-office orders, registered letters or express orders, payable to The Washington Post.

Entered at the Postoffice, Washington, D. C., as second-class mail matter.

National Advertising Representative—PAUL BLOCK and Associates, Park-Lexington Building, New York; Palmolive Building, Chicago; Little Building, Boston; General Motors Building, Detroit; Guarantee Trust Building, Philadelphia; Russ Building, San Francisco; 1151 South Broadway, Los Angeles.

Monday, January 23, 133.

CHOOSING A CABINET.

President-elect Roosevelt's most urgent task, during his sojourn in the South, will be the selection of his Cabinet. Considerable attention was given to that undertaking while he was in Washington, yet only one Cabinet member seems to have been definitely chosen—James A. Farley as Postmaster General. Indications are that a number of offers have been made, but some desirable men are apparently not inclined to serve.

It is obvious that the President-elect is trying to assemble a Cabinet of distinguished statesmen. He is not the type of President to select a mediocre Cabinet so that his own leadership might stand out more sharply. Mr. Roosevelt wants the strongest men in the Democratic party to aid him in carrying the burdens of the Government for the next four years. His desires in this respect should be gratified.

There is no apprehension that Mr. Roosevelt will not choose a strong Cabinet. But there is considerable apprehension lest some of the leading Democrats who are selected may decline to serve. The country is confronted with many extremely difficult problems. Cabinet positions entail a great deal of hard work, plenty of criticism and meager salaries. As jobs they are not attractive offers, yet no patriotic American will decline a call to serve the Government in such capacity, if it is in his power to serve.

The responsibility for administering the affairs of the United States for the next four years rests upon the Democratic party, not exclusively upon the shoulders of any one individual. Democratic leaders in and out of public life owe a duty to their standard bearer and to their country. They could render no greater service than by responding to the call that is made to them in this hour, when not one but many problems confront the Government. Now is the time for every good Democrat to come to the aid of his party.

MORTGAGE RELIEF.

The question of mortgage relief is not limited to the demands of western farmers. Arguments in favor of lower interest charges are heard even in the metropolis. Two companies which have guaranteed nearly one-third of the mortgages outstanding on New York property have expressed what is recognized as the general opinion of guaranteed mortgage interests. The Lawyers Mortgage Company and the Title Guarantee and Trust Company have publicly spoken for relief from the mortgage burden.

President Richard M. Hurd of the Lawyers company urges that "if the investor, in his own interest, will accept for a few years a lower rate of interest on his guaranteed mortgages he will be adopting an intelligent and public-spirited attitude which will carry through the situation until business conditions improve." One savings bank has already announced a reduction from 6 to 5½ per cent on both new mortgages and renewals. Two other savings institutions have granted a flat blanket reduction of ½ per cent on all outstanding mortgages.

These general measures, however, do not indicate by any means the large volume of relief that has been afforded by New York banks, most of them preferring to consider the necessities of individual cases separately without attempting at this time to make one rule to fit all cases. Such action by savings banks naturally have an immediate relation to the interest which these institutions can pay depositors, and it appears inevitable that this rate will suffer a still further reduction from the present 3½ per cent to 3 per cent.

It seems probable that the numerous measures now before Congress for the relief of the farm mortgage situation may be superseded by the bill introduced by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, following various conferences with President-elect Roosevelt. This measure, which is expected to have the general support of the Democratic members of both houses, has the approval of farmer organizations and has been worked out with the intention of aiding the farmer to escape technical bankruptcy and avoid the foreclosure of his mortgage during the progress of negotiations for a compromise agreement regarding his obligations.

This is in direct line with the recommendations made by President Hoover for a liberalization of the bankruptcy laws, following the outline of such legislation suggested as necessary by Attorney General Mitchell in his last two annual reports. The Robinson bill adds the feature of "conciliation commissioners", which the sponsors believe would extend the benefits of the proposed law to many who would not avail themselves of the referee system. Moreover, in States where many farmers are in distress, the referee system, it is held, would not be able to handle the hearings promptly. The executive proposals with regard to modification of the bankruptcy laws have met with very little opposition from any source and it seems probable that various minor differences can be reconciled and the much-needed reforms passed without delay at the present session of Congress.

DEVALUING THE DOLLAR.

Senator Connally, of Texas, comes forth as the new apostle of adulterated money. He would revalue the dollar by reducing its gold content, and would make his debased dollar legal tender in payment for all debts.

Other members of Congress indorsed this despair. Their advice produces ironical smiles on the faces of European economists and statesmen who have had considerable experience with devaluing money since the depression began. Great Britain went off the gold standard in September, 1931. Since that time sterling has declined almost one-third in value, but the general level of sterling prices has increased only 1.7 per cent. Japan's experience is similar. The yen has fallen in value from nearly 50 cents to about 21 cents, but the level of commodity prices has not substantially changed. It is quite probable that devaluation of the American dollar would be no more effective in raising commodity prices in this country than the devaluation of foreign currencies has been.

If the dollar were cut in half, the country would have no more wealth and no more buying power than it has now; but it would have much less confidence in the future. The United States has ample supplies of both currency and credit available at any time business cares to use it. Interest rates are low, the gold supply has increased by $600,000,000 in the last six months, the banks have large idle reserves, and the Federal Reserve Banks have extensive powers of lending and of creating more currency if it is needed. In these circumstances, the chief result of devaluing the dollar would be loss of confidence and prolonged depression.

The panacea offered by Senator Connally is the antithesis of what financial and economic experts are advising. Francis H. Sisson, president of the American Bankers' Association, refers to the inflation theory as an illusion. "What is needed to give our currency and credit resources velocity," he says, "is business confidence—confidence among industrial and business leaders for their undertakings, courage to ask the banks for sound loans to finance them, and prudent courage among bankers to grant them—courage, also, among our people to resume normal spending and replenishments, and among our investors to resume normal investing."

Schemes for debasement of the dollar are a certain way of destroying that confidence and of accelerating the downward movement.

TO PROMOTE BARTER.

In various sections of the country, where cash is scarce in certain lines of industry, barter centers have been established that are reported to be aiding needed exchange of goods and commodities that could not be effected in the usual manner. Some of these exchanges employ barter scrip, while others rely upon direct trades. The possibilities of the barter exchange have been considered by a large group of economists, college presidents and professors who met at Princeton and decided to seek government aid in the establishment of more such centers.

The President will be asked by this group to name a special committee to examine the various systems of barter actually in operation and to act in an advisory capacity as to the merits of the various schemes. It is further urged that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation consider the advisability of permitting States to utilize a portion of loans granted for unemployment relief to be utilized for aid in founding exchanges. The learned sponsors of the scheme hold that it can be set up without disrupting the present economic structure and that it would, in fact, help to restore normal business activity.

Among the claims made for the project is that a large number of those now unemployed can be set at work producing goods and services for their own consumption through the establishment of emergency exchanges. The cost of these centers, it is held, would be comparatively small and they would soon become self-supporting. One of the chief claims for the exchanges is that they would be useful in relieving the burden on private and governmental relief agencies. The question naturally arises as to whether such centers would not withhold trade from established lines and hinder normal restoration of business. To avoid conflicts in this direction the college group asks that a conference of executives from all lines of commercial enterprise and industry be called to consider the establishment of the barter exchanges.

NO DEPRESSION IN ART.

A survey by the American Federation of Arts indicates that the depression of business and industry last year did not carry over into the field of art. More than usual activity is recorded for some of the fine arts. Eleven new museums were completed in the United States at an average cost of $1,000,000. Approximately $12,000,000 was invested in art museums, which is an unusual figure in view of the fact that the total investment in such buildings does not exceed $75,000,000.

In normal years the art museums obtain about $500,000 in gifts and bequests. Last year a partial list of funds from these sources totaled $5,337,410. The total income of art museums from all sources is placed at $12,000,000. Only one important museum was forced to inaugurate a part-time schedule, and more than 1,000 such institutions maintained their regular services throughout the year.

This uptrend of art while commercial enterprises are at a low ebb may prove to be significant. Objects of art are not subjected to the fluctuating price levels of wheat, cotton, household furnishings, or stocks and bonds. While deflation has been going on in other lines the value of art collections has been steadily appreciating. The lowest estimate places the increase in the wealth of art museums during 1932 at 10 per cent. A considerable part of this increase may be accounted for by new additions to collections, but higher values placed on works of art are also a factor.

A great painting or a poem loses nothing of its intrinsic worth in a period of hard times. The tendency is, therefore, to place greater value on these things when other values that have been cherished shrink or disappear. Culture can not be deflated. The effect of a period like the present is to turn the minds of the people toward values that are permanent.

If this tendency can be stimulated, its effect upon the economic world may be more far-reaching than its cultural results. Overproduction is the bane of almost every economic line of endeavor. Too many men are trying to grow wheat and make automobiles. The energy of the entire population is not needed to produce the necessities and the physical comforts of life. If some of this energy could be diverted to the fields of art, literature, culture and leisure the economic system would be relieved of a great strain. Man's productivity continues to increase. It is unreasonable to suppose that all human energy in the future can be profitably employed in satisfying physical wants. Cultural and artistic wants will supplement the demand for automobiles and vacuum cleaners. Any indication that investment and interest in the arts are increasing should be welcome news to business and industry.

INSURANCE FOR INDUSTRY?

One additional panacea for depression is added to the already exhaustive list by Fred I. Kent, New York banker. In addressing the American Society of Civil Engineers, Mr. Kent suggested that all would be well if the Government would insure industry against loss until the economic machine is functioning smoothly again.

The theory behind Mr. Kent's plan is that insurance of industry against loss would start factory wheels rolling and give employment to men now idle, and thus increase purchasing power so that the people could buy the output of accelerated industry. The entire cycle of recovery would be put into motion, he thinks, by a simple guarantee to manufacturers that they would lose nothing by going forward.

Apparently Mr. Kent has not worked out the details of this plan. What industries would be thus insured? Would the Government give carte blanche to every American industry to go ahead with production and to unload its deficits upon the Treasury? Would semi-bankrupt firms be treated on the same basis as financially sound institutions? If not, what practical method of discrimination would be applied without throwing the whole scheme into the cauldron of politics?

One other extremely difficult question would be certain to arise. How far would the proposed insurance extend? Could each concern produce as much as it liked and charge to Uncle Sam the losses on that portion of its output which would be unmarketable? All firms would be inclined to produce as much as possible if they were guaranteed against loss. A new orgy of overproduction would be thus encouraged. Furthermore, there could be no guarantee that the wage-earners who would return to their jobs would spend their wages to buy the increased output. Impressed by the necessity of providing for future difficulties, millions would be inclined to save their wages. A disastrous piling up of goods at the expense of the Government would be almost inevitable. The last step in such an adventure might be the addition of billions to the national debt and the collapse of Government credit.

Many concerns now have ample capital to go forward with normal production. Why do they hesitate? Because they do not believe that it would be a good business risk. Should the Government attempt to gamble with taxpayers' money where prudent business men will not risk their own holdings? Every scheme to have the Government revive business by putting a siphon into the Treasury is unsound. When Congress has corrected the fundamental defects in the banking structure, balanced the budget, made adjustment of debts easier and untangled the international situation, it will have accomplished all that government can do toward reviving business. The people must do something for themselves.

The lame duck amendment is about to be attached to the Constitution. When it brings about a vacancy in the Presidency, as it will sooner or later, there will be a record crop of lame ducks.

Having limited the chief benefits of the banking bill to nine States, the filibusterers may now kill the measure on the ground that it would not aid the backward States.

After viewing the line-up at President-elect Roosevelt's hotel door, Jim Farley decides that what the Democrats need is a few million more jobs in Washington.

British heavyweights training for the debt tug-of-war are intimidated when they learn that Rex Tugwell is the American champ.

"The vast majority of Americans are not tax-conscious," yells Dr. Nick Butler. Al Capone and Dutch Schultz can plead not guilty.

The British debt delegation will arrive March 5, according to Henry Suydam. Why should it miss the inaugural ball?

The Muscle Shoals white elephant is waiting to make trouble for the donkey.

Reports that there'll be enough jobs to go around are Farley open to doubt.

Saving the Country, 1933. —Boston Transcript.

POST HASTE

With two Presidents, England and Borah agreeing on a debt parley Congress feels a bit fifth-wheelish.

That Geneva committee which threatens to make a report without a Jap-a-lac finish may end by saving the league's badly damaged countenance.

Domestic nitrate plants having been built up to supply American needs, the best way to secure overproduction to match everything else is for the Government to go into the business at Muscle Shoals.

Senator Lewis will radiate his views tonight about currency adulteration. There are still a few of us left who haven't been bitten by the dangerous inflation bug.

Boxing is barred and high school baseball is threatened, but don't deprive our District boys of the manly sport of ping pong.

Japanese effrontery has displayed some remarkable twists, but the latest assumption that China is the one that is invading Jehol makes it difficult to reason calmly with Tokyo.

The visit to Muscle Shoals enabled several congressmen to display what they do not know about modern electric plants.

The vote of one more State will insure the end of lame duck sessions. The unanimity of legislative action for this amendment is a tribute in reverse for the present Congress.

Since Japan claims that Jehol is an integral part of Manchukuo, the next adjoining regions must begin to wonder what they are.

Business will stagnate until the Federal budget is balanced and danger of inflation is passed. We can charge this situation to Congress, but how can we collect?

There have been suggestions that in times past the Monroe Doctrine was expanded, but it was never stretched, as its Asiatic counterfeit has been, to make nationals aggressors when defending their own territory.

No less than 122 Democratic members of the House will come to Washington in April for their first congressional experience. Speculate, but place no bets on what their influence will be.

"France to await outcome of British debt parley." Being a stickler for an invitation, no gate crasher.

The political horticulturists are wondering whether a Republican Cutting from New Mexico can be fruitfully grafted on the new Democratic plant in Washington.

PAUL HUDSON.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST.

THE PARTY.

Six friends for tea, and when they came
With rapture were her eyes aflame,
And pretty was the smile she wore
As they were welcomed at the door.
With beauty was the table spread,
Where many a merry word was said.

The rooms were bright as they could be,
No friend a sign of dust must see;
No friend must come and find a trace
Of preparation commonplace.
And so all day with courage stout
The little home she'd toiled about.

They praised the food as friends will do,
They laughed and sang the evening through.
They recognized and felt the grace
And beauty of her dwelling place,
But never once she let them see
That night how very tired was she.

(Copyright, 1933.)

A New Doctor Can't Get Better Results If He Uses the Same Old Medicine

By ROBERT QUILLEN

WHEN an army has suffered many reverses and is falling back day by day, a new general is appointed to direct it.

And when the new general has taken charge, the people watch closely for the one unmistakable sign that will prove him capable of winning.

The general's promises mean nothing; the adoption of new uniforms has no significance; even the appointment of new captains is unavailing.

The sign awaited by the people is a change of direction. They will see nothing to inspire hope until the army stops its retreat and begins to move forward.

What does a mere change of generals signify if the new one continues the tactics of the old?

Now search for hope in the "new deal" promised the American people.

By what sign shall they recognize the beginning of a new order? What is the fundamental change that will give assurance of better days to come, and without which all else is sound and fury signifying nothing?

Well, what thing is it that breaks the spirit of the people and deprives them of hope?

It is the unbearable tax required to balance budgets.

But, you say, the budgets must be balanced. Income must balance outgo.

True enough. But there are two ways to balance a budget. One is to levy more taxes and the other is to reduce expenditures.

This is the fundamental test. This is the sign awaited by the people. This is the change by which the "new deal" must be tested.

If budgets are balanced by reducing taxes and then reducing expenditures to match income, new hope and new courage will make an end of our troubles.

If budgets are balanced in the same old way, by increasing taxes to match extravagance and waste, all else that may be done will be a meaningless gesture.

This is the sign of salvation—the proof of a changed heart.

The fanfare of trumpets is an empty mockery if the army still retreats.

(Copyright, 1933.)

POLITICAL COMMENT

Congressional Cure-Alls.

Los Angeles Times.

In many ways, the present session of Congress is like a war dance around a witches' caldron. Into the magic pot go nostrums, panaceas, charms, magic remedies—everything from horse chestnuts to be carried in the right pants pocket to technocracy pills for an afflicted industrial life.

Out of the mixture, Congress has produced a plan for farm relief. In effect it is a bribe—courteously called a subsidy—to reward farmers who will consent not to wreck their own industry by overproduction.

It is a fundamental fact—obvious to every one not a vote-seeking politician—that to stuff up the holes in a leaky ship going in the wrong direction does not help any one or anything.

Mr. Hoover Goes His Way.

Minneapolis Journal.

It is evident that Mr. Hoover will continue to do his duty, as he sees it, till the expiration of the term of office for which he was elected. He will do this, regardless of the hostility or indifference of Congress. He is the President of the United States until March 4 next, and is under the most solemn obligation to act as such to the best of his ability and judgment.

He vetoed the Philippines Independence Bill because he believed it a thoroughly bad piece of legislation. He will no doubt veto a beer bill, in the improbable event that one gets to his desk. He may be expected to veto any such allotment or "parity" bill as passed the House, because it violates what he conceives to be sound principles.

Analyze? Huh!

Schenectady Gazette.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation suggests that each individual should analyze his own problems. Easy there, boss; most of our problems have reached the stage that they defy analysis.

Long Convalescence.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

Dispatch says Hoover will rest for a year after retiring. That hardly seems long enough to get rid of the pain in the neck Congress gave him.

Volley Ball.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

Congress is busy passing bills for Hoover to veto, and Hoover is sending over recommendations for Congress to heave into the waste basket.

Getting Together.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

The conference of Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Stimson apparently was a complete success. If nothing more, it enabled our representatives in Europe to maintain some continuity in their negotiations for disarmament and in the planning of the World Economic Conference. However, the parley with Mr. Stimson seems to have borne further fruit, for it established Mr. Roosevelt's willingness to pursue the Stimson policies in the Far East, which are, in fact, the most significant contribution of the Hoover administration to world politics.

Banking Reform.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

Business men, financiers and economists generally agree that stagnant business is largely, though of course not wholly, an affair of money and credit. It follows that any fundamental and aggressive attack on depression must begin with a reformation of the banking system, to the end that it may create and supply the larger volume of commercial credit essential to a sustained recovery of business activity.

If this is true, then the Glass banking bill, the only bill seriously considered, is in fact the most important piece of legislation before the present Congress, next to routine appropriations. Whether one agrees with all the details of that bill, it remains the corner stone of any frontal attack on the lethargy of American economic life.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Budget, Banking and Bankruptcy Should Engage Attention of Congress.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: We see Congress stirring up a dubious situation in the Philippines when it ought to be working on the three "B's"—budget, banking and bankruptcy. It is not the "lame ducks" but the strutting roosters that are chiefly responsible for this.

Cities, counties and States are balancing budgets and actually reducing taxes without the aid of booze. The wet crowd at Washington might as well recognize that the National Government will have to do the same. With the undeniable possibilities of trouble that exist today in this country, Congress had better forget about alcohol and for safety's sake give up the idea of reestablishing public drinking places or legal booze until after the depression is over.

Would it not be feasible to permit branch banking in zones, within each State, the size and number of zones to depend on conditions and be determined by the State? That would strengthen banks in small communities and should be offensive to no one. Undoubtedly there are some sound objections to State-wide branch banking.

Economic dunces who would tinker with the currency, and newspapers which give undue space to that sort of agitation, ought to be suppressed until the depression is over.

R. E. NEWELL.

Irwin, Pa.

Increase of Street Beggars and Purse-Snatchers Calls for Police Activity.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: The steady infiltration into the city of destitute and often desperate men has created a situation that seems to call for a much more definite police policy than is apparent to a casual observer.

The city is literally crowded with panhandlers. One can seldom stop his car for a moment along a curb without being approached by some nondescript individual with a request for money. They do not hesitate to annoy women and even children and recently have resorted to purse-snatching. In fact it is no longer safe for a woman to carry a purse, even in broad daylight and on our main streets. These men seem to be able to spot the blue uniform of a policeman from long distances and they disappear somewhere until he has sauntered by. Massachusetts avenue in the vicinity of Force School is a particular mecca for these beggars. The majority of them give the impression that they are the very worst type of professional hobo.

If there is any law or ordinance against panhandling it certainly is not being enforced. Nor will it be until there is a concerted drive by police in plain clothes. Unless some strong action is taken soon this dangerous situation is sure to get completely out of hand.

JOHN CABOT.

Too Much Hooey in the Senate—Makes Extra Session Necessary.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: By the narrow margin of a single vote, the United States Senate failed to secure the necessary two-thirds vote required to invoke the cloture rule, limiting each senator to one hour of discussion on a pending measure. Many newspapers unfairly refer to it as a gag rule. It should rather be styled the common-sense rule.

No fair-minded person desires to prevent open discussion of public questions. But at a time when every effort should be made by those in power to alleviate the economic distress and restore national confidence, it is a pitiable and contemptible spectacle to see the business of the Senate tied up for days by a senseless filibustering show. It is cheering, however, to note, that there are 58 senators who believe that the United States Senate should be a body to conduct the legislative business of the Nation with reasonable dispatch rather than a place for staging tiring oratorical marathons.

The dilatory actions of the present Senate will doubtless require a special session after March 4. The longer Congress delays, lingers and waits, the longer it will be that the fear and uncertainty of threatened legislative action will exist as a deterrent to business and industry.

There has been too much hooey in the present Senate. Filibustering has no place in a modern legislative body. The national needs demand action, not talk.

WILLIAM H. PARRY.

Newark, N. J.

Unwise to Reduce Defenses When World Is in Such a Troubled State.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: With the reduction of our Marine force what shall we do if trouble arises on a large scale in China, or any other part of the world where American lives or property are at stake? Is it possible that soldiers are so trained as to be able to replace them in case of need?

This letter is written for the purpose of gaining information. Can you give it through the columns of your paper?

Of course I understand that a small force of Marines will be left, but the world has come to a troublous time. From events now happening it does not look wise to economize by reducing our defensive and protective forces.

MARY ANN WALFORD.

New Cabinet.

Chicago Tribune.

The country awaits with special interest and concern the selection of the new Cabinet. Two appointments overshadow the others—namely: that of Secreary of State and that of Secretary of the Treasury. The choice of two strong men for these key posts and its announcement would do more than anything else in public affairs to hearten the Nation.

KING OF THE JUNGLE

by CHARLES THURLEY STONEHAM

CHAPTER 2.
SYNOPSIS.

Kaspa, a 4-year-old white boy, is found by a roving family of lions in the heart of the jungle and adopted by Kali, a powerful lioness whose cubs had just been killed by hyenas. Her mate, Paka, the leader of the group, Nguvu, a newcomer, and his mate, Mua, tolerated the youngster because Kali had taken him for her own. Kali tenderly lifted the infant by the shirt and carried him back to the lion's den, where he slept peacefully, nestled against the tawny flank of the lioness.

As the days went by, the other lions became accustomed to Kaspa's presence among them. The man-smell still persisted, but it was overlaid with familiar odors from constant contact with the lioness; and certainly there was nothing of man in the cub's deportment. He went fearlessly among them, playing and rolling and grunting, not only with Kali, but on occasion, with Mua and Nguvu, and sometimes, in thoughtless presumption, with Paka himself. The old lion was unapproachable at first but gradually he became more and more tolerant, until one day Kaspa mounted his mighty back unrebuked and rolled all over him, as no true lion cub had ever dared to do.

From that time complete confidence was established. Paka took the cub under his protection and instructed him in the ways of the brotherhood. Kaspa learned to eat raw buck and to drink muddy water of the river. In a few weeks he rarely availed himself of Kali's milk to quench his thirst, and learned to eat largely when there was plenty in preparation for the days of abstinence when no meat was procurable. In the vivid moonlight he played among the rocks and bushes outside the cave, while Kali lay watching, keeping a jealous eye upon his doings.

So the days went by with little to distinguish them from each other in their monotonous similarity. About a month after Kaspa's introduction to the circle, Mua gave birth to a couple of male cubs. With two lionesses tending their young in the cave, the task of supplying meat fell exclusively upon the lion. Nguvu began to bring home large animals and drop them in the bush near the cave, close, handy for his mate. Paka did not like this. It drew attention to the situation of the lair. The discarded skeletons attracted large numbers of jackals and hyenas. The old lion was a hunter of long experience and he knew the danger of advertising his presence and habits so widely.

Before long his apprehensions were justified. One day Kaspa, now a sturdy brown-skinned youngster, whose nocturnal habits did not interfere with sundry daytime excursions into the nearby bush, was playing upon the kopje within a stone's throw of the cave. The boy had spent the hours from dawn to midday in sleep, and now he was eager for the warmth of the afternoon sun and the sights and sounds of the busy daylight world. This propensity for roving abroad in daytime had been a source of considerable anxiety to Kali, who knew the danger of the glaring bush for the creatures of the night, but Kaspa had an irresistible urge to be up and about while his companions were content to lie sleepily awaiting the coming of night, and the lioness had gradually become accustomed to this peculiarity in her cub.

Kaspa was climbing among the rocks, a pastime strange to any lion cub. He looked down over the top of a sheer escarpment on to a grove of trees near the river, where a half-eaten carcass of a fat kongoni had been carefully hidden.

Suddenly strange jabbering sounds assailed his ear.

Four creatures were gathered about the kill, conversing in loud voices. To Kaspa they looked something like the baboons he had often seen scrambling among the rocks of the kopje, but he knew instinctively that these were no harmless monkeys. There was something about the careless arrogance of their bearing and the curious erect posture which they maintained, apparently without effort, that terrified him. They carried sticks of curious shape in their hands, and their skins hung loosely about their brown bodies in peculiar fashion Kaspa stole away to the cave and Kali, growling low in his throat and casting uneasy glances behind him.

Paka was immediately alert. He went to the cave mouth and stood there snuffing the air continually, but after a time, when no danger manifested itself, he returned to his rock and stretched his mighty form upon it, to lie for the rest of the day with his yellow eyes fixed upon the curtain of daylight that shut him off from the outer world.

Kali quited her cubs with a few consoling licks, and fell asleep again. She felt no alarm as long as Paka remained content. Wandering enemies sometimes passed the cave, but there were few who would deliberately provoke the anger of the lions.

That night, when Paka led the way down to the kill, the bush reeked with the scent of man.

The old lion circled the tree beneath which the kongoni lay, trying by ear and nose to find the cause of that malignant odor. The hyenas were already at work, and, judging by the numbers hurrying to the feast, there would soon be nothing left for the rightful owners. Disregarding all caution, Nguvo made straight for the kill. It was no longer lying on the ground, but had been raised and suspended from the tree out of reach of the baffled hyenas. Nguvo stood looking at it, making no attempt to approach and pull it down, as he could easily have done. Mua was not so patient. She had left her cubs for a few moments while she came down to snatch a few hasty mouthfuls, and she had no time to waste with all these hyenas about and the cave left unguarded.

Disregarding her mate's warning growl, she reared up against the tree and took the meat in her mouth. Immediately there was a sharp snap, and something appeared to detach itself from the green trunk and leap at Mua's leg.

The lioness flung herself backward, roaring and struggling, but she was suspended in midair, without any chance of employing her enormous strength against the thing that held her. Nguvu sprang to her help, tearing at the steel trap with teeth and claws, but the metal was proof against his efforts. Paka and Kali leapt back into the shadow, staring affrighted at the struggle by the tree, Kaspa crouching silent and terrified against his protector's flank.

After a few minutes Mua hung motionless, her hind legs supporting her weight, her forepaws braced against the tree in the manner in which she had been caught. Her lips writhed back from her teeth in a soundless snarl. She was over the first paroxysm of pain and fear and beginning to get savage and fighting mad. She looked round eagerly for the enemy who had wrought this evil, for she knew that the thing that held her was inanimate and unable to feel her onslaughts. Nguvu crouched beside her, growling softly. He had seen this thing happen before, and he knew that the next act in the tragedy would be the arrival of the hunters and the brutal murder of his helpless mate. He also knew the uselessness of resistance. He had seen two maned lions killed while attempting to protect their mates held helpless in these devilish contrivances. In the morning the enemy would come, to the number of 50 or more. Firing off guns, yelling and beating tins and drums, they would surround the tree, and when Mua's companions charged them they would take to the trees like monkeys and shoot them to death from the safety of their roosts, far out of reach of a spring. In futile wrath he chased the hyenas right and left, striving to vent his fury upon something of flesh and blood instead of the cold iron that mocked him. The ghouls fled, screaming and laughing, to gather again next moment in grim expectation of their meal.

For hours the lion family prowled round the spot where one of their number was held captive. Mua struggled fiercely from time to time, but for the most part she was silent and watchful. Her mate communicated to her by that process of thought transference (assisted by certain well-understood sounds) by which the animals converse that her fate was inevitable. It was beyond his power to extricate her; only the terrible man creatures who had set the trap could release it. Listening to his explanatory grunts, and sensing the thoughts unspoken, Paka also began to have some idea of what might be expected. As the night wore on and dawn began to make its appearance in the sky, he grew uneasy, and when finally Nguvu drew away toward the cave, the older lion for once abandoned his leadership and followed the younger beast. Upon that same sheer rock from which Kaspa had seen the first approach of the hunters they took their stand and waited for what might come.

When the sun was high above the hills and the bush was almost free of shadows, a long procession of dark-skinned men came along the river bank. They were all armed with spears and shields, and some of them had guns of antiquated pattern. They kept up a continual chanting in time to their march, and as they approached the tree and saw their prize fierce shouts of pleasure broke from them.

In a half circle they came forward, the warriors in front, weapons in readiness, the drummers a few paces behind the main body, eagerly waving their sticks. Within 50 yards of the still form of Mua, at a signal from one of them, the drummers struck their instruments. An appalling uproar began, in which the raucous screams of the warriors contended with the thunder of the drums and the howling of kudu horns.

The three lions and the boy watching from the rock shrank in horror from the brutal cacophony, so disturbing to the sensitive ears of the cat people. It affrighted Mua also. She began to roar and struggle, and at this demonstration of her might several of the less courageous natives climbed trees to safety, fearful that she might loosen her foot from the trap. Others ran forward and at a range of a few yards opened a confused and ill-directed fire with rifles and bows. Bullets struck Mua, causing her to roar and writhe with pain and rage. Spearmen ran in, and soon there were a dozen quiverling blades protruding from the lioness' jerking body. In a few minutes it was over. Mua hung inert from the tree that had betrayed her, her splendid tawny hide streaked with blood and scarred with the gashes of her injuries.

The natives gathered in a howling, dancing ring about her, shutting out that awful spectacle from her comrades' sight.

The lions had observed these happenings with horrified interest. Paka watched intently, without a sound; Nguvu kept up a low growling in his throat, his twiching muscles evidencing his desire to dash upon the hunters' spears in a futile effort to avert his mate's fate; Kali jerked and snarled as though pulling at an invisible leash, while her man cub crouched whimpering against her, a prey to all the fears communicated from her mind to his.

Kaspa never forgot that sight or the lesson it taught him. Henceforth he was to know that the most terrible enemies of his kind were the man folk, who slew from a distance and made cunning snares to render their prey helpless before they attacked it. A fear and hatred of lions was in the make-up of men, and that fear and hatred were reciprocated. In after-years he remembered Mua's death and the manner in which it was brought about. He had discovered that the lions were not all-powerful as he had supposed, for there was one enemy who by cunning and the use of strange instruments was enabled to kill Mua before her comrades' eyes without their daring to avenge her.

Paka suddenly rose from the rock and moved slowly toward the cave. Their refuge was bare and empty; no mewing cubs greeted their return, but the place reeked of hyenas, at which Kali raised the hair on her shoulders and thrust close against her man cub's side. Mua's cubs had perished while she was held captive, and the hyenas were the murderers. Paka looked about the cave as though taking a long farewell of the home in which he had found many days of peaceful security, then he turned and led the way across the kopje and down its opposite slope into the dense thorn bush. Testing the wind, he swung round to the west and headed toward the distant mountain.

(Copyright, 1933.)
(To Be Continued.)

Loring Black to Review U.S.Employes' Economy

A review of economy legislation now pending in Congress which affects the working conditions of Government employes will be made by Representative Loring M. Black, jr., of New York, as the principal speaker at a meeting of the District Department of the American Federation of Government Employes Wednesday night at the Hamilton Hotel.

As a member of the House District Committee Mr. Black also is expected to touch on legislation affecting the Capital and of interest to the 69,000 employes of the Government here.

Maj. E. W. Brown to Speak.

Maj. Ernest W. Brown, superintendent of police, will address members of the Midcity Citizens Association at a meeting of the organization at 8 o'clock tonight in Thomson School.

Ready readers watch Post Classified ads for new propositions every morning. Put your message before them and get results the same day. Just phone National 4205.

Events in Washington Society

Claudels Will Give Luncheon for Mme. Dupuy.

THE AMBASSADOR OF FRANCE AND MME. CLAUDEL will entertain at luncheon tomorrow in honor of Mme. Dupuy, owner of Le Petit Parisen.

The Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Ogden Mills will be among the patrons of the fifth annual Russian students ball to be held at the Ritz-Carlton in New York on Friday.

Representative and Mrs. Robert Low Bacon entertained at a small supper party last evening.

Representative and Mrs. S. C. Shallenberger entertained at dinner last evening at the Hamilton Hotel. Their guests included Senator and Mrs. Carl Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Keating and Miss Grace Shallenberger.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. M. Robert Guggenheim will entertain at a small dance on February 25.

Dr. Bello-Codesido Leaves City Tomorrow.

Dr. Emilio Bello-Codesido and Senora de Bello-Codesido will leave Washington tomorrow for New York, and will sail later in the week for Chile, where Dr. Bello-Codesido has been appointed minister of national defense. Dr. Bello-Codesido has been in Washington as judge in the Guatemalan-Honduran boundary commission, of which Chief Justice Hughes is president.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Denoyer, of New York, arrived here yesterday for a few days' stay and are at Wardman Park Hotel.

Miss Olive Sherley and Miss Sallie Hews Phillips will return today from Philadelphia, where they spent the week-end.

Judge and Mrs. Clarence Norton Goodwin, of Lake Forest, Ill., are in Washington and will be guests at the Mayflower for about two months. Judge Goodwin arrived the middle of the week after making a short visit in New York and Mrs. Goodwin came direct from Illinois, reaching the city on Saturday.

Miss Muriel Craven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Craven, is playing in the Repertory Stock Company associated with the Alviene School of Dramatic Art and Culture, where Miss Craven is about to enter the senior term.

Mrs. J. Harry Covington will entertain at a small dinner and bridge party on Thursday.

Dr. John Salanski and Mr. S. Augustine, of New Castle, Pa., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. William J. Rowan.

Mrs. Gibson, New Haven, Guest of Mrs. Benedict.

Mrs. C. D. T. Gibson, of New Haven, Conn., is the guest of Mrs. C. E. Benedict in the latter's apartment at Wardman Park Hotel. Mrs. Benedict came here from New Haven a few weeks ago to spend the remainder of the season.

Mrs. Thomas M. Phillips and Miss Margaret Phillips, of Washington, are at the Weylin Hotel in New York.

Mrs. Jacob Leander Loose entertained at dinner on Saturday evening at the Mayflower in compliment to Mr. B. L. Hupp, of Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Bohn, of Fort Washington, N. Y., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George E. De Sierra, of New Rochelle, N. Y., are spending a short vacation in Washington, stopping at the Wardman Park Hotel.

Miss Lelia E. Hardin Visitor to Atlantic City.

Miss Lelia E. Hardin is spending some time in Atlantic City.

Mr. Alexander S. Massell, president of the Eastern Commercial Teachers Association, accompanied by Mrs. Massell and Mr. A. M. Lloyd, of Philadelphia, arrived in Washington over the week-end and are at Wardman Park Hotel.

Mr. Ralph Tobriner entertained a few friends at dinner at Wardman Park Hotel on Saturday evening. Covers were laid for four.

Dr. Ricardo Sarmiento Laspiur, noted Argentine surgeon, is in Washing for a few days and is at Shoreham Hotel. Dr. Laspiur is professor of surgery at the University of Buenos Aires and has been making a tour of hospitals and other medical institutions of the United States.

Miss Helene Harney Wed To Walter R. Hicks.

Miss Helene Catherine Harney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Harney, of Elmhurst, Long Island, and Mr. Walter R. Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hicks, were married last evening in the Roman Catholic Church of St. Joan of Arc, Jackson Heights, Queens. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ward G. Neehan, pastor, and was followed by a reception and dinner in the yacht room of Hotel Astor.

Miss Mabel C. Harney was her sister's only attendant. Mr. Marcel M. Prevost, of Washington, was best man, and Mr. Francis X. Harney, brother of the bride, and Mr. Arthur Cerveny were the ushers.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Havana, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks will reside in Morsemere, N. J.

The bride was formerly secretary to the editor of Movietone News. Mr. Hicks, a graduate of the Catholic University of America, is an acoustics engineer, employed by the Movietone Corporation.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wright have leased an apartment at Wardman Park Hotel and will be in residence there.

Mrs. George Peterson is in Atlantic City for a few days.

Miss Florence Martin has returned to Washington after visiting in Westminster, Md.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Horgan will have as their guests at the Kentucky Society on Tuesday evening Admiral and Mrs. Mark L. Bristol, Commander and Mrs. Robert A. Lavender, Dr. and Mrs. Macpherson Crichton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Tompkins, Mr. and Mrs. George Warner, Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Yater, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Syme and Mr. and Mrs. Drayton Mayers.

Mrs. Ellwood P. Morey, president of the Twentieth Century Club, will entertain at tea at Washington Club on Wednesday. Her guests will be members of the board of directors of the club, chairmen of committees and all committee members.

The Seventy-Second Club, composed of the wives of the members of the Seventy-second Congress, held a luncheon last Thursday at Avignone Freres. Thirty-nine members and guests were present.

The officers who will serve for the next session of Congress were elected. Mrs. Dennis Chavez, of New Mexico, will be the president; Mrs. Brent Spence, of Kentucky, first vice president; Mrs. R. Ewing Thomason, of Texas, second vice president; Mrs. William H. Larrabee, of Indiana, secretary, and Mrs. Charles D. Millard, of New York, treasurer.

Mrs. John Otto Johnson, chairman of the literature section of the Twentieth Century Club, and members of her section, will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. D. Agnew Greenlees, 3127 Dumbarton avenue, Georgetown. Miss Sybil Baker will read a recent play which has had a successful Broadway season. Those desiring to bring guests please telephone Mrs. Johnston B. Campbell, Cleveland 1627.

Miss Janet Richards will be guest speaker at a mass meeting tea to be given at the Women's City Club at 4 p. m., Thursday, when units conducting the membership drive will meet. The tea promises to be an outstanding event in the program of the committee.

D. A. R. Chapter to Hold Meeting Tomorrow.

Mrs. W. M. Hannay, Miss Elizabeth McKinley, Mrs. J. Caldwell Jenkins, Mrs. Eugenia Kennedy and Mrs. B. O. Umhau will be hostesses to members of Our Flag Chapter, D. A. R., at a meeting at 2 p. m., tomorrow at the Washington Club, Seventeenth and K streets. Mrs. Garrett Davis will preside.

Mrs. Edith Oriani Fitzgerald, Miss Adelaide Borah and Mrs. Blanch Morgan Foote were hostesses at the tea given by the Women's City Club, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Patrick Gallagher and other members of the drama unit assisted.

Miss Marjorie Webster, drama unit chairman, presented a program in which Janet Coon, Dorry McBetridge and Wilda Kilbourne took part.

Mrs. Custis R. Perry, Mrs. Edgar T. Brown and Mrs. C. Gladys Gordon will be hostesses at the tea given at the club this afternoon, at 4 o'clock. At the same hour tomorrow Mrs. Robert J. Bates, Mrs. William LaVarre and Mrs. Anna H. B. Kinney will be hostesses. Mrs. A. B. Omwake, Mrs. Daniel O. Garber and Mrs. E. D. Cumming will receive on Wednesday. The teas are sponsored by the membership committee, the occasion serving to present guests who are prospective members. The drive for new members will close on February 1. Mrs. Gladys B. Middlemiss and Mrs. W. W. Spaid are chairmen, conducting the campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Weitz entertained a large party of guests at their apartment at the Maycroft Saturday night. Rabbi George Silverstone, leader of orthodox Jewry in Washington, was guest of honor.

Miss Janet Richards, who lectured on "World Problems" last week in Philadelphia and New York, will give her usual weekly review of the outstanding questions of the hour at 11 a. m. today in the red parlor of the Willard Hotel. The new chapter in English-American relations, which it is predicted will result in closer relations from the proposed Anglo-American conference in March will be analyzed, as will recent developments in affairs European. Mrs. Louis Lombard, of New York, is the guest of Miss Richards for the present week.

Heads Nebraska Society

Underwood & Underwood.

MISS GRACE McGERR, newly elected president of the Nebraska State Society, who makes her home at 2400 Sixteenth street.

TODAY'S HAPPENINGS

Meeting—Circle Club, Hamilton Hotel, 8 p. m.

Dance—Southern Society, Willard Hotel, 8 p. m.

Dance—Order of Ahepa, Mayflower Hotel, 10 p. m.

Dinner—Grinnell College Club, Dodge Hotel, 6 p. m.

Lecture—Miss Janet Richards, Willard Hotel, 10:30 a. m.

Address—David Lawrence, University Club, 8:30 p. m.

Luncheon—Acme Corporation, Raleigh Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Luncheon—Izaak Walton League, Raleigh Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Luncheon—Typothetae of Washington, Raleigh Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Card party—All Souls Memorial Church, Shoreham Hotel, 8 p. m.

Luncheon—Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, University Club, 12:30 p. m.

Banquet—Masonic Veterans Association, Hamilton Hotel, 6:30 p. m.

Meeting—Georgetown Citizens Association, St. John's Church, 8 p. m.

Luncheon—University of Michigan Alumni, University Club, 12:30 p. m.

Meeting—Business and Professional Women's Club, Willard Hotel, 8 p. m.

Meeting—North Capitol Citizens Association, McKinley High School, 8 p. m.

Meeting—Washington Medical and Surgical Society, Mayflower Hotel, 7:30 p. m.

Meeting—Mid-City Citizens Association, Thomson Community Center, 8 p. m.

Luncheon—Washington Association of Credit Men, Sholl's G street cafeteria, 12:30 p. m.

Card party—Good Will Chapter No. 36, Order of the Eastern Star, 60 M street northeast, 8:30 p. m.

WARNING

It has been brought to our attention that itinerant dealers are calling upon housewives soliciting purchase of carpets, &c., representing that they come from our store. All such representations are fraudulent. Please be warned.

W. & J. SLOANE
709 Twelfth Street

:: MISS BERT ::
MODISTE—DESIGNER
Of Individual Gowns
Remodeling a Specialty
Appointment Only. CAVALIER HOTEL
COlumbia 3000

Whatever Your Occupation

you are really in business for yourself, and the measure of your success is the growth of your earned surplus.

There is no better way to make your work count than to put by a portion of your earnings every pay day—in a Savings Account with the Union Trust Company.

Interest Paid on Checking and Savings Accounts

Union Trust Company
OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

SOUTHWEST CORNER FIFTEENTH AND H STREETS NORTHWEST

BARGAIN ROOM Third floor

Fine Individual Breakfast Ware

500 Assorted Pieces. 5 Decorations. At prices for which you have waited to complete your Breakfast Tray—

TEAPOTS. Were $3.75 each 75c
COFFEE POTS. Were $3.75 each 75c
HOT WATERS Were $2.00 each 50c
SUGARS. Were $2.25 each 50c
CREAMERS. Were $1.50 each 50c

Dulin & Martin
CONNECTICUT AVENUE AT L
All Sales Final in "Bargain Room."

New Mattress for $4 and up!

Why not save money on bedding? Let us make a buoyant new mattress out of your old one. Charming new ticking will be put on and the inside cleaned and sterilized. The cost is only $4 and up. The work is done in one day.

ZABAN'S
903 E Street N.W.
National 9411
Beds—Mattresses—Springs

Club Michel NO. 1 THOMAS CIRCLE

WASHINGTON'S LEADING NIGHT CLUB
FOR A GAY EVENING
Dinner—Dancing—Entertainment
For Reservations Phone National 2938

Mrs K's TOLL HOUSE TAVERN

GOOD THINGS TO EAT
Phone Sligo 3500
LOUISVILLE PIKE SILVER SPRING MD.

GREYHOUND BUS FARES CUT as much as 25%

Effective NOW—to nearly all principal cities.

ONE WAY FARES

Pittsburgh	$5.25	Scranton	$5.75
Detroit	9.50	Chicago	13.00
Cleveland	7.75	Cincinnati	10.50
St. Louis	14.75	Boston	7.50
New York	5.50	Norfolk	4.80
Baltimore	1.00	Petersburg	3.50
Richmond	3.00	Indianapolis	12.00
Fredericksburg	1.50	Philadelphia	3.50

LOW ROUND TRIP EXCURSION FARE
NORFOLK, $5.80

UNION BUS DEPOT
1336 New York ave. nw.
Phone: Metropolitan 4512.

GREYHOUND Lines

POST WANT ADS PAY.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP
10TH 11TH F AND G STREETS

"And when, by the way, did you last wear a flower in your hat"—

All this is by way of announcing that flowers are going to bloom—(in fact, one might say make the entire thing) on the smartest spring hats. And lovely flowers they are, too—you have only to see the exquisite petals in varying tones of hyacinth-purple, that make the delightful hat sketched, to realize how utterly flattering flowers can be to femininity.

$12.75 to $25

MILLINERY SALON THIRD FLOOR

WOODWARD & LOTHROP
10TH 11TH F AND G STREETS

This is where babies get a fine start in life—in this matter of

LAYETTES

—and budgets need not be stretched so far either—for here is a perfectly adequate layette, right down to the last safety pin—at this very low price—

$19.50

8 Shirts, 10% wool.	1 Rubber-lined Lap Pad
3 Bands	1 Rubber Diaper
2 Binders	1 Wool Bassinet Blanket
3 Arnold Knit Gowns	1 Enamelled Commode
3 Dozen Red Star Diapers	1 Kapok Pillow
1 Crochet Sacque	1 Pillow Case
1 Handmade Dress	1 J & J Powder
2 Pairs Bootees	1 J & J Soap
1 Stockinette Sheet	1 Dennison Pad for Diapers
2 Wrapping Blankets	1 Package Safety Pins
2 Quilted Pads	1 Package Cotton Swabbers
1 Soft Towel
2 Wash Cloths.

Other especially-assembled LAYETTES $25 and $35

INFANTS' APPAREL, FOURTH FLOOR.

DUCHESSE OFFERS RECITAL FOR IDLE

Well-Chosen Program Sung by Former Miss Wise for Musicians.

The Duchesse de Richelieu, formerly Miss Beatrice Wise, of Baltimore, who is spending the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, gave a song recital at the Sulgrave Club yesterday afternoon for the benefit of unemployed musicians, a movement sponsored by Leopold Stokowski, conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

The audience filled the ballroom on the lower floor of this very beautiful new club organized recently by women in smart society. Mme. Claudel, wife of the French Ambassador; the Belgian Ambassador and Mme. May, the Finnish Minister, L. Astrom; Senator and Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis, Capt. and Mrs. John H. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parsons Erwin and their house guest, Miss Mackay, of Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tuckerman, Mrs. Elonzo Tyner, Mrs. Joseph E. Washington, Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, Mrs. Charles Wood, Miss Mabel Boardman, president of the club; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benning Spencer, and the Rev. W. Coleman Nevils also were in the audience.

The duchesse, who had postponed her concert from earlier in the month, because of illness, sang the same program announced for that date. It was a well-chosen one, with some unhackneyed songs, and all elicited well deserved enthusiasm. She has a voice of lovely natural quality especially in the higher tones, which she has cultivated to an extent rarely accomplished by any but professionals. She has particularly beautiful high tones, with remarkable carrying power; resonant, sweet, full of color and showing surprising volume. Her phrasing and diction are admirable and she sings with artistic finish and much intelligence. Her program included Bach's "My Heart Ever Faithful;" the aria Forgi Amor from Mozart's Marriage of Figaro; "Nymphs and Shepherds," by Haydn; Haendel's "Care Selve;" "Pourquoi," from Delibes' opera, Lakme; Aubert's Vieille Chanson Espagnol; "Green," by Debussy; "Carpe," by Poulenc; Koechlin's "Si Tu Le Veux;" a charming song by Peel, "The Early Morning;" Leoni's "The Leaves and the Wind;" Ronald's "Down in the Forest," exquisitely sung, and the "Bird of the Wilderness," by Horsman. The duchesse graciously responded twice for "encore" and at the end of the program gave a lovely rendition of Dvorak's "Songs My Mother Taught Me." She was ably assisted at the piano by Arthur Rosenstein, who is a pianist as well as an accompanist.

LOOK OUT FOR THE STEPPES!

Although what Walter Scott Kolk, master of ceremonies, at the new Russian restaurant and night club, 1011 Connecticut avenue, probably was saying as the cartoonist caught him was "Hi, the Troika!" Russian atmosphere and entertainment is making the Troika a favorite Washington rendezvous.

ABOUT THE SHOWSHOPS

With NELSON B. BELL

THE THEATER YESTERDAY

NATIONAL

"NEW YORK TO SOMALILAND." First of a series of five E. M. Newman "Around the World" Travelalks to be given in the National Theater Sunday afternoons at 3:30. Illustrated by colored slides and motion pictures. Direction of Charles Mercer.

By NELSON B. BELL.

For the first leg of his "Around the World" tour, comprising some 50,000 miles of travel, to be covered in five Sunday afternoons at the National, E. M. Newman yesterday afternoon wasted scant time upon preserving the continuity of his initial voyaging, but devoted his entire attention to what he deemed the most interesting and significant features of the Island of Madeira, Gibraltar, Palma de Mallorca, Athens, the Holy Land, Egypt and French Somaliland, leading directly to the gateway to India.

Ignoring what he evidently looks upon as the inconsequentials of intermediate travel, Mr. Newman leaped from one major point to the next, treating each as an individual and detached objective—a scheme, by the way, which seemed to meet with the marked favor of his first audience.

Beyond disclosing a child picturesqueness and novel means of cobblestone transportation in Funchal, and some of the reasons why the Balleric Islands have become a haven of plenty in an era of economic stress, the lecture was devoid of any quality of distinction until Athens was reached.

Here, in the capital of ancient Greek civilization and culture, arresting and informative studies of the Acropolis, with its attempted restoration of the architectural glories of past ages; its amphitheaters, bleak hillside caves, where Socrates was held prisoner, and other reminders of a remote and fabled greatness which has never been recovered since the Roman conquest, aroused a quickened and an eager interest that was not permitted to abate through the remainder of the journey.

For those to whom the Bible is not a closed book, the rather comprehensive examination of the three great religions centering in Jerusalem, the excursions into the Christian, Moslem and Jewish quarters of the Holy City, and the further journey to Bethlehem, the tomb of Rachel and the home of Mary and Martha marked the most impressive junctures in the afternoon's itinerary.

There is a profund and inspiring solemnity in traversing again the streets that the feet of the Christ had trod—the Garden of Gethsemane, the Via Wolorosa, up which he bore the cross to Calvary, the Church of the Nativity, Solomon's Temple, the Wailing Wall and other sacred relics of the Savior's days on earth.

Recent excavations lent new wonder to the Sphinx and great pyramids at Ghiza.

The subsequent adventures among the slightly modified savageries of Somaliland came as a distinct anticlimax—save for a close-up of a Princess of Abyssinia, a direct descendant of King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba, en route to her home in Addis Ababa, who bears the stamp of royalty upon her features.

Mr. Newman's first subject was largely repetitive, since he frankly discounts his audience's ability to comprehend too much, and so presents his tour first in colored slides and then in motion pictures, to be sure it sinks in. His first motion pictures yesterday were projected from extremely poor prints, so scratched and otherwise defaced that they should be withdrawn from circulation.

Women's Club Meeting.

The District Federation of Women's Clubs will meet at 10 a. m. today in the Y. W. C. A. Building. The program will be in charge of the department of fine arts, of which Mrs. Ellis Logan is chairman.

Marie Dressler.

FOR the benefit of those whose bookkeeping may run to such things, as well as to perpetuate what has long been an intermittent custom of this column, it may be becomingly set down that the box office champions for the month of December among the film releases were:

1. PROSPERITY, with Marie Dressler and Polly Moran.
2. CALL HER SAVAGE, the vehicle of Clara Bow's return to the screen.
3. ROCKABYE, starring Constance Bennett.
4. IF I HAD A MILLION, with 15 stars and a horde of directors.
   THE CONQUERORS, starring Richard Dix and Ann Harding.
   SILVER DOLLAR, starring Edward G. Robinson.
5. STRANGE INTERLUDE, starring Norma Shearer and Clark Gable.
   YOU SAID A MOUTHFUL, starring Joe E. Brown.

Three of the films named by the Nation's key theaters as best-selling pictures during December, continued during that month successes begun as early as October, points out the Motion Picture Herald by which this monthly poll is made.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Strange Interlude" was an October "champion," while the same company's "Prosperity" was so cited in November.

RKO-Radio's "The Conquerors"—tied in December with two others for fourth place—was another November "champion."

Besides the fourth place tie, fifth ranking is shared, bracketing "Strange Interlude" and First National's "You Said a Mouthful."

It is to be observed that the December box-office selections are dominated by a strongly serious note, only three of the eight—"Prosperity," "If I Had a Million" and "You Said a Mouthful"—bearing down on elements designed to tickle the risibilities.

This, no doubt, is highly significant of something or other, but I forget just what!

The Laurence Rivers, Inc., high command having flitted in and out of Washington times on end these past few weeks, the advance staff of "The Green Pastures" having drifted into town no longer ago than last Saturday, and William Fields, head man of the later publicity mopperuppers scheduled to arrive in due course, it seems high time to emphasize again that Marc Connelly's 1930 Pulitzer Prize play, founded on Roark Bradford's Southern sketches, "Ol' Man Adam and His Chillun," will positively begin its much-discussed and long-awaited engagement at the National Theater on Monday, February 13, which in many cities would be the Lincoln's Birthday holiday.

Because "The Green Pastures" has been so long a subject of indecision on the part of the booking powers, insofar as the National Capital is concerned, and its appearance here, as a result, has been so long deferred, special provision has been made to accomodate the army of ticket purchasers, all poised and ready to sweep down on the box-office en masse, by moving the opening of the seat sale forward considerably from the usual "three days ahead."

For this engagement the box-office sale of seats will open on Monday morning, January 30, which is by way of being one week from today. Thus two whole weeks are allowed for the purchase of the coveted pasteboards.

In this connection it is important to note that the management has definitely announced that, contrary to usual custom, mail and telephone orders will not be accepted for any performance during "The Green Pastures" engagement.

And now that the subject has come up, the reserved seat sale for the road show engagement of "Rasputin and the Empress," starring John, Ethel and Lionel Barrymore, and scheduled to open at Loew's Columbia Theater on Friday of this week, will begin this morning.

Prices will range from 50 cents to $1.50. The scale of prices for orchestra seats during the "Rasputin and the Empress" engagement have been considerably altered from previous custom. It is announced by the management that while the regular orchestra seats will be $1 at matinees, there will be side seats on sale at 75 cents. The charges for the same seats at night will be $1.50 and $1, respectively. These prices, however, do not include the Government tax.

Seats may be reserved by phone for this one.

It was pleasant to learn, during a Saturday afternoon call from Corbin Sheild, that the depression has ended for at least one executive long and favorably known in Washington theatrical circles. Mr. Sheild's was a hurried visit in a round of calls to say good-by to old friends before leaving the Capital at 8 p. m., to take up new managerial duties as an executive of the Redwood Theaters Corporation, with headquarters in the Warfield Theater Building, in San Francisco, Calif.

Corbin Sheild was long associated with the Jake and Otto Wells Virginia enterprises, and will be remembered by many habitual theatergoers as former manager of Moore's Garden and Rialto Theaters, and the RKO-Keith Theater in this city. The best wishes of a host of friends accompany him to his new duties on the West Coast.

From a couple of brief conversations with Phil Lampkin, musical director at Loew's Fox, consuming no more than 18 or 20 hours each since his return last midweek from New York, one gathers that the depression has reached a point on Broadway where all who can't escape are wearing expressions as if they momentarily expected all the high buildings to fall down on them and the streets to cave in under their feet...That the sudden frenzy for reducing theater prices may, or may not, have the tonic box-office effect that is hoped...That Radio City, having got off on the wrong foot, is having a tough time getting back on the right one, and that it is still held likely in informed circles that the Radio City Music Hall will eventually become the new home of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company...That whisky candy is being sold on Broadway two shots for a nickel, making a mild glow add up to about 15 cents...That the New Club Richman, with Jack Osterman as m. c., got off to a good start on its opening, but that Nils T. Granlund's "Paradise Night Club," with table accommodations for 850 at a time, is the biggest mop-up on the Main Stem, at Forty-ninth street and Broadway...That Abe Lyman, at the moment, is the big shot musically in New York, having five hours on the air and employing a full staff of secretaries, arrangers, bookers, accountants, &c., to keep track of his engagements which are netting him from $8,000 to $10,000 per week...That Sam Rothafel, Roxy to anyone who dares call him that, is really sick and after a trip for purposes of convalescence will continue to Mogul it in the Grand Manner at Radio City, in association with Harold B. Franklin, in charge of all RKO theater operation...That the current gag about Roxy is that he had three openings in one week—the Radio City Music Hall, the RKO-Roxy Theater and an appendicitis operation!

Incidentally, the "Schubert Fantasy," being played as the overture number at the Fox this week under Mr. Lampkin's southpaw batoning, is an Abe Lyman arrangement, given the local maestro for exclusive use in Washington. Another to be heard in the near future—I would not be sure it isn't next week—is a special arrangement of Ravel's "Bolero," over which Mr. Lampkin is especially enthusiastic and to which he is devoting unusual preparation.

If enough time has elapsed since it became known that "Evensong," with Master Owney Davis, jr., in the cast, will not play Washington before opening in New York for the tears to dry and the lump to recede from your throttle, you may care to be further distressed by the intelligence that Katherine Cornell's new play, "Alien Corn," will be given its premiere in Baltimore on February 13, and a week later will open on Broadway, also skipping Washington.

Miss Cornell has just placed this second of her season's productions in rehearsal in New York. It is the first original play from the pen of Sidney Howard since he wrote "Half Gods," several seasons ago. As goes without saying again, it is being directed by Guthrie McClintic, Miss Cornell's husband.

"Design for Living" did not equal the house record of $33,000 set by the late Jeanne Eagels for a single week at the National, but only missed by the margin represented by reduced matinee prices. It was still quite a week!

And a whole tub of orchids to the person who will break up the outrageous practice of some writers of glossing over every indeterminate statement by the addition of the words, "or something." Any one following this abominable custom deserves to be boiled in oil——

Or something!

TWO OPERAS THRILL 3,000 IN AUDITORIUM

Ferrara, Radaelli, Amato and Samoiloff Star in Twin Pieces.

Those inseparable operatic twins—Pietro Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana" and Ruggiero Leoncavallo's "I Pagliacci"—were presented last night at the Washington Auditorium before an audience of 3,000 which applauded and cheered to the echo the immortal arias and chorus numbers staged under the direction of Maestro Alfredo Salmaggi, with the orchestra under the leadership of G. Simeoni.

In the traditional order, "Cavalleria Rusticana," though excellently sung, proved only a curtain raiser for the thrilling presentation of "I Pagliacci" that followed. To Pasquale Ferrara and Della Samoiloff, as Turiddu and Santuzza, go the principal honors in the exposition of rustic chivalry, with Dorothy Seegar, as Lola; Luigi Bonevilli, as Alfio, and Dea Silva, as Lucia, coming in for no small share of the evening's plaudits.

The role of Canio, master of the intinerant players of "I Pagliacci," has seldom been sung with such feeling as Giuseppe Radaelli sang it last night, the much-misused "Vesti la Giubba" being rendered with a gusto that not only wrung every ounce of inherent drama from the piece but excellently counterpointed the tragedy later in the opera. Coming at the end of act one, it is especially fitting, for it makes all the more keen the expectancy for the continuation of the play.

Pasquale Amato, as Tonio, started off the piece at a high dramatic pitch with his vivid rendering of the prologue. Lola Monti Gorsey, as Nedda; Francesco Oliviera, as Peppe, and Washington's own Giuseppe Bruno, as Silvio, deserve a lot of credit for their careful renditions of their difficult roles, both in unravelling the main plot and the complementary play-within-a-play.

With "Cavalleria Rusticana" the orchestra comes into its own with its especial number, the Intermezzo, and Maestro Simeoni and his men play most delightfully this musical interlude.

Scientists Trace Evolution of Man

Kentucky's Burial Mounds Are Latest Scene of History Solving.

Lewistown, Ill., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Slowly but surely the archeologist and the anthropologist are tracing the footprints of a forgotten past in the Middle West ever hopeful that the day may not be far remote when the story of America's first citizens can be told in full.

Just now their eyes are turned to Wickliffe, Ky., where the excavations of the bodies of America's "forgotten men" have given some scientists the impression that the country's first inhabitants were enjoying a culture far superior to any hitherto suspected at a time when ancient Egypt's rulers were worrying about the style of their burial tombs.

But there are thousands of other sites in which the archeologist's pick may some day turn the soil to reveal the answer to the ever-present question:

"Where did these 'precivilized men' come from and why are their various groups apparently so different?"

New Instrument Measures Radium

Treatment in Hospitals Is Speeded Where There Is No Laboratory.

Stockholm, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—To facilitate radium treatments in hospitals not equipped for special laboratory testing, a new and highly simplified method of measuring the strength of radium emanation has been perfected by Dr. Rolf Sievert, head of the Radium Home in Stockholm.

By means of a small metal object, which can be sent by mail the radium emanation during a treatment in a Shanghai hospital, for example, can be exactly measured in a Stockholm laboratory, it is claimed.

The first model of Dr. Sievert's invention consisted of a tiny hollow metal ball, with another ball of smaller dimension inside, isolated from the outside ball by four small amber plugs. The inner ball is charged with electricity of a certain fixed tension. Exposed to radiation for 30 seconds, the inner ball loses a certain quantity of its electric charge which, when measured, enables the scientist to ascertain the exact strength of the radium emanation.

FILM TIME TABLES

Feature pictures are presented on the following schedule at the theaters named:

Loew's Fox—"Tonight Is Ours," at 11 a. m., 1:40, 4:30, 7:25 and 10:05 p. m. Stage shows at 12:30, 3:30, 6:10 and 8:50 p. m.

Earle—"Employees' Entrance," at 11:05 a. m., 1:45, 4:30, 7:10 and 9:50 p. m. Stage shows at 12:55, 3:35, 6.15 and 9 p. m.

RKO-Keith's—"Penguin Pool Murder," at 11 a. m., 12:49, 2:41, 4:27, 6:16, 8:05 and 9:54 p. m.

Palace—"Hot Pepper," at 11:25 a. m., 1:30, 3:30, 5:35, 7:40 and 9:45 p. m.

Metropolitan—"Central Park," at 11 a. m., 12:50, 2:40, 4:30, 6:19, 8:10 and 9:55 p. m. "With Williamson Beneath the Sea," at 12:17, 2:08, 3:58, 5:47, 7:38 and 9:29 p. m.

Rialto—"Daring Daughters," at 11 a. m., 12:51, 2:40, 4:34, 6:15, 8:05 and 9:55 p. m.

Columbia—"Robbers' Roost," at 11:50 a. m., 1:30, 3:10, 4:55, 6:35, 8:15 and 9:55 p. m.

Tivoli—"Cynara," at 2, 3:50, 5:45, 7:40 and 9:35 p. m.

Ambassador—"Employees' Entrance," at 6:15, 8:05 and 9:55 p. m.

AMUSEMENTS

Warner Bros. EARLE
• NOW •
LORETTA YOUNG
EMPLOYEES' ENTRANCE
With ALICE WHITE
On Stage 3 X SISTERS AND OTHERS
55c TO 1 P. M.

Warner Bros. METROPOLITAN
NOW
JOAN BLONDELL
In Warner Bros.
CENTRAL PARK
—ADDED—
WITH WILLIAMSON BENEATH THE SEAS
55c TO 1 P. M.

The Business Girl of Today Tells HER Story!
IN "DARING Daughters"
EXTRA FEATURE
The First Talkie on "TECHNOCRACY"
IS THIS THE CURE FOR THE DEPRESSION?
NOW PLAYING RIALTO

PHILHARMONIC-SYMPHONY of New York
TOMORROW, 4:45 Constitution Hall
BRUNO WALTER, conducting
GIESEKING, soloist
STRAUSS-SCHUMANN-SCHUBERT
Tickets, $1.00 to $3.25, at T. Arthur Smith Bureau, 1330 G St., in Homer L. Kitt Co.; Na. 3700.

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
DR. SERGE KOUSSEVITZKY, Conductor
Constitution Hall, Tues. Aft., Jan. 31—4:30
Seats, Mrs. Greene's Concert Bureau, Droop's, 1300 G St. Dist. 6493.

HE'S COMING FRIDAY Eddie CANTOR in The KID from SPAIN
Loew's PALACE

L. L. PERKINS
WILL BOND YOU.
United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co.
Phone National 6913. 1415 K ST. NW.

PLUMBING SPECIAL
White toilet seat with cromium plated hinges, furnished and installed $4.50
HEFFRON CO., INC. Lincoln 3423.

$1.00 ROUND TRIP EXCURSIONS
One way fare plus $1.00
GOOD FOR SIXTY DAYS
to many hundreds of cities.
EXAMPLES: Round Trip to
INDIANAPOLIS $16—CLEVELAND $11.25
PHILADELPHIA 4.50 — ST. LOUIS 21.00
NEW YORK 6.50 — CHICAGO 18.50
NORFOLK 5.80 — PITTSBURGH 8.00
LOS ANGELES 33.00—Rd. trip 62.70
Telephone NATIONAL 1721 or 2159
GREAT EASTERN TERMINAL
1349 'E' ST., N.W.
(Cor. Pennsylvania & 14th St.)
Or—GREAT EASTERN BUS TER'L
214 6TH ST. at PENN. AV.
GREAT EASTERN bus system

Have to Get Up at Night?

Deal Promptly with Bladder Irregularities
Are you bothered with bladder irregularities; burning, scanty or too frequent passage and getting up at night? Heed promptly these symptoms. They may warn of some disordered kidney or bladder condition. Users everywhere rely on Doan's Pills. Recommended for 50 years. Sold everywhere.
Doan's Pills
A Diuretic for the Kidneys

Colljer Inn
Special Tonight.
Fillet Mignon Dinner. Grilled Lamb Chops... 50c
Served at Our 3 Places
18th and Columbia Road,
15th and F and 1521 K St. N.W.

AMUSEMENTS

Loew's FOX 25¢ to 1 P.M.
NOW
FREDRIC MARCH
CLAUDETTE COLBERT
IN a Paramount Picture
'TONIGHT IS OURS'
Stage MARY GARDEN IN PERSON! RADIO RUBES SIDNEY MARION and others • PHIL LAMPKIN
Next week HELEN HAYES and RAMON NOVARRO in "The Son-Daughter"

Loew's PALACE
NOW! it's 'HOT pepper'
A FOX PICTURE with
Next week EDDIE CANTOR in "The KID from SPAIN"
EDMUND LOWE
VIC McLAGLEN
LUPE VELEZ
EL BRENDEL

Loew's COLUMBIA
NOW GEORGE O'BRIEN
MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN
in "ROBBER'S ROOST"
Next week JOHN, LIONEL and ETHEL BARRYMORE in "RASPUTIN and the EMPRESS" Road Show

...always a better show at...
RKO KEITH'S 15TH & G
She's Positively Killing!
EDNA MAY OLIVER
While Solving the
"Penguin Pool Murder"
James Gleason, Robert Armstrong
—COMING—
The Authentic Official Government Films of Eight Nations!
"THE BIG DRIVE"
They Didn't Dare Let You See It Until Now!
Buy RKO Thrift Books—Save 10%

NATIONAL 3 Days Starting Thurs., Jan. 26
WALTER HAMPDEN
"CAPONSACCHI" Thurs., Fri. and Sat. Nites. "HAMLET" Sat. Mat.
Prices 55c, $1.10, $1.65, $2.20, $2.75
BEG. SUNDAY, JAN. 29TH
Mail Orders Now—Seats Thursday
The World's Greatest Musical Show
With The Original Cast Intact
Direct From 55 Weeks On Broadway
OF THEE I SING
William Gaxton, Lois Moran, Victor Moore
Nights: $3.30, $2.75, $2.20, $1.65 and $1.10. Mats., Wed. and Sat.: $2.75, $2.20, $1.65, $1.10 and 55c. (These Prices Include the Tax.)

GAYETY BURLESK
MATINEE DAILY
GLADYS ("Youth") CLARK and her
"FEMALE FOLLIES"
With AN ALL NEW SHOW
GUEST STAR
GEORGIA SOTHERN
Next Week JERRY McCAULEY

MENS WEAR WEST SINCE 1905
CLEARANCE
FRUHAUF SUITS
Sidney West, Inc.
14th & G Sts.
EUGENE C. GOTT, President

ARE YOU DEAF?
RADIOEAR
Come in and let us solve your hearing problems . . . A trained consultant at your service.
Free Demonstration
1217 ETZ G.N.W.

RUSH PRINTING
EXPERT SERVICE
HIGH GRADE—NOT HIGH PRICED
BYRON S. ADAMS
"I Never Disappoint"

EQUITABLE
Co-Operative Building Association
Organized 1879
53D YEAR COMPLETED
Think of the Future By Saving Now
Join the Equitable and save systematically. Our plan will meet with your approval.
Subscriptions for the 104th Issue of Stock Being Received
EQUITABLE BUILDING
915 F Street N. W.
JOHN JOY EDSON, President
WALTER S. PRATT, Jr., Secretary

BARRYMORES
JOHN ETHEL LIONEL

RASPUTIN AND THE EMPRESS
Washington Chosen to present M.-G.-M.'s newest triumph SIMULTANEOUSLY WITH ITS CURRENT BROADWAY RUN!
LOEW'S COLUMBIA
Phone—DI. 5825
Seats Now Selling
Mats., 50, 75, $1.00
Eves., 50, 75, $1.00, $1.50, plus Govt. tax.
OPENING 8:30 P. M.
FRIDAY, JAN 27TH
Twice Daily Thereafter
Mat., 2:30—Eve., 8:30

Girls!

Have YOU Sent In Your Photograph?

The Washington Post Will Pay

$10,500

to the Most Charming Girls!

AN opportunity to become "Queen" or a member of her Court of 50 Ladies-In-Waiting to dedicate the triumphal Century of Progress International Exposition at Chicago by exclusive arrangement with the Century of Progress;

. . . to be awarded a substantial cash prize; First Grand Prize $5,000, Second Grand Prize $3,000 and Third Grand Prize $2,000—and other cash prizes; total $10,500; to be the guest of The Washington Post at the Exposition, all expenses paid; to be gowned by leading modistes and to receive world-wide recognition for charming femininity.

This offer is open to every unmarried girl—excepting professionals such as stage girls or artists' models. It costs nothing.

Send in your Photograph at once. On the back of it paste the coupon printed below or the same information written on a separate sheet of paper. The first pictures of entrants will be published in the Rotogravure Section of next Sunday's Washington Post.

The Washington Post

The Capital's Greatest NEWSpaper

TRANSMITTAL COUPON

"QUEEN" Competition, The Washington Post, Washington Post Building, Washington, D. C.

I submit the attached photograph to be entered in your offer of $10,500 in Cash Prizes to find a "Queen" and her "court of Honor" to dedicate the Century of Progress International Exposition at Chicago and agree to abide by the rules published by you. I also grant to you the right to publish this photograph in any manner you may determine.

The name of the person in this photograph is.....

Her street address is.....

City ..... State .....

Her occupation is.....
(State whether stenographer, clerk, school girl, home girl, &c.)

The color of her hair is: ☐ Blonde ☐ Brunette ☐ Titian

The color of her eyes is..... Weight..... Height.....

Submitted by .....
(Signature of person submitting photograph)

The Washington Post.

MONDAY JANUARY 23, 1933 SPORTS

COOPER SHOOTS 281 TO WIN IN PHOENIX GOLF

This MORNING with SHIRLEY L. POVICH

THERE comes to hand the 1933 player roster of the Yankees, a neat little document listing nicely arranged statistics of the squad on a field of pastel blue, embroidered with a pinkish border that all in all seems commensurate with the Yankees' station in the American League.

The frontispiece is devoted to a portrait of Manager Joe McCarthy in his best fighting face, which intimates that Manager McCarthy is not taking into account for 1933 the fact that his Yankees won the pennant by 13 full games last year. The little leaflet, however, falls by quite a bit of the engravers' handiwork to equal the elaborately decorated roster of the Athletics, but perhaps Manager McCarthy is willing to concede the A's whatever advantage that may mean.

The Yankees' roster, however, is a bit more practical than the A's leaflet in that it tells us that the Jon Ce-Sar Hotel at St. Petersburg, Fla., is conducted on the American plan and that bills for personal laundry may be charged to the club. Also that cash will be advanced for all meals after leaving St. Petersburg, and that no accounts of any kind may be charged at the hotels on the trip North.

Looks Like Same Old Yankees.

But the item of chief interest to this department is the list of players the Yankees will take to St. Petersburg, which indicates that Manager McCarthy is more than slightly inclined to stand pat on the line-up that won him the pennant by 13 games last season.

With the exception of the pitching staff, which lists five hurlers not with the club last year, the Yankees can boast only three unfamiliar names, one catcher, one infielder and one outfielder.

Among the four pitchers he has plucked from various Yankee farms, McCarthy has acquired probably the outstanding minor league hope in Don Brennan, the former Georgetown University hurler, who pitched Newark to a pennant and a little world series triumph with 26 wins and eight defeats. Brennan has been ripened in Newark for the past three seasons and big league scouts have been unanimous in their high opinions of his chances to make good in the majors.

Brennan to Have Rivals For Job.

In addition to Brennan, four other young hopefuls will go South with the Yankees. They are James De Shong, who won 19 and lost 6 with Sacramento last season; Marvin Duke, who won 23 and lost 4 with Erie, and Russell Van Atta, who won 23 and lost 15 with St. Paul.

This group, with Brennan, represents almost the pick of the minor league hurling talent, and if any one of the five makes the grade the Yankees' pitching staff, already the best in the league, may be invincible if Gomez, Ruffing, Allen and Pipgras maintain their form of last year.

There is another name, however, on the pitching staff, that intrigues the close followers of the Yankees. It is Walter Brown, giant right-hander, who finished the season with 5 victories against 2 defeats. Brown, however, won his five games in a row near the finish of the season, all of the low-hit variety, and so rapidly did he come along that there was even the suspicion that McCarthy would start him in a world series game. He will be given more opportunity to pitch next season in recognition of his splendid finish.

Dickey Again Heads Catchers.

With Bill Dickey present and accounted for, McCarthy has few worries concerning his catching staff, but a young chap named Joseph C. Glenn, who batted .317 with Springfield and Birmingham last year, has been added to the backstopping staff. If he can beat Dickey out of the regular job, he'll be the sensation of the year.

The lone infielder not with the club last year is Bill Werber, the Tech High School graduate, who has been bouncing back and forth between the Yankees and the minors for three seasons. Werber was with Buffalo last year, hitting .291 and fielding .964, with his prospects considerably brighter with the release of Jack Saltzgaver and the uncertainty of Joe Sewell's underpinnings. He must beat out Crosetti, Farrell, Lary, Lazzeri, and Sewell in the bids for regular jobs.

Breaking into the Yankees' outfield of Ruth, Chapman and Combs, with Byrd and Hoag in reserve, is the prospect that faces young Fred Walker, who hit .351 with Birmingham last year. He's the only outfield recruit and will probably detrain at Birmingham on the trip North in the spring.

SPORTING GOODS
Winter Clearance Sale!
GROCE'S
CORNER 11th and E Sts.

All-America Track Team Named

Tolan, Sexton, Saling, McCluskey Given Two Places.

Eastman Is Selected Despite Lack of Championship.

By FOSTER HAILEY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Eddie Tolan, Leo Sexton and George Saling, Olympic champions all, and Joe McCluskey, America's leading distance runner, draw the lion's share of places on the all-America track and field team selected by Daniel J. Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Tolan, in the sprints, Saling in the hurdles and McCluskey in cross-country and steeplechasing, draw two places each, while big Leo, Olympic champion in the shot put and national champion in the 35-pound and 56-pound weight throws, draws three places.

With three exceptions, Ferris selected draws either national or Olympic champions for the 27 places on the team. Ben Eastman, although not the national champion, was selected for the 880-yard run, Pete Zaremba was picked for the hammer throw and Kenneth Churchill for the javelin. Zaremba was the leading American in the Olympic hammer throw while Churchill was the most consistent of the spear throwers.

Ferris Uses Both Measurements.

Ferris selected his team both for metric and yard distances, the first time he has used the metric systems in the annual ratings, picking Tolan for the sprints at metric distances and Ralph Metcalfe, the national champion, for the 100-yard dash.

Percy Beard, the only athlete to gain two places on last year's team, loses his 120-yard high hurdle place to Saling but is retained for the 70-yard hurdles, at which distance he won the indoor title.

Ferris also selected an all-college team and all-scholastic team. McCluskey, in the 2-mile run, Eugene Beatty in the 440-yard hurdles, Dick Barber in the broad jump, Bill Graber in the pole vault, and Robert Jones in the discuss were the only repeaters from last year's team. Metcalfe, a newcomer to the college team, is the ony athlete to gain two places, being selected for both the 100-yard and 220-yard dash.

ALL-AMERICAN TEAM.

60 yards, Emmet Toppino (Loyola, New Orleans); 100 yards, Ralph Metcalfe (Marquette); 100 and 200 meters, Eddie Tolan (Detroit); 300 yards, Horace Whitney (Colgate); 440 yards, Bill Carr (Pennsylvania); 600 yards, Alex Wilson (Notre Dame); 880 yards, Ben Eastman (Stanford).

1,000 yards, Dale Letts (Illinois A. C.); 1 mile, Gene Venske (New York A. C.); 5,000 meters, Ralph Hill (Olympic Club, San Francisco); 10,000 meters, Tom Ottey (Michigan State).

10 miles, Paul Mundy (Nativity C. C., Philadelphia); 15 miles, Albert Michelson (Millrose A. A., New York); 20 miles, William Steiner (New York); marathon, Clyde Martak (Baltimore); cross-country and steeplechase, Joe McCluskey (Fordham).

70-yard high hurdles, Percy Beard (New York A. C.); 120-yard high and 220-yard low hurdles, George Saling (Iowa); 400-meter hurdles, Glenn Hardin (Louisiana State).

Three-mile walk, Harry Hinkel (Los Angeles A. C.); 7-mile walk, John Knackstedt (German-American A. C., New York).

Running broad jump, Ed Gordon (Iowa City); running high jump, George Spitz (New York); running hop, step and jump, Sidney Bowman (Louisiana State); pole vault, Bill Miller (Olympic Club, San Francisco).

16-pound shot put, 35-pound weight throw, 56-pound weight throw, Leo Sexton (New York A. C.); 16-pound hammer throw, Pete Zaremba (New York U.); discus throw, John Anderson (New York A. C.); javelin throw, Kenneth Churchill (Olympic Club, San Francisco); decathlon, James Bausch (Kansas City A. C.).

ALL-COLLEGE TEAM.

100 and 220 yards, Ralph Metcalfe (Marquette); 440 yards, Bill Carr (Pennsylvania); 880 yards, Ben Eastman (Stanford); mile, Glenn Cunningham (Kansas); 2 miles, Joe McCluskey (Fordham); cross-country, George Baker (New York U.); 120-yard high hurdles, George Saling (Iowa); 220-yard low hurdles, Jack Keller (Ohio State); 440-yard hurdles, Eugene Beatty (Michigan Normal).

High jump, Bob Van Osdel (Southern California); broad jump, Dick Barber (Southern California); hop, step and jump, Sidney Bowman (Louisiana State); pole vault, Bill Graber (Southern California); 16-pound shot put, Nelson Grey (Stanford); 16-pound hammer, Pete Zaremba (New York U.); 35-pound weight throw, Murdock Finlayson (Stanford); discus, Robert Jones (Stanford); javelin, Malcolm Metcalf (Dartmouth); decathlon, Wilson Charles (Haskell Institute).

ALL-SCHOLASTIC TEAM.

100 yards, James Owen (Maplewood, Mo.); 220 yards, Fay Draper (Huntington Park, Calif.); 440 yards, J. Miller (Des Plains, Ill.); 880 yards, Edwards Brown (St. John's, Brooklyn); mile, Floyd Lochner (Agra, Okla.); cross-country, no selection; 120-yard high hurdles, Fred Pollard (Senn High, Chicago); 220-yard low hurdles, Fred Montpellier (San Diego, Calif.).

High jump, Cornelius Johnson (Los Angeles, Calif.); broad jump, Oral Peacock (Union, N. J.); pole vault, William Sefton (Los Angeles Poly); 12-pound shot put, Tony Geniawicz (Clark School, Hanover, N. H.); 16-pound hammer, Anton Kishon (Worcester, Mass. Academy) discus, Bange Burnett (Libertyville, Ill.); javelin, B. Churchill (Hollister, Calif.).

Miami Winter Tennis Finals to Jay Cohn

Miami Beach, Fla., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Jay Cohn, of Santa Monica, Calif., and Chicago, won the Miami Beach winter tennis championship today by defeating Hudson Hamm, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., public courts champion, 6—1, 6—1, 6—1.

Cohn fell by the wayside with his doubles partner, Judge Beaver, of Atlanta, however, when they lost to Carroll Turner and Gus Feuer, of Miami, 4—6, 6—3, 7—5, 6—3.

Two Games This Week For Wilson Teachers

Wilson Teachers College basketers yesterday returned from a successful two-day invasion of New Jersey and are looking forward to games with Maryland State Normal at Towson Tuesday and a return contest with the New Jersey State Teachers College Saturday in Washington.

Last Friday night the Wilson quintet subdued the New Jersey team, 21-16.

Twice Honored

LEO SEXTON.

WATSON AND LABARBA IN FEATURE

Bout Tops Card of National Battles for This Week.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—The initial competitive test of Seaman Watson, British featherweight champion, furnishes the national boxing program with its one outstanding highlight this week.

The Briton battles rugged Fidel Labarba, of Los Angeles, in a 12-round bout in Madison Square Garden Friday night, the winner to face Kid Chocolate, recognized in this State as world's featherweight king, in a title match here in February.

Labarba probably will be at least a 2-to-1 choice over the invader, who was far from impressive in a public test in a local gymnasium a few days ago. The Briton boxed two rounds apiece against three preliminary boys, at the behest of the New York State athletic commission, and failed to win a round, in the opinion of most ringside critics.

Baby Arizmendi, of Mexico City, whose featherweight championship claims are recognized by the California commission, tackles Speedy Dado, of the Philippines, in a 10-rounder at Los Angeles Tuesday. On the same night at St. Louis, Maxie Rosenbloom, part owner of the disputed light-heavyweight crown, engages Al Stillman, of St. Louis, in a nontitle bout.

Bouts on the national schedule include:

MONDAY—Pittsburgh, Teddy Yarosz, Monaca, Pa., vs. Eddie Kid Wolfe, Memphis, welterweights, 10; Alabama Kid, Dover, Ohio, vs. Jack December, Cleveland, lightweights, 8; Max Elling, Pittsburgh, vs. Freddie Edwards, Chester, W. Va., 6; at Terre Haute, Ind., Tiger Jack Fox, Terre Haute, vs. Humberto Arce, Porto Rico, heavyweights, 10; at New York, St. Nicholas Arena, King Levinsky, Chicago, vs. Meyer (K. O.) Christner, Akron, Ohio, heavyweights, 10.

TUESDAY—At Los Angeles, Speedy Dado, Philippines, vs. Baby Arizmendi, Mexico City, featherweights, 10; at St. Louis, Maxie Rosenbloom, New York, vs. Al Stillman, St. Louis, light-heavyweights, 10 (nontitle), and Harry Dublinsky, Chicago, vs. Lou Terry, lightweights, 10; at Seattle, Joe Glick, New York, vs. Sammy Santos, Seattle, welterweights; and Andy Bundy, Portland, vs. Bobby Gray, Seattle, featherweights, each 6; at Portland, Oreg., Wesley (K. O.) Ketchell, Portland, vs. Young Firpo, Burke, Idaho, light-heavyweights, 10; at Detroit, Eddie Ran, Poland, vs. Wesley Ramey, Grand Rapids, junior welterweights, 10; at Cincinnati, Wilbur Chevalier, Gary, City, Mich., vs. Frankie Minerva, New York, featherweights, 10; at West Palm Beach, Fla., Arturo Godoy, Chile, vs. Dewey Kimsey, Jonesboro, Ga., heavyweights, 10; at Alexandria, Frankie Genaro, New York, vs. Joe Pino, Mexico, flyweights.

WEDNESDAY—At Cincinnati, Simon Nebolsky, Cincinnati, vs. Tony Lombardi, Toledo, welterweights, 8.

THURSDAY—At Tacoma, Babe Anderson, San Jose, Calif., vs. Jon Fraser, Spokane, welterweights, 6; at Philadelphia, Eddie Houghton, Philadelphia, vs. Henry Taylor, Philadelphia, light-heavyweights, 10.

FRIDAY—At New York, Madison Square Garden, Fidel Labarba, Los Angeles, vs. Seaman Watson, England, featherweights, 12; Benny Bass, Philadelphia, vs. Sid Lampe, Baltimore, lightweights, 10; at Philadelphia, Billy Kitchell, Millville, N. J., vs. Wally Sears, Minersville, Pa., light-heavyweights, 10.

Committee to Rule On Scholarship Ban

Oposition Develops on Middle States' Body's Interpretations.

New York, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—A subcommittee of four has been appointed by the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education, a subsidiary of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, to consider all questions relating to the association's ban on athletic scholarships.

The subcommittee, it was learned today, consists of Adam Leroy Jones of Columbia, Dr. Wilson Farrand of Princeton, H. H. Horner of Albany, N. Y., and Lindsey Best of Plainfield, N. J.

Much opposition has developed to the commission's interpretation of the resolution forbidding the granting of athletic scholarships. The commission interpreted the term "Athletic Scholarship" as including any "money payments or the equivalent granted to a student because of his athletic promise or athletic achievement."

There were protests, at an executive meeting yesterday, that the word "equivalent" gave the commission too broad powers.

The subcommittee was appointed with the idea that it could handle all questions relating to the operation of the new policy against such scholarships.

Blankenship to Buy Horses at Hialeah

W. J. Blankenship, former Capital orchestra leader, who is getting a foothold in racing, will journey to Miami this week to try to add to his present stable which includes three 2-year-olds. One is a promising Sir Gallahad colt, which he will have ready for the Maryland campaign. Blankenship's string will soon be shifted to Marlboro, where he will train himself. He recently applied for a Maryland license.

Left-Handers No Puzzle To Nats

Figures Belie Belief That Southpaws Were Weakness.

Club Won 27 of 44 Games Against Unorthodox Hurlers.

By FRANK H. YOUNG.

A FELLOW with an ability to juggle figures can make them prove most anything, 'tis said—like the same breath which warms your hands but cools your coffee—and so it is with baseball statistics. Take, for instance, the records of the various league pitchers against the Nationals last season.

These figures disprove several ideas generally held with respect to the strength or weakness of the Nat batters.

For years, it has been accepted as a fact that the home team could not do well against southpaw flinging. Yet, it seems that of the 44 decisions in which allen left-handers figured against the Nats last year, Johnson's clan came out well on top, winning 27 as against but 17 losses for a .613 average. And against right-handers, the Washington record was but .587.

Neither did the outstanding pitchers of the league prove to be particularly effective against the native pill-pounders. The great Lefty Grove won but two in three starts, while the only slightly less great Lefty Gomez won but three out of five, and in two of his victories he actually was knocked out although still earning the verdict.

Ferrell and Gomez Had Same Record.

Wesley Ferrell had the same record against Washington as did Gomez, and he, too, was given plenty of thumping even in his victories. Johnny Allen, the Yanks' precautious freshman, gained two decisions in three tries and was pounded considerably execpt in one game, while Lefty Tony Freitas, another first-year star who was effective against every other club in the league, beat the Nats once but bowed to them twice.

The youngster, Tom Bridges, of the Tigers, and the oldster, Charley Ruffing, of the Yankees, proved to be the toughest nuts for the Nats to crack. Bridges beat them the only five times he faced them, going 8 2-3 innings in one game before allowing a hit. Then Dave Harris caused one of those noises heard throughout the world by going up in a pinch and lining a single to left to break up a no-hit, no-run game. Ruffing was beaten but once by the Nats while downing them four times.

The Nats had six real "cousins" in the league and several whose relationship was just a little farther away. The sextet referred to is Bob Weiland, of the Red Sox; Vic Frasier and Bob Chamberlain, of the White Sox; Whitlow Wyatt, of the Tigers, and good old Irving Hadley and Wally (Preacher) Hebert, of the Browns. The Nats beat Frasier four straight times, took four of five from Weiland and Wyatt, and downed Chamberlain, Hadley and Hebert the only three times each faced them.

Records of Opposing Hurlers.

Here is the record of every pitcher who battled the Nats to a decision last season, excluding the flingers' work in relief roles, when they did not figure in the verdict.

BOSTON.	W.	L.
Andrews	0	1
Kline	2	0
Ruffing	1	4
Weiland	1	4
Russell	1	2
Rhodes	0	1
MacFayden	0	1
Boerner	0	1
Jablonowski	0	1
Lisenbee	0	1
Totals	5	17

CHICAGO.	W.	L.
Lyons	0	1
Jones	0	2
Gaston	2	1
Frasier	0	4
Caraway	0	2
Faber	1	1
Daglia	1	1
Walsh	0	1
Chamberlain	0	3
Totals	4	18

CLEVELAND.	W.	L.
Ferrell	0	1
C. Brown	0	1
Harder	2	1
Hudlin	1	1
Hildebrand	2	0
Connally	0	1
Russell	3	3
Totals	11	11

NEW YORK.	W.	L.
Allen	2	1
Gomez	3	2
Ruffing	1	4
Pipgras	1	2
Pennock	1	1
MacFayden	0	1
Weiland	1	4
Rhodes	0	2
Totals	12	11

PHILADELPHIA.	W.	L.
Grove	2	1
Earnshaw	4	4
Walberg	2	2
Freitas	2	1
Mahaffey	1	1
Cain	0	1
Bowman	0	1
Totals	10	12

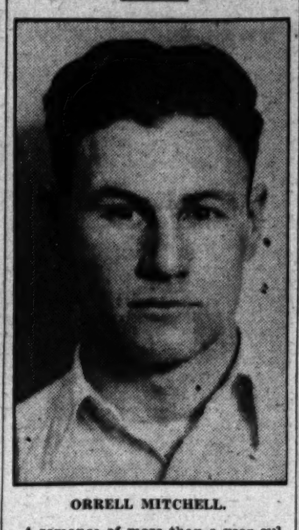
ST. LOUIS.	W.	L.
Blaholder	2	3
Stewart	2	3
Coffman	1	0
Hadley	0	3
Gray	0	1
Kimsey	0	1
Fischer	1	0
Hebert	0	3
Totals	9	13

DETROIT.	W.	L.
Whitehill	2	3
Sorrell	3	1
Bridges	5	0
Hogsett	1	1
Wyatt	1	3
Uhle	0	2
Totals	11	11

Via the grapevine route comes the information that Dic Nallin is one of the veteran umpires to be released by the American League for the coming season. Two youngsters have signed and another old-timer also is due to step out. Dame Rumor says the choice lies betwen George Hildebrand and Bill Dineen.

Secret Out

Mitchell, Gonzaga Coach, Married Capital Girl Several Weeks Ago.



ORRELL MITCHELL.

A romance of more than a year culminated in the recent marriage of Orrell Mitchell, Gonzaga High School coach, and Miss Catherine Boyle, it was learned last night. The couple were married several weeks ago at a quiet ceremony in Baltimore, witnessed only by intimate friends.

Mitchell, who is 26 years old and resides at 630 G street northeast, has been eminently successful at Gonzaga, where he teaches mathematics in addition to coaching its athletic teams. He is also one of the city's best known basket-ball referees.

His bride, who is 20 years of age, recently resided at 725 Fifth street northeast. She is a graduate of Notre Dame Academy.

PACKER PROS UPSET GRID VICTIMS

20,000 See Nevers' Stars Win Charity Game, 13 to 6.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Ernie Nevers' Pacific Coast All-Stars, a team assembled and coached the last two weeks, furnished a surprising upset here today by defeating the Green Bay Packers, formidable professional football eleven, 13 to 6.

Led by Nevers, former Stanford all-American full back, the Coast boys plunged and passed their way to victory over a team rated as one of the strongest in the national pro league.

Grange Loses Ground on Five Tries.

Harold "Red" Grange, former galloping ghost of Illinois, opened at left half for the Packers, and played about fifteen minutes, but did not have much success. He packed the ball five times for a total loss of four yards.

The charity game, sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, supplied thrills for a crowd of some 20,000.

After a scoreless first period, the Packers went into the lead with a touchdown early in the second quarter. Clark Hinkle, former Bucknell full back, whipped a 26-yard pass to Tom Nash, right end, and the latter ran 20 yards to score. Grove's place kick on the try for point was low.

The All-Stars followed with a touchdown and added the extra point to go into the lead in the same period. Bunnie Belden, sub left half, passed 30 yards to Harry Ebding, end, and the latter jogged over after a short run. Nevers' place kick sailed through for the extra tally. Near the close of the third quarter the All-Stars scored again, Nevers throwing a 7-yard pass to McKalip, left end, who ran 10 yards. The try for point failed.

Outplayed for all of the third period and for most of the last quarter, the packers put on a drive in the closing minutes that saw them lose the ball on downs on the Stars' 7-yard mark after a march of 80 yards.

Ramming the line failed to produce much yardage, so the teams took to the air most of the time. Each forward wall averaged considerably over 200 pounds. The All-Stars tried 20 passes and the Packers 21. Nevers threw all but one pass for his side and completed 13 of them. The Packers completed seven tosses for a total of 134 yards, with the All-Stars gaining 154 yards by way of the air.

Dunlins Lad, at 5-1, Wins Havana Feature

Havana, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—J. E. Smallman's Dunlins Lad was an easy winner of the fifth race, a 6-furlong sprint, which featured the program at Oriental Park today.

Rated off the early pace, Dunlins Lad responded when called upon in the stretch and won by three lengths. P. Hinphy's Jaz Age was second and E. D. S. Lavin's Overboard third, beaten only a nose.

Dunlins Lad ran the distance in 1:14 and paid 5 to 1 in the betting.

POST MORTEMS . . .

Reds Barry will fight in the semifinal of the Schmeling-Baer card in June . . . the baseball trek South started yesterday with the departure of Bill McCauley, the A's groundkeeper . . . Joe Judge's chances of signing with Brooklyn are fading . . . The Oakland Coast League club will try out a Chinese outfielder this season . . . He answers to the name of Lee Gum Hong . . . Tampa Bay Hotel, where the Nats were housed all the years they trained at Tampa, will not reopen this season . . . So Donie Bush and his Reds, who train there, will have to find themselves another hotel . . . The Knights of Columbus Bowling League is well on the way on its third season with no forfeits having been recorded . . . Joe Cambria, Youngstown Club president, was in town yesterday . . . He was trying to coax some cast-off Nats from Clark Griffith.

A reader asks if Lieut. Harmony, Maryland U. ring coach, is related to the Harmony referred to in a baseball story . . . the team manager was telling his pitchers they must work better together. I must get harmony on this club, he said . . . "Well," said one of the flingers, "if you think this guy Harmony is a better pitcher than me, go ahead and get him."

1933 Offers Baer Great Chance

Young Heavyweight Regained Confidence in Recent Months.

Says He Will Defeat Schmeling and Stop Jack Sharkey.

(Where are the younger sport stars or champions of 1932? What have they turned to or what are their prospects for 1933? In answer to these questions, the Associated Press today presents herewith the first of a series of stories.)

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—If the year 1933 means the heavyweight championship for Max Baer, he will be ready. He is reading books on culture.

"High class stuff is swell," he says. "They refine you."

The new year holds possibilities for the big curlyheaded Californian overshadowing anything looming ahead of any other youngster in the fistic field. Already he has been matched with Max Schmeling, the former champion, for a 15-round bout under Jack Dempsey's auspices in June.

And already the wise boys are figuring that the 210-pound playboy who began his working career as a butcher boy in Livermore, Calif., and developed his magnificent physique as a foundry laborer in Oakland, has better than an even chance of whipping the Teuton and rising to the role of challenger of Champion Jack Sharkey in September.

Baer Can Absorb Punishment.

Baer, they know, is a strong right-hand puncher and dotes on a Schmeling type that crowds in, a mark for winging right-handers. He takes punishment amazingly well and is not likely to go down early under the short rights, the curling left hooks Schmeling should have trouble landing on such a tall, long-armed foe.

Today Baer is preparing for his big opportunity on the ranch of his manager, Ancil Hoffman, near Fair Oaks, just outside of Sacramento. He does the ranch chores, plays golf and reads. Three days a week he trains in a Sacramento gym. He is in fine condition.

His confidence, expressed so often and so loudly in the East that he became known as the Big Lip of Livermore, is greater than ever. He believes he will whip Schmeling and knock Sharkey out. The German, he thinks, will be the tougher of the two.

Confidence has increased steadily through the past year, in fact ever since he returned from a disastrous Eastern invasion that culminated in 1931 in a demoralizing defeat by Tommy Loughran, the slick Philadelphian, who gave Max a thorough lesson in the fine art of boxing.

Max Took Care of Good Ones.

Since then Max has walloped among others Tuffy Griffiths, King Levinsky, Ernie Schaaf, Tom Heeney, Walter Cobb, Jose Santa, and Arthur de Kuh. He has the best physical equipment of all the young heavyweights.

He created something of a sensation in the East, but not in the ring. He was the pet of society, a handsome, rollicking, good natured youngster, and as irresponsible as he was good looking.

He arrived with a secretary, one Alden E. Humphries, who also drove his large, luxurious car, and rapidly became Baer's social rival. It was quite a situation until reason dawned on Max and Alden E. joined the unemployed.

At one workout he heard a feminine visitor talk rapturously of "Apollo," and he thought she was calling him a mineral war. A sparring partner explained that Apollo was a god noted for his strength, beauty and manliness.

"Well, she had me right at that," conceded Max.

He often wore his evening clothes to breakfast and through the morning to get used to the feel of them.

Life holds but one complication at the moment. He is being sued violently for breach of promise by a waitress who claims he proposed matrimony but never kept the date. He denies everything.

8-Inch Golf Cup Tried By Pinehurst Group

Pinehurst, N. C., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—The 8-inch golf cup, recently proposed by Gene Sarazen, was tried out by a representative group of golfers at the Pinehurst Country Club today but it didn't make any converts.

The tests were made on a perfectly level sand green and the testers included W. C. Fownes, jr., former president of the United States Golf Association; his son, H. C. Fownes 2d; Donald J. Ross, golf course designer; Emmet French, Southern Pines pro, and Halbert J. Blue and Richard S. Tufts, ranking amateur golfers of the Carolinas.

Tufts and French, selected as the poorest putters in the star group, kept on even terms with the best, sinking them from all distances.

It was found that strong putts did not hit the back of the cup and bounce out and after a try or two none of the players failed to get "up" with his putts.

JEWISH GIRLS VICTORS.

Jewish Community Center varsity girls' team won a thrilling game from the Satellites last night, 23 to 21, Bessie Dickens' field goal in the last ten seconds being the deciding factor. Francis Teplitz, with 14 points, led the attack. Miss Dickens tallied 7 points. The J. C. C. girls are seeking games.

Wins Tourney

HARRY COOPER.

EAGLES WIN, 50-44, OVER POLICE

Norfolk Cops Put Up Stubborn Battle as Farrell, Evans Star.

By LEWIS F. ATCHISON.

JOE SWEENEY and his Eagle playmates ran afoul of some Norfolk cops yesterday, but in the ensuing chase managed to outdistance the guardians of law and order by some 50 points to 44 in a rather slow game at the George Washington University gym. Only about five minutes of the first period elapsed before the coppers became fugitives from Eagles, and how they ever scored 44 points will go down through the years as one of the city's unsolved mysteries.

The men from the Virginia seaport were humbled before a small but distinguished gathering of sporting gentry, including Mr. Al Farrell, Maryland heavyweight boxer and District amateur champion, whose cherry-colored nose twinkled merrily like the red electric bulb over an exit. Mr. Farrell came to see his brother James (Tubba to you), play for the Eagles. Only the night before James saw Al punch out a decision over V. P. I.'s representative in a match at College Park.

Farrell and Evans Get "Hot Hand."

Farrell and Moon Evans were stricken with that malady of the profession referred to as a "hot hand," and though the Patrolmen were eager to be afflicted with the ailment it seemed to escape them. Between the pair of them they scored 24 points and were responsible for the 23-15 lead the Eagles boasted at the intermission.

Jeff Holland and Dutch Schmoss rallied the retreating bluecoats in the second half, and their propensity for making baskets, together with a pronounced let-up by the Washingtonians put the teams on a more even basis. But the tired cops never managed to overhaul their fleeting prey. Joe Sweeney was benched midway in the final period, but managed to hurl the ball with Herculean force through one of George Washington University's best window panes before leaving the fray. Quite a feat to smash a window in public with a corps of cops looking on. Several of the visiting gentlemen seemed under restraint to keep from seizing the little Irishman by the scruff of his neck and marching him off to the box for a ride in the old pie wagon. This desire arose in their manly breasts not only because of his damage to the school property, but also because of his craftiness on the court, which embarrassed them no little.

Streeks Returns to Old Form.

Dick Streeks, making his second start of the season for the Eagles, looked more like his old self than last Sunday. Streeks fitted in well with the team's passing, and acquitted himself with honors on the defense. His improvement is believed to be due in part to his uniform, which consisted of a pair of the defunct Vic's pin in the rear, and an old French A. C. jersey, which appeared to have been caught in either the depression or a disgruntled washing machine. The suit served its purpose, however.

In a preliminary game the Bethesda Volunteer Firemen dropped a 31-to-28 decision to the Old Dominion Boat Club tossers in a rough and tumble game.

Eagles.	G	FG	P
Sweeney, rf	1	1	3
Bennie, lf	3	1	7
Streeks, lf	0	0	0
McKenzie, c	1	0	2
Berger, c	3	0	6
Evans, lg	5	3	13
Farrell, rg	3	0	6
Zim'rman, rg	5	1	11
Totals	22	6	50

Norfolk.	G	FG	P
Berry, lf	4	1	9
Mayo, lf	1	0	2
Mitchell, rf	0	0	0
Holland, c	5	2	14
Schmoss, lg	4	2	10
Johnson, rg	0	1	1
Totals	19	6	44

Referee—Ford (A. B.).

Sutter Net Choice In All-South Event

Miami, Fla., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Cliff Sutter, of Tulane University, New Orleans, third ranking tennis player in the United States, tonight stood out as the favorite to win the all-South championship tournament, starting tomorrow on the Miami Biltmore Club courts.

Sutter and Gregory Mangin, of Newark, N. J., seventh ranking player, drew William Reich and George Stevenson, of Miami, for opponents in the first round matches.

George Lott, of Chicago, three times national doubles champion and a member of four United States Davis Cup teams, was another expert in the play. He is beginning his campaign for selection on the 1933 Davis Cup team. Lott's first round opponent is George Rivolt, Miami youth.

Other featured entries are Berkely Bell and Dr. Gene McAuliffe, of New York; Bryan Grant, of Atlanta, No. 2 college player and former national clay court champion; Gustavo Vollmer, of Cuba, Davis Cup player, and Jay Cohn, third ranking junior player of the country, now residing in Chicago.

Play will continue through Saturday.

Chicago Pro Victor by 2 Strokes

Horton Smith Is Tied for Second Place by Mangrum.

Runyan, Prominent, Finishes With 75 for Third Cash.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—"Lighthorse" Harry Cooper, Chicago professional, won the second annual Phoenix open golf tournament today with 281 for the 72 holes.

Horton Smith, of Oak Park, Ill., and Ray Mangrum, of Los Angeles, tied for second with 283 apiece.

Paul Runyan, of White Plains, N. Y., and Craig Wood, of Deal, N. J., were in a tie with 284.

Charles Guest, of Deal, N. J., was next man in with 286.

Wood and Guest and Al Espinosa took the honors for the final round, shooting 69—two under par, but their previous scores kept them from top money. Cooper's final round score was 72. One over par.

Mangrum Has Par Round.

Mangrum shot par to make his second place tie, while Smith came in with 74 for the last 18 holes.

Runyan's final round score was 75.

Cold breezes sweeping down from the surrounding snow-covered mountains hampered all the players, especially the barnstorming professionals and amateurs.

Johnny Dawson, Chicago, led the amateurs with a score of 298. Spec Stewar, Alburquerque, N. Mex., followed with 301, and Bob Goldwater, Phoenix, 307.

Wood probably had the most disappointing day of all. The difficult thirteenth hole proved his undoing. On the last 18-hole round, Wood played from the green only to have the ball land in a palm tree, 4 feet from the ground. He played it from there for a 5 on a 4-par hole.

Cooper's long drives helped overcome his poor putting. Despite his many good lies on the approach, his chip and putt shots were slowed by the damp greens.

Round scores and totals and distribution of the $1,500 purse among the 14 money winners:

Harry Cooper, Chicago, 70-68-71-72—281—$400.

Horton Smith, Oak Park, Ill., 71-68-70-74—283—$250.

Ray Mangrum, Los Angeles, 73-67-72-71—283—$250.

Paul Runyan, White Plains, N. Y., 71-67-71-75—284—$87.50.

Craig Wood, Deal, N. J., 72-70-73-69—284—$87.50.

Charles Guest, Deal, N. J., 69-77-71-69—286—$75.

Al Espinosa, Akron, Ohio, 74-74-72-69—289—$75.

Ben Hogan, Fort Worth, Tex., 75-70-71-75—291—$50.

Al Zimmerman, Portland, Oreg., 74-73-71-73—291—$50.

Byron Nelson, Denver, 73-74-73-71—291—$50.

Ralph Guldahl, St. Louis, 73-76-72-72—293—$37.50.

Ky Laffoon, Denver, 74-77-72-70—293—$37.50.

Abe Espinosa, Chicago, 75-72-71-77—295—$25.

Frank Walsh, Chicago, 76-76-73-72—296—$25.

Mel Ott and Giants Agree on '33 Terms

No Holdouts Are Reported Yet; Yanks Making Little Headway.

New York, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Mel Ott, clouting outfielder from Gretna, La., has agreed to salary terms for 1933, the New York Giants announced today.

Ott, returning his signed contract by mail, informed Giant officials at the same time he was in excellent shape and ready for the new season. Ott, a holdout last year, amassed an average of .318 in 1932 and tied Chuck Klein, of the Phillies for the National League home run championship, each hitting 38.

So far the Giants have failed to locate one bonafide holdout. Freddy Fitzsimmons, star right-hander, has balked at terms, but will be ready to talk business when the Giants go into training at Los Angeles late in February.

The New York Yankees spent an idle day and failed to reduce their list of holdouts which includes such notable figures as Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Lefty Gomez. Gehrig conferred with Ed Barrow, Yankee business manager, yesterday but failed to reach an agreement over the size of the cut in his salary check.

Barrow said today that no further conferences with Gehrig had been held and that he did not know when the slugging first baseman again would come around to talk things over.

SETS SWIM RECORD.

Brunswick, Germany, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Paul Schwarz today broke the world's record for the 500-meter breast stroke swim, covering the distance in 7:33:1. The accepted record, held by another German, Erich Rademacher, is 7:40:8.

"No foot too hard to fit"
Wright ARCH PRESERVER SHOE
BOYCE-LEWIS
Custom Fitting Shoes
439 7th ST., N.W.

48-DAY RACE MEETING OPENS AT FAIR GROUNDS TODAY

West's Stars Named for Feature

Lucky Tom, Playtime, Jimmy Moran in Sprint Test.

Historic Track Dates Back to Days of Civil War.

By JOSEPH A. MURPHY
(General Manager of the Crescent City Jockey Club.)

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Historic Fair Grounds, with traditions which carry it back to before the Civil War, will open its gates tomorrow for its annual race meeting. While every race track, like every other form of amusement, has felt the depression, the management is looking forward to one of the most brilliant seasons in the history of racing here.

With the Fair Grounds Inaugural Handicap as an opening feature, there will be eleven stakes contested for during the 48 days of racing, exclusive of Sundays, with the Louisiana Derby as the final classic Saturday, March 18.

Entered in the inaugural 6-furlong sprint this season are such outstanding horses as Lucky Tom, J. J. Robinson's fine colt which won both the Jefferson and the Louisiana Derby last year; Mose Goldblatt's Jimmy Moran, winner of the New Orleans Handicap and other features; C. H. Bachrach's Playtime, and the Three Ds Stable's Quatre Bras II.

Many Horses Ready To Race.

There is no shortage of horses. We have some of the finest racing establishments in the country represented here again this winter. With competent riders and a staff of officials of international reputation, the setting is complete. Since the days of the match race between Lexington and Lacompte, racing has been in the blood of the people of this section of the South and its best traditions have been carried down from generation to generation.

A desire to see this historic old racing center continue as a link in the chain that extends from coast to coast, in view of the importance Fair grounds has played in the thoroughbred sport of other years, prompted men to interest men of wealth and high standing in the United States to take a hand in maintaining the high ideals which E. R. Bradley established when it became known that ill health had caused Mr. Bradley to sell his controlling interest in the Fair Grounds. With the understanding that the property would be operated without any commercialism and without any political affiliations of any character, the response was instantaneous, and a group comprising Stuyvesant Peabody, Matt J. Winn, John C. Schank, T. McHale, John T. Connery, Charles Bidwell, Albert Sabath, Charles Krutchkoff, Charles Bacharach and many other leading sportsmen of the West, was formed to take over the property.

There will be eight races daily. The "also eligible" list has been eliminated. There has been a general reduction in admissions. The Bahr starting gate used at Hawthorne will be used, along with the clock system of closing the mutuels at post time. Admission to the paddock has been abolished. Admission to the grounds and field stand will be free.

AGUA CALIENTE RESULTS.

(Associated Press.)

FIRST—Six furlongs; purse, $500; for 4-year-olds and upward; claiming.
Sir Satin, 108 (Saunders).. 13.20 5.00 5.60
Kate Geary, 110 (Pollard).. 6.20 4.80
Martha Mae, 105 (W. D. Wright).. 3.80
Gleaming Star, Dutch Boy, Cafty, Miss Bullet, Weicher, Kalakaua, Idealite, Coalinzo, Port Agent also ran. Time, 1:16.

SECOND—Six furlongs; purse, $500; for 4-year-olds and upward; claiming.
Altavar, 115 (Pollard).. 5.80 3.60 2.80
Paul Hirtenstein, 110 (Sullivan).. 5.80 3.60
Saddle Skirts, 105 (Perry).. 3.80
Beset, Jimmy Basil, Lieut. Rust, Miss Joan, Susu, Betfandot Highway, Motor Park, Red Lady, Miss Fashionplate also ran. Time, 1:14 4-5.

THIRD—Six furlongs; purse, $500; for 3-year-old fillies; claiming.
First Pip, 103 (Grayson).. 25.40 9.80 5.40
Scotch Noll, 106 (H. L. Fisher).. 2.80 2.80
Spinning Way, 108 (W. D. Wright).. 2.60
Miss Timidity, Red Current, Chiming Bells, Kitty Kop, Lower Ten, Half Saint, Marye, Plenty French, Sailing, Jesso, Cousin Ethel, Tiverton, Xingu, Mar Jean and Princess Val also ran. Time, 1:13 4-5.

FOURTH—Mile and 20 yards; purse, $500; the Allied Paints; for 3-year-olds and upward; claiming.
Belgian Lass, 112 (Arnold).. 5.40 4.00 3.20
Clarabel A., 109 (W. Saunders).. 5.80 5.40
Rehukai, 111 (H. Berch).. 4.00
Lutie Schuster, Scotland Blues, Madame Queen, Play Bird, Native Daughter, Calzona, Princess Ceuta also ran. Time, 1:44 4-5.

FIFTH—Mile and one-eighth; purse, $500; for 4-year-olds and upward; claiming.
Biz Bo, 110 (Humphries).. 4.00 3.20 2.80
Lieut. Kelly, 115 (J. Maiben).. 10.60 5.60
Korax, 110 (Perry).. 6.40
Fair Catch, Dark Ray, La Fiorelle, Sure Hills, Hootinany, Francis Seymour, Asgo, Morjoung and Kranz Baby also ran. Time, 1:58.

SIXTH—Five and one-half furlongs; the Jean Harlow Purse, $600; for 3-year-olds and upward; claiming.
Sharp Thoughts, 115 (O'Donnell).. 7.20 4.00 2.40
Hokuao, 112 (Saunders).. 5.60 2.60
Up, 117 (Humphries).. 2.30
Midshipman, Book Bard and Frank Ormont also ran. Time, 1:06 2-5.

SEVENTH—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $500; for 4-year-olds and upward; claiming.
Bright Outlook, 110 (Todd) 52.00 32.20 8.40
Just Ormont, 115 (Longdon).. 6.40 4.60
Valley Queen, 105 (Sullivan).. 5.00
Charming Homme, Jay Walker, *Colonel Campus, *Big Stuff, Zinn, El Monte, Dicings, Cry Baby, Paige also ran. Time, 1:56 1-5.
*Field.

EIGHTH—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $500; for 4-year-olds and upward; claiming.
Royal Jullian, 115 (Longdon) 10.00 5.40 3.20
Noble Sir, 110 (Saunders).. 4.00 3.40
*Cloiwald, 115 (G. Smith).. 3.20
Parnell Boy, Navy Girl, Queen Ann, Neckpiece, Oblige, Golden Sweep, Diodoro and *Hec also ran. Time, 1:57.
*Field.

BROOKLAND BOYS COP.

Joe Peruzzi's field goal in the final minute of the game, enabled the Brookland Boys Club to score a 26-22 victory over Company F in a spirited game yesterday at Hyattsville. Lew Franke's work was best for Brookland, while Frank Cogar was outstanding for the Guardsmen.

Brook. B. C.	G	FG	P	Company F.	G	FG	P
McNally, lf..	1	0	2	Townsend, lf.	1	1	3
Franke, lf..	3	3	9	Spicknall, lf.	1	0	2
Hurley, rf..	0	0	0	Fauntleroy, f.	0	0	0
Peruzzi, rf..	2	0	4	Kidwell, f..	0	0	0
Ferguson, c..	1	1	3	Bassford, f..	0	0	0
Clark..	0	0	4	Lehman, c..	2	0	4
Cotter..	2	0	4	Brown, c..	0	0	0
Smith..	0	0	0	Crosthwaite, lg	1	0	2
				Cogar, rf..	4	3	11
Totals..	11	4	26	Totals..	9	4	22

Referee—Cohan.

LAUREL GUARDS VICTORS.

Laurel Guards defeated the Mount Rainier quintet yesterday at Laurel, 51-41. Weigle scoring 25 points.

Laurel.	G	FG	P	Mt. Rainier.	G	FG	P
Kaiser, lf..	4	1	9	R. Bellman, rf	3	3	9
Weigle, lf..	12	1	25	Scott, lf..	4	1	9
Easton, rf..	2	0	4	Callow, rf..	3	2	8
Sewell, c..	0	0	0	Smith, c..	0	0	0
Geay, c..	2	0	4	H. Bellman, lg	0	0	0
Libes, lg..	0	0	0	A. Bellman, rg	6	3	15
Fisher, lg..	1	0	2
Edmonston, rg	1	3	7
Totals..	24	3	51	Totals..	16	9	41

Genaro and Fino Promise Fight Thriller Tomorrow

Former Flyweight Champ Gets Test in Mexican Titleholder, in Portner's Feature; Young Van Attempting Comeback.

By DAVE HERMAN.

FRANKIE GENARO'S eight-round fight with Joe Fino tomorrow night at Portner's Arena, in Alexandria, revives memories of his only appearance in this section more than eight years ago, when the swift-footed Italian flyweight, twice the conqueror of the great Pancho Villa, was then called the "uncrowned" world's champion. Later Genaro won the title.

Genaro, it is recalled, fought Joe Clifford, of Brooklyn, at Sportland Heights Arena, in Berwyn, in 1924, before over 2,000 spectators, who gave him a warm reception during his unanimous ten-round victory.

Frankie Mann, Portner's promoter, who brought together Genaro and Fino, was a spectator when the little midget exhibited his flstic wares, and stated last night that if Genaro flashes just a portion of the skill he exhibited the night he fought Clifford, a real treat will be in store for fans.

Fino to Have Weight Advantage.

Accompanied by his manager, Bobby North, Genaro is expected in town today. Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, both Genaro and Fino will weigh in at Riggs Turkish Bath. Fino's pilot, Jimmy Erwin, has promised to have the Mexican champion enter the ring weighing 116 pounds, but it is doubtful if the "little Brown Panther" can scale down that low. Genaro will tip the beans at 114, and it seems as though Fino will be spotted some four or five pounds, which really is quite an advantage in the "skeeter" class.

Genaro, however, is expected to offset any weight handicap with his 12 years of experience and ring dexterity. Last year, Midget Wolgast was recognized as the world's champion and Genaro, the victim of a knockout at the hands of Jose Perez in France, lost his title, and was relegated to the position of runner-up. Wolgast and the Italian veteran fought a 15-round draw in 1930.

Fino Figures to Put Up Battle.

Fino, a spirited fighter, with color and action but no potent punch, is figured to hold his own with the former champion. An improved boxer, Fino, is constructed much along the lines of Pancho Villa, and his leaping, jabbing tactics are similar to the manner in which the Filipino champion, and foremost rival of Genaro, went after his opponents.

It is interesting to note that Fino always has stepped out of his class. He fights bantamweights three or four pounds heavier and has disposed of good featherweights. A few years ago Fino fought Harry Fierrero, recognized as the third bantamweight in the country, and the two put on a fight that was declared one of the best between two little fellows in Chicago boxing history. Fino, knocked down four times, made a gallant comeback, but lost the verdict.

Young Van, the Southwest Washington star, who blazed a conquering pace in the ring last year, will open his comeback campaign in the six-round semiwindup with Billy Vermillion, of Baltimore. This 19-year-old lad will attempt to start another winning streak such as that of 1932, when he won nine bouts in a row before Sammy Britt halted him in two consecutive matches.

JOE FINO.

Van Ready for Comeback Attempt.

Van tapered off yesterday at Frankie Mann's gym, shadowboxing, skipping rope and sparring a couple of rounds. He looked like a million dollars. Van realizes he has a tough assignment ahead of him, but thinks he has the stuff to put away his foe, who, incidentally had quite a record as an amateur.

One change was made in the four preliminary fights. Young Calp, of Baltimore, slated to fight Jack Gentile, Washington taxi driver, reported an injured right hand, and Matchmaker Mann may shoot in his place either Young Brocado or Sammy Romano. In the other bouts, Jack Britton will meet Cary Wright, Eddie Compton opposes Joe Copera and Barefoot Green takes on Bob Hollingsworth.

Tickets are on sale at Vic's sports shop.

AT THE POST

with Bill Bennings

MIAMI, JANUARY 22.

DEAR AL:

Johnny Gilbert has ridden only two winners in three days here and was shut out yesterday. The 1932 champion rider is in splendid form, however, and can be depended upon to break out in a rash of victories at any moment. Gilbert's two winners have paid him nicely. Opening day, Gold Step brought better than 9 to 1 and last Friday Fervid was 8½ to 1. Bill Bennings is another who is having his troubles but, inasmuch as he hasn't been whitewashed, there is hope. Mike promised to play a hard-bottom brand of stud poker tonight so that we'd have more than rooting interest in a number of good things at the track tomorrow. Get down.

BILL.

FIRST RACE—LADY LEGEND, though fourth, was only beaten a length in her last try at Bowie and off that performance I'm giving her a chance to take this field of maidens into camp. CRAPSHOOTER showed promise in Maryland and should save the place. BRAN MUFFIN has had an outing here and may make the show grade.

SECOND RACE—SKY ROYAL, a Royal Canopy colt, showed enough in his race the other day to allow me to put him on top of this group. PINLUCK finished ahead of Gilbert's mount, but SKY ROYAL had some trouble. DARTLE has trained well and should be third.

THIRD RACE — SUPERCHARGE showed me speed and courage in Maryland and I believe those assets are still part of this youngster. Danny Smith will ride. SCREECH looks like the one to beat. MEMORIES DEAR has age on the top pair and is in clever hands.

FOURTH RACE—JUNGLE KING was close often last fall, but unlucky. Although he would prefer a route, this fellow can sprint, I believe. May pick up the leaders in the stretch. LIQUER and DAUDET to battle it out for the place award.

FIFTH RACE—I'm trying to put over a long one here and I expect Danny Meade, he of the telephone mutuels, to help turn the trick with CATHOP. The last was a bloomer, don't believe it. PARI-MUTUEL appears second best with ACTION, the improved plater, to take the show.

SIXTH RACE—Providing SOLACE gets a capable rider, I think this one is in the bag. TOTEM is plenty dangerous and should be bet on with a superior jockey. IMPEACH has improved enough to be third here.

SEVENTH RACE—POLAR BRUSH showed a flash of that good Maryland form in his outing at this course and seems dependable today. TREMENDOUS is a fast finisher and will be ready to give a good battle. EVERFAIR failed me the other day but should take a money place.

OLMSTED TOSSERS WIN.

Rolling up a comfortable lead in the first half, Olmsted Grill scored an easy 44-21 victory over Lustine-Nicholson in a dull game yesterday at Hyattsville. Sebastian, Dantzig, and Wills were outstanding for the visitors.

Olmsted Grill	G	FG	P	Lust. Nich.	G	FG	P
Understein, lf	1	0	2	Cain, lf..	4	0	8
Sebastian, rf	5	0	10	Calhoun, rf..	1	0	2
Dantzig, c..	6	2	14	Wilson, c..	0	0	0
Gahan, lg..	1	0	2	Quantrille, c..	0	0	0
Wills, lg..	5	2	12	Reed, lg..	4	0	8
Kemp, rg..	2	0	4	Etten, rg..	0	1	1
				Hollingsw'h, rg	1	0	2
				Bladen, rg..	0	0	0
Totals..	20	4	44	Totals..	10	1	21

TAKOMA FIVE WINS.

Takoma Business Men's Team defeated Fort Washington last night on the latter's court, 38 to 28, Wilkins and Vandercook leading the attack on the hoops with 14 and 10 points, respectively. Graham, with ten markers, featured for Fort Washington.

Takoma.	G	FG	P	Ft Wash.	G	FG	P
Vandercook, lf	5	0	10	Graham, lf..	4	2	10
Henley, rf..	5	0	8	Sutton, lf..	0	0	0
Wilking, c..	6	2	14	Kerigan, f..	0	0	0
King, lg..	0	0	0	Bishop, rf..	1	0	2
Smith, lg..	0	0	0	Klonka, c..	1	1	3
Drake, rg..	3	0	6	Flynn, lg..	1	1	3
				John, lg..	2	1	5
				Tuiel, rg..	1	1	3
Totals..	18	2	38	Totals..	10	8	28

THE POST'S CONSENSUS AT HIALEAH PARK

The following consensus has been compiled by The Post from the selections of the leading handicappers of the turf. The figures show how the selections were rated.

CONSENSUS OF LEADING HANDICAPPERS

First Race.	Second Race.	Third Race.	Fourth Race.	Fifth Race.	Sixth Race.	Seventh Race.
Lady Lee'd (26)	Pin Luck (23)	Screech (17)	Liqueur	Ormesby (26)	Solace (24)	Bank Shot (28)
Fourteen (11)	Sky Royal (8)	Memories D. (11)	Dorsays (15)	Pari-Mutuel (25)	Totem (22)	P. Brush (14)
Crapsh'ter (10)	Erebus (6)	Supercharge (10)	Jungle King (11)	Action (9)	Noelwood (12)	Tremendous (9)

BENNINGS, WASHINGTON POST

Lady Legend	Sky Royal	Supercharge	Jungle King	Cathop	Solace	Polar Brush
Crapshooter	Pinluck	Screech	Liqueur (22)	Pari-Mutuel	Totem	Tremendous
Bran Muffin	Dartle	Memories Dear	Daudet	Action	Impeach	Everfair

LOUISVILLE TIMES, ASSOCIATED PRESS

Crapshooter		Shaker Lady	Daudet	Pari-Mutuel	Solace	Bank Shot
Lady Bracadale	No selections	Village Vamp	Blessed Event	Action	Noelwood	New Sun
Our Moment		Roesvelt	Liqueur	Semaphore	Totem	Jean Brown

BLACKS WIN IN SOCCER FEATURE

Heights Team Downs Gaithersburg by 6 to 2.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS BLACKS, dominating in both the first and second halves, defeated Gaithersburg in the feature game of the Capital City Soccer League yesterday at Silver Spring. The Blacks triumphed by 6 to 2, with Lewis and Christinson scoring two goals each.

Rosedale and New York Avenue were returned the victors in the Recreation League, the former applying the calcimine brush in its 8-0 victory over Bloomingdale, and the latter winning a hotly contested game from Dux A. C., 2 to 1.

Minni, of Rosedale, was in rare form, scoring four goals.

Rosedale (8).	Position.	Bloomingdale (0)
Norris..	Goal..	Byerly
Gunlow..	R. B..	Fox
J. Sullivan..	L. B..	Dell Erba
D. Kaplan..	R. H..	Duxster
E Guntow..	C. H..	Barclay
M. Stasulli..	L. H..	Delviba
S. Simmons..	Center..	Shelton
L. Stasulli..	I. R..	Watkins
S. Kaplan..	I. L..	Rinaldi
Minni..	O. R..	Frank
W. Simmons..	O. L..	Montgomery

Goals—Norris, Minni (4), D. Kaplan, E. Guntow, Sullivan.

N. Y. Ave. (2).	Position.	Dux A. C. (1)
Wallace..	Goal..	G. Vecchietti
Quentrille..	R. B..	R. Vecchietti
S. Martin..	L. B..	W. Caslin
K. Miller..	R. H..	Zassega
H. Miller..	C. H..	E. Depoe
D. Nickols..	L. H..	T. Obsell
T. Clark..	Center..	D. Avon
A. Clark..	I. R..	Lassoi
Keller..	O. R..	E. Avon
Coulter..	O. L..	Jardacs
Gross..	O. R..	L. Besto

Goals—D. Nickols, A. Clark, E. Avon.

Col. H. Blks. (6)	Position.	Gaithersburg (2)
Hussey..	Goal..	Botacky
Abell..	R. B..	Briggs
Coleman..	L. B..	Ward
Copper..	R. H..	Knuis
Beck..	C. H..	Kiphart
Wilkins..	L. H..	Riggs
Lewis..	Center..	Reed
Robertson..	R..	Gloyd
Christinson..	L..	Walker
Burdett..	O. R..	Miller
Preschman..	O. L..	Husky

Goals—Lewis (2), Christinson (2), Beck, Robertson, Kiphart, Reed. Referee — J. Dixon.

26 Basket Ball Officials In Approved Association

Twenty-six full-fledged members of the Approved Basket Ball Officials Association, who will handle games in the District of Columbia and vicinity, were announced yesterday by Frank Sumner, secretary.

C. Edward Beckett is president, John R. Daily, vice president, and George F. Harbin, treasurer of the association.

The complete list follows:

C. E. Beckett, 1826 Kenyon street northwest, Columbia 7435-J; J. S. Benner, Warrenton, Va., Warrenton 254-J; Lieut. Bruce W. Bidwell, Fort Washington, Md., Alexandria 1245; A. C. Boyd, 1828 Bay street southeast, Atlantic 1247; E. M. Broderick, 4317 Seventh street northwest, Columbia 4496; A. J. Caruso, 4618 Rosedale avenue, Bethesda, Md., Wisconsin 4615; C. E. Cliffflower, Jr., 1112 Buchanan street northwest, Metropolitan 4279, Adams 6634, National 1870, Alexandria 114; John R. Daly, 9131 Thornhill road, Silver Spring, Md., District 6296, Shepherd 1835; H. R. Davis, 324 Maryland avenue, Lincoln 1388-W; R. L. Davis, 407 Mannist Building, 4613 Morgan drive, Chevy Chase, Md., District 0435, Wisconsin 4865.

M. A. Enright, 729 Fifteenth street northwest, 4417 Eastern avenue, Takoma Park, Md., National 1603, Shepherd 3508; T. A. Ford, 2757 Fourth street northeast, Decatur 2198; George F. Harbin, 11 Seventh street southeast, Georgetown University, West 0620, Lincoln 0740; E. R. Hiser, 3246 Forty-second street northwest, Metropolitan 4301, Cleveland 3888; B. M. Kail, Y. M. C. A., 1736 G street northwest, National 8250-7986; D. J. Kappel, 37 M street northwest, Metropolitan 4647, North 4430; L. V. Kreh, 1001 Seminary road, Silver Spring, Md., Silver Spring 447, Shepherd 1688; C. A. Metzler, 1106 Vermont avenue northwest, Adams 0620, District 8600.

J. E. Mitchell, 630 G street northeast, Atlantic 2359-W, National 6000, branch 192, Greenwood 2657-W; O. J. Mitchell, 630 G street northeast, Atlantic 2359-W, Metropolitan 0711; E. E. Moser, 2928 P street northwest, North 8830, Metropolitan 0357; H. D. O'Meara, 2901 King place northeast, North 6867, National 7422 branch 392; W. C. Robbins, 1527 Otis street northeast, North 0863; J. A. Simpson, 731 Monroe street northeast, North 7794-W, Cleveland 7000; Nate Sauber, 924 New Jersey avenue northwest, 644 Massachusetts avenue northeast, Atlantic 1452-W, District 7945; Frank Sumner, 233 Channing street northeast, Swift & Co., District 5810, Potomac 2477.

Battery E Five Scores In Artillery League

Battery E avenged a previous defeat inflicted by Battery A in the 260th Coast Artillery League by stopping the latter by a score of 31-28 in a hard-fought game last night. Battery A won the first half and is leading the race for the second half race.

Battery E trailed at the end of the first period by a score of 18-11, but Coach Harry Helm's pep talk spurred the team on to greater efforts and it swept its opponent off its feet in the final quarter. Weitzner and Gleeson and Livermore starred for the winners; while McCahey was outstanding for the defeated quintet.

Battery A.	G	FG	P	Battery E.	G	FG	P
Miller, rf..	3	0	6	Gleeson, rf..	2	3	7
Markel, rf..	1	1	3	Pentecost, rf.	1	0	2
Carr, lf..	1	0	2	Weitzner, lf	4	0	8
McCahey, c..	5	0	10	Livermore, c.	3	1	7
Harvey, rg..	3	0	6	Lowrie, lg..	1	1	3
Hoebrex, lg..	0	1	1	Nash, lg..	0	0	0
				Linton, rg..	2	0	4
Totals..	13	2	28	Totals..	13	5	31

Referee—Prentice.

TERRYS WIN IN ROMP.

Everybody but Joe Perlone had a hand in Terrys' 26-16 victory over Dor-A yesterday at Hyattsville. The suburbanites offered little resistance to the smooth functioning District team and were badly outclassed. Dor-A led by a score of 10-8 at the end of the first half.

Terry's.	G	FG	P	Dor-A.	G	FG	P
L. Fitzg'ald, lf	0	0	0	Bealor, lf..	0	0	0
Cole, lf..	3	1	7	Cain, rf..	0	0	0
McCarthy, lf	2	0	4	Bassford, rf..	2	0	4
Vermillion, rf	1	0	2	Keegan, c..	3	0	6
Smith, rf..	1	0	2	Kidwell, lg..	0	0	0
Gevison, rf..	0	0	0	Brown, lg..	2	0	4
Gordon, c..	0	0	0	Calhoun, rg..	1	0	2
E Fitzg'ld, lg	1	1	3
Temple, lg..	0	0	0
Taylor, rg..	1	2	4
Bucholtz, rg..	1	2	4
Hartnett, rg..	0	0	0
Totals..	10	6	26	Totals..	6	0	16

Referee—Cohan.

FORT MYER TRIUMPHS.

Fort Myer beat Bolling Field last night, 53 to 27. The Fort Myer Cubs earlier in the day whipped Takoma Business Men, 48 to 26.

MARYLAND U. NEXT FOE OF NAVY

Old Liners Will Play at Annapolis Saturday.

Special to The Washington Post.

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 22.—Navy basketball players returned to Annapolis from Philadelphia today, disappointed, but not disheartened, because of their first reverse in seven starts this season, when they bowed to University of Pennsylvania in a whirlwind game, 38 to 34. Navy has long considered Penn as an arch enemy and a stumbling block on the court, and the result of Saturday's engagement was just another example of the jinx. The Middies are unanimous in praising the strength of the Quakers and give them full credit for their victory.

Now that midsemester examinations are in progress at the Naval Academy, the Tars will have a brief respite from activity, and there will be no midweek contest.

Maryland to Be Met Saturday.

The schedule will be resumed on Saturday, however, when the annual game with University of Maryland will be played, and on the basis of the showing of the respective teams so far the naval lads should take the Terrapins with comparative ease.

District fans will be interested in another court game, to be played here Saturday when the Navy Plebes meet Eastern High School. Wrestling with University of Pennsylvania will complete the afternoon card of events, and at night the Navy boxers will pry off the lid by squaring off with the representatives of University of New Hampshire. Little is known here of the strength of the New Hampshire lads, but if they have a team that measures nearly as good as that which made its one and only visit to Annapolis three years ago, the Middies will have their hands full, notwithstanding the fact that Spike Webb has every prospect of another strong group. On that occasion the New Englanders went down to defeat by the closest kind of a margin. They had a team of hard punchers.

St. John's College basketers also will be idle throughout this week because of examinations. In fact, they are not slated for action again until February 4.

School Exams Cause Court League Shifts

Mid-year examinations, which occur in the majority of local schools and colleges this week, promise to make it a very dull one in the lives of the Community Center League players.

Winfree Johnson, director of the unwieldly loop, has been beseiged with requests for postponements by members of teams who go to bat with the old .75 average on the classroom mat. Johnson intimated he will make every effort to arrange the schedule in such a manner as to permit students enough time to prepare for their classroom work.

Standings of teams in the two sections, brought up to date, are listed below:

SECTION A.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Sholl's..	3	0	1.000
United Grays..	4	0	1.000
Rhode Island Ave..	3	0	1.000
Investigation..	4	1	.800
Northern Preps..	3	2	.600
Swann Service..	3	3	.500
Utah State Society..	3	3	.500
Atlas..	2	3	.400
Tremonts..	2	4	.333
Drakes..	0	4	.000
Documents..	0	5	.000
Sigma Phi Lambda..	0	6	.000

SECTION B.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Potomac Boat Club..	5	0	1.000
Delaware & Hudson..	4	0	1.000
Griffiths..	4	1	.800
Mt. Vernon..	4	1	.800
Naval Reserves..	3	2	.600
Olmsted Grill..	4	3	.571
Crescents..	2	3	.250
First Baptist..	1	3	.250
Millers..	1	3	.250
Meridian..	1	4	.200
Anacostia Bus. Men..	0	4	.000
Congress Heights..	0	4	.000

Eagles Play Colored Semi-Pros Thursday

Court enthusiasts have been promised by the management of Conway's newly organized colored semiprofessional basket-ball team a fast and thrilling spectacle when they clash with the Aero Eagles Thursday night at the Masonic Temple, Tenth and U streets northwest.

The colored quint, which has not yet been given a name, has been made up of the best Baltimore and Washington collegiate talent of recent years, including "Lanky" Jones, "Rap" Wheatley, "Pinky" Clarke and "Cutie" Brown, of the former Morgan College champion Bears, and "Slim" Thomas, Eddie Davis and Dennis Simpson, local court artists.

AGUA CALIENTE ENTRIES.

(Associated Press.)

FIRST RACE—Two furlongs; purse, $300; for maiden 2-year-old fillies.
1 Sorry Princess.. 116 | 9 Vermont Rose.. 116
2 Clovinia.. 116 | 10 Moon Rose.. 116
3 Adah.. 116 | 12 Pedella B.. 116
4 Patsy Laura.. 116 | 13 Pompohone.. 116
5 Forgetful Jane.. 116 | 14 Cheerful Jane.. 116
6 Yifin.. 116 | 15 Morcharm.. 116
7 All Effort.. 116 | 16 Rural Charm.. 116
8 Mystic Moon.. 116 | 17 Molanchia.. 116
9 *Corida.. 116

*Saroni entry.
†R. Barnett entry.
‡Christensen entry.
M. Buck entry.

SECOND RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $500; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.
1 Publication.. 106 | 10 Gold Creves.. 113
2 Prince Rock.. 111 | 11 Warren H.. 112
3 Tom Keenan.. 106 | 12 Montana.. 106
4 Ultimate Vote.. 108 | 13 *R. Carlaris.. 106
5 *Puss Budget.. 103 | 14 *Gene Oliver.. 113
6 Miss Sage.. 103 | 15 *Silver Bond.. 106
7 Beaver Boy.. 108 | 16 Bonnie Betty.. 106
8 *Before.. 106 | 17 Bonna Ulrica.. 106
9 *Shannon Rose.. 106 | 18 Afridi.. 111

THIRD RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $500; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.
1 Dinard.. 113 | 10 *Isleton.. 101
2 Harshaw.. 113 | 11 *Brown Bank.. 106
3 *Chinkee.. 106 | 12 *Blue Middy.. 108
4 *Society Talk.. 101 | 13 *Cervera.. 111
5 Herdsman.. 113 | 14 Parisette.. 108
6 *Glad Effort.. 108 | 15 Capt. Danger.. 111
7 Animator.. 113 | 16 Lesder.. 118
8 *Voltacast.. 106 | 17 *Ahdegah.. 106
9 Kitty's Gem.. 101 | 18 *Blue Horizon.. 108

FOURTH RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $500; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.
1 Bud Broom.. 113 | 7 Sophist.. 116
2 French Honey.. 108 | 8 *Scimitar.. 113
3 *Barbara Lee.. 112 | 9 Pretty Monk.. 105
4 Huddersfield.. 115 | 10 *The Miner.. 102
5 *Portmensia.. 117

FIFTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $500; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.
1 Water Mark.. 108 | 8 *Golden Title.. 110
2 *Nacho.. 110 | 9 Zevar.. 113
3 *My Own Lad.. 110 | 10 *Skipsea.. 92
4 Malicious.. 118 | 11 *Chehalis.. 112
5 *Celtian Lass.. 107 | 12 *Pine Slipper.. 96
6 Panda.. 110 | 13 *Play Bird.. 105
7 *Hogans Dance.. 110

SIXTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $500; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.
1 *Zezora.. 108 | 10 Pat O'Connor.. 112
2 *Brown Thistle.. 106 | 11 *Zastko.. 107
3 *Don Fernando.. 107 | 12 Sen. Oilmore.. 112
4 *Heads Up.. 110 | 13 *Qm. Princess.. 102
5 O My.. 107 | 14 *Graceland.. 110
6 Transluscent.. 107 | 15 Yola Bola.. 115
7 *Torch.. 108 | 16 Tyrsland.. 113
8 *Voyage.. 110 | 17 Doctor Fred.. 112
9 *Voltear.. 110 | 18 Wash. Rose.. 107

SEVENTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $500; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.
1 Mount Elgon.. 115 | 10 *El Chesvite.. 112
2 *Quick Return.. 110 | 11 Booster Twist.. 115
3 *Locket.. 102 | 12 *Sun's Son.. 110
4 *Burnam.. 110 | 13 *Chupo.. 110
5 Sun B.. 108 | 14 Fleallvan.. 112
6 *Yosano.. 107 | 15 *Dude Archer.. 107
7 Chub.. 102 | 16 *Salona.. 105
8 *Alma.. 102 | 17 *Fair Orb.. 105
9 *Shaver.. 110 | 18 *Diezinx.. 117
*Apprentice allowance claimed.

HAVANA ENTRIES.

(Associated Press.)

FIRST RACE—Five and one-half furlongs; purse, $500; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.
1 *Preferred.. 112 | 8 Volteta.. 98
2 Doremella.. 98 | 9 *Mudlark.. 109
3 *Nellie Custis.. 108 | 10 Cons Water.. 118
4 Jim Boom.. 114 | 11 Play Choice.. 114
5 Lew Black.. 118 | 12 Gypsie Chief.. 118
6 Nina's Baby.. 103 | 13 Thomas Girl.. 98
7 Abduction.. 118 | 14 Irish Music.. 109

SECOND RACE—Five and one-half furlongs; purse, $500; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.
1 Ima Highone.. 109 | 8 Black Andy.. 103
2 Most Always.. 103 | 9 *Ada Espinard.. 108
3 Beau Aspin.. 118 | 10 Young Bill.. 114
4 Samuel R.. 118 | 11 Ruth Marie.. 118
5 *Pat Angon.. 109 | 12 *Pr. Virginia.. 108
6 Talamond.. 109 | 13 Csarist.. 118
7 Tricycle.. 114 | 14 Nutting.. 98

THIRD RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $500; claiming; for 4-year-olds and upward.
1 Vivian Wright.. 102 | 8 Dark Dawn.. 113
2 Kai Finn.. 110 | 9 Pals Meadow.. 113
3 Sun Dance.. 107 | 10 Nettie Pebbles.. 102
4 Spectre.. 110 | 11 Infinitus.. 107
5 Shirley Grey.. 108 | 12 Dunny Boy.. 110
6 Topsie H.. 102 | 13 Whisking.. 110
7 Black Darling.. 107 | 14 Goober.. 107

FOURTH RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $500; claiming; for 3-

Daily Cross-Word Puzzle

ACROSS.

1 Astir
4 Feel the want
8 A shaded walk
12 The tip
13 Pilaster on a door
14 On the ocean
15 Unfavorable
17 Accustoms
18 Redact
19 Manifest
20 A soft, slimy concretion
23 A pungent condiment
25 Wash
26 Isolate
27 End
30 Disinclined
32 Whole
34 The common level
35 Handle of a pitcher
37 Underground part of plant
38 Treats maliciously
40 Hostelries
41 Deadly
43 Ringlet
45 Declare positively
46 The blue sky
50 Head coverings
51 A certain day of the ancient Roman month
52 Incidental
53 Besides
54 A writing table
55 Wager

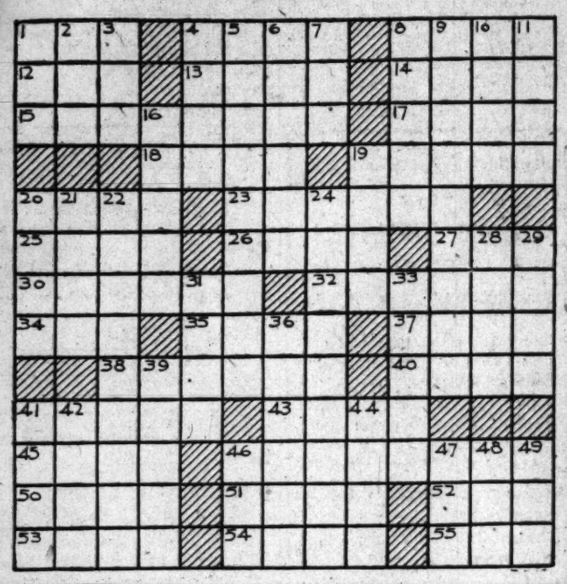
DOWN.

1 Cuckoo
2 Lair
3 A Japanese sash
4 A female servant
5 Initial
6 Declares
7 Salt
8 A delicate purple
9 Averment
10 A malign look
11 Endure
16 Rhythm
19 Unobstructed
20 Bang
21 Liquid rock
22 Exceeds
24 Agreeable sensations
28 Unyielding
29 Fondles
31 Navigate
33 Quaver
36 Withdraw
39 Resolve sentence into its elements
41 Confront
42 Pertaining to grandparents
44 A sweet biscuit
46 Spanish hero
47 Recede
48 Always
49 Ensnare

YESTERDAY'S ANSWER.

S	A	T	E	D		S	T	E	P	S		S	L	A	T	S
C	A	T	A	L	O		H	E	A	R	T		M	O	I	S	E
O	B	T	U	S	E		I	N	T	E	R	A	D	E	W	T
V	I	E		B	A	U	P	T		T	A	R	R	Y		T	I	E
E	W	N	S		S	I	P		B	E	T	E	L		I	S	L	E
A	E	D	A	N		T	E	T	A	N	U	S		S	N	E	E	R
			L	I	P		D	E	I	S	M		M	A	D
S	C	H	O	L	A	R		E	L	I		L	A	B	O	R	S	E
C	O	O	N		R	I	M		S	O	V	E	R	E	I	G	N	S
A	N	I		C	O	D	E	S			M	A	D	I	R	A		L	O	T
P	E	S	T	I	L	E	N	C	E		T	U	N		S	E	A	S	E
E	S	T	A	T	E	S		O	A	R		M	E	A	N	D	E	R
			A	E	D		P	U	E	R		A	U	E
E	M	E	N	D		P	A	N	N	I	E	R		L	A	P	I	R
L	O	S	S		B	I	N	D	S		P	U	P		K	I	M	E
A	R	C		L	U	M	A	R		S	I	N	E	M	A	D	A
N	E	A	R	E	D		C	E	T	I	N		L	A	P	S	E	D
A	P	P	E	N	D		E	L	A	T	E		T	R	A	C	E	S
	M	E	E	D	Y		A	S	T	E	R		S	Y	N	O	D

(Copyright, 1933.)



Radio Dial Flashes

By ROBERT D. HEINL

SO quietly has the work gone ahead on the installation of an auxiliary short wave transmitter for Station WPDW, Washington Police Department, that many did not know of its existence until preliminary tests were made last night. It is located at No. 10 Police Precinct on Columbia road near Georgia avenue.

The new transmitter would be pressed into immediate use in case of a breakdown of the main transmitter and will be useful in allowing the latter to cool off, if necessary.

During the tests of the new transmitter last night, a whisper could be distinctly heard in the Northwest section of the city, a mile or more away from the police broadcasting station.

Baltimore is just now installing a 500-watt RCA transmitter and will equip 20 scout cars, all police stations and the police and fire boats with receivers.

When the Baltimore set-up is completed doubtless there will be reciprocal radio arrangements between the Maryland metropolis and Washington. Washington now broadcasts its messages to Alexandria and Montgomery County scout cars, in addition to those in this city. A reciprocal arrangement with Baltimore would cover a vast territory and do much to increase the efficiency of the police in this entire section of the country.

"I WISH I could look into your faces instead of into this microphone," Maynard Owen Williams, world traveler, remarked during the course of his lecture, "Across Asia," before the members of the National Geographic Society. "When Capt. Bob Bartlett, with his giant voice, talked to you here through this microphone recently, he made such a roar that two or three of his friends from Kansas took to the cyclone cellar."

Mr. Williams, in explaining his pictures, had a way of pausing for an instant after his explanations, which radio commentators might do well to copy. It gave those in the audience a chance to think about what he had said. Also it gave their ears a little rest.

Radio announcers seem to feel that they must keep up a continuous patter and this becomes very tiresome. The comments of Maynard Williams were more like picture captions or movie titles. His slight pauses served as emphasis to his remarks.

Milton J. Cross has a way of doing this in his Metropolitan Opera House broadcasts. He tells you everything you want to know, but unless pressed for time avoids a rapid fire patter which so quickly tires the listener. Mr. Cross, like Maynard Williams, has a very agreeable speaking voice. Neither of them talk very loud. As a matter of fact, Cross speaks into the microphone with such a low voice that we couldn't hear what he was saying, standing alongside him at the great Lindbergh reception in Washington.

EINSTEIN will be heard in the only radio address of his present visit to the United States when he faces a microphone in California tonight.

The broadcast, on the subject of "America and the World Situation," will bring to WRC, in addition to Dr. Einstein, Henry M. Robinson, banker, and Dr. William B. Munro, historian. The speakers will be introduced by Dr. Robert A. Millikan, scientist, and will be heard at 11:15 p. m. The addresses will be delivered before a meeting in the Civic Auditorium in Pasadena.

Lawrence Tibbett will sing music from "The Emperor Jones," the new American opera, when he comes to the microphone for his broadcast over WRC at 8:30 tonight. He also will give several request selections.

Richard Crooks, who originally was scheduled as the soloist for tonight, will be heard on January 30 instead.

Gen. W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, will speak over WRC, 12:15 p. m. today, on the subject of the "Renovize Philadelphia Campaign."

THE most dramatic moment of Jimmy Wallington's life, according to Jimmy, came in the half light of early morning when the S. S. Relief with Wallington aboard met the two ships of the Byrd Antarctic expedition far at sea. Admiral Byrd recognized Wallington's voice through a megaphone although he had never heard it except by short wave radio. Wallington, as an announcer of station WGY, Schenectady, had been in frequent communication with the Byrd expedition.

What tempts the appetites of yaks, the llama's favorite dinner dish and the amount of food an armadillo can pack inside its armor will be among the things revealed to radio listeners (WRC, 3 p. m.), when Charles Trevey, chef of the National Zoo, in Washington, is interviewed by Dr. William Mann, director of the Zoo.

Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, will discuss international relations and the evils of world inflation in the National Radio Forum (WRC, 10:30 p. m.).

A NEW YORK restaurant which has "magic doors" operated by photo cells reports that it saves enough dish-breakage to offset the carrying cost of installation, while the speeding up of service amounts to the equivalent of $2,500 worth of rental space otherwise needed to do the same volume of business.

As the waitresses go to and from the kitchen they intercept beams of light which cause the doors to open for them automatically. This saves them from slowing up, as they did when they had to open the doors themselves, oftentimes spilling trays of dishes in doing so. Likewise the system prevents two waitresses colliding if they try to go through the same door as the same time.

THE Eskimos will inaugurate their eighth year of broadcasting on the WJZ network at 8 o'clock tonight. They will no longer be heard over WRC. Harry Reser will continue to be featured, assisted by Gay Ellis, "Rosey Roswell,, and Jimmy Brierly. • • • Elsie Craft, accompanied by Leon Brusiloff's Orchestra, will be heard in a group of soprano solos (WRC, 6:45 o'clock) tonight • • • Six big game hunters will argue their claim that big game hunting on the North American continent is as dangerous and exciting as it is in Africa (WJZ network, 10 p.m.) The hunters are Prentiss Gray, Roy Chapman Andrews, Kermit Roosevelt, Harold Anthony, James L. Clark and William Montpenny Newsome • • • The Knickerbocker Singers, a male quartet, will be the guest group on Jack Frost's Melody Moments (WJZ, 9:30 p. m.) • • • A group of four Hawaiian numbers will by played on the "Isle of Dreams" program (WRC, 7:30 p. m.).

BOB WHITE

The Old Philosopher

SAYS:

Question: I am 18 years of age and am secretly married to a boy who is still at college taking his degree. Our respective families are on the best of terms and the friendship between us has been fostered by both sides. Should we continue to keep our secret?

Answer: No. Some secrets between you and your husband are holy unto you two alone. But not this one. The knowledge of your marriage belongs to the world and the continued deception will lead you into many a compromising position and place you in an unfair light. Let the secret be told. Better have the frowns now than scorn later on.

You have thrown away something very beautiful, young woman. You have missed one of the big moments of life. A runaway marriage can never quite make up for the beauty and sanctity of the marriage altar, the festooned aisles, the gatherings of relatives and friends and the laughter and tears of loved ones. Just thrown all of this away—and for what? A silly notion to take a dare. It wasn't brave—just foolish.

No bridal wreath to crown your beauty—no old shoes tied to your car. None of these delightful things to remember when youth has gone and little left but memories.

So now tell your secret and save the bits of broken faith while there is yet time.

Question—Should a man heavily in debt get married before his debts are paid?

Answer—I know of no one thing so likely to kill love than for a young couple to be continually hounded by debt. No man has the right to ask a girl to start married life with such a handicap. There is enough of sorrow along the way without having the honeymoon years spoiled by the nightmare of debt.

Every telephone call should carry the "hello" of a friend, and not the dunning of a collector.

Every rap at the door should proclaim a welcome guest, not a deputy with a warrant.

Pay your debts if it is humanly possible. Then get married. It will be a fairer start for that little girl who will have enough to carry of care and pain throughout the years without the crushing burden of unpaid bills.

The highest compliment a man may pay the woman of his choice is to see that the ship of matrimony sails out on smooth seas. Storms will come, waves mountain high, but nothing will so quickly shipwreck a marriage as debt.

Question—What have you to say of Old Maids?

Answer.—Only good. This would be a sorry old word if there were no "old maids." Thank of it! No Aunt Mary to go see on a Saturday afternoon. No cookie jar was ever more tempting.

How often it is that the "old maid" steps in to mother a brother's child. How often is she called upon to carry the burden of fostering the orphan.

She acts as peacemaker and has a knack of patching up the family quarrels, and to the unmarried one how often we go with the secret sorrow of the heart.

Old maids! They provide a quiet picture against the tumult of the world and watch wistfully for an opportunity to serve. They are serene. Life makes little inroad upon their souls.

The pages of history are lit by the outstanding achievement of those who, by choice, remained unmarried.

Bob White, the old philosopher, will answer an outstanding question each week day on this page. He is heard twice daily over WMAL at 8 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.

Naval Hero's Descendant Dies.

New York, Jan. 22 (A.P.).—Oliver Hazard Perry, great-grandson of the American naval hero, died of pneumonia today after an illness of three days. He was 49 years old.

DICK TRACY—After-Effect

FRAMED WITH COUNTERFEIT MONEY-
CAUGHT RED-HANDED AND ACCUSED
THEN FIRED!!
THAT HAS BEEN TRACY'S FATE THESE LAST FEW HECTIC DAYS.
CHIEF BRANDON, YOU MEAN YOU'VE ACTUALLY DISMISSED DICK FROM THE FORCE FOR PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY?
WHAT ELSE COULD I DO, TESS? THREE OF THE CITY'S MOST RELIABLE MERCHANTS WERE HIS VICTIMS—WE CAUGHT HIM RED-HANDED WITH THE PHONEY DOUGH ON HIM—EVEN SEWED UP IN HIS COAT! I WAS LUCKY NOT TO HAVE TO ARREST TRACY. THEY WERE SATISFIED AT HAVING HIM DISMISSED.
BUT—CHIEF BRANDON, THIS CAN'T BE—THERE'S SOME MISTAKE. I MUST TALK WITH YOU.
I'M SORRY, TESS—NOT NOW. I WANT TO BE ALONE.
CHIEF BRANDON—PRIVATE
23

MINUTE MOVIES

(All rights protected by the George Matthew Adams Service. Trade Mark Registered U. S. Patent Office.)

Baby Mine

By Ed Wheelan

POP SAYS THE FOLKS WHO ARE WORRYING ABOUT MACHINES TURNING MEN OUT OF JOBS EVIDENTLY DO NOT OWN A SECOND-HAND AUTOMOBILE.
BARGAINS

ED WHEELAN presents BY REQUEST AN ALL-STAR REVIVAL OF ONE OF THE MOST UNIQUE AND UNUSUAL "MINUTE MOVIE" SERIALS EVER PRODUCED:
"MISSING MEN"
SCIENCE HONORS ONE OF ITS GREAT WITH A BANQUET AT "ASTOR-BILT HOTEL"
MY FRIENDS, I AM DEEPLY TOUCHED BY THIS GENEROUS TRIBUTE YOU HAVE PAID ME!
PROF. ALBERT SURCH, A FAMOUS NATURALIST AND EXPLORER
ANDREW HANDY
I AM VERY GRATEFUL THAT MY FEEBLE EFFORTS HAVE BEEN OF HELP IN LIGHTING THE WAY OF SCIENTIFIC TRUTH SO THAT THE WORLD WILL BE SOMEWHAT BENEFITED!!
NEAR THE SPEAKER'S TABLE
WHAT ARE YOU WRITING MISS SHARPE?
I'M SUPPOSED TO COVER THIS BANQUET FOR MY PAPER!!
DR. HENRY HUNT, WEALTHY SPORTSMAN AND FRIEND OF PROF. SURCH—
DICK DARE
SALLY SHARPE, A SOCIETY DEBUTANTE TURNED "CUB" REPORTER
HAZEL DEARIE
IT'S A GOOD THING I LEARNED SHORT HAND LAST SUMMER!
MISS SHARPE, JUST A MINUTE, LOOK AT THAT FACE!!
WHAT NOW?
WHOM DOES DR. HUNT SEE?!
1-23
The George Matthew Adams Service, Inc.

THE GUMPS

Follow the Gumps in the Colored Comic Section of The Sunday Post

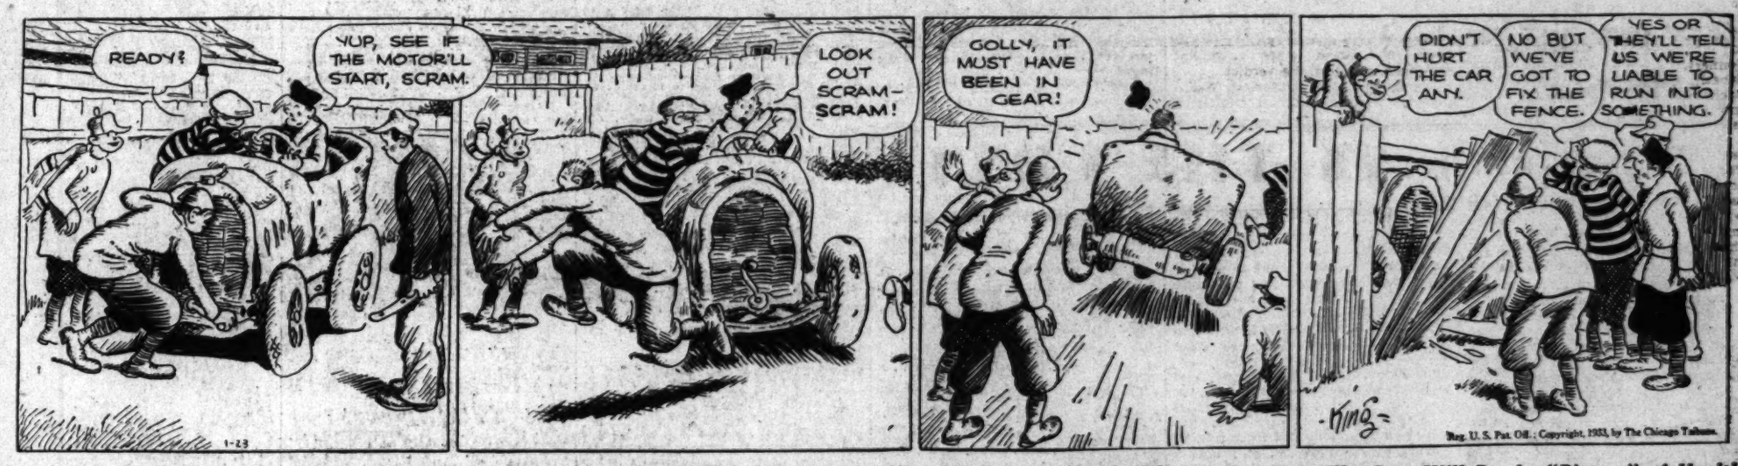
Orphans of the Storm

ANOTHER DAY—ANOTHER $40.00 AND EXTRAS PILE UP ON THE DE STROSS HOTEL BILL—
POOR MAMA!
SHE'S EVEN AFRAID TO PASS THE DESK DOWN STAIRS ANY MORE—
SHE'S AFRAID OF MEETING THE MANAGER IN THE LOBBY OR IN THE HALLS—
FOR TWO DAYS SHE HASN'T STUCK HER HEAD OUT OF HER DOOR—SHE'S EVEN AFRAID TO CALL FOR HER MAIL—
WHAT EXCUSE CAN SHE POSSIBLY GIVE FOR NOT SETTLING THE BILL?
OH, MILLIE! AND IT HAS COME TO THIS—THE FIRST TIME IN ALL MY LIFE THAT I HAVE BEEN IN SUCH AN EMBARRASSING POSITION—WHY DID WE COME HERE?
I'VE NEVER BEEN IN A PAWN SHOP BEFORE—BUT WE'LL HAVE TO PAY THAT ACCOUNT SOMEHOW—AND GET OUT OF HERE—THE ONLY WAY I CAN THINK OF IS TO PAWN MY DEAR MOTHER'S BROOCH THAT SHE GAVE ME ON MY WEDDING DAY—
OH, CHILD—WHAT IS TO BECOME OF US? WHAT WOULD MY POOR MOTHER SAY IF SHE WERE ALIVE TODAY? IF SHE KNEW THAT HER DAUGHTER WAS FORCED TO PAWN THIS GIFT TO KEEP FROM BEING THROWN OUT IN THE STREET—
MOTHER—THERE MUST BE SOME WAY THAT I CAN HELP—
WHY—I COULD EVEN GET UP A DANCING CLASS AND GIVE LESSONS—
NO! I'LL PAWN THE BROOCH—I OUGHT TO AT LEAST GET A THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR IT—WE CAN'T LET THE BILL GO ANOTHER DAY—IT MUST BE PAID—
SIDNEY SMITH
CONTINUED IN OUR NEXT—
1-23

GASOLINE ALLEY

Don't miss this feature in colors in The Sunday Post

Crashing the Gate



READY?
YUP, SEE IF THE MOTOR'LL START, SCRAM.
LOOK OUT SCRAM—SCRAM!
GOLLY, IT MUST HAVE BEEN IN GEAR!
DIDN'T HURT THE CAR ANY.
NO BUT WE'VE GOT TO FIX THE FENCE.
YES OR THEY'LL TELL US WE'RE LIABLE TO RUN INTO SOMETHING.
KING
1-23

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER

See the Winkle Family in colors in The Sunday Post The Boss Will Be the "Picture" of Health

I'M CERTAINLY WORRIED! THE BOSS LEFT HIS HOME HOURS AGO AND HE'S NOT HERE YET! AS SICK AS HE IS, HE SHOULDN'T BE ROAMING AROUND TOWN!! SOMETHING MAY HAVE HAPPENED!
BESIDES, HE'S MISSED HIS TWO MEDICINE HOURS TO SAY NOTHING OF THE POWDERS AND PILLS HE'S SUPPOSED TO TAKE! I WONDER IF I OUGHT TO CALL UP THE HOSPITALS?!!
HERE I AM AT LAST! SICK, BUT SAFE AND SOUND! I HAD SOME XRAY PICTURES TAKEN THIS MORNING!!
GOOD HEAVENS! I SHOULD THINK YOU'D WAIT TILL YOU FEEL BETTER AND LOOK BETTER TO HAVE PICTURES TAKEN WELL, ANYWAY, I HOPE THEY TURN OUT TO BE GOOD LIKENESSES!!
JAN. 23
BRANNER

RADIO PROGRAMS ON THE AIR TODAY

MONDAY, JANUARY 23.

WOL—American Broadcasting Co. (220 Meters. 1,310 Kilocycles.)

7:00 a. m.—Musical Clock.
10:00 a. m.—Monday Blues Chaser.
10:30 a. m.—Mother's Program.
11:00 a. m.—Organ Echoes.
11:15 a. m.—This 'n' That.
11:30 a. m.—Songs We Love.
11:45 a. m.—Tango Argentina.
12:05 p. m.—Musicale.
3:00 p. m.—Variety Hour.
3:45 p. m.—World Book Man.
4:00 p. m.—Reed-E-O Kiddies.
5:00 p. m.—Variety.
6:00 p. m.—Eugenie Limbery, violinist.
6:15 p. m.—Morton Downey.
6:30 p. m.—Howard Cooper, pianist.
6:45 p. m.—Metropolitan Quartet.
7:00 p. m.—Dinner Concert.
7:20 p. m.—Arthur Reilly.
7:30 p. m.—WOL Varieties.
8:00 p. m.—Leon Brusiloff's Orchestra.

WRC—National Broadcasting Co. (316 Meters. 950 Kilocycles.)

6:45 a. m.—Exercises.
8:00 a. m.—Organ Rhapsody.
8:15 a. m.—Morning Varieties.
8:30 a. m.—Cheerio.
9:00 a. m.—Three Mustachios.
9:15 a. m.—Anne Hard.
9:30 a. m.—Flying Fingers.
10:00 a. m.—Mediation.
10:15 a. m.—Breen and De Rose.
10:30 a. m.—United States Navy Band.
11:00 a. m.—Melody Three.
11:15 a. m.—Household Institute.
11:30 a. m.—Sonata Recital.
12:00 (noon)—Johnny Marvin, tenor.
12:15 p. m.—Talk, Gen. W. W. Atterbury.
12:30 p. m.—Farm and Home Hour.
1:30 p. m.—Lotus Orchestra.
2:00 p. m.—Revolving Stage.
3:00 p. m.—Charles Trevey, the Zoo Chief. Interviewed by Dr. William Mann.
3:15 p. m.—United States Marine Band.
4:00 p. m.—Radio Guild. "L'Aiglon."
5:00 p. m.—Whispering Banjos.
5:15 p. m.—Aunt Sue and Polly.
5:30 p. m.—"The Flying Family."
5:45 p. m.—Happy Tolmaniers.
6:00 p. m.—Wardman Ensemble.
6:30 p. m.—Hoss Sense Hiram.
6:30 p. m.—"Black and Blue."
6:45 p. m.—Thompson's Merry Dairymen.
7:00 p. m.—Capt. Conrad H. Pedersen.
7:15 p. m.—Wheatenaville.
7:30 p. m.—"Mauna Kea," Isle of Dreams.
7:45 p. m.—Goldbergs.
8:00 p. m.—Sherlock Holmes.
8:30 p. m.—Voice of Firestone—Lawrence Tibbett.
9:00 p. m.—A. & P. Gypsies. Direction Harry Horlick: Frank Parker, Tenor.
9:30 p. m.—"The Buick Program," Paul Whiteman.
10:00 p. m.—Shoreham Dance Orchestra.
10:30 p. m.—National Radio Forum: "International Relations and the Evils of World Inflation," by Senator James Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois.
11:00 p. m.—Schwartz Last-Minute News.
11:02 p. m.—Aileen Stanley, Soprano.
11:15 p. m.—"America and the World Situation."
12:00 (midnight)—Anson Week's Orchestra.
12:30-1:00 a. m.—Mark Fisher's Orchestra.

WJSV—Columbia Broadcasting Co. (265.4 Meters. 1,460 Kilocycles.)

7:00 a. m.—Elder Michaux.
8:00 a. m.—The Sun Dial.
8:45 a. m.—N. E. F. Meekins.
9:00 a. m.—Tony Wons.
9:15 a. m.—Jack Little.
9:30 a. m.—Health talk.
9:45 a. m.—Reis and Dunn.
10:00 a. m.—Artells Dickson.
10:15 a. m.—Melody Parade.
10:30 a. m.—Merrymakers.
10:45 a. m.—Vocal Art Trio.
11:00 a. m.—Morning Moods.
11:30 a. m.—Dr. Irving Gray.
11:45 a. m.—Ben Alley, tenor.
12:00 (noon)—Buddy Harrod Orchestra.
12:30 p. m.—Miniatures.
1:00 p. m.—George Hall Orchestra.
1:30 p. m.—Musicale.
2:00 p. m.—National Student Federation of America program.
2:15 p. m.—Sylvia Sapira.
2:30 p. m.—American School of the Air.
3:00 p. m.—Eton Boys.
3:15 p. m.—Salon Orchestra.
3:45 p. m.—Sam Prager, pianist.
3:55 p. m.—Virginia news.
4:00 p. m.—Frank Westphal's Orchestra.
4:30 p. m.—Artist Recital.
5:00 p. m.—Miniatures.
5:15 p. m.—Fred Berren's Orchestra.
5:30 p. m.—Skippy.
5:45 p. m.—Lone Wolf Tribe.
6:00 p. m.—Robert W. Horton.
6:15 p. m.—Reis and Dunn.
6:25 p. m.—Bluejack Band.
6:30 p. m.—Vaughn de Leath.
6:45 p. m.—Just Plain Bill.
7:00 p. m.—Myrt and Marge.
7:15 p. m.—Three "X" Sisters.
7:30 p. m.—Dolf Martin's Orchestra.
7:45 p. m.—Boake Carter.
8:00 p. m.—Jack Smith, Hummingbirds.
8:15 p. m.—Singin' Sam.
8:30 p. m.—Fu Manchu Mystery.
9:00 p. m.—Chesterfield program, Ruth Etting, Leonard Hayton's Orchestra.
9:15 p. m.—Mills Brothers.
9:30 p. m.—Mysteries in Paris.
10:00 p. m.—Mary Garden interviewed by Bob Trout.
10:15 p. m.—Easy Aces.
10:30 p. m.—Columbia Revue.
11:00 p. m.—Howard Barlow Orchestra.
11:30 p. m.—Globe Trotter.
11:45 p. m.—Guy Lombardo.
12:00 (midnight)—Abe Lyman Orchestra.
12:30 a. m.—Leon Belasco's Orchestra.

WMAL—Washington Radio Forum. (475.9 Meters. 630 Kilocycles.)

8:00 a. m.—Bob White—Old Philosopher.
8:15 a. m.—The Rev. Paul R. Hunter.
8:30 a. m.—Gene Stewart, Kitt Console.
9:00 a. m.—Broadway Echoes.
9:15 a. m.—Cesrun's Orchestra.
9:30 a. m.—Recital.
9:45 a. m.—Bob Haring's Orchestra.
10:00 a. m.—High Spots.
10:15 a. m.—Ellen H. Wheatley, pianist.
10:30 a. m.—Guy Lombardo's Orchestra.
10:45 a. m.—Alice Stewart.
11:00 a. m.—Elsie Reiller.
11:15 a. m.—Colonial Club Orchestra.
11:30 a. m.—Popular songs.
11:45 a. m.—Troubadours.
12:00 noon—Robert Ruckman, organist.
12:30 p. m.—Lotus Orchestra.
1:00 p. m.—Dance Marathon.
1:15 p. m.—Goldman's Orchestra.
1:45 p. m.—Mary Randolph Ruff—Monologues.
2:00 p. m.—Frolickers.
2:30 p. m.—Alice B. Hall, soprano.
2:45 p. m.—Orchestra.
3:15 p. m.—Lou Jordan.
3:30 p. m.—Dolly Fellows.
4:00 p. m.—Zara Bouson.
4:15 p. m.—Tea Ensemble.
4:30 p. m.—Bob White—Lamp Lighter.
4:45 p. m.—Harry Clendenning.
5:00 p. m.—Dance Marathon.
5:15 p. m.—Abe Clar, pianist.
5:30 p. m.—Texas Cowboy.
5:45 p. m.—News Flashes.
6:00 p. m.—Science News.
6:15 p. m.—Dixie Trio.
6:30 p. m.—Women and Politics.
6:45 p. m.—Crossroads Store.
7:00 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy.
7:15 p. m.—Martin's Orchestra.
7:30 p. m.—Five Star Theater Program—Marx Brothers, Leonard Joy Orchestra.
8:30 p. m.—Little French Girl.
8:45 p. m.—"Doors."
9:00 p. m.—Frances Shea, soprano.
9:15 p. m.—Robert Ruckman.
10:00 p. m.—The Postilion—Late News from The Washington Post.
10:15 p. m.—Dance Marathon.
10:30 p. m.—Lotus Orchestra.
11:15 p. m.—Goldman's Orchestra.

WRAL—Baltimore. 1,080 Kilocycles. WRAL Independent Operation. 780 Kilocycles.

7:30 a. m.—Don Hall Trio.
7:45 a. m.—Jolly Bill and Jane.
8:00 a. m.—King Kill Kare.
8:15 a. m.—Morning devotions.
8:30 a. m.—Pepper Pot.
9:30 a. m.—Vic and Sade.
9:45 a. m.—Nancy Turner.
10:00 a. m.—John Fogarty, tenor.
10:15 a. m.—Clara, Lu 'n' Em.
10:30 a. m.—Happy Jack.
10:45 a. m.—Emily Post.
11:00 a. m.—Singing Strings.
11:15 a. m.—Elsie May Gordon.
11:30 a. m.—Rhythm Ramblers.
12 (noon)—Smackout.
12:15 p. m.—Pollock and Lawnhurst.
12:30 p. m.—Farm and Home hour.
1:30 p. m.—Ambassadors.
1:45 p. m.—Rhythmic Serenade.
2:00 p. m.—Words and Music.
2:30 p. m.—Talk.
2:45 p. m.—Alyce Lytle.
3:00 p. m.—Betty and Bob.
3:15 p. m.—U. S. Marine Band.
4:00 p. m. to 12 (midnight)—Programs same as WJZ.

WJZ—New York (760 Kilocycles).

5:30 p. m.—The Singing Lady.
5:45 p. m.—Orphan Annie.
6:00 p. m.—Maud & Cousin Bill.
6:15 p. m.—Del Lampe's Orchestra.
6:30 p. m.—Ramona.
6:45 p. m.—Lowell Thomas.
7:00 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy.
7:15 p. m.—The Jesters.
7:30 p. m.—Groucho & Chico Marx.
8:00 p. m.—The Eskimos Show.
8:30 p. m.—Ely Culbertson, "Contract Bridge."
8:45 p. m.—Country Doctor.
9:00 p. m.—Minstrels.
9:30 p. m.—Melody Moments.
10:00 p. m.—Alice Joy.
10:30 p. m.—Gibson Organ Reveries.
11:00 p. m.—Aileen Stanley.
11:15 p. m.—Sodero Concert Orchestra.
12 (midnight)—Russ Columbo Orchestra.
12:30 p. m.—Art Kassell Orchestra.
12:45 p. m.—Earl Hines' Orchestra.

Band Concert

UNITED STATES MARINE BAND, Auditorium, Marine Barracks, 3 p. m.

Overture, "To Spring".....Goldmark
Scherzo, "The Sorcerer's Apprentice" Dukas
Marche Honsroise from "Damnation of Faust".....Berlioz
Overture, "King Faust".....Wagner
March, "National Press Club".....Fillmore
Characteristic, "La Mariposa".....Diaz
"The Lord's Last Supper" (Das Liebesmahl der Apostle).....Wagner
Marines' Hymn, "The Halls of Montezuma"
"The Star-Spangled Banner."

Post Classified Ad-Writers assist advertisers every day in preparing result-getting ads. Just call National 4205.

New Sleeves

They're not sleeves, really, but long, graceful loops that fall from the jeweled shoulders, and do flattering things to your arms. It's just one of the becoming things about this sapphire sheer crepe evening gown for a LARGER WOMAN. The whole thing is one slenderizing line after another, and the jeweled shoulders and decolletage add just the right note of brilliance.

$39.50

LARGER WOMEN'S DRESSES, FIFTH FLOOR

THE NEW Jelleff's

1216-1220 F STREET

Culbertson on Bridge

By ELY CULBERTSON

568

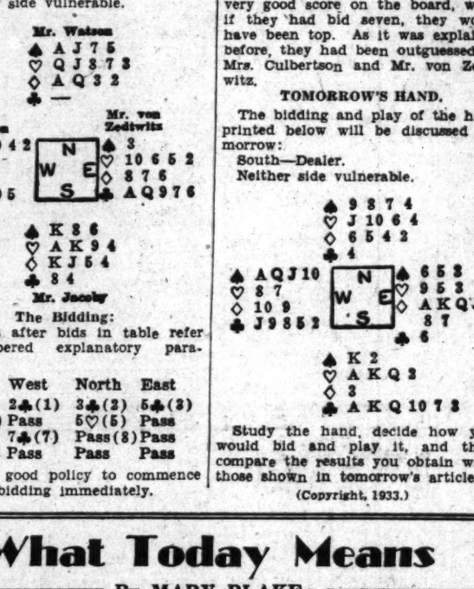
MASTERS OF BRIDGE.

IN the major tournaments, which are now always a feature of the Bridge season, there is an element of drama when those who are conceded to be among the master experts meet in the final session. Such an event occurred when Mrs. Culbertson, playing with Mr. Waldemar von Zedtwitz, met Messrs. Oswald Jacoby and Louis H. Watson in the final round of the American Bridge League's annual National Tournament. Both pairs were among the leading five, and it was conceivable that the entire result of the tournament might turn on the two boards which they played as opponents.

Mr. Watson and Mr. Jacoby were playing with the better cards, and on the first hand bid and made a Small Slam, against which there was no defense. Mrs. Culbertson selected the right opening lead, however, to prevent seven being made, and hence gave her side a fair score.

On the next board the hands were as follows:

South—Dealer.
Neither side vulnerable.



The Bidding:

(Figures after bids in table refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)

South	West	North	East
1♡	2♣(1)	3♣(2)	5♣(3)
Pass(4)	Pass	5♡(5)	Pass
6♡(6)	7♣(7)	Pass(8)	Pass
Dbl.(9)	Pass	Pass	Pass

1—It is good policy to commence defensive bidding immediately.

2—An immediate Slam try, justified by the hand.

3—A brilliant bid by Mr. von Zedtwitz, intended to embarrass the opponents.

4—A Forcing pass by Mr. Jacoby.

5—Mr. Watson should probably have bid six, but he expected Mr. Jacoby would do so anyway.

6—Mr. Jacoby's hand has definite additional values and he bids six.

7—A very brilliant bid. Although Mrs. Culbertson knows she has no defense against seven, she feels certain that on the bidding Messrs. Jacoby and Watson will mark her with the defense and will double her rather than bid seven.

8—A Forcing pass. Mr. Watson leaves Mr. Jacoby the option of bidding seven or doubling.

9—Mr. Jacoby reasons that Mrs. Culbertson's seven-bid indicates defense against seven hearts and hence chooses to double.

The contract was set 3 tricks, giving Mr. Jacoby and Mr. Watson 450 points and a poor score on the board. Had they been allowed to play six hearts, they would have received a very good score on the board, while if they had bid seven, they would have been top. As it was explained before, they had been outguessed by Mrs. Culbertson and Mr. von Zedtwitz.

TOMORROW'S HAND.

The bidding and play of the hand printed below will be discussed tomorrow:

South—Dealer.
Neither side vulnerable.

Study the hand, decide how you would bid and play it, and then compare the results you obtain with those shown in tomorrow's article.

(Copyright, 1933.)

What Today Means

By MARY BLAKE

"AQUARIUS."

IF January 23 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 4 p. m. to 5 p. m., from 7 p. m. to 8:15 p. m. and from 11 p. m. to 12 midnight. The danger periods are from 10 a. m. to 11 a. m. and from 3 p. m. to 3:45 p. m.

Moderate activity should be apparent in the business world on this day. It would appear to be a transitional period, bringing to a close a period of more than usual activity or else presaging a time of greater liveliness in the business field. Romances inaugurated on this day will prove short lived; more than one love affair will be disrupted through quarrels on this day.

The child born on this January 23, if a boy, will tend to have a supersensitive nature, to be very shy and retiring and to have a keen appreciation of the beautiful and artistic. If the child is a girl, she will in all probability be of the tom-boy variety, robust and athletically inclined and caring little for those of her own sex nor for their types of amusement and play.

If January 23 is the date of your birth, you are a very emotional person. You are inclined to give way to much to your feelings. You are quick to anger and equally quick to forgive. You wear your feelings on your sleeve and often you feel hurt or slighted when really there is no basis for such a conclusion. In business where you are forced to rub elbows with the crowd, you are quite a different person. You are out to make money and nothing else seems to matter. Hurt feelings, insults and injuries do not exist for you when the dollar is in question. You fight right along, giving and taking, and to your business associates you at times seem quite a callous person. It is to your friends and intimates that you show your real and finer self.

Born on January 23, you always have something new up your sleeve. You are never satisfied to go on doing things as they always have been done. You are a progressive person. This characteristic is most true of the women who are mothers and who have homes to run and care for. They are always experimenting with their cooking, and with various methods of raising and training their children. Possessed of an abundance of energy, they never cease to labor in their homes.

Successful people born on January 23:

William Page, artist.
Silas B. Cobb, pioneer capitalist.
Russell Hinman, editor and author.
Josiah F. Willard, author.
Edwin Lefevre, author.
Stephen P. Quackenbush, naval officer.

(Copyright, 1933.)

Fifth Avenue Fashions

CAPED shoulders—and what a remarkably chic effect it gives this practical schoolgirl's frock.

For the original, light navy blue rabbit's-hair woolen was used for the jumper. The separate guimpe showed striking contrast in vivid orange-red novelty pique.

The puffed sleeves—not too full, as is the way with many of the newest ones—are charming on this dress.

Style No. 3,418 may be obtained in sizes 8, 10, 12 and 14 years.

Size 8 requires 1⅞ yards of 35 or 39-inch for dress, with 1⅝ yards 35-inch for blouse. Price of pattern 15 cents.

Something new! Something different!

We are proud of our new Fashion Magazine for spring. It's much larger and different than any issue previously published. It's 48 pages.

In addition, it contains the most interesting illustrated articles—beauty hints, hairdressing, how to reduce sensibly, poise as aid to fashions, dressmaking hints, knitted sweaters, quilts and embroidery, &c.

The supply is limited and so we suggest that you send 10 cents for your copy today. Just write "Fashion Magazine" on any piece of paper, inclose 10 cents in stamps or coin and mail your order to Fashion Department, The Washington Post, Fifth avenue and Twenty-third street, New York City.

No. 3418. Size .....
Name .....
Street Address .....
City State

How to Keep Well

By DR. W. A. EVANS.

THE SAFETY OF CLAMS.

THE men in the shell fish industry have claimed that clams were safe to eat at all times and in all places, regardless of where they were found or how they were marketed. This does not apply to those that are dead and decomposing, but the industry claimed that the nose and taste organs were all a man required to protect himself against this danger; that the man who ate clams that looked spoiled, smelled bad, and tasted worse was too dumb to live, and the community had no business protecting such a person. They said that clams were so constituted biologically and chemically that they rapidly destroyed typhoid bacilli and other disease germs wherever they found them.

Scientists were loath to believe that clams had any such superpower, and yet they were confronted by weighty evidence. Clams grow in places that a self-respecting oyster would not like to be found dead in. No authority would permit oysters grown in such surroundings to be offered for sale. But clams from areas forbidden for oyster growth are found to have lower bacterial counts than oysters from far better locations. Oysters have pretty high bacterial counts from May until shortly before Thanksgiving, even though they are grown in tolerably good waters, but during that period the bacterial counts of clams are lower.

In the days when epidemics were being traced to oysters, clams were not often proved to have caused either typhoid or outbreaks of the diarrheas that serve as temporary protection against typhoid.

The scientists concede that the old clam men had much basis for their contention, but they still hold that there is some danger of eating clams that do not measure up to standards in methods of production and marketing.

These methods consist in sanitation of breeding and growing grounds, washing the products in chlorinated water, and the latest method—quick freezing at low temperatures. This does not include canning, in which process all bacterial life of importance must be destroyed else the product will not be marketable.

Marketed clams are increasingly conforming to these requirements, though they are somewhat behind oysters in that. Clams are even richer than oysters in iodine. The difference, however, is not great. The two are in a group which ranks at the top of the habitually used sea foods.

Salmon has been demonstrated to be a good cure for pellagra and a protective against the disease. The question arises, if salmon has this quality, why not clams? Many drunkards think clam juice is a cure for the katzenjammer. This reputation it shares with milk. Of course, the alcoholic who stops eating is in immediate danger and clam juice may be nothing more than a something which tolls him back to food.

Interpreting the Mode

By DARE

MILADI rustles past—yes, rustles, m'dear, if she cares for the latest adaptation from autrefois in the form of a taffeta ruffle on her under petticoat! Well, anyhow, she rustles past, leaving the faintest echo of perfume on the air. Perhaps her glove or her tiny handkerchief is inadvertently left—again that intangible scent that is unmistakably HERSELF.

Then one is invited to tea, and steps from the veranda into the garden—which every fashionable and lovely lady has these days—steps right into the familiar scent of—her perfume!

Forever thereafter, HER garden, HER perfume, come instantly to mind whenever one smells the flowers that she cherished.

And another lovely mode is born—this time in England, and attributed to the Duchess of York. All the lovely ladies of the English aristocracy now have their own secret and individual perfume made from—their favorite flowers grown with love right in their own gardens. And they select the flowers which they think will make a conglomerate odor that both suits and pleases them.

Quite an industry has sprung up along these lines. And the joy of studying the various flowers and their scents—and the possibilities in mingling them, one can readily imagine! The Duchess of York, for instance, has a perfume of heather and honeysuckle—doesn't it just conjure up dreams?

One need not confine oneself to one perfume, of course. Just as readily as one can have a variety of flowers in the garden, each with individual scents, ab Miladi may have several perfumes, all flowers, and each a flower or a flower mixture from her garden. No danger here of an unpleasant mixture of odors, as there is when one attempts to blend such distinctive perfume bases as Chypre and Musk, for instance.

• • •

They know, these French maids—and madames and mademoiselles! That's why they coined the word CHIC—because they know everything there is to know about being soignee, sartorially perfect, beautifully neat and chic. How would you like to know how they do it? How would you like to know how a half an hour a day devoted to your clothes will make them last years longer? Never think you don't spend more than a half-hour at it right now—because you do. Well, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Dare Department of The Washington Post, for this week's illustrated leaflet, and have all the secrets of all of our French maids put together—into one leaflet—the secrets, not the maids. And learn thereby how to do all of these tricks yourself—or teach them to your maid and make her twice as valuable.

Au revoir!

(Copyright, 1933.)

How to Be Beautiful

By ELSIE PIERCE

I READ an article by a physician recently who said "fortunately for womankind the reducing fever is over." He doubtless referred to the feverish, ridiculous reducing "craze" of a few years ago, when women worked off weight swiftly and dangerously, when they starved themselves with freak diets, tried every reducing fad offered, even subjected themselves to thyroid or similar glandular treatment without supervision of a physician, took drugs or similar internal treatment and suffered serious consequences.

Reducing today is still "carrying on," but in safer, slower, saner fashion. Women have learned by experience that the greatest benefit to be derived from the more modern, scientific and more gradual methods.

Judging from the thousands of letters that come to me each week pleading for advice on the subject, the desire to reduce is still uppermost in many women's minds. It is doubtless one of the leading stumbling blocks in the road to beauty.

The first step and the most important one is making up one's mind. With the will to reduce, one easily finds the best way for oneself. But it takes stick-to-it-iveness. It is one thing to learn how to say "no" the first few times. It is quite another to keep up the tune in spite of temptation. Nothing is so ruinous to the resolution to reduce as the excuse of "just this once." A snack between meals, an occasional piece of pie or rich dessert of pastry, skipping one's exercise "once in a while"—all these things keep the pounds from melting.

Bedroom Mirror and Scales.

To help you to be just a bit more persistent in your purposeful reducing course, call in bathroom mirror and scales. A full-length mirror to act as reminder if you grow lax, or as a compliment to your will power and ego if you are tenaciously strong and successful.

And the scales, so you can weigh yourself each week, about the same time of day and the same clothing if possible (or none at all). It is by learning to watch your weight closely and controlling it that you will succeed in cutting down pounds as well as inches.

Tomorrow—Shrink Your Stomach.

(Copyright, 1933.)

THE DAILY LEGAL RECORD

SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1933.
COURT OF APPEALS.
No session. Adjourned from day to day.

DISTRICT SUPREME COURT.
ASSIGNMENT COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.
Assignment for Monday, January 23:
LAW CASES.

No. 623. Chavis, administration, vs. Schroff et al. Attys., O'Shea, Burnett & Goldstein. Brashears & Townsend, W. G. Gardiner.

No. 516. Mancini vs. Hecht Co. Attys., T. M. Baker, Simon, Koenigsberger & Young.

No. 633. Vogelson vs. District of Columbia. Attys., A. L. Newmyer, R. E. Lynch.

No. 582. Chisholm vs. Diggle. Attys., O'Shea, Burnett & Goldstein, Burkart & Quinn.

No. 485. Nickel vs. Louis Gold, Inc. Attys., A. F. Canfield, Simon, Koenigsberger & Young.

No. 376. Berry vs. Catherton. Attys., A. L. Newmyer, A. D. Smith.

No. 526. Kimche vs. Cudahy Packing Co. Attys., Simon, Koenigsberger & Young, Burkart & Quinn.

No. 122. Lauck vs. Buckley. Attys., D. Hughes, C. E. Ford, Burkart & Quinn.

No. 321. Labofish, assignee, vs. Bieber. Attys., R. E. Wellford, F. P. Rhodenham.

No. 643. Forman et al. vs. Levine. Attys., S. Hirshman, A. M. Schwartz.

No. 125. Ralph Wallace, Inc., vs. Wallace. Attys., C. E. Ford, S. C. Bree.

No. 42020. Administration. In re estate of Susan O. McConnell. Attys., H. I. Quinn, A. F. Canfield, R. A. Cusick.

No. 49. Shapiro vs. Wallachingham. Attys., C. W. P. Walker, R. Neudecker.

No. 310. Stewart vs. Vonstendeb. Attys., L. J. Coe, M. W. King.

No. 491. Glasscock vs. Independent Taxi Owners Association. Attys., M. W. King, B. I. Nordlinger, A. D. Smith, Welch, Daily & Welch.

No. 511. Moran vs. Washington Railway & Electric Co. Attys., C. A. Thompson, F. H. Marshall, H. W. Kelly.

No. 43320. Administration. In re estate of Lillian Vere, deceased. Attys., G. E. Edelin, O'Shea, Burnett & Goldstein.

No. 627. Stea vs. Cheri. Attys., H. M. Goldstein, J. J. McGinnis.

No. 630 and 631. Childs et al. vs. Independent Taxi Owners Association et al. Attys., O'Shea, Burnett & Goldstein, A. D. Smith, E. C. Kris.

EQUITY CASES.

No. 168. Witthuhn vs. Witthuhn. Attys., James Conlon, Charles Peckham, J. J. Shanlon.

No. 31580. U. S. vs. Chesapeake & Ohio Canal Co. et al. Attys., W. L. Townsend, J. J. Hamilton, W. C. Sullivan.

No. 607. Nevin et al. vs. Sutherland et al. Attys., K. N. Parkinson, D. A. Pine, H. B. Cox.

No. 54721. Sullivan, trustee, vs. Kennedy Bros. Co. Attys., E. D. Campbell, J. E. Laskey, W. G. Gardiner.

No. 160. Enos vs. Enos. Attys., H. M. Goldstein, J. S. White.

No. 126. Borrell vs. Virginia Paper Co. Attys., A. F. Canfield, C. B. Garnett.

No. 55033. Hoeppel vs. McCarl, comptroller. Attys., Ansell, Ansell & Wilmoth.

No. 49. Bolen, O. R. McGuire, L. A. Rover, J. W. Pihelly.

No. 52964. Pitts vs. Dodds. Atty., W. W. Ross.

No. 53684. Woodward vs. Finley et al. Attys., Peellee, Ogilby & Lesh, H. F. Woodward, Douglas, Obear & Douglas, Peyser, Edelin & Peyser, M. Borchard, C. S. Shreve, D. A. Pine, Whiteford, Marshall & Hart.

No. 132. Nussbaum vs. Nussbaum. Attys., A. P. Canfield, R. Neudecker.

No. 212. Keller vs. Keller. Attys., G. C. Gerfman, Burkart & Quinn.

No. 180. Rizik vs. Bond. Attys., H. W. Wheatley, L. H. Sothoron.

MOTIONS COURT—Mr. Justice Joseph W. Cox presiding; William W. Stickney, clerk.

No. 54942. Hartford Accident & Indemnity Co. vs. Robert J. Hoage et al.; order for temporary injunction. Attys., Cornelius H. Doherty—John J. Wilson, E. S. Brashears, Albert Beasley. (Luhring, J.)

No. 79396. Dorothy E. Post vs. William S. Kenworthy; judgment on verdict for plaintiff against defendant for $300 and costs. Attys., Austin P. Canfield—James J. Hayden. (Bailey, J.)

No. 55274. Ruth F. W. Voeth vs. Robert W. Voeth; temporary restraining order granted and hearing set for January 31. Atty., Lucien H. Mercier. (Bailey, J.)

No. 7419. U. S. ex rel. Gallihue & Huguely, Inc., et al. vs. James Baird Co. et al.; time within which to submit motion for new trial extended to February 5. Attys., Wheatley & Wheatley—Tobriner, Graham, Brez & Tobriner, G. Thomas Dunlop, Edwin A. Swingle et al. (Adkins, J.)

No. 55166. The All States Hotel, Inc., vs. Marathon Exhibition Co., Inc., et al.; time for filing bill of exceptions extended to February 15. Attys., Joseph A. Rafferty—E. C. Brandenburg, Louis M. Denit. (Luhring, J.)

No. 55200. Charles Heinzel vs. Marie Lelia Heinzel et al.; order striking out certain part of answer of defendant Heinzel. Attys., Aubrey B. Penell—Albert W. Jacobson. (Bailey, J.)

PROBATE PROCEEDINGS—Mr. Justice Jennings Bailey presiding.

Estate of Catherine M. Poshirz; order for commission to issue to take proof of will. Atty., J. Sherier.

Estate of James L. Duncan; order granting letters of administration to Katherine J. Bodey; special undertaking, $1,000. Atty., L. A. Rover.

Estate of Henry A. Jordon; order granting letters of administration to Minnie R. Jordan; undertaking, $1,000. Atty., F. J. Rice.

Estate of Abraham Champ; order granting letters of administration to Mary Champ; undertaking, $1,000. Atty., J. O. Wrightson, jr.

Estate of Margaret A. Kaufman; order granting letters of administration to Joseph D. Kaufman; special undertaking, $2,000. Atty., J. B. Flynn.

Estate of Florence Knott; petition to transfer stock; order authorizing same. Atty., M. Friedlander.

Estate of Florence G. Chapman; petition for sale of real estate.

Estate of Hippolyte Taulelle; order of publication for probate of will.

Estate of Margarita Specht; order for publication for letters of administration.

Estate of Minnie Feldman; order authorizing payment of $30 fee to guardian ad litem, K. P. Johnson.

Estate of Edward J. Hein; petition to give an increased undertaking; order authorizing administrator to give an additional undertaking of $8,000. Atty., H. Wood.

Estate of Zabel Hatzakordgian; order authorizing payment of $81.96 to the administrator from the registry of the court. Atty., N. H. Britton.

Estate of Isaac Feldman; order authorizing administrator to settle claim, &c. Atty., J. D. Fitzgerald.

Estate of Lucy L. Mitchell; order authorizing administrator to accept offer for purchase of real estate notes. Atty., R. A. Ford.

Estate of Ralph W. Alderman; order authorizing executrix to give new undertaking of $2,500 in lieu of present undertaking of $28,000. Attys., Geiger & Golden.

Estate of Emma J. Price; order authorizing sale of personal property. Atty., R. P. Hollingsworth.

Estate of Dorothie Nuhn; order authorizing sale of two $50 Liberty bonds, belonging to estate. Atty., W. J. Lambert.

In re Eugene Baldi; order authorizing investment of $250 in real estate note. Atty., P. Goldman.

Estate of Eugene A. Doyle; order appointing W. Gwynn Gardiner, jr., guardian ad litem.

In re Jos. F. Vaeth; order authorizing guardian to borrow the sum of $161.07 to be secured as a second deed of trust on real estate in which the minors have a three-fourths interest, subject to dower of the guardian. Atty., H. Miller.

In re Adolph Greenberg et al.; order appointing Annie Sauber guardian of the estate; undertaking, $2,700. Atty., W. G. Gardiner.

CRIMINAL COURT 1—Mr. Chief Justice Alfred A. Wheat, presiding; Wm. S. Adkins, clerk.

No. 52700. U. S. vs. Alonzo C. Hutchins; sentenced to penitentiary for one to two years. Atty., J. E. Keane.

No. 52762. U. S. vs. Helbert H. Boyd; probation for eighteen months. Atty., Dorothy S. Smithey.

No. 52766. U. S. vs. Harry A. Collins; sentenced to penitentiary for eight months to two years. Atty., Morris Kraisel.

No. 52735. U. S. vs. Albert Johnson; sentenced to penitentiary for one to two years. Atty., Louis H. Ward.

No. 52451. Vernon S. Story and Elbert Pierce; each sentenced to penitentiary for two years and seven months to five years. Atty., J. E. Keane.

No. 52758. U. S. vs. Edward A. Johnson; probation for eighteen months. Atty., John H. Wilson.

No. 52734. U. S. vs. Clarence Brown, &c.; sentenced to jail for six months to one year. Atty., E. P. Lovett.

No. 52719. U. S. vs. John Gilbert Foster; sentenced to jail for six months to one year.

No. 52715. U. S. vs. George Hearns; probation for eighteen months.

No. 52701. U. S. vs. Arthur Hodge; sentenced to penitentiary for one to two years.

No. 52755. U. S. vs. Samuel Marlow; probation for eighteen months. Atty., O. Bigoness.

No. 52739. U. S. vs. Chester McConnell; sentenced to penitentiary for one to two years. Attys., Rowan & Price.

No. 52772. U. S. vs. Edward Mupp; sentenced to penitentiary for one to two years.

No. 52385. U. S. vs. Asa Richard Fuller; nolle prosequi entered.

No. 52313. U. S. vs. Joseph James Jackson et al.; amended bill of exceptions filed; submitted and signed. Atty., John H. Wilson.

G. J. 10633. U. S. vs. Ernest J. Polrer; recognizance, $500; P. F. O'Connor, surety, taken.

G. J. 10447. U. S. vs. John Dorsey; personal bond taken.

No. 52763. U. S. vs. Charles Watkins; sentenced to penitentiary for two to three years.

No. 52711. U. S. vs. Thomas F. Wernet; probation for eighteen months.

No. 52695. U. S. vs. Maurice Valentine and Norman Frye; Frye, probation for eighteen months; Valentine, to penitentiary for one to two years.

No. 52675. U. S. vs. Leroy Wiley and Wm. Smith; Wiley, sentenced to penitentiary for three years; Smith, to penitentiary for one to two years.

No. 5826. U. S. vs. James Johnson; sentenced to penitentiary for two years.

No. 47666. U. S. vs. Daniel E. Lee; sentenced to penitentiary for three to four years.

No. 51729. U. S. vs. Wm. T. Robinson; sentenced to penitentiary for two years.

No. 52601. U. S. vs. John R. Beck; appeal in forma pauperis ordered.

No. 52579. U. S. vs. Joseph Pagliaio; petition for return of auto. Attys., Hayes & Hayes.

No. 52078. U. S. vs. Walter Holland; demurrer argued and submitted. Attys., F. H. Creech, James Y. Allen.

Assignment for Monday, January 23—Trials:

U. S. vs. Dolphus Morgan. U. S. vs. Grant Richardson, U. S. vs. Sylvan Taylor and Kenneth Woolridge. U. S. vs. Wilbert Scott. U. S. vs. Benjamin Coleman. U. S. vs. Ralph C. Garbo. U. S. vs. Frederick L. Brown. U. S. vs. William A. Grogan. U. S. vs. Wilbur B. Broadway. U. S. vs. Jacob A. Kamerow. U. S. vs. Herbert B. McConnell.

CRIMINAL COURT 2—Mr. Justice Daniel W. O'Donoghue presiding; Richard J. Kirkland, clerk.

No. 51887. U. S. vs. Leroy Samuels; plea not guilty. Atty., John H. Wilson.

No. 51787. U. S. vs. Theophiles W. Martin; plea not guilty. Atty., William M. Murray.

No. 52745. U. S. vs. Norman S. Bowles; plea not guilty; bond, $5,000. M. S. Kronheim, surety, taken.

No. 52764. U. S. vs. Frederick F. Washington; plea not guilty. Atty., Charles Shaefer.

No. 52783. U. S. vs. Clifford C. Ritchey, &c.; plea not guilty. Atty., G. A. Hospidor.

No. 52786. U. S. vs. Leroy Shaft; plea not guilty. Atty., John H. Wilson.

No. 52787. U. S. vs. Joseph Williams; plea not guilty. Atty., Thomas Beckett.

No. 52788. U. S. vs. John J. Neil; plea guilty; referred.

No. 52789. U. S. vs. Willie Hill, &c.; plea not guilty. Atty., James E. Hughes.

No. 52790. U. S. vs. Julian Hayes; plea guilty and referred.

No. 52792. U. S. vs. William Upshaw, jr.; plea guilty; referred. Atty., M. L. Shulman.

No. 52793. U. S. vs. Robert Daniel Bosen; case continued. Attys., John C. Bryan, H. H. Wilson.

No. 52794. U. S. vs. James Sollers; plea guilty and referred.

No. 52795. U. S. vs. Earl Wilkins et al.; plea not guilty, all in No. 52796. In No. 52814, Wilkins and Joiner, plea not guilty, and Pope guilty. Attys., H. E. Twohey, J. B. Mealy, J. Frank Gaffney.

No. 52796. U. S. vs. Augustus Lyles; plea guilty; referred.

No. 52797. U. S. vs. James E. Jones; plea not guilty. Atty., J. H. McCoole.

No. 52798. U. S. vs. Sam Johnson; plea guilty; referred.

No. 52799. U. S. vs. Charles E. Thompson, Lucian Thompson and John E. Wesley; plea not guilty each. Atty., H. H. Goldstein.

No. 52800. U. S. vs. William Johnson et al.; plea guilty and referred.

No. 52801. U. S. vs. Earl Lee; plea guilty and referred.

No. 52802. U. S. vs. James Howard; plea not guilty. Atty., Bart Clines.

No. 52803 et al. U. S. vs. Rudolph Robinson; plea guilty; referred.

No. 52805. U. S. vs. Edward Winston et al.; plea not guilty each. Atty., John H. Wilson.

No. 52806. U. S. vs. Edward Joseph Sousan; warrant issued.

No. 52807. U. S. vs. James D. Cherry; plea not guilty. Atty., D. J. Offutt.

No. 52808. U. S. vs. John Charles Foster; plea not guilty. Atty., Harrison Mann.

No. 52809. U. S. vs. Ralph C. Pack; plea not guilty. Atty., George Rose.

No. 52810. U. S. vs. Robert D. Dunigan; plea guilty; referred.

No. 52811. U. S. vs. Thomas Johnson; plea guilty each case; referred.

No. 52812. U. S. vs. David B. Grisso et al.; plea not guilty each. Attys., Kans & McInerney.

No. 52815. U. S. vs. A. G. Ortt; plea not guilty. Atty., G. A. Hospidor.

No. 52816. U. S. vs. Warren Gross; plea not guilty. Atty., O. Bigoness.

No. 52817. U. S. vs. Shannon Litchfield; plea guilty; referred.

No. 52818. U. S. vs. Claude M. Summers; plea not guilty. Atty., G. A. Hospidor.

No. 52819. U. S. vs. Lewis Briscoe; plea not guilty. Atty., R. A. Ford.

No. 52812 U. S. vs. Albert Nelson et al.; plea not guilty. Atty., F. Joseph Donohue.

No. 52822. U. S. vs. Curtis Taylor; plea not guilty. Atty., George E. McNeill.

No. 52823. U. S. vs. Herbert Cole et al.; plea not guilty each. Atty., Joseph D. Kelly.

No. 52824. U. S. vs. Ernest Jacosta; plea not guilty.

No. 52688. U. S. vs. Fred Stepney; probation for one to two years.

No. 52580. U. S. vs. Norris E. Barron; fined $150 and fine paid. Atty., Denny Hughes.

No. 52499. U. S. vs. Frank M. Le Droux; fined $150 and paid. Atty., M. G. Ehrlich.

No. 52466. U. S. vs. Butler Settles; sentenced to penitentiary for natural life. Attys., Kane & McInerney.

No. 52602 et al. U. S. vs. Charles A. Berry; sentenced to penitentiary for two to four years.

No. 52743. U. S. vs. John Eady; sentenced to penitentiary for two years.

No. 52660. U. S. vs. Henry Spriggs; sentenced to penitentiary for two to three years.

No. 52579. U. S. vs. Joseph Pagliaio; probation for six months to one year. Atty., M. G. Ehrlich.

No. 51932. U. S. vs. Fred West; sentenced to penitentiary for one year and day. Atty., G. H. McNeill.

No. 52652. U. S. vs. Vernon B. Johnson; sentenced to penitentiary for two to four years. Atty., J. H. Wilson.

No. 52178. U. S. vs. Samuel Killian; sentenced to penitentiary for nine years. Attys., Whelan & O'Connell.

Assignment for Monday, January 23. Trials: Same as published Sunday.

LAWSUIT.

No. 52286. Thomas E. Keith vs. the New York Title & Mortgage Co. et al.; damages. Atty., S. R. Prince, jr.

DOCKETED JUDGMENTS.

No. 2590. Aaron Day, jr., vs. J. B. Smith; amount, $95. Atty., J. F. Wilson.

No. 2591. Griffith-Consumers Co. vs. E. L. Stewart; amount, $178.64. Atty., A. E. Beck.

No. 2592. Griffith-Consumers Co. vs. Graham T. Smallwood; amount, $48.45. Atty., A. E. Beck.

No. 2593. Griffith-Consumers Co. vs. Wm. S. Phillips, Inc.; amount, $124.20. Atty., A. E. Beck.

MECHANICS' LIENS.

No. 15963. Griffith-Consumers Co. vs. Elizabeth O'Hara; lot 2, square 2293 (5407 32d st. nw.); amount, $943.06.

No. 15964. Washington Concrete Products Corp. vs. Harry Forelaky and Morris Silver; lot 10, square 2958 (1200 Juniper st. nw.).

EQUITY SUITS.

No. 55272. John William Lynch vs. Emily Catherine Lynch et al.; absolute divorce. Atty., John L. Chapman, jr.

No. 55273. Elizabeth Hughes vs. Meek R. Hughes; limited divorce. Atty., Alfred M. Schwartz.

No. 55274. Ruth F. W. Voeth vs. Robert W. Voeth; limited divorce. Atty., L. H. Mercier.

No. 55275. Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co. et al. vs. Thomas E. Robertson, Commissioner of Patents; letters patent. Atty., Raymond Jones.

No. 55276. Estelle E. Jackson vs. Talley R. Holmes et al.; injunction. Attys., M. M. Harris and George L. C. Hayes.

No. 55277. Darius Harman vs. William R. Curtis et al.; judgment creditor's bill. Atty., Hugh M. Frampton.

West Virginia Advanced $4,747,561 by R. F. C.

(Associated Press.)

Of the $146,328,188 made available by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to States and Territories for emergency relief and construction, up to January 19, $4,747,561 went to West Virginia, the corporation reported yesterday.

In addition, the corporation loaned money to 98 banks, 15 building and loan associations, and one insurance company in West Virginia up to last December 31, the report said.

AUCTION SALES

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1933—
THOS. J. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers.
1431 Eye Street Northwest.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF VALUABLE CORNER TWO-STORY BRICK DWELLING, KNOWN AS PREMISES 1700 FIFTH STREET NORTHWEST.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust duly recorded November 6, 1926, as instrument No. 3, of the land records of Washington, District of Columbia, and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned trustees will sell, at public auction, in front of the premises, on FRIDAY, THE THIRD DAY OF FEBRUARY, A. D. 1933, AT TWO-THIRTY O'CLOCK P. M., the following described land and premises, situate in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, and designated as and being lot 3 in Wm. Heine's subdivision of square 476, as per plat recorded in liber 10, folio 146, of the records of the office of the surveyor of the District of Columbia.

TERMS OF SALE: One-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash, balance in two years, with interest at seven per centum per annum, payable quarterly from day of sale, secured by deed of trust upon the property sold, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser. A deposit of $300.00 will be required at time of sale. All conveyancing, recording, etc., at cost of purchaser. Terms of sale to be complied with within thirty days from day of sale, otherwise the trustees reserve the right to resell the property at the risk and cost of defaulting purchaser, after five days' advertisement of such resale in some newspaper published in Washington, D. C.

WILLIAM R. De LASHMUTT,
WILBUR H. ZEPP,
P—21,23,25,27,30,fe1,2,3. Trustees.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 31, 1933—
THOS. J. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers.
1431 Eye Street Northwest.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF TWO-STORY BRICK APARTMENT, KNOWN AS NOS. 940 AND 942 TWENTY-SIXTH STREET NORTHWEST, CONTAINING TWELVE APARTMENTS OF THREE ROOMS, PORCH AND BATH EACH.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust duly recorded in Liber No. 6013, folio 329 et seq., of the land records of the District of Columbia, and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned trustees will sell, at public auction in front of the premises, on TUESDAY, THE THIRTY-FIRST DAY OF JANUARY, A. D. 1933, AT THREE-THIRTY O'CLOCK P. M., the following-described land and premises, situate in the District of Columbia, and designated as and being original lot 21 in square 5.

TERMS: Sold subject to a prior deed of trust of $27,500.00, further particulars of which will be announced at time of sale: the purchaser to take said trust to be paid in cash. A deposit of $500.00 required. Conveyancing, recording, etc., at purchaser's cost. Terms to be complied with within thirty days, otherwise deposit forfeited and the property may be advertised and resold at the discretion of the trustees.

JULIUS I. PEYSER,
FRED McKEE,
P—Ja20,23,25,27,30,31 Trustees.

MONDAY, JANUARY 23, 1933—
THOS. J. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers.
1431 Eye Street Northwest.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE IMPROVED REAL ESTATE, BEING BRICK DWELLING KNOWN AS PREMISES NO. 1331 EIGHTH STREET NORTHWEST.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust duly recorded in liber No. 5483, folio 345 et seq., of the land records of the District of Columbia, and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned trustee will sell, at public auction, in front of the premises, on MONDAY, THE TWENTY-THIRD DAY OF JANUARY, A. D. 1933, AT TWO O'CLOCK P. M., the following-described land and premises, situate in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, and designated as and being lot 61 in the subdivision made by Henry Orth, of a part of square 421 as per plat recorded in the Office of the Surveyor for the District of Columbia in liber 33, folio 93.

TERMS OF SALE: One-fourth of the purchase-money to be paid in cash, balance in three equal installments, payable in one, two and three years, with interest at six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually from day of sale, secured by deed of trust upon the property sold, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser. A deposit of $300.00 will be required at time of sale. All conveyancing, recording, etc., at cost of purchaser. Terms of sale to be complied with within thirty days from day of sale, otherwise the trustee reserves the right to resell the property at the risk and cost of defaulting purchaser, after five days' advertisement of such resale in some newspaper published in Washington, D. C.

WILLIAM L. P. KING,
Surviving Trustee.
907 Fifteenth street northwest.
P—Jan12,14,16,18,20,23

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1933—
THOS. J. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers.
1431 Eye Street Northwest.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE, BEING A TWO-STORY AND ATTIC, DETACHED, FRAME DWELLING, CONTAINING TEN ROOMS AND BATH AND LAVATORY, WITH GARAGE, KNOWN AS 1312 FLORAL STREET NORTHWEST.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust recorded in Liber No. 6676, at folio 451, of the land records of the District of Columbia, and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned will sell at public auction in front of the premises on WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY FIRST, 1933, AT THREE-THIRTY O'CLOCK P. M., the following-described land and premises, situate in the District of

AUTOMOBILES for SALE 7

OLDSMOBILE 1931 SEDAN $397
An exceptional used car; rich black finish; disk wheels, with white sidewall tires; bargain.
H. B. LEARY, JR. & BROS.,
1321 14th St. NW.

OLDS convertible coupe, '32; smart robin-egg blue; 5 wire wheels; leather upholstery; driven 3,000 miles; new-car guarantee; your car in trade; terms, 12-18 mo; bargain. $795. Wisconsin Motors, 1063 Wisc. ave., West 2973.

PLYMOUTH—Sedan, 1932; 4-door job; floating power, free wheeling; many extras; completely equipped; new car condition throughout; 30-day guarantee. $100 underpriced; your car in trade; terms to suit; exceptional bargain, $365.
MANDELL CHEVROLET,
13th and Good Hope rd se. Atl. 4400

PONTIAC—'29 De Luxe Coach; new tires; perfect condition thruout; $195; terms. Barry-Pate, 1360 Park rd. Ad. 10202.

WILLYS—6 sedan, 1931. Must sacrifice; in excellent condition except one fender; price, $135. 13th and E sts. nw. parking lot.

BUY A "CHERNERIZED" USED CAR.
Chernerized Motor Co., 1781 Florida ave. nw. 1-hour Open evenings until 10 P. M.

80 Used Cars Priced Right.
LOGAN MOTOR CO.,
1810 E St. NW.

FORD—1930 Sport Phaeton, mechanically good. Looks fine, $165. Modern Auto Exchange, 2303 14th st. nw. Col. 9396.

FORD—'30 sport roadster; new top, new tires; mechanically perfect. Barry-Pate Motor Co., 1360 Park rd. Ad. 10202.

MOTORCYCLES for SALE 7A

1933 HARLEY-DAVIDSON — New; $295. Easy terms. H. A. Bowie, 621 H st. nw.

AUTO TRUCKS—TRACTORS 8

CLEARANCE SALE

G. M. C. '29 2½-ton dual-pneu. extra long chassis equipped with large bulldog van body disc wheels, any demonstration.....$575.00
Reo heavy duty 3-ton dual-pneu. with latest model under-hoist dump body.....$290.00
Republic 6-cyl. dual-pneu., large bulldog van body.....$250.00
G. M. C. 1-ton panel with Buick motor.....$150.00
Chev. 1-ton open express truck....$125.00
Chev. 1929, light delivery.....$90.00
Ch. C. C. ½-ton delivery panel body. $75.00
Solid tire trucks from 1½ tons to 3½ tons, all makes and models from.....$50.00 up
ROBERT HERSON'S AUTO EXCHANGE.
72 Pa. Ave. N.E.

AUTO PAINTING—Plating 11

$15.00 AUTO PAINTING
ACE GARAGE.
Rear 1144 18th St. N.W.

WANTED—AUTOMOBILES 13

AUBURNS, BUICKS, CHEVROLETS, etc.—Cash for your car. We have sometimes found the impression prevailing that we will not accept any but a used Ford car in trade for a new or used Ford. That is not a fact. Many cars—in both high and low price classes are being constantly traded in on tomorrow's car—today, the Ford V-8. Nolan Motor Co., 1111 18th st. Always open.

USED car or truck in exchange for Crosley radio. 2427 18th st. nw.

WE WILL BUY
Your car for cash.
See Mr. Dillon, 1440 P St. NW.

CASH FOR YOUR CAR
or will pay unpaid balance and give you difference in cash. See Mr. Barnes, 1729 14th st. nw.

RECOMMENDED SERVICE 14

The following business concerns guarantee satisfaction to Post readers. Any complaint found necessary to be made to The Post will receive prompt attention. For admission to Recommended Service Column call National 4205, Branch 43.

ALL-STATE Transfer Co., 908 Q nw. Anything moved anywhere. For best rates call Pot. 4807.

ANY painting and papering? I need work Will give attractive prices. Best references. R. P. Letts, Met. 5316.

APEX ELEC CO.—Radio service by expert, $1 per call; satisfaction guar. 9th and G sts. nw.; ME. 7005.

CARPENTERING, painting, glazing, fencing, roof mending; jobbing or by day. Call North 5537. J. E. Gillies.

CARPENTER WORK, all kinds; painting; metal weather strips, rustless screens, oak floors; guaranteed J. A. Hillman, 118 18th ne. Atlantic 4976.

CITY'S MOST REASONABLE PRICES on radio repair; work guaranteed. North Capitol Radio Service, 1408 N. Capitol st. North 9675

ZARLE'S BATTERY & ELECTRIC SERV. $1—RADIOS SERVICED—$1
2423 Penn. N.W. West 2289.

FLOORS SANDED and refinished; new oak floors installed at cost; reasonable prices. C. Norwood, 4428 S 16th st. Jackson 7031.

FLOORS, all descriptions sanded, refinished; parquet laid, repaired; mod. prices; estimates free. Earle Jordan, Lin. 5765.

HAVE THAT ROOM PAPERED, $4 up
Expert work, including paper. Also painting and plastering. Met. 9128.

I DO window and housecleaning; walls, floors cleaned, refinished; painting; reliable; hr., day; estimate. Ben. WE. 1097.

Kelvinator, Frigidaire & Servel
SERVICE AND REPAIR—24 HR. SERVICE.
Matheson Refrig. Co., 701 R nw. GR. 2448.

PAINTING, PAPERING—Rooms papered, $4 up; work guaranteed; best work, best prices. H. D Potter. Li. 7835.

PAPERHANGING, painting; January special—low prices for work done this month; rooms, $3 up. Call Dist. 8429.

RADIO REPAIR—Free inspection; work done by experts guaranteed. U. S. Radio Laboratories, 1731 L st. nw. Met. 0418

UPHOLSTERING, furniture repairing; work done in the home if desired. E. S. Weaver, 1434 Newton st. nw. Adams 8401.

FOR SHOE REPAIRING
See Gerome first; excellent workmanship. Satisfaction guaranteed.
GEROME SHOE SHOP, 1124 H st. ne.

U. S. RADIO SERVICE.
Service calls, 50c. We call and test tubes free. 2212 R. Ave. nw. Dec. 0775.

AUTOS FOR HIRE.
Cars for weddings and parties.
Complete funeral, $60 up.
Wm. Tolbert, 1306 6th st. nw. Pot. 5769

Service anywhere in D. C.....$1
Radios rented, per week.....
A. Fogleman, 213 14th st. se. At. 0689-J.

BUILD—REMODEL
IMPROVEMENTS—LATEST IDEAS—NEW HOMES; LOWEST COSTS IN YEARS—RELIABLE BUILDER. ASK SEARL, 1405 I ST. NAT. 2920.

Doub's Transfer—Ge. 0775
Local and long-distance moving; 2 rooms $5 and up; pianos moved reasonable.

PAINTING—BY EXPERTS
Durable work at fair prices. Neat reliable mechanics. Frye. De. 2631.

American Typewriter Co.
Rent, sell, repair all makes. Add. machines. Open eves. 1431 E. Cap. st.; Li. 0082.

PIANO TUNING, $2.00
Estimates free. Repairs reas.; work guaranteed; pianos, organs for sale. Wm. Woolley, 913 10th st. ne. Lin. 8166-J.

5-Room House—2-Story Hall
PAPERED, $35.00.
White mechanics. All 1933 papers. Di. 8211.

Plumbing, Roofing & Heating
Lowest rates. Best quality.
S. J. DENNY, 3475 14th st. nw. Col. 3045.

CHARLES B. BROOME
Special attention given repairing and remodeling. Our trucks equipped for emergency. No back-to-the-shop trips.
614 F ST. NE. ATL. 3537.

PLUMBING SPECIAL
Chromium plated combination Sink Faucet, all metal, new style, completely installed.....$6.25
HEFFRON CO., INC.
220 L St. N.E. Lin. 3423.

BEAUTY PARLORS 15

35c—Marie Sullivan's—35c
BEAUTY SHOP—NAT. 3100.
3 BEAUTY ITEMS FOR $1.
Work Guar.—Ops. with 3 yrs. exper.
Genuine Perm't Eugene $3 Comp.
Marcel Top—Ringlet Ends.
Rm. 306, Dist. Natl. Bank Bldg.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE 17

A POSITION is yours; guaranteed if you complete a Boyd course; average time 3-9 mo.; you can win in business; new classes starting now. Operates large employment agency. Est. 16 years. Inquire Boyd School, 1333 F st. nw. NA. 2341.

BEAUTY SHOP—Fully equipped; opportunity for capable; thoroughly experienced operator to operate on commission basis; low rent. Owner, Silver Spring 154.

YOUNG LADY, of good personality, pleasing voice and high school education or equivalent. Selling experience helpful. For interesting and dignified work. Straight salary to start. Write qualifications to Box 139, The Washington Post.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE 17

LADIES—A number of club or socially prominent women to take charge special work for magazine Vogue. Homework; no canvassing; liberal remuneration. Telephone Miss Philip, Hotel Willard, Monday between 10 and 12.

HELP WANTED—MALE 18

BARBER wanted; white; steady work. Apply 5801 Ga. ave. nw.

BARBERS—Two first class, steady, neat appearance. 312 9th st. nw.

SALESMEN—Responsible, ambitious; willing to work 55 hours per week; liberal commission. Box 81, Washington Post.

SOLICITORS—Laundry or similar experience necessary; opportunity for routes when open to those making good. Quality & Service Laundry, Bladensburg, Md.

WANTED—Will consider the purchase of bobtail routes, with or without employment as driver. Quality & Service Laundry, Bladensburg, Md.

CABS AVAILABLE
for white drivers.
CITY CAB CORP.
1121 21st St. N.W.

WANTED
WHITE CHAUFFEURS
WITH IDENTIFICATION CARDS
TO DRIVE
DIAMOND CABS
APPLY MR. HIPSON
6 A. M. TO 6 P. M.
1ST AND M STS. N.E.

HELP—Male and Female 19

INCREASE your earnings selling staple and diminutive article in spare time, or earn splendid income working full time. No samples or baggage to carry. Box 122, Washington Post.

SCHOOL students for club selling; new plan; earn $50 check for next June. Lincoln 4526.

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES 19A

DOMESTIC AGENCY—De. 2419, 1937 14th. supplies cooks, g. h. w., waitresses, couples, janitors, chauffeurs, day workers.

RUPHERS EXCHANGE has cooks, maids, housekeepers; day, week, month; refs. investigated. Dec. 3561; 1837 11th nw.

SITUATIONS—FEMALE 21

ALL-AROUND experienced beauty operator. No. 8462.

COLORED girl wishes general housework, cooking or part time; in or out town; good refs. Phone North 2361.

COLORED woman wishes work in boarding house, tea house or cafeteria; refs. 1746 Kal. rd. nw. Ad. 7065.

COLORED girl wishes work of any kind; refs. West 0057-J. after 6 p. m.

COOK, chambermaid, waitress; experienced; full or part time; young colored woman; best refs. Lillian, Dec. 2616.

COOK, WAITRESS, colored; experienced; or general housework; go home nights; excellent references. Phone Decatur 4464.

COOK—First class; references. 2321 17th st. nw. Adams 5265-W.

COOK and housekeeper, white; experienced, capable; prefer small family; no laundry; best refs. Walnut 8722.

GIRL wants general housework or work of any kind with good references. North 1097.

GIRL, colored, wishes work of any kind. 416 M st. nw. Met. 5259.

GIRL wishes general housework; good city references. Potomac 5385.

GIRL — Colored; neat; wants part-time work, morning or noon. Phone Ad. 2379.

GIRL—Colored; desires part time or work by the day. Address 1620 13th; Pot. 3271.

GIRL—Colored; experienced in gen. housework; for small family; taking care of apt.; city refs. Met. 4204.

GIRL, colored, desires work as nursemaid or maid in a store. Ad. 9307. 735 Park road nw.

GIRL—Colored; wants housework of any kind; city refs. Lincoln 5733.

HOUSEKEEPER—In small family; one where clean pet dog may be kept; best refs. from refined people. Col. 4482.

HOUSEKEEPER—Colored; 50 yrs.; clean; Christian; good cook; home; small pay. Cleve. 6872.

NEAT girl wants work as maid or general housework or part time. Col. 8152-J.

REFINED white working housekeeper, Christian Scientist, experienced, good cook; adult family; no laundry; refs.; $12 week. GE. 0701.

REFINED lady desires general work; permanent. 1627 33d st. nw.

SECRETARY - STENOGRAPHER — College degree; teaching, secretarial and general office exp. Miss Gaarsmoe, ME. 1669.

STENOGRAPHER-TYPIST—General clerical exp.; high school education; needs work; $13 wk. Miss Nelson, NA. 2342.

STENOGRAPHER-TYPIST—General clerical experience; McKinley High graduate; age 19; has reference; $12 week. North 3299-J.

STENOGRAPHER-TYPIST—7 years' secretarial experience; type 65, shorthand 120 per minute; age, 28; formerly earned $35 wk.; will accept $20 week. Col. 4191.

WOMAN, colored, wants work of any kind, part or regular. Lincoln 8098-W.

WORK by the day; 1 or 2 days a week. Potomac 3283-J.

SITUATIONS—MALE 22

BOOKKEEPER, 27, 10 years' experience; excellent D. C. ref. Box 126, Washington Post.

CHAUFFEUR—Experienced; free to travel; handy around house and yard; refs. Tel. Pot. 3610.

COOK—Houseman, experienced; neat, steady; colored; reliable; best references. Metr. 5729.

NURSE—Male; yrs. of hospl. training; all classes of patients. NO. 5032-J.

PRESSER—Colored, neat; long experience; Hoffman machine; silks finished by hand Phone Adams 7728.

SECRETARY—14 years with prominent member of Congress; graduate of high school, business college and law school; 35 years of age; well acquainted with congressional, departmental and commercial activities in Washington. Box 127, Washington Post.

SERVICE STATION MANAGER or service man, experienced; best references; moderate salary. Phone Cleve. 9016.

STENOGRAPHER, bookkeeper, clerk; experienced; age 25. Emerson 0453.

STENOGRAPHER-TYPIST — Young man, genuine office exp.; not afraid of long hours; want work; $15 week. H. Rawcliffe. No. 7547.

WANTED—Place as carpenter or architect. Box 146, Washington Post.

SITUATIONS—Male—Female 23

PHONE National 2808, Eureka Emp. Exchange, established 1897, for recommended help, any capacity.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES 24

BUILDER wants several first mortgages, construction loans, $2,000 to $5,000; good property; good securities. Box 128, The Washington Post.

CLEANING and pressing establishment; desirable location; sacrifice; for illness; any reas. offer accepted. 206 Mass. ave. nw.

CORNER grocery and meat market; elec. refrig.; doing excellent business; sacrifice for quick sale. 100 F st. nw.

CORNER GROCERY, with 7-room detached house, $700; excellent location. R. M. DeShazo, 1130 14th st. nw.

DOUBLE-SECURED 1st mortgage notes, $50 to $100; due in 5 mos.; at a discount to net you 10%. 510 Bond Bldg.; NA. 4619.

GOLD PROSPECTOR—Young man, with experience, would like to communicate with party who is willing to make a very small investment with chance of good return, prospecting in Southern mountains. Box 132, Washington Post.

GROCERY and meat market. Reas. price to quick buyer. For information, Herbst Drug Store, 25th and Pa. ave. nw.

MORTGAGES CLEARING HOUSE—Authorized representatives of mortgage institutions—offer 60-room hotel, 200 acres of land. Famous medicinal springs, near Hot Springs, W. Va. The water of this spring is noted for the medicinal, especially the laxative, properties, having been awarded the prize at the St. Louis exposition. This property cost $500,000. Priced for quick sale at $200,000. A chance of a lifetime is here for someone. We are headquarters for Baltimore stores and business properties. 317 Munsey Building, Baltimore, Md.

6% NOTES
Secured by
First Mortgages
Safe—Conservative
Wm. H. Saunders Co., Inc.
REALTORS
Dist. 1016 1519 K St.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES 24

PART of store; desirable location; reasonable rent; heat and water furn. Apply 1110 9th st. nw.

ROOMING HOUSE, 17 rooms, 4 baths, high-class furnishing. Owner must sell. Mr. Rogers, 1410 H nw. Dist. 7819.

SILENT PARTNER to invest $500 and services if desired in a business that will prove a real money maker. Box 125, Washington Post.

STORE and gas station; also modern improved home; acreage, near Frederick, Md.; terms like rent. Call GA. 0187.

TOURISTS' HOME—Registered; good location; 8 rooms; 3 rented; attrac. fur.; sacrifice; leaving city. At. 1451.

BARBER SHOP.
Three chairs, modern, reasonable.
Box 121, Washington Post.

REAL ESTATE LOANS 27

Low Cost On Good Loans, Prompt Action.
HARRY E. PITTS,
1343 H St. N.W. Met. 4300.

FIRST AND SECOND TRUST LOANS.
C. F. WARING
1416 F ST. N.W. NATIONAL 9172

INSTRUCTION COURSES 29

AUTO LESSONS—For easy parking, clutch control; cars furnished; permit; instruction guaranteed. Prof. Foster. Met. 1809.

AUTO LESSONS—Reliable, white instructors; any hours; cars furnished; parking for tests; permits secured. Em. 1970.

COMMERCIAL ART. Val-Art Studio, 1006 Hill Bldg., 17th & Eye sts.; NAt. 9726.

LATIN AND ALGEBRA tutoring by college graduate and teacher. Telephone Cleveland 8799.

NEW CLASSES now forming for Hawaiian steel guitar and other instruments. Lessons $1 per week. Beautiful guitar free to each of first 10 applicants that answer this ad. Apply at once. National Studios of Music and Dance, 2821 14th st. nw. AD. 8335. Open 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

FRENCH Private lessons; tutoring; reduced rates. 1450 Girard st. nw. Col. 8194-J.

DOGS—CATS—PETS 31

POLICE PUPS—Pedigreed; 6 wks. old; only few left; $5 each. GE. 3469.

PUPS — Pekingese; pedigreed, registered; tan; reas. 306 Randolph pl. ne.; Po. 1933.

PUPS—English setter; 2 months old; best of breeding; all papers. North 4944-J.

HORSES—CATTLE 32

MILK GOATS—Due to freshen soon; cheap. Log House, Hybla Valley, Va.

MISCELLANEOUS for SALE 35

ADDING MACHINES—For rent. Also many bargains in rebuilt machines. United Typewriter & Adding Machine Co., 1223 New York ave. Nat. 5509.

ANTIQUE buffet, table, mirrors, rugs, runner, chest of drawers, vanity, living-rm. set, desk, dresser. GE. 1344.

ANTIQUE MELODIAN—In rosewood; good condition. Call Wis. 4746.

ANTIQUE AND VICTORIAN FURNITURE Cheap; chairs to match, $2.50 each; sofas and tables; priced to sell to dealers. 925 10th st. nw.

BICYCLES—Rollfast bicycles, velocipedes and sidewalk bikes; also other good wheels. Wheel goods repaired. Hazleton Bicycle & Sporting Goods Co., 424 9th st. nw.

BUCKWHEAT BLOWER—Automatic heat control, with thermostat, installed complete, $32.50. Ga. 2429.

DIAMONDS—1 carat solitaire, fine color, cost $425, sacrifice $200; also 2 carat diamond solitaire, $400; terms to responsible party. Box 135, Washington Post.

DIAMOND ring; man's; perfect stone; cost $500; recently pawned $100; sacrifice ticket $50; also lady's 1½-ct. solitaire; perfect stone; just pawned, $125; sacrifice ticket $50; ring cost $550. Me. 6335.

DIAMOND engagement ring and diamond wedding ring; real bargains. 329 R. I. ave. ne., Apt. 207.

DIAMONDS—Two solitaires, one 2¼ carats, other near 1¼; will sacrifice; need money. Phone Bowie 62F12; have them appraised.

DIAMOND RING—3 carat, very fine cut and brilliant gem; solid platinum mounting surrounded with diamonds and sapphires; unusual bargain, $385. Kahn Optical Co., 617 7th st. nw.

DIAMONDS—4 rings, 1 bracelet, 1 pin, 1 wrist watch; must sell; no dealers. DE. 8512.

ELECTRIC cabinet bath; 56 lights; best offer. Pot. 5323.

FUR COAT—Brown caracul; fox collar; size 36; bargain. Dec. 2078-W.

FUR COAT, brown caracul, fox collar and cuffs; size 16. Call Col. 2145, Apt. 132.

FURNITURE—Household; very reasonable Nat. 2909.

FURNITURE—New; contents of 6-room apt.; ready for occupancy; no dealers. 1104 Monroe st. nw.

GAS RANGES—De luxe table-top and cabinet ranges, $39.50, $49.50 and $64.50. Most of them have regulators and oven control and oven insulation. Tremendous saving for cash. 917 15th nw., 3d floor.

GAS RANGE—Suitable hotel, cafe; practically new; bargain. Di. 0230.

GRAND piano; looks like new; need money. Wis. 4492.

HONEY—5-lb. can, 90c; 6 combs, $1; delivered. Best sweet children can eat. Call The Honey Pot, West 0654 by 10 a.m.

LIVING ROOM suite, overstuffed, excellent condition; first reasonable offer. 1436 Meridian pl. nw. Apt. 32 or janitor.

METAL AUTO PARTS—Bins (5), set of G. M. A. C. books, Victor adding machine, addressograph, Sioux valve grinding set, Prospect and stock room files; all nearly new; at sacrifice. Fred L. Morgan, 1341 14th st. nw.

PIANO—Decker Bros. Grand; medium size; taken in trade on a new Kimball; our sale price $265. $3 down, $2 weekly. Nat. 3659. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th st. nw.

PIANOS—For rent new apt. upright; $5 mo.; small gr., $10 mo.; cartage extra. Nat. 3659. Kimball Co., 721 11th st.

PIANO—Stieff upright; reconditioned; $40 913 10th st. ne.; Linc. 8166-J.

PIANO—Chickering upright, $45; suitable for practicing; $3 down and $1 weekly. Nat. 3659. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th st. nw.

PIANO, bureau, desk, dressing table, iron beds, odd furniture, chiffordbe; sacrifice. 1825 Irving st. nw. Col. 6176-J.

PIANO—Beautiful brand-new apt., grand; made by Kimball; now reduced to $395; only three to be sold at this price; $3 down and $1 weekly. Nat. 3659. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th st. nw.

PIANO—Stieff upright; in splendid condition; our sale price $75, $3 down and $1 weekly. Nat. 3659. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th st. nw.

PIANO—Chas. Stieff mahogany upright with bench; in very good condition; we will accept any reasonable offer. D. NOTES, 633 Indiana ave.

PIANO—Plain mah., medium size; a well-known make; tuned and reconditioned; our sale price $65, $3 down and $1 weekly. Nat. 3659. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th st. nw

PIANO—Kimball upright; thoroughly reconditioned; $100; $3 down and $1 weekly. Nat. 3659. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th st. nw.

PLAYER PIANO—Almost new; small size mah.; ten rolls and bench; our sale price, $115; down payment $3 and $2 weekly. Nat. 3659. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th st. nw.

RADIO—R. C. A. 30-A superheterodyne, 10-tube; a. c. current; beautiful walnut cabinet; like new; cost over $300; $45 for quick sale. ME. 0418.

RADIO—D. C. Philco; 7 tubes; cabinet size; $17.50; good condition. MEt. 3506.

REFRIGERATOR—G. E.; excellent condition; new; 4.4 cu. ft.; $125. Ad. 2540.

RUGS and runner, beautiful Oriental, modern and antique. Rare bargains for cash. 1822 Biltmore st. nw.

RUG—Sacrifice beautiful imported 9x12; excellent condition; $35; also ¼-carat blue lady's diamond ring, $50. Two gorgeous scatter rugs. POt. 4490. Apt. 305.

TYPEWRITERS — Rebuilt portables and standards, bargain prices; we rent, repair and exchange all makes. Typewriter Sales & Service Co., 811 17th st. nw. Nat. 5666.

TYPEWRITERS—Guaranteed like new; low prices, terms; we rent, repair, exchange. Standard Typewriter Co., 723 10th nw.

TYPEWRITERS—Underwood, $25.00; L. C. Smith, $16.00; other bargains. United Typ. Co., 1223 New York ave. Nat. 5509.

TYPEWRITERS—Underwood, $25.00; L. C. Smith, $16.00; other bargains. United Typ. Co., 1223 New York ave. Nat. 5509.

TYPEWRITER SALE—20% off, all makes reconditioned machines; rentals $3 per month. Capitol Typewriter Co., 1014 14th st. nw. Na. 4858.

WASHING MACHINE DEMONSTRATORS.
1 $59.50 Conlon, model 142, at.....$49.50
1 $54.50 Conlon, model 32 at.....$44.50
1 $99.95 Voss Washer, at.....$39.50
Same service as guaranteed on new machines. Terms, $2.50 down, $4 month.
BARBER & ROSS, INC.,
11th and G sts. nw.

WINDOW SHADES
Measured for, made and installed, 75c.
Kleeblatt, 11th & H Sts. N.E.

CHAIRS FOR RENT
At very reasonable charges. Ideal for bridge parties, banquets, meetings, etc. Quick service. Call Dist. 8112. D. Notes, 633 Indiana ave. nw.

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS 36

BOOKS wanted for cash; any quantity. Eco. Book Shop, 901 E. Met. 7847.

BOOKS BOUGHT in any quantity; bring them or phone Metropolitan 8415. Fearman's Biz Book Store, 933 G st. nw.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS —By John Hix

STRANGERS until a few years ago and not related in any way, Harry C. Kinne, of Wilmette, Ill., and Harry C. Kinne, of Watertown, N. Y., have so many things in common that a description of one and his family fits almost exactly the other and his family.

They were both elected to the city council of their respective cities on the Republican ticket, and both are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Both are in their fifties. They met a number of years ago through mutual acquaintances and, comparing notes, found that not only their lives, but those of their families were marked by strange parallels.

Each of the Mr. Kinnes has a brother C. E. Kinne, and each has a daughter Ruth and a son Harry C., jr. Both boys attend Colgate University and belong to the same fraternity.

Copey, the ale-drinking horse, must have his stout. He simply will not run without it. So every morning his trainers give him a bottle, and, they say, he seems to thrive on it. Just to show his appreciation, a few months ago he finished his morning lager, wiped off his muzzle, and went out and won the Great Northern Steeplechase at Ellerslie—the most important victory of his career, and one that would be important in any horse's career.

JOHN HIX IS ON THE SCREEN. A COLOR REEL OF HIS "STRANGE AS IT SEEMS" IS BEING SHOWN THIS WEEK AT RKO-KEITH'S THEATER.

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS 36

WE PAY CASH
for old gold, silver, watches and diamonds and old jewelry. Seliger's 818 F st.

DIAMOND—⅛ of karat; in trade on new Plymouth, or De Soto automobile. Mr. Torrey, Torrey Motor Co., 1623 L nw.

FURNITURE—We pay highest cash prices for household furniture of all kinds. Call Gilbert, Nat. 3866, eves. Col. 4897.

OLD GOLD, jewelry, teeth, watches, diamonds, coins, silver bought, sold, exchanged. Schiller's, 446 9th st., cor E nw.

PIANOS WANTED—Prefer Knabe or Steinway grands; must be cheap for cash. Box 129, Washington Post.

OLD GOLD, SILVER
WATCHES, DIAMONDS
And discarded jewelry wanted for our mts. dept. Full cash value paid.
SELINGER'S 818 F St. N.W.

ROOMS—FURNISHED 42

ARIZONA HOTEL—310 C st. nw., block of Pa. ave.; neatly furnished rooms; lobby; 3 baths on each floor; shower baths; continuous hot water; $4 week up; transients, 75c to $1.

BELMONT RD. NW., 1814 (nr. 18th and Col. rd.)—Large double fr. rm., clean; also single rm.; running water. Ad. 2918.

BENTON ST. NW., 3822—2 rooms, next bath and shower; 1st floor; private entry, family; 1 blk. to bus. Clev. 0377.

BEVERLY COURTS—1736 Columbia rd. nw. Apt. 406 Nicely furn. rm.; elevator service; private family; reas. Adams 9051.

CALVERT ST. NW., 1835—Apt. 55. Pleasant, well-heated front rm.; 2 windows; priv. family; reasonable. Col. 8614.

CALVERT ST. NW., 1902 (off 18th and Columbia rd)—2d-floor front; well furn., semiprivate bath; reasonable, gentlemen. Columbia 1214-J.

CENTRAL (1314 15th st. nw.)—Apt. 3. Sunny front room; double or single; $3.50 and $3 week; homelike.

CENTRAL, 1636 17th—Exceptionally beautiful, fr. rm., bath, radio, large closet; also suite; cont. h. w., phone, jan.; scrupulous; refs.

CHEVY CHASE, D. C.—Single 2d fl. front, good size, 4 windows, ½ block Conn. ave. 3724 Northampton st.

CHAPIN ST. NW., 1412—Lovely, bright, nicely furnished room; very convenience for housekeeping; G. E. refrigerator. Adams 6632-M.

CLIFTON ST. NW., 1468—Large front rm., well heated; cont. h. w.; convenient location; phone; gentlemen; reas.

COLORED—Large front room; use of kit., gas, elec. Co. 5615-J.

COLUMBIA RD NW., 1736—Apt. 102. Large, bright rm.; cultured home; for busi. women; privilege; $18. Col. 8099.

CONNECTICUT NW., 2633 (opposite Wardman Park)—2 rooms, bath, for 1 or 2 gentlemen; garage. Also large room, semiprivate bath. Col. 3437.

D ST. NE., 520—Two rooms and bath, electricity, gas steam heat; everything furnished; reasonable.

DOWNTOWN, 1305 R I. ave. nw.—Single and double front rooms; modern improvements; refined surroundings; reasonable rates

DOWNTOWN—903 13th st. nw. Clean, comfortable rooms; quiet house; single, $3; double, $5 per week.

EUCLID ST. NW., 1750 (nr. 18th & Col. rd.)—Attractive 2nd fl. rm., single or double, $5 wkly.

EUCLID ST. NW., 1435—Two large, 3d floor; adj. bath; private family; women preferred; reasonable terms.

FAIRMONT ST. NW., 1326. Large, bright room, newly furn.; convenient location; very reasonable. Ad. 2845.

G ST. NW., 2016—Single room; semiprivate bath; con. hot water; south exposure.

GARFIELD ST. NW., 2630—Nr. Wardman; single and double rooms; semiprivate bath; also 1 or 2 rooms l. h. k.

HOLMEAD PL. NW., 3549—Large fr. room in priv. home; also single; very reas. Ad. 8944.

IRVING ST. NW., 1642—Large, bright 2d-floor; near bath; c. h. w.; single or double; private home. Adams 8113.

K ST. NW., 32—One room, kitchenette, bath and porch; $8 per week; a. m. l.

KALORAMA RD., 1867—Colonial, corner rooms, semiprivate bath, and top-story student quarters; reasonable rates.

L ST. NW., 1515—Lovely, clean front rms.; southern exposure; near bath; $6-$6.50; l. h. k., $6.50-$7; single, $4 weekly.

L ST. NW., 1408—1, 2, 3 rooms, with bath, gas, elec., heat included; rent reasonable. Met. 0607.

L ST. NW., 1322—L. h. k. rms.; alcove, kitchenettes, $7 to $10 wk; sleeping, $5 to $6; all running water; single, $3.50.

L ST. NW., 1345—Cheerful, bright, l. h. k. rooms; all new furniture; newly decorated; $5.50 and $6; maid service.

LOGAN CIRCLE HOTEL—Rooms with bath; walking distance downtown; priced to break the depression; come and investigate.

M ST. NW., 1329 (Thomas Circle)—Large front room suitable 2 or 3 persons; $10 mo. each; single room, $12 mo.

MASS. AVE. NW., 1750—Nicely furnished rooms, running water; reasonable rates.

MICH. AVE. NE., 1336—Single and double rooms; private bath; $18 and $20 mo. Pot. 3758-W after 5 p. m.

MONTAGUE ST. NW., 1630 (nr. Rk. Ck. golf course)—Large rm., priv. bath, tel.; ref. exchanged. Ga. 6346.

N ST. NW., 1209—3d-floor front; 1 room and kitchenette; nicely furn.; running water; adults; references.

NEAR Wardman Pk. Hotel; beautiful rm.; for gentleman; all conv.; next bath. Col. 6746 or Natl. 4619.

NEWTON ST. NW., 1625—Large, warm, sunny ft. rm.; s. m. c.; owner's well-kept home; very convenient location; gentl.

NICELY furnished room in apt. with married couple; home conveniences; all privileges. Ad. 5607.

NORTH CAPITOL ST., 1925—Large double front, 2d fl., near bath; dinners optional; rates reas. Pot. 3615.

O ST. NW., 942—Large front room next to bath; 3 windows; near 2 car lines; very reas.

P ST. NW., 1747—Nice, clean single or double room; in physicians home; every convenience; reasonable.

P ST. NW., 1726—Near Dupont Circle. 2d-floor front rm.; suitable 1 or 2; also single room.

QUE ST. NW., 1733—Bright, comfortable room for 1 or 2; pleasant surroundings; board optional; very reas. No. 0359.

SHERMAN—Apt. 606, 15th and L sts. nw., to woman, Govt. employe; bright, clean room; running water; reasonable.

THE PORTNER—15th and U sts., Apt. 302. Large, well-furnished room. North 1421.

THE SHERMAN—18th and L nw. Comfortable room; next to bath; 1 or 2. Call 6 to 9 p. m., Apt. 203.

THOMAS CIRCLE — Gentlemen; steam heat, semiprivate bath; quiet surroundings; rent, $17 month. Met. 3566.

WESTMINSTER—1607 17th st. nw. These room values are unequaled; newly furnished; well heated; each with private bath or running water; and showers; elevator; single, $6; double, $7, $8 week.

THE ALTURAS—1509 16th st. nw. Newly furn. rooms; modern 7-story fireproof bldg.; 24-hr. elev. serv.; owner management; exceptional values; single, $4-$7 week; double, $6-$8.50 week; $1-$1.50 2d st. nw. 420—One and 2 rooms, with kitchenette; running water; light housekeeping privileges; reasonable.

4TH ST. NW., 411—Two lovely front rooms, overlooking park; continuous hot water; owner's home. Phone Met. 5330.

4TH ST. NE., 2628—Attractive room in private home, next bath; des. location; $18 month, including garage and phone.

8TH ST. NE., 610—Two 2d-fl. rms., completely furn.; $4 adjoining bath; elec., gas furn; $8.50 per wk. Ut. 1919.

10TH ST. NE., 612—First floor attractive, neatly furnished room for gentleman; next to bath; quiet home; $15.00.

12TH ST. NW., 1242—Large front room, $4 week; small fr., $3; small back, $2.50.

13TH ST. NW., 1319—Front room with alcove; quiet, well-kept home; also small room; gentlemen; reas.

1334 HARVARD (Apt. 1)—Attractive room, 2 single, $20 couple. Excellent location.

13TH ST. NW., 1225—Two warm sunny housekeeping rooms, 2d floor; large closets; adjoining bath; downtown.

13TH ST. NW., 2821—Large 2d-floor front room; $5 per week; single room; next to bath, $3; l. h. k. Col. 0136-W.

1409 16TH NW.—Attractive 2d-floor room, adj. bath, shower; excellent food and service; single room; reduced rates.

15TH ST. NW., 1404—Large room, twin beds, $5 week up; single, $3 up; l. h. k. rooms. Also furnished house, 3 rooms, $7 week.

17TH PLACE NE., 312—Front room with bath; new home; 2 gentlemen or employed couple; child's care during day.

17TH NW., 1022—Room with or without kitchenette, $3 to $7; basement apt. 2120 G nw.—Rms. with and without kitchenette, $4 to $7.

1765 QUE ST. NW.—One large room and kitchen; next to bath; use of phone; light and gas; only $7.50 wk. a. m. l.

18TH ST. NW., 2337—Delightfully large, sunny, 2d floor front room and alcove; 4 windows; clean, quiet, convenient; grill privileges; garage available. Ad. 5283.

2138T ST. NW., 537 — Large front room, 2d floor; single; walking distance to Govt. depts.; gentlemen.

22D ST. NE., 3718—Nice clean room; for 1 or 2 persons; private home. North 2022-M.

318T NW., 1528—Large front rm., 1st floor, near bath; convenient transportation; private family; price reasonable.

MERRILL MANSIONS,
1361 Fairmont nw. Beautiful selection of newly decorated rooms, $7 and $8 week; also apts.; private bath; $10 to $15 week.

VALOIS APARTMENT,
1330 Mass. Ave., Apt. 2.
Nicely furn. rm., kitchenette; also room.

SCOTT INN,
1331-37 K st. nw. (adjoining Hamilton Hotel, facing Franklin Park; 1st and 2d floor front rooms; running water; meals optional; reasonable.

NEW INN, 608 9TH
New management; renovated; redecorated; 25%-33 1-3%

The Washington Post. JANUARY 23, 1933.

THE ONCE OVER

By H. I. PHILLIPS

A CASE FOR THE R. F. C.

THE annual story of Babe Ruth's salary cut is out and approximately on time, but this year it didn't quite crowd the Japanese-Chinese war, Huey Long or the congressional Sleeping Marathon off the front pages.

• • • •

This time according to the story, Babe Ruth has been asked to take a $25,000 salary cut. That's no cut; it's a trip through the revolving blades.

• • • •

If Ruth took a $25,000 cut he would be working six months in the open air for a mere $50,000. At that price he could never swing a bat without thinking about the depths of the depression and wondering if things would ever pick up.

• • • •

At $50,000 a year the Babe might even have to appeal to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for a loan of a few hundred thousand to keep him from collapsing in the middle of a baseball park.

• • • •

And why not? If the R. F. C., is willing to advance money to keep the railroads and banks from the rocks it certainly should be willing to save our Home Run King from receivership.

• • • •

Babe Ruth seemed very depressed about it when interviewed by this department today. "My salary has been cut so often," said the Great Man, "that I have to use adhesive tape to protect my pay envelope from infection.

• • • •

"Even at $75,000, my 1932 salary, I was practically working for nothing. And now they talk of getting me for fifty grand! Why, I'd be getting only $5,000 more than Judge Landis. Rather than consent to that I would swap jobs with the judge and let him bat for the Yankees while I let my hair grow and iron out knotty questions for the league.

• • • •

"The depression hit me much harder than people believe. I used to get $50,000 a year for just indorsing socks and underwear. I could get almost that much money for making a couple of phonograph records or letting some company name a lollipop after me."

• • • •

"Is there any way you could possibly carry on at $50,000 a year?" the Babe was asked by our financial department.

"Not without a new financing plan," declared the Bambino, implying that he might have to issue bonds to weather the storm.

• • • •

"I am taking it up with the banks now," he concluded. "My idea is to borrow enough money to tide me through the crisis and issue some Babe Ruth Convertible Sixes of 1956, or sumpin'."

NEEDS CURBING OR SOMETHING.

Gene Sarazen has picked an All-American golf team. It is to be hoped that Congress will act before this idea goes any farther.

SO-O-O-O-!

"BRIDES! Learn to cook delicious meals from Southern lady in her home kitchen. Butterfield 8-5699."—New York Herald Tribune.

Well, it's certainly one swell idea!

If there are no election frauds in New York—that's news!

(Copyright, 1933.)

Pedestrian Killed When Hit by Car

Victim Believed to Have Been Unemployed; 2 Autoists Released.

Emil G. Sestenburg, 49, of 605 Harvard street, was instantly killed Saturday night when struck by an automobile while walking along a road about 10 miles south of Fredericksburg, Va.

James C. Fields, of Baltimore, said by police to have been driving the car, and C. E. Sinclair, of New York, passenger, were released from custody of Virginia police pending an inquest at Spottsylvania Courthouse tomorrow.

Little could be learned here concerning Sestenburg. His landlady, Mrs. A. Kershenbaum, said he had lived in her rooming house about two months. He was believed to have been unemployed. An address of a New York woman, believed to be his sister, was found with other articles of identification.

Vital Statistics

BIRTHS REPORTED.

George M. and Elizabeth Longley, girl.
Clarence P. and Elma F. Chenault, boy.
Charles E. and Grace E. Higgs, girl.
Norman L. and Margaret E. French, girl.
Joseph A. and Mabel C. Gerardi, girl twins.
Harold M. and Marie Horsman, boy.
William T. and Constance E. Thorne, boy.
Andrew O. and Frances E. Sullivan, boy.
Henry G. and Elsa Bartsch, boy.
Park F. and Elma Anderson, boy.
Arnold L. and Ruth M. Birkett, boy.
Norman E. and Marjorie Ross, boy.
Willie and Willie Grier, girl.
George A. and Margaret A. Dodson, boy.
Patrick H. and Charlotte K. Clark, boy.
George and Mae Jeffries, girl.
Sidney J. and Bennie G. Swann, girl.
Phillip and Mabel Mayo, girl.
John and Adele Bell, girl.
Benjamin H. and Ruth Johnson, girl.
James and Janie Reed, girl.
Steve and Mabel James, boy.
Charles L. and Virginia Bailey, boy.
Charles and Mary Felton, boy.
John and Norma Jones, boy.
Thomas and Stella Carroll, girl.
Robert and Helen Johnson, girl.
Charles H and Mable Wilson, girl.
James E. and Hattie Dyson, boy.

DEATHS REPORTED.

Mary G. Chick, 80 yrs., 3020 Q st. nw.
Elizabeth E. Brown, 79 yrs., 1856 Mintwood pl. nw.
Hattie E. Mable, 74 yrs., 834 Delafield pl. nw.
Charles A. Padgett, 72 yrs., 1320 B st. se.
Elisabeth M. Somers, 63 yrs., 1232 Randolph st. ne.
Hugh R. Roberts, 58 yrs., 2107 S st. nw.
Charlotte M. Brown, 55 yrs., 1717 D st. se.
Mary Denster, 50 yrs., en route Gallinger Hosp.
Bessie L. Hunter, 50 yrs., 317 Kentucky ave. se.
Einar W. Ecklund, 50 yrs., Providence Hosp.
Robert A. Cushman, 42 yrs., 5428 Hawthorne pl. nw.
Edwin T. Veness, 36 yrs., Walter Reed Hosp.
Sarah Makle, 63 yrs., 1333 Q st. nw.
Alexander Marshall, 55 yrs., Casualty Hosp.
Ross Lane, 55 yrs., Gallinger Hosp.
Howard Keating, 54 yrs., Freedmen's Hosp.
Henry Moye, 49 yrs., Gallinger Hosp.
Harry Vass, 29 yrs., Gallinger Hosp.
Gladys Brannum, 22 yrs., Gallinger Hosp.
Fred Tompkins, 10 months, Gallinger Hosp.

9 PERSONS HURT, 2 ARRESTED AFTER AUTO-CRASH SERIES

Child, 10, and Girl, 17, Are Among Those Injured in Motor Mishaps.

A series of week-end automobile accidents brought injuries to nine persons and resulted last night in the arrest of two men in connection with an alleged hit-and-run collision near Arlington National Cemetery.

Among the more seriously hurt was Miss Carrie Wood, 17, of 640 Eleventh street northwest. In company with Frank J. Venutto, of 486 E street southwest, she was riding on the Columbia Pike near Arlington Cemetery, when their machine was in collision with another car. Both automobiles overturned. Occupants of the other car, after crawling from the wreckage, disappeared.

Miss Wood and her companion were taken to Emergency Hospital by the Jefferson District Fire Rescue Squad. In addition to severe lacerations to her head, the girl was forced to lose a portion of her left foot, which physicians amputated. Her condition was discribed as critical.

Held for $2,500 Bond.

Venutto escaped with minor lacerations and bruises. A short time following the accident, Arlington County, Va., police arrested Print E. Shomette, of 908 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, whom they said owned the car abandoned after the collision. He was held in the Arlington County Jail under a bond of $2,500.

Washington police, acting on a fugitive warrant from Arlington County, later arrested George Williams, of 5714 Thirteenth street northwest, in connection with the case. He was held under bond of $500.

Luther Ward, 54, of 3601 Canal road northwest, was also seriously injured in an accident on Conduit road near the District line. His machine, driven by John F. Delinski, 19, of 3607 M street northwest, was in collision with the car of Paul M. McMurray, of 2661 Adams Mill road northwest.

Ward in Hospital.

Ward was taken to Georgetown Hospital. His scalp was badly torn and flying glass inflicted cuts about his face and body. No arrests were made.

Two women suffered slight injuries when struck and knocked down by a street car at Second and Florida avenue northwest. Witnesses said the women, Elijah Jackson, 29, and Lottie Stewart, 32, both colored, of 1157 Twenty-first street northwest, were crowded against the street car by a passing automobile. They were treated by a private physician for cuts and bruises. G. N. Violett, 34, motorman of the car, said he failed to see the women.

Joseph F. Woodward, 30, colored, of Landover, Md., suffered minor hurts when his car was in collision with an ambulance from Walter Reed Hospital. The accident occurred at Thirteenth and Buchanan streets northwest. Private Peter J. Kurapska, 24, driver of the ambulance, escaped injury.

Child Knocked Down.

An automobile operated by Capt. T. W. Legron, of Fort Myers, Va., knocked down Doris Chamber, 10 years old, of 3012 R street northwest, while on Q street near Thirtieth street northwest. The child was taken to Georgetown Hospital. She is under treatment for lacerations of the scalp and legs.

Patrolman Louis M. Francis, 32 years old, attached to the Tenth Precinct, was slightly injured when struck by an automobile at Sixteenth and Euclid streets northwest. He was treated by a physician for body bruises and was sent to his home.

The automobile was operated by Robert Henderson, of 1729 T street northwest.

Arthur Johnson, 56 years old, colored, of 1030 South Capitol street, suffered a fractured leg when struck by an automobile operated by Irving V. Johnson, colored, 444 N street northwest, while on Third near L street southwest.

Woman Poison Victim Is Gallinger Patient

A quantity of poison she is alleged to have taken while at her home, 1517 L street northwest, last night sent Elizabeth Goff, 36, to Gallinger Hospital in an undetermined condition.

Miss Goff was first taken to Emergency Hospital for first aid. No reason was given for her act, police said.

Man Hurt in Stairs Fall.

John Chega, 47, suffered a sprained right wrist and lacerations of the head when he fell last night on the stairs of his home, 101 Four-and-a-half street southwest.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT

TODAY'S SUN AND TIDE TABLE.

	A.M.	P.M.
Sun rises.. 7:22	High tide.. 5:23	6:01
Sun sets... 5:19	Low tide...12:00	12:05

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Washington, Sunday, Jan. 22—8 p. m.

Forecast for the District of Columbia—Fair with mild temperature Monday, colder Monday night; Tuesday fair; moderate to fresh west and northwest winds, diminishing by Monday night.

For Maryland and Virginia—Generally fair with mild temperature Monday, colder Monday night; Tuesday fair.

The disturbance that was over the Plains States Saturday night has moved east-northeastward over the upper Mississippi Valley and the Lake region with a further increase in intensity. Alpena, Mich., 29.02 inches. It was attended by rain, almost generally, over the eastern half of the United States, except in portions of the South Atlantic States. Another disturbance is moving southeastward over British Columbia and the Pacific States. Tatoosh Island, Wash., 29.34 inches, and it has caused rain in Pacific States and light local snows in the Plateau region. Still another disturbance is moving southeastward over Alaska, Kodiak, 29.14 inches. Pressure is relatively high over New Mexico and southern Arizona, Santa Fe, N. Mex., 30.06 inches, and over Nova Scotia, Sydney, 30.08 inches, and from Florida eastward over the ocean, St. Georges, Bermuda, 30.10 inches. The temperature has risen in the Lake region, the upper Ohio Valley and the Middle Atlantic and North Atlantic States and it has fallen in the Mississippi and lower Missouri Valleys, the Plains States, Wyoming and the west Gulf States, but the weather is still unseasonably mild from the Plains States eastward to the Atlantic coast.

Local Weather Report.

Temperature—Midnight, 45; 2 a. m., 45; 4 a. m., 45; 6 a. m., 43; 8 a. m., 44; 10 a. m., 45; 12 noon, 47; 2 p. m., 51; 4 p. m., 55; 6 p. m., 61; 8 p. m., 64; 10 p. m., 61. Highest, 65; lowest, 43. Relative humidity—8 a. m., 95; 2 p. m., 98; 8 p. m., 75. Rainfall (8 p. m. to 8 p. m.), 0.08 inch. Hours of sunshine, none.

DEPARTURES FROM NORMAL.
Accumulated excess of temperature since January 1, 1933, 203 degrees.
Accumulated deficiency of precipitation since January 1, 1933, 1.36 inches.

Temperatures and Precipitation.

Temperatures and precipitation for 24 hours ended Sunday, 8 p. m.

	Highest Sun. night	Lowest Sat. 8 p. m.	Sun. Rain-fall.
Washington, D. C.	65	43	64
Asheville, N. C.	66	58	60	0.01
Atlanta, Ga.	66	60	64	0.01
Atlantic City, N. J.	50	44	50	0.06
Baltimore, Md.	52	44	50	....
Birmingham, Ala.	64	64	60	0.06
Bismarck, N. Dak.	28	0	22	....
Boston, Mass.	44	36	44	0.44
Buffalo, N. Y.	60	40	44	0.66
Chicago, Ill.	52	44	44	0.06
Cincinnati, Ohio	70	58	60	0.42
Cheyenne, Wyo.	34	26	24	....
Cleveland, Ohio	68	50	58	0.54
Davenport, Iowa	52	46	40	0.08
Denver, Colo.	46	30	38	....
Des Moines, Iowa	46	40	40	....
Detroit, Mich.	58	42	48	0.36
Duluth, Minn.	34	26	28	....
El Paso, Tex.	54	32	50	....
Galveston, Tex.	72	60	66	0.12
Helena, Mont.	34	14	30	....
Indianapolis, Ind.	64	54	54	0.71
Jacksonville, Fla.	78	60	72	....
Kansas City, Mo.	54	48	52	....
Little Rock, Ark.	64	56	60	....
Los Angeles, Calif.	66	46	52	0.14
Louisville, Ky.	68	60	60	....
Marquette, Mich.	32	26	32	0.90
Memphis, Tenn.	66	62	62	....
Miami, Fla.	78	72	72	....
Mobile, Ala.	72	60	64	0.02
New Orleans, La.	74	62	70	0.02
New York, N. Y.	52	42	48	0.10
North Platte, Nebr.	28	10	22	....
Omaha, Nebr.	48	38	44	....
Philadelphia, Pa.	54	44	54	0.02
Phoenix, Ariz.	58	32	54	....
Pittsburgh, Pa.	68	54	64	0.04
Portland, Me.	40	24	40	0.64
Portland, Oreg.	42	38	42	0.02
Salt Lake City, Utah.	36	30	32	....
St. Louis, Mo.	60	56	54	....
St. Paul, Minn.	36	30	32	0.02
San Antonio, Tex.	76	58	72	....
San Diego, Calif.	54	42	52	0.01
San Francisco, Calif.	50	40	48	....
Santa Fe, N. Mex.	32	10	26	....
Savannah, Ga.	76	60	68	....
Seattle, Wash.	42	36	40	0.14
Springfield, Ill.	56	54	50	....
Tampa, Fla.	78	62	70	....
Toledo, Ohio	66	48	52	0.01
Vicksburg, Miss.	70	62	66	0.22

S.R.O. Sign May Soon Be Necessary With Crowds Packing Congress Library

Post Staff Photo.

Though the seating capacity of the main reading room at the Library of Congress has been doubled, they're still packing 'em in. Readers, mostly of the "serious" type, officials say, are shown standing up to delve into the wealth of lore at the library.

CRITICISM OF GREAT IS LAID TO EGOTISM

Dominican Preacher Asserts Muckrakers Also Want to Become Famous.

The "muckraking and smart aleck revelations" of the prominent by columnists and the general eagerness in Washington to hear and repeat gossip, is due to the fact that most people want to be better known themselves, declared the Very Rev. Ignatius Smith, O. P., noted Dominican preacher in the fourth of his series of nine sermons on "Christ and the Delusions of 1933," on the Washington Catholic Radio Hour.

The sermon was broadcast from the Church of the Immaculate Conception. The Rev. Francis J. Hurney presided. The services included the blessing of the sick and the solemn Lourdes procession at the grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes.

The music, under the direction of Harry Wheaton Howard, included Florence Yocum, soprano; Ann Arlen, violinist, and the boys' sanctuary choir.

Father Smith said in part:

"The muckraking and the smart-aleck revelations of personal foibles of the prominent columnists, and general eagerness here in Washington to hear and repeat gossip that will besmirch the reputations of prominent people in church and state, are not all of these tendencies indicative of the fact that most people want no one better known than themselves, that they believe in an equality of fame, that the mighty must be whittled down to the proportions of the respectable but unknown oyester-shucker on the wharf? I concede that there is idiocy that confers more honors on a champion pugilist, than on the heroic mother of a large family, but that error must be adjusted by placing our people in closer contact with the standards by which God judges heroes."

"Complete equality can never be acheived because the institutions of government cannot be abolished if nations hope to remain peaceful and progressive. The immortal sentence of our Constitution, which pronounces that 'all men are born equal' is not even true from the point of view of government and the erroneous interpretation of this principle has been at the heart of much of the protest against authority with which we have been annoyed."

Legion Increases Relief Aid.

The number of families taken care of by the welfare and relief department of the American Legion, an associate organization of the Community Chest, has increased 16 per cent during current months over the same period of last year, the annual report of the organization completed yesterday stated. The agency expended $47,901.67 for relief work last year.

Overflow on Saturdays and Sundays Is Greater Than Seating.

The "Standing Room Only" sign may soon have to be resorted to by Library of Congress officials on these long winter Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Ever a mecca for students, research workers and the generally bookminded, the main reading room of library during the last 18 months has become a quiet beehive of readers on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Normally able comfortably to seat 250 readers at as many desks, the seating capacity has been almost doubled recently by the addition of a chair at each desk.

But still the overflow on these two days exceeds the seating capacity and it is the usual thing to see men and women poring over volumes from a standing position.

A probability is looming that some of the many index file cases lining the lofty and circular room may have to be moved to make space for the holiday and Sabbath readers.

Puzzled by Increase.

As they go about their plans for caring for the readers who come to the Library of Congress, officials are at a loss to explain the pick-up in "business."

Of course, it was pointed out, at the present many of the students of the numerous, college, universities and other schools in the District and environs are using the library, particularly with the approach of the midyear examinations. However, this portion of the library's users has always been counted on, and is not believed to be the factor in the increased "patronage."

Visiting the library, a Post reporter talked with Herbert Putnam, librarian, whose life is bound up with the great storehouse of knowledge; with Frederick William Ashley, chief assistant librarian, another whose life scheme is entwined in the library, and with Martin Arnold Roberts, superintendent of the reading room, whose agile mind must deal with a thousand and one details attendant to the millions of volumes and those who want to read them.

Largest in World.

From Mr. Ashley one learns through figures and facts that the Library of Congress is the world's largest treasury of books, manuscripts and other data apropos of the arts in general.

While the world's largest library is listed in the World Almanac as the Soviet Library at Leingrad, the manner of so classing it proves that the American institution is by far the largest.

In the Leningrad book treasury are 4,832,948 books, 331,100 pamphlets, says the World Almanac. This is also borne out by Minerva, a German handbook of international librarial data.

The Congressional Library houses about 4,500,000 volumes at present, but—numbering pamphlets, manuscripts, musical scores, maps, plans and engravings, as is done in counting the Leningrad collection—it has a count of 7,350,982 books, thus making it by far the largest library in the world.

Mr. Ashley pointed out that while the Library of Congress is certainly the largest library in the world, the rarity of its inconabula does not compare with the collections at the British Museum and the Bibliothique Nationale in Paris.

Five-Story Addition.

A five-story addition is in process of construction and it is hoped that this will help greatly in housing the overflowing book treasuries. Statistics show that the collection is increasing at the astonishing rate of 1,000,000 books every six years.

During last year 1,037,388 visitors came to the Library of Congress and 820 investigators from all parts of the world and the Nation were accorded special facilities.

No library in the world is believed to provide the accomodations given by the national library to researchers and writers. High praise has been voiced by the 820 investigators who last year used the library. These workers came from every State in the union, from 23 foreign countries, from 60 learned institutions and societies, from 37 Federal governmental units and from 131 universities and colleges.

Praised by Adams.

James Truslow Adams did much of his preparatory work on "The Epic of America" at the library and in the epilogue of this book and in other volumes by him he lauds the aid he received.

"Anyone who has used the great collections of Europe, with their restrictions and red tape," says Adams in the epilogue of his Epic of America, "praises God for American democracy when he enters the stacks of the Library of Congress."

At one time or another, officials estimate, practically every figure in the literary history of modern times has used the library. Many voice their gratitude in prefaces to their works.

VALUE OF EXAMPLE URGED IN SERMON

Youth's Future Is Doubtful, Says Rev. J. H. Taylor, Unless Elders Point Way.

"We who are grown up have little to worry about insofar as our destinies are concerned, but no Christian can look about and not realize the duty we owe to our children and the youth of the world. It is our duty to set the example and unless we avail ourselves of this opportunity, the future of the younger generation is doubtful," the Rev. James H. Taylor, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, told a capacity-filled church in his sermon yesterday.

"Our times call for positive and constructive action," he said. "We make the mistake today of doing an immense amount of theorizing and thinking too much in terms that are economic, personal and commercial or political instead of thinking in terms that are moral and spiritual. Certainly not in the lifetime of any of us has there been such a momentous challenge to the church. The opportunity that comes to us today is to assist in a revival and a reaffirmation of religion to the individual and to the Nation.

"Many who profess to be Christians are guilty of doing little things which we have no right to do merely saying, 'There is nothing really wrong in this.' But we must realize that our example counts far more than we imagine.

"Constantly in His teachings Jesus insisted that the things that He taught should not only be accepted by his hearers, but that they should be done. It is not enough for us to know these things. If we know the things that are of value and power and profitable to the welfare of mankind and withhold them, we are unfaithful to our spiritual trust."

Radio Orator to Speak Before Manresa League

Announcements were made in all local Catholic churches yesterday that the Very Rev. Ignatius Smith, noted pulpit and radio orator, will be principal speaker at the winter meeting of the Manresa League of Laymen's Retreats on Thursday at the Mayflower Hotel.

The Rev. Eugene McDonnell, rector of the Manresa House of Retreats, and the Rev. Ferdinand Schoberg, assistant director of the men's retreat movement in this archdiocese, also will deliver addresses.

Music Clubs to Meet For Midwinter Session

The midwinter business meeting of the District of Columbia Federation of Music Clubs will be held tonight at Sears-Roebuck Art Galleries, 1100 Connecticut avenue, at 8 o'clock. Representatives of the senior and junior clubs and choirs are eligible to attend the meeting.

Among participants on the program will be Dorothy Hobley, pianist; Francisca Kasper Lawson, soprano; members of the Repertoire Club, the Zalipsky Club, and dancers from the Bekefi Institute of Dance and Music.

WOMAN WAR CLERK, ILL, IS FOUND DEAD WITH PISTOL IN HAND

Mrs. Beulah Weeks Leaves Note Indicating She Took Own Life.

Sitting upright in a chair, a .38-caliber revolver clutched in her hand, Mrs. Beulah Weeks, 38 years old, a clerk in the War Department, was found dead—shot through the head—last night in her apartment at The Pentilly, 1812 K street northwest.

The woman had apparently been dead for several hours. She was last seen alive about 9 a. m. yesterday by a friend, Miss Mary Dean, of 1800 K street northwest.

Ill Several Weeks.

Mrs. Weeks had been ill for several days and her meals were brought to the apartment by Miss Dean. After bringing her breakfast yesterday, Miss Dean asked her friend to have supper with her about 6 o'clock. Indicating that she was feeling much better, Mrs. Weeks accepted.

When she failed to make an appearance by 7 o'clock, Miss Dean telephoned the apartment. Constant ringing of the telephone, with no response, led to discovery of Mrs. Weeks' body.

Note Found on Table.

A note, found on a table, indicated the woman had taken her own life. She has no relatives in Washington, but police learned her mother lives in an Eastern State.

Friends said she had been brooding over the death of her husband several months ago.

A physician from Emergency Hospital said Mrs. Weeks had been dead for some time. Residents on an upper floor of the apartment told of hearing a shot shortly after noon yesterday.

Poison He Swallowed Is Fatal to Credit Man

William Powell, 46, credit manager for an exclusive women's clothing concern in New York City, who swallowed a quantity of poison last Tuesday, died last night at Emergency Hospital, where he was taken for treatment. The coroner last night withheld a certificate pending investigation by the homicide squad.

A native of Washington and a graduate of Georgetown University Law School, Mr. Powell, who lived at Grand Concourse, N. Y., came here with his wife, Mrs. Virginia Powell, to visit his mother and sister at Lyon Village, Va. He was said to have been in ill health.

Surviving him are his mother and sister, Mrs. M. G. Blue, of 131 North Virginia avenue, Lyon Village and another sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Lear, of Indianapolis, Ind.

National Benefit Receivership Hit

Martin Indicates He Will Ask Court Review of Proceedings.

Alexander H. Martin, colored attorney, of Cleveland, and a member of the national committee of redemption of Negro financial institutions appointed by the grand lodge of colored Elks, spoke yesterday to audiences in the Metropolitan Baptist Church and the Metropolitan African Methodist Episcopal Church, indicating reasons why policyholders of the National Benefit Life Insurance Co., now in hands of receivers, should unite in seeking to have the receivership discharged.

He indicated that he will ask the District Supreme Court today to review all orders and proceedings based on the decree of the court last February appointing receivers, and to "regularize the holding and handling of company assets and insurance funds so that they may be properly disposed of and directed into lawful channels of administration."

His action in bringing a class suit for policyholders of the company was indorsed Saturday by the grand lodge committee, which is confining its own activities to obtaining powers of attorney from policyholders of the company with mutualization in view.

Anglo-Catholic Club Holds Service Tonight

The Anglo-Catholic Club of the Diocese of Washington will hold a service of procession, even-song and sermon at 8 o'clock tonight at St. Thomas' Church.

The Rev. Robert Shores, president of the club, will deliver the sermon. The service will be sung by the Rev. George W. Atkinson, rector of St. James' Church, assisted by the choir and organist of St. Thomas' Church.

Mothers Treat Veterans.

Residents of the Veterans Home, at 2626 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, were treated to a dinner by the Overseas War Mothers yesterday. Approximately 90 persons listened to a musicale.

Citizens to Present Appeal Today to Keep Taft Cupola

Associations Will Oppose Abolition of Building Feature Which Representative Cannon Has Called "Doodad;" Individual Protests Planned.

Armed with petitions and arguments, citizens representing various associations will appear before the House District subcommittee this morning in an effort to seek retention of the cupola in the plans for the Taft Junior High School, now under construction.

The cupola committee of the Burroughs Citizens Association, leaders in the fight, met last night and mapped out final plans for their argument. The Burroughs committee, headed by Raymond L. Gilbert, will insist that the District Commissioners are bound by law to keep the cupola in the plans, as they agreed to do last year. The Burroughs Association also will argue that the appropriation for the building including the cupola has already been made and should not be interfered with.

The executive committee of the Rhode Island Avenue Citizens Association met last night and decided to appear at the hearing as a separate unit. E. J. Sievers, president of the association, made it clear that the association is not uniting with any other group, but is vitally interested in the school being built as originally planned.

Representative Clarence Cannon, of Missouri, chairman of the District Appropriations subcommittee, has characterized the cupola as a "doodad."

TRAFFIC TOLL TO DATE.

A great many accidents are caused by drivers who try to "beat" the traffic lights.

These lights were installed for the purpose of controlling traffic in a uniform manner. Not only that but they are for your protection and convenience.

The driver who tries to beat the lights and runs past red signals is not only endangering his own life, but the lives of others as well. This type of driver should be put in the same class as the reckless driver, in the criminal class.

The accident figures are:

	1932	1933
Deaths	8	2
Injuries	218	177
Accidents	409	341

"Be Careful!"

UNHAPPINESS BASIS TERMED MATERIAL

Repentance, Adoption of Faith and Obedience Listed for Young Men.

"The foundation of our wretchedness today is not primarily material, but spiritual," declared the Rev. John C. Copenhaver, preaching yesterday morning at the Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church South.

"The Man Who Had Most Everything and Yet Was Dissatisfied" was the topic of the sermon. The speaker took his text from the sixteenth verse of the nineteenth chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, "And behold, one came and said unto Him, good Master, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?" Mr. Copenhaver said, in part:

"He was young, rich, morally proper, influential as an official in his church. He was a social and civic asset. But he was conscious of a great lack in his life to make him happy. He wants a rich and fuller life, and he wants it to last forever. He is a duplicate of many worthy people of today. He is modern.

Method to Fulfill Desire.

"So he comes to Jesus seeking what he needed. He has a general method for achieving his desire; he must do something. He is traveling the weary road of heathenism and semiheathen Christianity in doing instead of being. He will get what he realizes can come only from God, not as a gift from Him, but will place God under obligation to him by gifts of money or deeds or self-discipline.

"What do I lack?" he asked. "He was thoroughly satisfied with himself. He was complacent about his moral life and attitude toward God and man. Jesus held up the moral law so that he might measure himself. And like all the rest of us when we look into the mirror he could not see himself as he was and Jesus with tern kindness has to point out to him the fatal sin that was destroying his happiness."

Mr. Copenhaver outlined three things that the young man had to do. The first, he said, was repentance, turning from the faith that separated him from God. It was necessary that he adopt the faith, coming to Jesus in loving dependence upon Him, and thirdly, he must be obedient, taking up the cross as the condemned man did who bore the instrument upon which he must die. The old self must die, then comes fellowship with the king of life and the gift of life satisfying and eternal.

Unhappy and Needy World.

"The surgeon says to the patient: 'It is the hospital and the knife or the only end is speedy death.' Then comes the hasty preparation and dread operation, convalescence and life.

"The rich young ruler pictures the case of the unhappy and needy world today. The world is saying in desperation, 'What good thing shall I do to bring about prosperity and general contentment?'

"And the same Jesus that entreated the young ruler is entreating us: 'Forsake your materialism, your greed, covetousness and selfishness and come, surrender your life to Me and follow Me in loving trust and obedience, and then living under the spell of My spirit you will love justice, mercy, generosity and kindness and you will live a life that is worthy of being eternal.'"

Taxi Driver Jailed Following Shooting

Tells Police His Passengers Were Fired At on Road in Maryland.

A Washington taxi driver was arrested by police of the Eleventh Precinct last night after he appeared to report that his cab, with two unidentified men as passengers, was shot at on Walker Mill road near Capitol Heights, Md. The driver, Ford Stewart, of 1225 Fifth street northeast, was turned over to Policeman Oscar Beall, of Prince Georges County, Md. He was released under a bond of $500 as a witness.

Stewart told police that two men hired him in the downtown section and asked to be driven to the home of Jack Blackwell, brother of Earl Blackwell, Prince Georges County constable. After waiting, he said, the men jumped into his cab and told him to "beat it." As he started to move, Stewart declared, a volley of shots were fired by someone standing in the roadway.

Blackwell told authorities that the men assaulted him and robbed him of his watch and about $50 in cash. When they fled in the cab, Blackwell said, he fired several shots.

FIRE RECORD.

2:36 a. m.—2320 Fourteenth street northwest; chair.
10:10 a. m.—36 G street northwest; house.
10:30 a. m.—1510 Twenty-eighth street northwest; chimney.
4:42 p. m.—1000 U street northwest; awning.
4:42 p. m.—1131 Eleventh street northwest; electric refrigerator.
5:02 p. m.—Lovejoy School, Twelfth and D street northeast; short circuit.
5:24 p. m.—Forty-ninth and Eades streets northeast; brush.
6:41 p. m.—3441 Fourteenth street northwest; automobile.
6:44 p. m.—Rittenhouse street and Blair road northwest; automobile.

ANCIENT MISSIONS IDEAS ARE RAPPED BY DR. M'CARTNEY

Covenant Speaker Points to Report Making Attack on Sectarianism.

"The old idea that actuated the Apostles, that gave Paul a passion to preach wherever the name of Jesus had not been heard, that sent forth Livingston and Morrison and Judson and Carey and Moffet to make known the glad tidings of salvation through Jesus Christ, is not enough to justify the missionary enterprises today," stated Dr. Albert Joseph McCartney, speaking yesterday at the Church of the Covenant.

"The magic of salvation from sin in Jesus Christ will no longer work in a modern world," he said. Dr. McCartney spoke on "Rethinking Missions."

Dr. McCartney referred to a report of a group of clergymen on the mission question. He listed their criticisms, saying that, "Their fundamental criticism would seem to be the failure of missions to express love.

Declared Hampered.

"A second general criticism seems to be this, that in holding on to the lesser loyalties of the enterprise, such as concern for the individual church, traditional convictions and ingrown and inherited prejudicies, the natural impediments that belong to an era of conquest, they are hampered in this new era of cooperative service to a rapidly changing world.

"Third, sectarianism, bag and baggage, must be thrown out of the window. The report bristles with its impatience at the least sign of sectarianism on the mission field.

No Ground for Plea.

"On the basis of these and other criticisms they come to this amazing and arresting conclusion: 'That there is in this fact, however, no ground for renewed appeal for the support, much less for the enlargement of these missions as a whole in their present form and on their present basis.'

"To some of our members the enduring motive of Christian missions can only be adequately expressed as loyalty to Jesus Christ regarded as the perfect revelation of God and the only way by which men can reach a satisfying experience of Him. To others this motive would best be called the spirit of altruistic service, the desire to share with all mankind the benefits and the ideals of a Christian community. To still others it would best be named the desire for a deeper knowledge and love of God, seeking with men everywhere a more adequate fulfillment of the divine possibilities of personal and social life.

Tremendous Challenge.

"And yet for all the incapacity of the makers of this report to understand and appreciate the gospel of redemption from sin through Jesus Christ, the Son of God, its impact upon us should be a tremendous challenge, cyclonic in its sweep, devastating in its influence, searching and searing in its reaction upon our minds and consciences.

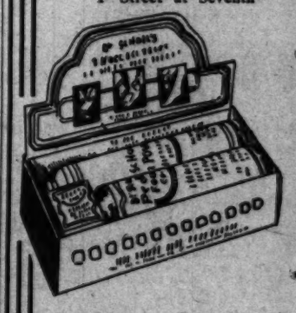
"Nor need we wait on the counsels of perfection before we dare to proclaim Christ to the world. The kingdom of heaven is like the sower who went forth to sow. Some seeds fell upon stony ground, some among thorns, some upon the hard trodden wayside. Most of it was wasted. But some fell upon good ground and they sprang up in abundant harvest. Let us go on sowing the good seed. If we do our work well we can let the angels count the sheaves."

Crowds Dare Rainfall To Inspect Post Home

Rain and threat as of more rain failed to thin the crowds of visitors to The Washington Post model home yesterday. Located at 418 Ingraham street northwest, it has pleased many persons who have visited it. Visitors are impressed by the substantial construction and convenient arrangement of this residence, built by B. H. Gruver, and the beauty of its furnishing and decoration by Joseph B. McSherry.

The house will be open daily and Sundays until 9 p. m. To visit it drive out Georgia avenue to Ingraham street, then turn right, or eastwardly, to the home.

THE HECHT CO.
F Street at Seventh



Dr. Scholl's 3 Necessities
$1.00
For the three:
• Foot Powder
• Foot Balm
• Foot Soap
Three soothing, healing adjuncts for home treatment of tired, aching, tender feet and for relief of excessive perspiration.
Main Floor—The Hecht Co.